NEW BAGLEY ROLE?

Nixon Chooses Veneman For No. 2 Spot In HEW

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — California Assemblyman John G. Veneman, R-Modesto, today was nominated by President Nixon as Undersecretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

Selection of the 43-year-old peach farmer and veteran legislator for the number two spot in the mammoth federal department had been expected for weeks, but reportedly was opposed by the Reagan administration because his departure may cost the GOP its one-vote majority in the Assembly.

Veneman's appointment also leaves vacant his seat as chairman of the powerful Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee, and it is expected to be filled by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael. Bagley long has been a close political and personal friend of Veneman and of Veneman's new boss, former California Lt. Governor Robert H. Finch.

JOHN G. VENEMAN
New HEW undersecretary

Assembly Republicans, after 10 years as a minority, won a 41-39 edge in the November elections. Veneman's district has more Democrats than Republicans, and it is considered a toss-up whether his seat will be retained by the Republicans.

However, even if Veneman's seat goes to the Democrats in the special election the governor will have to call, the Republicans probably will hold onto the leadership positions they got when the 1969 session opened. Forty-one votes would be needed by the Democrats to make any changes, and with a 40-40 split they would be most unlikely to find the necessary votes.

A lifelong resident of Stanislaus County, Veneman has been in the Assembly since 1962, and before that served four years as a county supervisor.

Veneman was statewide manager of Finch's 1966 campaign, and he and Bagley campaigned for Nixon last year.

In 1968, the Sacramento Capitol press corps selected Veneman as the most outstanding assemblyman of the year.

Veneman will be joined in Washington by his wife, Nita, and their three children, Ann, 19, John, 17, and Jane, 15.

COMBINED AP & UPI

SANTA BARBARA — The federal government ordered oil drilling halted today in the Santa Barbara Channel, where a huge oil slick from a ruptured undersea well has blackened beaches and harbors.

The order, from Secretary of the Interior Walter J. Hickel in Washington, came as high seas delayed an all-out try to plug the leak with mud.

The oil was spurting at nearly 1,000 gallons an hour with its slick of more than 800 square miles moving toward Los Angeles, roughly 65 miles away, at three miles an hour.

Hickel issued the order in telegrams to firms drilling on federal lands in the channel. Besides Union Oil of California, operator of the leaky well, the firms include Humble, Phillips, Mobil and Texaco.

Hickel said President Nixon and Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell "strongly concurred" with his ruling. He added: "I have directed all of the oil companies involved to reduce their platform operations to a standby condition until it can be shown with some certainty that we are not risking another blowout."

"It has become increasingly clear," he said, "that there is a lack of sufficient knowledge of this particular geological area. This lack leaves us no other reasonable course of action than to halt drilling until Union's ruptured well can be sealed and until the required geological knowledge is secured."

The order does not affect a relief well Union is drilling as part of its effort to stop the flow.

This is the second time in less than a week that Hickel has called a halt to drilling. He permitted resumption yesterday, saying he had been assured by department engineers that continued drilling posed no threat of further leaks.

"Unless the wind shifts, I don't know what can stop it," said William Kerrigan, district manager of the Ventura Port.

By last night, some raw petroleum was reported in Ventura's marina 24 nautical miles south of oil-clogged Santa Barbara Harbor and 50 miles northwest of Los Angeles.

Heaviest concentrations were still around the drilling platform six miles at sea where swells up to 15 feet prevented a 300-man crew from efforts to stop the sea-leak by pumping a mineral mud preparation into the hole.

The Union Oil Co. crews pumped 3,000 barrels of the gooey substances into the hole a few days ago but it didn't do the job. When the sea calms enough, new barge loads will be poured into the fissure 325 feet below the ocean surface.

There was no indication how soon the 11-day-old leak might

AN HOUR TO BURN

Pueblo Fate Spurs Destruction Studies

CORONADO (AP) — It took the capture of the USS Pueblo and some of her secret documents to spur the Navy into "an ongoing effort" to improve emergency destruction and scuttling devices, a Pentagon officer said today.

But Capt. John H. D. Williams, an emergency destruction expert from the office of the chief of Naval Operations, also said the skipper of the Pueblo should have been able to destroy his allotment of secret papers and equipment in an hour.

Testimony before a court of inquiry which heard Williams' time estimate has indicated two hours elapsed between the time North Koreans first threatened to fire on the Pueblo and the time she was boarded en route to Wonsan harbor.

"Which is more important," asked an attorney for the skipper, Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher, ". . . the destruction of classified material which might fall into enemy hands or the protection of human life."

"This is a judgment matter, and the definition of top secret I think should be weighed in this judgment . . . that loss of this material would mean exceptionally grave danger to the nation . . . ", Wilson said.

"I was not proposing a Viking funeral pyre," Williams said. "I was proposing a fire that could be controlled in the spaces . . . the trade off of a gutted compartment against complete destruction is acceptable, sir."

"Did it take a Pueblo-type incident to spur this to fruitation?" asked Vice Adm. Harold G. Bowen.

"There was no ongoing effort until after Pueblo," Williams replied.

Williams recommended "placing a mass of classified material in a compartment of space and dumping gasoline, diesel oil, or alcohol on it and setting fire to it in the space is an acceptable means of destruction." Ship's hand cutters, welding torches and other gear also may be used, he said.

Bucher and several members of his crew have testified that they burned torn up publications and charts in waste baskets, but Lt. Stephen Harris, in charge of most of the ship's registered publications, called the process "painfully slow."

Yesterday the senior oceanographer aboard the Pueblo, a civilian, said one of his assignments was to serve as a cover for the intelligence ship.

In fact, said Dunnie R. Tuck, when the first North Korean gunboat appeared on the day of

Plague, Other Vaccines Are Stolen

Several vials of deadly plague and other vaccines were stolen last night from Permanente Clinic at 1930 Fourth Street, San Rafael, and county health officials fear the serum could cause a painful death to the burglars or anyone else who injected the virus into the blood stream.

Police reported 18 cubic centimeters of the plague vaccine, plus 12 cubic centimeters of typhus, 22 cubic centimeters of tetanus and four cubic centimeters of diphtheria vaccines were taken from a refrigerator in the hospital.

Dr. Marilyn Hicks of the county public health office said the normal dose for plague vaccination is one-half to one cubic centimeter. A cubic centimeter is about one-quarter of a teaspoon. "Even that dosage many times causes vomiting, sore muscles and fever; anyone who took more than the normal dose would have to be out of their minds," said Dr. Hicks.

She expressed the fear that the burglars might take the vaccine, thinking it was a drug that might induce a "high."

Dr. Hicks said that since the virus is dead, there is no danger of an epidemic, and the ill person could not spread the dread disease.

She also said that the vaccine must be injected and if swallowed it would have little effect.

Nixon Reveals Boyhood Wish

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon revealed today that as a youngster he had wanted to be a Boy Scout but his parents couldn't afford it.

He got an honorary membership card today though, as a delegation of 15 scouts and explorers visited the White House to mark the first day of National Boy Scout Week Feb. 7-13.

The scouts told Nixon they are launching a long-range plan—Boy Power '76—to get more American boys interested in scouting and to bring scout programs to disadvantaged youth.

The President said he hopes every youngster, regardless of his financial condition, can get a chance to join.

One Suspect To Aid Kidnap Prosecution

One of the three men accused of kidnaping and robbing restaurant owner Luciano A. Sabella pleaded guilty to a lesser charge yesterday and was expected to testify this afternoon against his two companions.

Walter John Hoefler, 26, of Petaluma was quietly brought from Sonoma County yesterday to be arraigned before Judge Hadden W. Roth and to enter his plea of guilty to lesser charges.

Hoefler, who was sentenced to state prison Friday for a robbery in Petaluma on Dec. 15, pleaded guilty to simple kidnaping, a lesser charge than kidnaping for ransom or reward, the original charge. He also pleaded guilty to second degree robbery for his part in the holdup of the Greenbrae Lanes in Larkspur on Oct. 28.

Hoefler was being held today at San Quentin Prison to keep him apart from his co-defendants, Daniel Thomas Stathos, 22, and Kenneth Lee Harnal, also 22, who are being held in Marin County Jail in lieu of bail.

Hoefler did not appear yesterday at the afternoon criminal calendar in Municipal Court where most arraignments and entries of pleas take place, but was brought before Judge Roth in the morning.

The public and press were barred today from the preliminary hearing for Stathos and Harnal. District Attorney Bruce B. Bales said that Hoefler would be brought to court this afternoon to testify.

UKIAH — A 58-year-old Petaluma truck driver was killed instantly in a dawn crash today on a narrow bridge across McNab Creek about seven miles south of here.

The dead man, Fred Boom of 114 Upham Street, was caught in the cab of his northbound truck on Highway 101 in the two-truck collision, the California Highway Patrol reported.

The accident happened when his truck was struck by the trailer of a southbound lumber truck. The impact sent tons of lumber crashing into the cab of Boom's truck, overturning the truck and crushing its cab, the highway patrol said.

The driver of the lumber truck, Newton Chaffin, 32, of Eureka, was not injured, the highway patrol said.

Chaffin's truck was partially over the center line on the bridge, and there was not enough room for both trucks to pass on the narrow span, officers reported.

College Sets 77-Cent Tax Vote In April

Four-Year Override Try To Speed North Campus

By FRANK FARRARA

There will be a 77-cent tax rate increase for College of Marin on the April 15 ballot, deeply troubled college district trustees decided at a tension-ridden meeting last night.

The final 4-2 vote, at one point a cliff-hanger, came a half-hour before the midnight deadline for getting the controversial override tax on the ballot.

The swing vote for the tax increase came from Board President Theodore C. Wellman, who had not been expected to go for the full 77 cents. Without his yes vote the issue would have been deadlocked, with Trustee Robert E. Oliver absent.

Moore, slapping the board table for emphasis, said "the people just will not vote for it."

Other trustees felt the public should be made aware of the need for both operating and building funds and then have their say.

"This is an issue we let the people decide," said Trustee Charles W. Gray.

Shunted aside during a three-hour discussion was an idea that the board could go for a lesser tax hike April 15 to cover immediate operating costs and then call a bond election before the end of the year for long range financing.

The revenue from the proposed tax rate hike would be used both for operating expenses at the Kentfield campus and building at the Novato campus, planned to open in the fall of 1972.

The district's current total tax rate is 82.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation consisting of 35 cents for operation, a 35-cent override for capital expenditures and 12.5 cents in overrides for fringe benefits, adult education and community services.

Trustees had a choice of withdrawing the election call, modifying the amount of the tax hike or standing by the 77-cent figure.

There was no move to withdraw in the face of a recommendation Tuesday by the staff of the California Coordinating Council for Higher Education that there

J. B. Gilbert Takes State Water Post

Jerome B. Gilbert, general manager and chief engineer of the North Marin County Water District, was named executive officer of the California Water Resources Control Board yesterday.

The key state executive job in water pollution and water rights activities includes both inland waters and coastal waters extending out to three miles.

Gilbert, who has been in his present post 10 years, will assist the North Marin County Water District through June. He has informed the district of his plans but his resignation will be taken up formally at the Feb. 18 board meeting, Eugene S. Churchill, auditor, reported.

Gilbert's new salary will be $23,173 a year. He now earns $21,000 with the North Marin County Water District.

Mulligan will become chairman of the state Water Resource Control Board.

Moore, slapping the board table for emphasis, said "the people just will not vote for it."

Other trustees felt the public should be made aware of the need for both operating and building funds and then have their say.

"This is an issue we let the people decide," said Trustee Charles W. Gray.

Shunted aside during a three-hour discussion was an idea that the board could go for a lesser tax hike April 15 to cover immediate operating costs and then call a bond election before the end of the year for long range financing.

The revenue from the proposed tax rate hike would be used both for operating expenses at the Kentfield campus and building at the Novato campus, planned to open in the fall of 1972.

The district's current total tax rate is 82.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation consisting of 35 cents for operation, a 35-cent override for capital expenditures and 12.5 cents in overrides for fringe benefits, adult education and community services.

Trustees had a choice of withdrawing the election call, modifying the amount of the tax hike or standing by the 77-cent figure.

There was no move to withdraw in the face of a recommendation Tuesday by the staff of the California Coordinating Council for Higher Education that there

JEROME B. GILBERT
Leaving Marin job

J. B. Gilbert Takes State Water Post

Jerome B. Gilbert, general manager and chief engineer of the North Marin County Water District, was named executive officer of the California Water Resources Control Board yesterday.

The key state executive job in water pollution and water rights activities includes both inland waters and coastal waters extending out to three miles.

Gilbert, who has been in his present post 10 years, will assist the North Marin County Water District through June. He has informed the district of his plans but his resignation will be taken up formally at the Feb. 18 board meeting, Eugene S. Churchill, auditor, reported.

Gilbert's new salary will be $23,173 a year. He now earns $21,000 with the North Marin County Water District.

Mulligan will become chairman of the state Water Resource Control Board.

Javits Submits Bill For Draft Lottery

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Legislation calling for a lottery system for selecting draftees — and specifying that 19-year-olds would be called first —was proposed today by Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N. Y.

Javits also called for a thorough study of an all-volunteer Army but indicated he is not as enthusiastic about the possibility of eliminating the draft as is President Nixon.

Saigon Tightens Security Watch

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese forces tightened security around Saigon and Da Nang today as part of the campaign to prevent a repetition of last year's Communist Tet offensive.

Security forces stopped hundreds of vehicles at checkpoints along key highways leading into Saigon, searching for hidden arms and munitions that could support an attack on the capital.

Outside Da Nang, the country's second largest city, Route Nationale One and another key highway south of the city were sealed off from the countryside to prevent infiltration of enemy troops.

U.S. and South Vietnamese forces also cordoned off the marble mountain area south of Da Nang and were conducting an extensive search operation.

The Viet Cong has proclaimed a cease-fire from Feb. 15 to Feb. 22 for Tet, the lunar new year feast during which last year the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese attacked Saigon, Da Nang and 100 other population centers. South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu said last night his government was ready "in principle" to declare a Tet truce, but he was not ready to announce the dates. It is expected to be much shorter than the Viet Cong truce, and Thieu has canceled the holiday leaves that usually are given at least half the South Vietnamese forces.

South Vietnamese Rangers on a clearing operation 15 miles southwest of Da Nang report that the Viet Cong are using loudspeakers to propagandize their cease-fire, saying South Vietnamese soldiers who leave their weapons behind will be welcome when they come to visit their families in villages controlled by the Viet Cong.

Ground action remained at a very low level. U.S. troops from the 9th Infantry Division fought with a Viet Cong force 15 miles southwest of Saigon last night and reported finding 14 enemy bodies at dawn.

No U.S. casualties were reported.

South Vietnamese headquarters said 34 enemy soldiers were killed in a series of clashes in the Mekong Delta. No government losses were reported.

$250,000 Home

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson plan to build a $250,000 home on a sylvan 19-acre lot they own in Austin, Tex., their friends said today.

The Johnsons were expected to build on a beautiful wooded plot near the $70,000 pink brick one-story home of their daughter Luci Nugent in a fashionable section of Austin.

The johnson's architect is Max Brooks, one of a trio who designed the Lyndon B. Johnson Library and School of Public Service at the University of Texas.

Huks Trap Set

MANILA (UPI)—About 15 Communist Huk guerrillas ambushed a Philippine government force today about 70 miles northeast of Manila, killing two soldiers and wounding six others. Government military officials said the raid appeared to be a reprisal for the killing of a key Huk commander in a battle Jan. 9.

No Jewish Spies

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Iraq's president says no more Jews are awaiting trial on spy charges in Baghdad, the Egyptian Middle East News Agency reported today.

The agency said President Ahmad Hassan el Bakr told a news conference yesterday that all those facing spy charges are Iraqi Moslems.

Storm Deaths

Japan's Maritime Safety Agency said 84 persons were dead or missing in the sinking or grounding of 10 ships off Japan and Formosa and in the crash of a U.S. Air Force rescue plane near Formosa.

Seventeen other persons were missing and five bodies were recovered after three motorboats capsized in rough seas about 100 miles northeast of Manila yesterday. Seven survivors were rescued.

10 Rail Deaths

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Railway officials tonight said 10 passengers were killed today when the Sydney-Melbourne streamliner express roared into a freight train and burst into flames 104 miles northeast of Melbourne.

Railway officials told police earlier they feared as many as 20 passengers might have been trapped in one sleeping car that was telescoped and burned, and a total of 28 might be dead. But a 12-hour search of the wreckage produced no more bodies, and people earlier reported missing were calling in to police throughout the day. Officials said they believed the final toll was 10 dead.

DOWN WITH PROTESTS

He Swallows 210 Goldfish

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A 19-year-old college student from Texas has managed to make his mark without picketing, protesting, sitting in or shouting slogans. He simply swallowed a lot of goldfish — 210 of them to be exact.

While many of his colleagues at colleges and universities from coast to coast were demonstrating for a variety of causes, Charles Winfield put on his own exhibition yesterday.

During an hour and 40-minute period, Winfield, a sophomore at St. Mary's University in San Antonio, swallowed one after another of the live fish while about 200 cheering students and faculty members looked on.

University officials — probably relieved at not being asked to relinquish control of the school — claimed his feat was a world's record. They said the previous record was 199, set in 1966 by a student at St. Francis College in Philadelphia.

Winfield, a native of Pharr, Tex., said he practiced for some time for his feat. "I ate a lot," he said, "and tried not to think about it."

Hayakawa Offers To Rehire 199 Strikers; Deadline Set Monday

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — If they apply by Monday, San Francisco State College's acting president is offering to rehire the 199 striking teachers who have lost their jobs because of state law.

S. I. Hayakawa, speaking yesterday at a news conference, said the AFL-CIO American Federation of Teachers members have lost their positions because they were absent from duty five days without excuses.

He urged them to apply for rehiring at the same pay and in the same positions for the spring term which begins Feb. 17.

"We have felt all along that this provision (the educational code law on terminations) operates punitively," he continued. "Yet, we cannot, as public officials, refuse to carry out legal requirements."

Hayakawa also suggested that the striking teachers apply to the state Personnel Board for full reinstatement since rehiring alone would not reinstate tenure or accumulated sabbatical leave time.

Led by the Black Students Union, students struck the school Nov. 6 demanding a school of ethnic studies and admission of all Negroes regardless of academic qualifications.

Teachers struck in support of demands for more pay, better working conditions and support for the student walkout.

No immediate reaction to Hayakawa's suggestions came from the union which went into conference with its lawyers.

Pupils Rescued

BELGRADE (UPI)—A group of 30 schoolchildren was reported safe and well today following their rescue from the southern Yugoslav mountain wilderness after being trapped for four days in a blizzard. Doctors said eight of the youngsters had been treated for mild cases of frostbite.

Delivery Is Assured Of Delayed Mail

WASHINGTON (AP) —Nearly 3.5 million pounds of mail aboard 45 ships tied up by the waterfront strike in New York will be unloaded by military personnel next week, the Post Office Department announced yesterday.

A department spokesman agreement was reached with the International Longshoreman's Association and the Defense Department to begin unloading operations on Monday.

In apparent criticism of the Johnson administration, Postmaster Gen. Winton M. Blount commented: "The action that we are taking today should have been taken before last Christmas."

The mail has accumulated since the strike—which covered all Atlantic and Gulf Coast ports — began Dec. 20.

The spokesman said the Defense Department was called in to assist with the massive unloading operations because it had both manpower and equipment to complete the task.

Witness Links Shaw To Oswald, Ferrie

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A one-time civil rights worker told the jury at Clay L. Shaw's conspiracy trial he saw Shaw, Lee Harvey Oswald and David W. Ferrie together.

The testimony by Corrie C. Collins of Baton Rouge was the highlight of opening testimony yesterday as the prosecution hammered at a major defense position.

Over defense objections, Asst. Dist. Atty. James L. Alcock made no attempt to first lay the foundation for the charge. Instead, he opened the case by summoning five surprise witnesses.

Collins, the fifth to testify, insisted he saw Shaw, Oswald and Ferrie in Clinton, La., in "late August, or early September" of 1963.

Shortly before, in his opening statement, chief defense Lawyer F. Irvin Dymond had told the criminal district court jury that:

"It is our intention to prove to you that not only did Clay Shaw not engage in conspiracy, but that he never knew nor laid eyes on either Oswald or Ferrie."

Oswald, a former New Orleans resident, was named Kennedy's killer by the Warren Commission. The report said he operated alone, with no credible evidence of a conspiracy."

In opening, Dist Atty. Jim Garrison told the jury the state would show the President "was struck by a number of bullets coming from different guns at different locations—thus showing that more than one person was shooting at the President."

The 6-foot-6 district attorney thus served notice that the Warren Report would be, in effect, a codefendant. Dymond reacted sharply.

"We are not here to defend the findings of the Warren Report," he told the jury. "I implore you, do not let the drama and pagentry of what happened in Dealey Plaza in Dallas obscure the real issues in this case."

Jack Ruby killed Oswald two days after the Nov. 22, 1963, assassination—shooting him inside police headquarters. Ferrie died in his apartment in New Orleans in 1967. The coroner said death was due to natural causes.

Athletes Win Status Quo On Low Grades

Marin Junior College District trustees last night postponed action on the proposal after Cal Riemcke, basketball coach, said it would have an adverse effect on athletic eligibility.

At present a D student is eligible to compete, but under the new plan there would be no D, just A, B, C or no credit for the course.

Riemcke said this would put college teams at a disadvantage in competing with schools which didn't have these standards.

Trustee Harry J. Moore opposed a system that proved "an inequity to one department" and to students in athletic competition.

Acting President Louis H. Herkenhoff said the intent was to eliminate grading as a punitive measure, and the negative approach in grading. If a student's work was poor, he wouldn't get credit and would lose nothing but time, he said. It wouldn't count against his grade average, he explained.

Dave Brown, president of Associated Students, said eliminating the D and F grades would be "a step forward in education and much better for students."

Trustees also hired Eva M. Turner, who has been filling the post part-time, as full time community liaison coordinator to aid minority students, at a salary of $505 a month, effective Monday.

The Black Students Union had requested that her post be full-time. Last night Del Mar of the BSU contended the salary should be retroactive to when Mrs. Turner started because of the long hours she put in at the job.

Trustees noted that the salary was higher than the $458 a month originally recommended for the job, and that it would be reviewed at budget time.

Vandals Busy At Terra Linda High

Extensive vandalism in the Terra Linda High School administration building has been reported to police by the school's custodian.

Police said the main office, the student store and the crafts room had been entered and ransacked. Doors to the building and rooms were pried open, police said.

Reported missing Wednesday was 50 cents from the store and an undetermined amount of change from a vending machine.

Parking Meter Revenues Off

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Revenues from parking meters are decreasing, partly because more of them are being jammed, the Parking Authority heard yesterday.

City engineer Robert C. Levy said 6,500 of the city's 13,000 meters are jammed each month. In 1965, he continued, only 2,600 were jammed in a month.

The authority voted to ask support for hiring 29 additional meter maids.

Reagan's U.C. Edict Hit; Daily Demands Shutdown

BERKELEY (UPI) — Gov. Ronald Reagan's declaration that the University of California's Berkeley campus is in a state of "extreme emergency" has drawn bitter response from a variety of student spokesmen.

"Our idiot governor declared a state of extreme emergency and immediately there was one," an editorial in yesterdays edition of the Daily Cal said. The student paper called for a shutting down of the university in order to talk over problems calmly.

The student senate also voted 10-1 for a closure of the school for a two-day convocation to discuss strike demands by the Third World Liberation Front, spearhead group of the 16-day-old strike to press for an autonomous college of ethnic studies.

Student body president Charles Palmer told a news conference that minority students had been "lied to, deceived and received resistance all the way."

Fernando Garcia, third world spokesman, saw Reagan's declaration as "an attempt to mobilize the reactionary forces in the state."

The campus itself was calm as more than 150 riot equipped police calmly watched about 450 strikers first picket outside Sather Gate and then march around campus Thursday.

There was no violence, no vandalism and only one arrest.

The big force of police included highway patrolmen authorized by Reagan in his emergency declaration Wednesday in the wake of Tuesday's campus violence that produced two dozen injuries and 20 arrests.

Athletes Win Status Quo On Low Grades

Marin Junior College District trustees last night postponed action on the proposal after Cal Riemcke, basketball coach, said it would have an adverse effect on athletic eligibility.

At present a D student is eligible to compete, but under the new plan there would be no D, just A, B, C or no credit for the course.

Riemcke said this would put college teams at a disadvantage in competing with schools which didn't have these standards.

Trustee Harry J. Moore opposed a system that proved "an inequity to one department" and to students in athletic competition.

Acting President Louis H. Herkenhoff said the intent was to eliminate grading as a punitive measure, and the negative approach in grading. If a student's work was poor, he wouldn't get credit and would lose nothing but time, he said. It wouldn't count against his grade average, he explained.

Harbin Springs Commune Told To Clear Out

I-J Special Report

HARBIN SPRINGS — About 50 persons remaining at the Frontiers of Science commune at this former resort in Lake County have been ordered to leave because of health and building code violations.

Dist. Atty. David Luce said yesterday that the Sandy Estate Co. of San Francisco, owner of the 1,080-acre property, planned to begin eviction proceedings. Last week, William Arnone, assistant Lake County health inspector, served the commune's inhabitants with an order to clean and repair the quarters or vacate.

The commune was quarantined briefly two weeks ago when a resident was detected to be suffering from infectious hepatitis. Frontiers of Science formerly was headquartered in San Rafael.

capture he began lowering water-testing bottles over the side "to show the North Koreans why we were there."

But when the Koreans began firing, the ship's skipper, Cmdr. Lloyd Bucher, shouted: "Friar Tuck, get that damned gear up here. I'm leaving."

Tuck, 31, of Richmond, Va., told a Navy court of inquiry yesterday that making hydrographic tests—obtaining samples of ocean water for analysis—was one of the main parts of his assignment. But, said Tuck, his orders were to handle his work "on a not-to-interfere basis" with the main surveillance mission of the ship, which Bucher has described as watching Soviet vessels and North Korean radar.

"It was one of my missions to serve as cover for the ship, to show that it was an oceanographic ship," he added.

Meeting Sought On Slide Worry

The Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club last night voted to call Supervisor Michael Wornum and the public works department to express its worry over a recent slide on a rock cut at Tamalpais Junction. The homes above the cut may be in jeopardy because of the slide, president Charles H. Norton Jr. said.

The club named Bernard Healey director of the 1969 Rhubarb Revue, which will open April 25.

The club reviewed the parks and recreation master plan developed by the Tamalpais Valley Community Services District.

Condemnation Case Trial Set

The state condemnation suit to add the 15-acre Muir Beach to the state park system will come to trial March 17 in Marin Superior Court.

About June 1967, an anonymous woman donor offered $125,000 as a gift to the state to purchase Muir Beach, which was valued at the time at about $250,000.

Because of differences in various appraislas and failure to agree on a price, the case was taken to court.

be plugged, a company spokesman said. Union Oil, one of several companies with federal leases to drill the offshore wells, also hoped to reach the ruptured formation by early next week with a slant well to relieve pressure.

Along the normally white sandy beaches, for more than 12 miles soaked a half-inch or more with oil, 500 men worked with log booms, straw and chemicals absorbents to hold back the oil and save the rich tourist business.

In Los Angeles, Deputy Atty. Gen. Charles O'Brien said California would seek a court order forcing Hickel to control oil drilling.

In Sacramento, Calif., Gov. Ronald Reagan said he wants U.S. offshore drilling regulations stiffened to match more stringent California regulations governing wells inside the three-mile limit.

Conservationists said birds by the thousands had been affected by the oil and that many seeking fish had plunged to their deaths through the inch-thick oil.

The latest official count of oil-soaked seabirds found on shore was 151 dead or dying out of 427 treated at several centers.

"We have a real killer on our hands," said Dr. Robert F. Dill, chairman of the State Advisory Board for Underwater Parks and reservoirs.

Mill Valley Eyes Racial Problem

The commission asked the committee's help in functioning as a sounding board for community human relations problems.

Problems discussed were in five areas, according to chairman Charles P. Guichard: minority group employment in Mill Valley, housing availability to racial minorities, education, police-community relations, and racial attitudes.

Each area will be discussed at a commission meeting set for 8 p.m. Feb. 27, Guichard said, and standing committees may be appointed in each area to deal with problems as they arise.

Water Hemlock Victim On Mend

Wayne Paul Breiding, 14, who ate poisonous water hemlock last week, was reported improved and in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Although he was taken off the serious list, he is still in the intensive care unit where he has been since becoming ill last week after eating the herbs during an outing at Samuel P. Taylor State Park.

His older brother, Michael Breiding, 15, was removed from intensive care two days ago. Two other brothers, William Mark, 13, and Sutton, 17, who also became ill from eating the hemlock, were released from the hospital last week.

Camera Stolen

A camera was stolen Tuesday from a car belonging to A. C. Dawlin of 30 Madera Drive, Corte Madera, while the car was parked at Vista Point at the north end of Golden Gate Bridge, according to the sheriff's department.

Poverty War Committees Given Tasks

Marin Economic Opportunity Council directors have established five standing committees and appointed a nominating committee to prepare for the election of new officers in March.

Committee chairmen named Tuesday were:

Gilbert Medeiros of San Rafael, personnel; Adelaide Wilson of Fairfax, budget and finance; Robert Simmons of Corte Madera, outside resources (funds and services); Richard Mermin of Tiburon, public relations, and Eloise Brown of Marin City, planning and program.

A nominating committee, headed by John V. Holm, will prepare a slate of new officers for the coming program year, April through March.

Directors decided that meeting of the board will be held the first Wednesday of each month, at 8 p.m., in the Courthouse in San Rafael.

Victor H. Carey, executive director, reported that an all-day public hearing will be held on March 1, probably at the Courthouse, to acquaint the people with the various programs administered by the EOC, such as the youth, senior citizens, and legal aid programs.

The total EOC budget for the 1969-70 program year is expected to be about $174,000, said Carey.

Clausen Named To Committee

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — Rep. Don Clausen, R-First District, newly appointed to the House Interior and Insular Affairs Committee, has been assigned to its subcommittee on irrigation and reclamation, national parks and recreation, and public lands.

Clausen, in a press release announcing his appointments, said they "dovetail with many of our district problems on which I am now working — the Redwood National Park, Point Reyes National Seashore, water conservation and the millions of acres of public lands in Northern California.

Clausen retained his position on the House Committee on Public Works and on the subcommittees on flood control, rivers and harbors and roads, highway program, and economic development.

Course Continues

Alto volunteer firemen Wednesday night voted to continue their emergency health care course for firemen for one more month, Chief Carl O. Heynen Jr. reported. Firemen have completed the first aid section and now will study childbirth, emergency care of radiation effects and how to maintain good health in a continuing emergency, he said.

COLLEGE

Administrators, students and faculty recommended the 77-cent tax hike to avoid cuts in the educational program or limiting of enrollment.

Board President Theodore C. Wellman said if the district called for a lesser levy in April, "possibly a bond election would succeed at a later date."

Harry Gilbert, vice president of Associated Students, said if voters approved an override in April and the district came back about nine months later for bond funds voters might "think the College of Marin is out to soak the taxpayer dry."

One resident commented that if the college needs 77 cents to "do the job" it should go for the full 77 cents, and if voters are against a proposal they would reject it, even if it were for a lesser amount.

Moore advocated a lesser tax hike over a longer period, "50 cents for five or six years, I'll buy that."

Felt suggested a sliding tax rate that would be less in the earlier year and increase in the later years, eventually to be supplanted by bond funds.

Planning Director Dale A. Fleming noted that a lesser tax increase could delay "some elements" of construction at the Novato campus for two to three years and reduce the district's ability to match state construction funds.

Acting President Louis H. Herkenhoff reminded the board that the current 35-cent override for capital expenditures ends in June, 1972.

The board was only 30 minutes from its midnight deadline for calling the election when Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy moved to adopt the 77-cent proposal.

Felt immediately took issue with the rate, claiming it was unfair and "unconscionable" to ask the voters "to build $20 million worth of buildings in four years."

Mrs. Deedy admitted it would be "a tremendous hardship on everyone," but contended there wasn't a better investment than education, and "we should give people a chance to say if they'll go the whole way."

Moore felt the board was throwing away its chance to win needed operating funds for the next school year, by going for the 77-cent tax hike.

"Let's face it, taxes are not popular," he said.

"We all know this will be a terrific blow to the taxpayers," said Trustee Robert E. Rogers. "We have to let them know the college is of utmost importance."

If everyone, students, faculty, administrators, work together "77 cents is not an impossiblity, he said.

There was some tension when the vote reached 3-2 and the roll call came to Wellman, who earlier had talked of a modest tax increase.

If he had voted in that direction, the board would have deadlocked.

Then he voted for the 77-cent hike, saying that because of increasing enrollment and increasing construction costs the district "is going to have to move more quickly."

If thet ax hike is defeated, the district will have to make cuts and make other plans for financing, he said. "The second effort might be a bond issue."

OBITUARIES

Kathleen M. Pullen Dies At 51

Kathleen M. Pullen, 51, a psychiatric social worker at the Family Service Agency of Marin County, died yesterday in an Oakland hospital following a brief illness.

A native of North Dakota, she was a graduate of the University of California in Berkeley, a woman Marine in World War II, and had taught in private seminars in the Bay Area.

She was a member of the National Association of Social Workers and the National Association of Family Therapists, and was termed one of Marin's outstanding family therapists.

She came to California in 1946 and resided in Oakland. She suffered a brain hemorrhage about a week ago and had been in the hospital since that time.

She is survived by three sons, Richard, 18, Larry, 15, and Keith Pullen, 13. The East Bay Funeral Association is selecting a mortuary. Funeral arrangements are pending.

WILLIAM STEWART

Private funeral for William James Stewart, 52, of Corte Madera, who died Sunday in a local hospital after a long illness, was held Monday.

Stewart, of 14 Prospect Lane, was a native of California and had lived in Marin eight years. He had been operations manager at the Oakland Container Terminal for 34 years.

He is survived by his wife, Llewellyn Stewart; a daughter, Sally Ann Stewart of Fresno; his mother, Mrs. Isabella Stewart of San Rafael, and three sisters, Mrs. Betty Dickman and Mrs. Barbara Spence, both of Oakland, and Mrs. Jean Crotty of San Rafael.

THELMA DIXON

Thelma Pollyanna Dixon, 48, of 27 Burlingame Drive, Petaluma, a former bank teller, died yesterday at a local hospital after a long illness.

Born in Kansas, Mrs. Dixon moved to San Francisco in 1939 and to Petaluma in 1948. She had been employed by the Wells Fargo Bank and by Montgomery Ward Co.

Mrs. Dixon was a member of the First Baptist Church of Petaluma and took an interest in the Sunday school, youth and women's groups. She was the wife of Gene F. Dixon, a mechanic at the Hunter's Point Shipyard.

She is also survived by two sons, Lawrence Dixon of San Anselmo, and Timothy Dixon of Santa Rosa; a daughter, Diane Speakman of Crestline, San Bernardino County; her mother, Mrs. Ruth Terhuns of Collinsville, Kan.; two brothers, Thomas Terhune, also of Collinsville, and Leonard Wertz of Las Vegas, and two sisters, Aileen Ware of Oregon and Phyllis Smith of Parsons, Kan.

Funeral will be at 2 p.m. Monday at the Parent Funeral Chapel, Petaluma. Burial will be at Cypress Hill Memorial Park.

LESTOR SECOR

Lester F. Secor, 81, a founder of the original Sausalito Yacht Club and father of a former Mill Valley city councilman, died yesterday in a local convalescent home after a long illness.

A native of California, he resided in San Francisco and was owner of the Guaranty Typewriter Co. there. He and others founded the yacht club in Sausalito about 50 years ago, but it ceased operations during the depression era and was not connected with the present Sausalito Yacht Club.

Secor was a member of the Vallejo Yacht Club, past chairman of the San Francisco Office Machine Dealers Association, a past toparch (president) of the San Francisco Pyramid No. 1 AEO Sciots, and a 50-year member of the Masonic Park Lodge 449.

He had been in the convalescent home one month. His son, William M. Secor, served on the Mill Valley City Council for four years until 1966.

Survivors besides the son are a daughter, Mrs. Beverlie Wenig of Tiburon; a sister, Mrs. Ethel Royer, San Francisco, and four grandchildren.

Funeral will be at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at Maneely Matthews Chapel in San Francisco. Inurnment is pending.

LEWIS CARLESON

Retired Air Force CWO Lewis H. Carleson, 63, of 702 Del Mar, Novato, died yesterday in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness.

Born in Amarillo, Tex., Carleson served 12 years in the Army cavalry before enlisting in the Army Air Corps in 1943. Besides World War II, Carleson also served in the Korean War.

He retired from the Air Force in 1961 at Hamilton Air Force Base. He sold real estate and then became a bartender until ill health forced his retirement.

Carleson was a member of Hamilton Lodge 751, Free and Accepted Masons; Marin Sciots' Scottish Rite of Santa Rosa, Islam Temple of the Shrine in San Francisco, the Novato chapter of the Order of Eastern Star and Bartenders and Cullinary Workers Local 126.

He is survived by his wife, Golda; a daughter, Mrs. Robert O. Blackwell of Novato; two granddaughters and six great-grandchildren.

Masonic services will be at 1 p.m. tomorrow at the Redwood Chapel Funeral Home in Novato. Military burial will follow at Marin Memorial Gardens in Novato.

MRS. RAGAN

Funeral for Mrs. Jeannine M. Ragan of San Rafael will be at 11 a.m. Monday at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

Mrs. Ragan, 40, died Wednesday in a Palo Alto hospital after a long illness.

A native of Indianola, Okla., she had lived in Marin the past 14 years. She resided at 41 Brookdale Avenue.

She was a member of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Davidson and Coleman schools and of the Volunteers of Sunny Hills, San Anselmo.

She is survived by her husband, Hollis, a teamster; three children, Elaine, 15, Karen, 14, and Denise, 12, all at home, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Q. Hodge of McAlester, Okla.

MRS. VINCENT

Mrs. Charolotte J. Vincent, 47, of 860 Penny Royal Lane, Terra Linda, died yesterday in a San Mateo County hospital after a short illness.

She was the wife of retired Army Lt. Col. Howard Vincent, now a contract adviser for General Dynamics Corp. in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Vincent, a native of Hyannis, Neb., lived in Marin for 15 years. She belonged to the Christ Presbyterian Church in Terra Linda.

Survivors, beside her husband, are two sons, Charles P. and Thomas Vincent, both of San Rafael, and her mother, Mrs. Helen J. Gabril of Grand Island, Neb.

Memorial services will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday at Christ Presbyterian Church. The family prefers contributions to the Heart Fund.

Harbin Springs Commune Told To Clear Out

I-J Special Report

HARBIN SPRINGS — About 50 persons remaining at the Frontiers of Science commune at this former resort in Lake County have been ordered to leave because of health and building code violations.

Dist. Atty. David Luce said yesterday that the Sandy Estate Co. of San Francisco, owner of the 1,080-acre property, planned to begin eviction proceedings. Last week, William Arnone, assistant Lake County health inspector, served the commune's inhabitants with an order to clean and repair the quarters or vacate.

The commune was quarantined briefly two weeks ago when a resident was detected to be suffering from infectious hepatitis. Frontiers of Science formerly was headquartered in San Rafael.

capture he began lowering water-testing bottles over the side "to show the North Koreans why we were there."

But when the Koreans began firing, the ship's skipper, Cmdr. Lloyd Bucher, shouted: "Friar Tuck, get that damned gear up here. I'm leaving."

Tuck, 31, of Richmond, Va., told a Navy court of inquiry yesterday that making hydrographic tests—obtaining samples of ocean water for analysis—was one of the main parts of his assignment. But, said Tuck, his orders were to handle his work "on a not-to-interfere basis" with the main surveillance mission of the ship, which Bucher has described as watching Soviet vessels and North Korean radar.

"It was one of my missions to serve as cover for the ship, to show that it was an oceanographic ship," he added.

Meeting Sought On Slide Worry

The Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club last night voted to call Supervisor Michael Wornum and the public works department to express its worry over a recent slide on a rock cut at Tamalpais Junction. The homes above the cut may be in jeopardy because of the slide, president Charles H. Norton Jr. said.

The club named Bernard Healey director of the 1969 Rhubarb Revue, which will open April 25.

The club reviewed the parks and recreation master plan developed by the Tamalpais Valley Community Services District.

Condemnation Case Trial Set

The state condemnation suit to add the 15-acre Muir Beach to the state park system will come to trial March 17 in Marin Superior Court.

About June 1967, an anonymous woman donor offered $125,000 as a gift to the state to purchase Muir Beach, which was valued at the time at about $250,000.

Because of differences in various appraislas and failure to agree on a price, the case was taken to court.

Pleads Innocent

Bruce Gustave Bonniver, 24, of Sausalito pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to a charge of possessing marijuana Dec. 14 in Sausalito. Preliminary hearing was scheduled for 2 p.m. Feb. 20.

OIL

be plugged, a company spokesman said. Union Oil, one of several companies with federal leases to drill the offshore weils, also hoped to reach the ruptured formation by early next week with a slant well to relieve pressure.

Along the normally white sandy beaches, for more than 12 miles soaked a half-inch or more with oil, 500 men worked with log booms, straw and chemicals absorbents to hold back the oil and save the rich tourist business.

In Los Angeles, Deputy Atty. Gen. Charles O'Brien said California would seek a court order forcing Hickel to control oil drilling.

In Sacramento, Calif., Gov. Ronald Reagan said he wants U.S. offshore drilling regulations stiffened to match more stringent California regulations governing wells inside the three-mile limit.

Conservationists said birds by the thousands had been affected by the oil and that many seeking fish had plunged to their deaths through the inch-thick oil.

The latest official count of oil-soaked seabirds found on shore was 151 dead or dying out of 427 treated at several centers.

"We have a real killer on our hands," said Dr. Robert F. Dill, chairman of the State Advisory Board for Underwater Parks and reservoirs.

Mill Valley Eyes Racial Problem

The commission asked the committee's help in functioning as a sounding board for community human relations problems.

Problems discussed were in five areas, according to chairman Charles P. Guichard: minority group employment in Mill Valley, housing availability to racial minorities, education, police-community relations, and racial attitudes.

Each area will be discussed at a commission meeting set for 8 p.m. Feb. 27, Guichard said, and standing committees may be appointed in each area to deal with problems as they arise.

Water Hemlock Victim On Mend

Wayne Paul Breiding, 14, who ate poisonous water hemlock last week, was reported improved and in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Although he was taken off the serious list, he is still in the intensive care unit where he has been since becoming ill last week after eating the herbs during an outing at Samuel P. Taylor State Park.

His older brother, Michael Breiding, 15, was removed from intensive care two days ago. Two other brothers, William Mark, 13, and Sutton, 17, who also became ill from eating the hemlock, were released from the hospital last week.

Camera Stolen

A camera was stolen Tuesday from a car belonging to A. C. Dawlin of 30 Madera Drive, Corte Madera, while the car was parked at Vista Point at the north end of Golden Gate Bridge, according to the sheriff's department.

Poverty War Committees Given Tasks

Marin Economic Opportunity Council directors have established five standing committees and appointed a nominating committee to prepare for the election of new officers in March.

Committee chairmen named Tuesday were:

Gilbert Medeiros of San Rafael, personnel; Adelaide Wilson of Fairfax, budget and finance; Robert Simmons of Corte Madera, outside resources (funds and services); Richard Mermin of Tiburon, public relations, and Eloise Brown of Marin City, planning and program.

A nominating committee, headed by John V. Holm, will prepare a slate of new officers for the coming program year, April through March.

Directors decided that meeting of the board will be held the first Wednesday of each month, at 8 p.m., in the Courthouse in San Rafael.

Victor H. Carey, executive director, reported that an all-day public hearing will be held on March 1, probably at the Courthouse, to acquaint the people with the various programs administered by the EOC, such as the youth, senior citizens, and legal aid programs.

The total EOC budget for the 1969-70 program year is expected to be about $174,000, said Carey.

early this morning. The burglars apparently entered by breaking a window and removing a screen, she told police.

Morphine and other hard narcotics are kept in a safe, which was not touched, she said.

Nurse Newman said the bottles were about two inches high and clearly marked plague vaccines. They are used for vaccinations for persons traveling overseas.

Clausen Named To Committee

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — Rep. Don Clausen, R-First District, newly appointed to the House Interior and Insular Affairs Committee, has been assigned to its subcommittee on irrigation and reclamation, national parks and recreation, and public lands.

Clausen, in a press release announcing his appointments, said they "dovetail with many of our district problems on which I am now working — the Redwood National Park, Point Reyes National Seashore, water conservation and the millions of acres of public lands in Northern California.

Clausen retained his position on the House Committee on Public Works and on the subcommittees on flood control, rivers and harbors and roads, highway program, and economic development.

Course Continues

Alto volunteer firemen Wednesday night voted to continue their emergency health care course for firemen for one more month, Chief Carl O. Heynen Jr. reported. Firemen have completed the first aid section and now will study childbirth, emergency care of radiation effects and how to maintain good health in a continuing emergency, he said.

Administrators, students and faculty recommended the 77-cent tax hike to avoid cuts in the educational program or limiting of enrollment.

Board President Theodore C. Wellman said if the district called for a lesser levy in April, "possibly a bond election would succeed at a later date."

Harry Gilbert, vice president of Associated Students, said if voters approved an override in April and the district came back about nine months later for bond funds voters might "think the College of Marin is out to soak the taxpayer dry."

One resident commented that if the college needs 77 cents to "do the job" it should go for the full 77 cents, and if voters are against a proposal they would reject it, even if it were for a lesser amount.

Moore advocated a lesser tax hike over a longer period, "50 cents for five or six years, I'll buy that."

Felt suggested a sliding tax rate that would be less in the earlier year and increase in the later years, eventually to be supplanted by bond funds.

Planning Director Dale A. Fleming noted that a lesser tax increase could delay "some elements" of construction at the Novato campus for two to three years and reduce the district's ability to match state construction funds.

Acting President Louis H. Herkenhoff reminded the board that the current 35-cent override for capital expenditures ends in June, 1972.

The board was only 30 minutes from its midnight deadline for calling the election when Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy moved to adopt the 77-cent proposal.

Felt immediately took issue with the rate, claiming it was unfair and "unconscionable" to ask the voters "to build $20 million worth of buildings in four years."

Mrs. Deedy admitted it would be "a tremendous hardship on everyone," but contended there wasn't a better investment than education, and "we should give people a chance to say if they'll go the whole way."

Moore felt the board was throwing away its chance to win needed operating funds for the next school year, by going for the 77-cent tax hike.

"Let's face it, taxes are not popular," he said.

"We all know this will be a terrific blow to the taxpayers," said Trustee Robert E. Rogers. "We have to let them know the college is of utmost importance."

If everyone, students, faculty, administrators, work together "77 cents is not an impossiblity, he said.

There was some tension when the vote reached 3-2 and the roll call came to Wellman, who earlier had talked of a modest tax increase.

If he had voted in that direction, the board would have deadlocked.

Then he voted for the 77-cent hike, saying that because of increasing enrollment and increasing construction costs the district "is going to have to move more quickly."

If thet ax hike is defeated, the district will have to make cuts and make other plans for financing, he said. "The second effort might be a bond issue."

He is survived by his wife, Llewellyn Stewart; a daughter, Sally Ann Stewart of Fresno; his mother, Mrs. Isabella Stewart of San Rafael, and three sisters, Mrs. Betty Dickman and Mrs. Barbara Spence, both of Oakland, and Mrs. Jean Crotty of San Rafael.

THELMA DIXON

Thelma Pollyanna Dixon, 48, of 27 Burlingame Drive, Petaluma, a former bank teller, died yesterday at a local hospital after a long illness.

Born in Kansas, Mrs. Dixon moved to San Francisco in 1939 and to Petaluma in 1948. She had been employed by the Wells Fargo Bank and by Montgomery Ward Co.

Mrs. Dixon was a member of the First Baptist Church of Petaluma and took an interest in the Sunday school, youth and women's groups. She was the wife of Gene F. Dixon, a mechanic at the Hunter's Point Shipyard.

She is also survived by two sons, Lawrence Dixon of San Anselmo, and Timothy Dixon of Santa Rosa; a daughter, Diane Speakman of Crestline, San Bernardino County; her mother, Mrs. Ruth Terhuns of Collinsville, Kan.; two brothers, Thomas Terhune, also of Collinsville, and Leonard Wertz of Las Vegas, and two sisters, Aileen Ware of Oregon and Phyllis Smith of Parsons, Kan.

Funeral will be at 2 p.m. Monday at the Parent Funeral Chapel, Petaluma. Burial will be at Cypress Hill Memorial Park.

LESTOR SECOR

Lester F. Secor, 81, a founder of the original Sausalito Yacht Club and father of a former Mill Valley city councilman, died yesterday in a local convalescent home after a long illness.

A native of California, he resided in San Francisco and was owner of the Guaranty Typewriter Co. there. He and others founded the yacht club in Sausalito about 50 years ago, but it ceased operations during the depression era and was not connected with the present Sausalito Yacht Club.

Secor was a member of the Vallejo Yacht Club, past chairman of the San Francisco Office Machine Dealers Association, a past toparch (president) of the San Francisco Pyramid No. 1 AEO Sciots, and a 50-year member of the Masonic Park Lodge 449.

He had been in the convalescent home one month. His son, William M. Secor, served on the Mill Valley City Council for four years until 1966.

Survivors besides the son are a daughter, Mrs. Beverlie Wenig of Tiburon; a sister, Mrs. Ethel Royer, San Francisco, and four grandchildren.

Funeral will be at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at Maneely Matthews Chapel in San Francisco. Inurnment is pending.

LEWIS CARLESON

Retired Air Force CWO Lewis H. Carleson, 63, of 702 Del Mar, Novato, died yesterday in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness.

Born in Amarillo, Tex., Carleson served 12 years in the Army cavalry before enlisting in the Army Air Corps in 1943. Besides World War II, Carleson also served in the Korean War.

He retired from the Air Force in 1961 at Hamilton Air Force Base. He sold real estate and then became a bartender until ill health forced his retirement.

Carleson was a member of Hamilton Lodge 751, Free and Accepted Masons; Marin Sciots' Scottish Rite of Santa Rosa, Islam Temple of the Shrine in San Francisco, the Novato chapter of the Order of Eastern Star and Bartenders and Cullinary Workers Local 126.

He is survived by his wife, Golda; a daughter, Mrs. Robert O. Blackwell of Novato; two granddaughters and six great-grandchildren.

Masonic services will be at 1 p.m. tomorrow at the Redwood Chapel Funeral Home in Novato. Military burial will follow at Marin Memorial Gardens in Novato.

MRS. RAGAN

Funeral for Mrs. Jeannine M. Ragan of San Rafael will be at 11 a.m. Monday at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

Mrs. Ragan, 40, died Wednesday in a Palo Alto hospital after a long illness.

A native of Indianola, Okla., she had lived in Marin the past 14 years. She resided at 41 Brookdale Avenue.

She was a member of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Davidson and Coleman schools and of the Volunteers of Sunny Hills, San Anselmo.

She is survived by her husband, Hollis, a teamster; three children, Elaine, 15, Karen, 14, and Denise, 12, all at home, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Q. Hodge of McAlester, Okla.

MRS. VINCENT

Mrs. Charolotte J. Vincent, 47, of 860 Penny Royal Lane, Terra Linda, died yesterday in a San Mateo County hospital after a short illness.

She was the wife of retired Army Lt. Col. Howard Vincent, now a contract adviser for General Dynamics Corp. in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Vincent, a native of Hyannis, Neb., lived in Marin for 15 years. She belonged to the Christ Presbyterian Church in Terra Linda.

Survivors, beside her husband, are two sons, Charles P. and Thomas Vincent, both of San Rafael, and her mother, Mrs. Helen J. Gabril of Grand Island, Neb.

Memorial services will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday at Christ Presbyterian Church. The family prefers contributions to the Heart Fund.

Nixon Clears Desk For Trip To Florida

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Nixon conferred with his cabinet today and was to have his first White House meeting with a Negro leader before flying to Florida for a weekend of rest and work at Key Biscayne.

The President was believed to have discussed his pending five-nation trip to Europe and a range of domestic legislation with his cabinet in the morning.

The meeting with Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), was announced shortly after the cabinet session began.

kAt his news conference yesterday, Nixon acknowledged that a number of American Negroes viewed him with distrust but expressed hope "that I can gain the respect and I hope eventually the friendship of black citizens and other Americans."

Also added to Nixon's schedule before leaving for a Florida appointment with Gen. George Brown, commander of the 7th Air Force in Vietnam, who was expected to give the President a first hand report on the progress of the air war.

The President intends to devote a good part of his Florida weekend to foreign policy discussions. But some relaxation was also planned, and a group of Boy Scouts gave him a fishing rod this morning, suggesting he use it at Key Biscayne.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Security affairs specialist Henry A. Kissinger were to accompany him on the flight from Andrews Air Force Base.

Kissinger and Rogers were expected to explore the problems and possibilities of Nixon's first venture into foreign capitals as president. Nixon said the purpose of his visit to Brussels, London, Bonn, Berlin, Rome and Paris, scheduled to start Feb. 23, was to "discuss, not to propose; for work, not for ceremony."

Nixon told his news conference yesterday he will devote a morning while in Paris to a talk with U.S. negotiators at the Paris peace talks. But he said he did not see the possibility he would have any contact with the North Vietnamese or Viet Cong representatives while he was there.

CHAMBER PRESIDENT — Stanley Goldsmith, San Rafael sporting goods dealer, will be installed as president of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce at a noon meeting next Thursday at the Elks Club. Goldsmith, a resident of San Rafael since 1954, lives at 405 Quietwood Drive. He operates Stan's for Sports, Inc.

Theft Reported

The theft of a fur-trimmed coat and a sample case, valued at a total of $150, was reported Wednesday to San Rafael police by Ella M. Umland of 198 Railroad Avenue, Woodacre. She said the items were taken from her car while it was parked on E Street between Second and Third streets.

Decision Seen Next Month On Missile System Fate

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The future of the $6 billion Sentinel antiballistic missile system (ABM) to defend the United States against missile attacks by the Soviet Union and China apparently will be decided within the next month.

The Pentagon yesterday halted further acquisition of sites and construction projects, and was under mandate from President Nixon to make the decision — for or against ABM — "based on the security of the United States."

On Capitol Hill, however, powerful congressmen were reported softening their all-out endorsement of the ABM. One of them, L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, suggested the Pentagon may be working on a modification or complete substitute for the ADM.

The Chicago Sun-Times, in a copyrighted story quoting "senate sources," said the Nixon administration had decided to scrap the ABM and would announce the decision in mid-March.

Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird was understood to believe suspending the acquisition of sites and construction programs for a month would not seriously delay the years-long project.

Defense officials report the Soviet Union has, during the past two years curtailed construction of some segments of its ABM system, called Galosh. These officials said the Soviets have left some segments of the Galosh ring around Moscow incomplete.

But their best guess is that the Soviets would have held up the project to switch to better equipment, probably better radars.

Sentinel would employ long-range missiles to intercept incoming missiles in space, before they re-enter the atmosphere, and destroy them with X-ray effects from a nuclear explosion.

Suspect To Base

Homer Lee Hall, 21, arrested Tuesday in Marin City for being absent without leave from the Air Force, has been turned over to Hamilton Air Force Base authorities, the sheriff's department reported.

Rohnert Park Plans Fountain Fund Events

The Rohnert Park Cultural Arts Commission last night voted to take on the responsiblity of financing a fountain to beautify the new community and recreation center and scheduled three fund-raising events.

The fountain is estimated to cost $7,000 and will include special light and water display for the front of the building nearing completion on Burton Avenue.

The first event to benefit the fountain construction will be a foreign film festival scheduled for four showings beginning March 21 through April. Headed by Larry Statan, a Sonoma State College student, films mentioned include "Lord Jim," "Moment of Truth," and "Shoot the Piano Player."

Tickets will be sold for each showing as well as the complete series.

Another event will be a weekend bus trip May 3-4 to the Nugget Lodge in Sparks, Nev. Tickets will include transportation, lodging, beverages, meals and spending money.

Commissioner Dr. John Bullen is planning a "mystery dinner" for later in May. Dr. Bullen said, "Those attending will get on a bus in Rohnert Park and be driven to a place dripping with atmosphere and a tradition of good food."

Planning a more serious event at the meeting, the commission set Feb. 20 at 7:30 p.m. for a special preview showing of the Rohnert Park Mayors' Gallery in the council chambers.

The commission will hang framed color photographs of all past and present mayors and councilmen and will indicate the terms served on small gold plaques. After the invitational showing, the pictures will be hung in the city hall vestibule.

Judge Imposes Cleanup Terms

Three Petaluma men have been fined in Northwest Marin Justice Court for possession of an alcoholic beverage in and about a car and throwing bottles on a Marshall-Petaluma Road on Feb. 1.

Placed on one year's probation and ordered to perform 20 hours road clean-up work by Judge David R. Baty Wednesday were Kenneth R. Maack, 19, of 5748 Redhill Road, fined $65; Timothy F. Aurrecoechea, 19, 2004 Gilrix Street and Dale F. Bettinelli, 18, 334½ Bodega Avenue, fined $125 each.

Two Novato men, Jerry N. Morgan, 26, and James L. Underhill, 26, both of 914 Bel Marin Drive, were found guilty of discharging firearms and littering private property at Nicasio Dam on Jan. 14. They were fined $50 each.

Actress, Rock Leader To Wed

Janell Pulis, who plays Lucy in the San Francisco production of "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown," and Robert John Bohanna, leader of the Morning Glory rock group, took out a marriage license Wednesday at the San Rafael Court House.

Both gave their ages as 25 and their residence as Sausalito.

MOTION PICTURE GUIDE

The Marin Motion Picture and Television Council provides these ratings of movies currently being shown in Marin County. The Council's findings are from the California and National Partent-Teacher Association magazines and the Film Report of the Film Estimate Board. More complete reviews may be obtained by calling the San Rafael Library.

FAMILY

Horse In a Grey Flannel Suit — Delightful, lighthearted Disney comedy. Film gives opportunity to see finest horses in this country jumping the highest barriers.

Paper Lion — Sports writer joins football team as a rookie so he can write an authentic story. Exceptional for football fans.

Winnie the Pooh in a Blustery Day — Film imparts a gentle lesson in sharing with and sacrificing for, one's friends.

Yellow Submarine — Sparkling animated cartoon featuring special humor and music of the Beatles will appeal to those interested in new techniques of cartooning.

ADULTS AND TEENS

Bullitt —Melodrama involves gangsters, police and an ambitious politician. Violence goes all out in blood and gore for its shock effect.

Charly — Poignant dramatization of a fictional case history of first human subject of new type of brain surgery on a mentally retarded young man. Thought-provoking, sensitive performances from the cast.

The FIxer — Powerful, provocative film about a Jew in Czarist Russia who endures inhuman torture as he refuses to confess to a murder he did not commit.

Heart Is a Lonely Hunter —A rather sad story about a deaf-mute who in his loneliness touches the lives of many. Compassionate tale is tenderly told and played with rare perception.

Hombre — Captured by Apaches as a child, Paul Newman finds it hard to adjust in the white world of eastern Arizona in the 1880's. Strong script, characters are well chosen.

BORDERLINE
(Some say Adults Only)

Cool Hand Luke — A brutal downbeat story about a non-conformist prisoner in a Southern road construction prison camp. Paul Newman is excellent in the title role . . . depressing.

The Night They Raided Minsky's — Filmed in New York's lower East Side set in the 1920s film recreates the burlesque shows with bawdy skits, double entendre and is garish and at times offensive.

ADULTS ONLY

Faces — Two middle-aged people find their marriage empty and seek satisfaction elsewhere Dialogue is pretentious and there is much profanity and sex.

Secret Life of an American Wife — Satirical farce about sex life of 34-year-old mother before and after marriage. Nudity, risque dialogue and adultery are casually presented.

Thomas Crown Affair — Plotting and execution of big bank robberis is ingenious. Criminal and investigator become involved in torrid love affair. Crime pays well in this case. Very modern treatment; all phases of immorality are taken for granted.

Slavery was abolished in Puerto Rico in 1873.

Tarpon, Springs, Fla., is known as "the sponge center of the world."

Singing Auditions Slated For Opera

Singing auditions for the College of Marin's production of Prokofiev's "The Duenna" will be held from 7 to 10 p.m. Feb. 24 and 26 in Room 72 of the Fine Arts Building at the Kentfield campus.

The four-act comic opera, based on a play by Richard Brinsley Sheridan, is scheduled to be presented May 9, 10, 15, 16 and 17.

The State Flower of Montana is the bitterroot.

Rohnert Park Plans Fountain Fund Events

The Rohnert Park Cultural Arts Commission last night voted to take on the responsibility of financing a fountain to beautify the new community and recreation center and scheduled three fund-raising events.

The fountain is estimated to cost $7,000 and will include special light and water display for the front of the building nearing completion on Burton Avenue.

The first event to benefit the fountain construction will be a foreign film festival scheduled for four showings beginning March 21 through April. Headed by Larry Statan, a Sonoma State College student, films mentioned include "Lord Jim," "Moment of Truth," and "Shoot the Piano Player."

Tickets will be sold for each showing as well as the complete series.

Another event will be a weekend bus trip May 3-4 to the Nugget Lodge in Sparks, Nev. Tickets will include transportation, lodging, beverages, meals and spending money.

Commissioner Dr. John Bullen is planning a "mystery dinner" for later in May. Dr. Bullen said, "Those attending will get on a bus in Rohnert Park and be driven to a place dripping with atmosphere and a tradition of good food."

Planning a more serious event at the meeting, the commission set Feb. 20 at 7:30 p.m. for a special preview showing of the Rohnert Park Mayors' Gallery in the council chambers.

The commission will hang framed color photographs of all past and present mayors and councilmen and will indicate the terms served on small gold plaques. After the invitational showing, the pictures will be hung in the city hall vestibule.

Judge Imposes Cleanup Terms

Three Petaluma men have been fined in Northwest Marin Justice Court for possession of an alcoholic beverage in and about a car and throwing bottles on a Marshall-Petaluma Road on Feb. 1.

Placed on one year's probation and ordered to perform 20 hours road clean-up work by Judge David R. Baty Wednesday were Kenneth R. Maack, 19, of 5748 Redhill Road, fined $65; Timothy F. Aurrecoechea, 19, 2004 Gilrix Street and Dale F. Bettinelli, 18, 334½ Bodega Avenue, fined $125 each.

Two Novato men, Jerry N. Morgan, 26, and James L. Underhill, 26, both of 914 Bel Marin Drive, were found guilty of discharging firearms and littering private property at Nicasio Dam on Jan. 14. They were fined $50 each.

Actress, Rock Leader To Wed

Janell Pulis, who plays Lucy in the San Francisco production of "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown," and Robert John Bohanna, leader of the Morning Glory rock group, took out a marriage license Wednesday at the San Rafael Court House.

Both gave their ages as 25 and their residence as Sausalito.

MOTION PICTURE GUIDE

The Marin Motion Picture and Television Council provides these ratings of movies currently being shown in Marin County. The Council's findings are from the California and National Partent-Teacher Association magazines and the Film Report of the Film Estimate Board. More complete reviews may be obtained by calling the San Rafael Library.

FAMILY

Horse In a Grey Flannel Suit — Delightful, lighthearted Disney comedy. Film gives opportunity to see finest horses in this country jumping the highest barriers.

Paper Lion — Sports writer joins football team as a rookie so he can write an authentic story. Exceptional for football fans.

Winnie the Pooh in a Blustery Day — Film imparts a gentle lesson in sharing with and sacrificing for, one's friends.

Yellow Submarine — Sparkling animated cartoon featuring special humor and music of the Beatles will appeal to those interested in new techniques of cartooning.

ADULTS AND TEENS

Bullitt —Melodrama involves gangsters, police and an ambitious politician. Violence goes all out in blood and gore for its shock effect.

Charly — Poignant dramatization of a fictional case history of first human subject of new type of brain surgery on a mentally retarded young man. Thought-provoking, sensitive performances from the cast.

The FIxer — Powerful, provocative film about a Jew in Czarist Russia who endures inhuman torture as he refuses to confess to a murder he did not commit.

Heart Is a Lonely Hunter —A rather sad story about a deaf-mute who in his loneliness touches the lives of many. Compassionate tale is tenderly told and played with rare perception.

Hombre — Captured by Apaches as a child, Paul Newman finds it hard to adjust in the white world of eastern Arizona in the 1880's. Strong script, characters are well chosen.

BORDERLINE
(Some say Adults Only)

Cool Hand Luke — A brutal downbeat story about a non-conformist prisoner in a Southern road construction prison camp. Paul Newman is excellent in the title role . . . depressing.

The Night They Raided Minsky's — Filmed in New York's lower East Side set in the 1920s film recreates the burlesque shows with bawdy skits, double entendre and is garish and at times offensive.

ADULTS ONLY

Faces — Two middle-aged people find their marriage empty and seek satisfaction elsewhere Dialogue is pretentious and there is much profanity and sex.

Secret Life of an American Wife — Satirical farce about sex life of 34-year-old mother before and after marriage. Nudity, risque dialogue and adultery are casually presented.

Thomas Crown Affair — Plotting and execution of big bank robberis is ingenious. Criminal and investigator become involved in torrid love affair. Crime pays well in this case. Very modern treatment; all phases of immorality are taken for granted.

Slavery was abolished in Puerto Rico in 1873.

Tarpon, Springs, Fla., is known as "the sponge center of the world."

Singing Auditions Slated For Opera

Singing auditions for the College of Marin's production of Prokofiev's "The Duenna" will be held from 7 to 10 p.m. Feb. 24 and 26 in Room 72 of the Fine Arts Building at the Kentfield campus.

The four-act comic opera, based on a play by Richard Brinsley Sheridan, is scheduled to be presented May 9, 10, 15, 16 and 17.

ART REVIEW

Israeli Artists At Last Seen In Bay Area Shows

By LAURA DEVENDORF

Where it has been all this time is not explained, but Israeli art is suddenly enjoying its first exposure in Bay Area galleries. Through March 7, the College of Marin art gallery and through Feb. 23, the San Francisco Museum of Art in the Civic Center, are featuring drawings, watercolors, prints and mixed media paintings by contemporary Israeli artists.

The museum show has more the look of the explosive growth and activity of this new country.

The watercolors and mixed media selections are frequently frenetic, with lines, colors and shapes boiling turbulently over the surfaces. And while some of the abstract styles seem warmed over, their treatment still lends its own excitement, the tortured figuritive pieces their own personal pathos in a blended image that somehow paints a portrait of Isreal itself.

In a quieter, less conglomerate way, the College of Marin exhibit also has persence.

The Marin show is predominantly prints. Lithographs, etchings, drypoint, collographs, itaglio and silk screen account for much of it and the concepts are as many as the printmaking techniques.

The etchings are often strange, moody things, as gray and restrained as serigraphs by Arie Kilemnik are shimmering with hot, jarring color. Rina Rotholz' figures and symbols in simple velvet tones have an antique dignity. Yehuda Yordan's collographs swirl with embossing, the colors mixing as they rise on ridges and sink into crevices.

There are a few charcoal drawings and paintings included, notably Shlomo Koren's pencil and oil drawings which are all white except for a sparse jumble of mathematical scrawls. Koren is also shown in San Francisco.

The only other artist in both shows is Uri Lifchitz. His smokey opaques washed over violent shapes and hues are like clouded explosions of energy, the best examples of which are in the San Francisco exhibit.

There is one final artist in the College of Marin group whose work is singularly impressive. Al-Kara's ink drawings have exacting hairline networks so intricate and so perfectly drawn that they could be engravings legal tender.

CONCERT REVIEW

Dominican Creates A Colonial Comedy

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Joint efforts of Dominican College's American Music Research Center and the college's opera workshop last night made possible a good insight into the colonial American equivalent of today's musical comedy.

This was a performance in Angelico Hall of the ballad opera "The Chambermaid," a one-act comedy.

Putting together 23 original airs by well known composers of the era with a chorus, overture and dance and fitting the words of the play to them was a scholarly piece of arranging and musicianship by Sister Dominic, O.P., the musical director. And the staging by workshop director Arthur Conrad was carried out with careful attention to period detail and with well planned timing, action, stage business and costuming.

The play with words complied in 1729 by Edward Phillips (or Charles Johnson?) is built around a confusing plot of mistaken identities, focused largely in the love affair of a young nobleman disguised as a gardener and a chambermaid who is really a young woman of good family.

While most of the story was told in the spoken word, there was some lovely music in the airs sung by some of the characters. Unfortunately the echo Angelico has, when not filled with people, added further to the difficulty of understanding character relationships and intrigues.

Speaking and singing more slowly, where possible, would help but might interfere with the pace and ebullient spirit of the work.

Acting was successful within the framework of the exaggerated and mannered style of the genre, but there was a little too much exaggeration and lack of finesse in the case of Melvyn Poll's portrayal of the rascally Brush and Fred Lewis's Sir Nicholas Wiseacre. Poll did not have much chance to sing in the very powerful tenor we have heard before but showed considerable talent for comedy.

The best singing and acting was done by soporano Elizabeth Heffernan as the chambermaid. Her voice had a beautiful clear ringing quality with much flexibility, and she had a fine feeling for phrasing.

Playing the nobleman, Colin, Sherry Silva was more convincing in the spoken parts than when singing in her light mezzo soprano. Catharine Collette's more mature soprano was pleasing in the role of Roselia, and she acted well.

Suanne O'Hare showed a lot of potential as a comedienne in the role of the servant Dolly, and Marjorie Broughton as Lady Wiseacre and Stan Berde as File were good in their spoken parts.

Adding much to the period character and musicality of the evening was accompaniment on stage by a costumed duo, Nancy Bennett at the harpsichord and Anne Norman playing the flute.

A high point musically before the ballad opera was the beautiful trio, Op. 3, No. 1 by Antes, an example of the rich heritage of Moravian music in America that people know little of today. Students performing it were violinists Mark Jordan and Carma Romano and cellist Jed Barahal. The alcove to the right of the stage where they played made perfect acoustical background by enhancing resonance.

Another performance will be given tonight at 8 p.m.

Stroke Suffered By Dr. Fleming

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Dr. Willard C. Fleming, who is to retire March 1 at the University of California's Medical Center chancellor, has suffered a stroke.

The hospital said yesterday he is in "serious but not critical condition."

Dr. Fleming, 69, is to be succeeded by Dr. Philip R. Lee, who is now assistant secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Mutiny Trial Challenge Voted Down

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — The court-martial of one of 27 soldiers charged with mutiny at the Presidio stockade entered its second day today.

Attorneys for the soldier, Pvt. Nesrey Sood, 25, of Oakland, yesterday unsuccessfully challenged the seating of the presiding Army officer, Lt. Col. George R. Robinson, on the grounds of possible bias. He presided this week at the trials of the first two defendants to be tried under the mass mutiny charge, and recessed their trial Wednesday with orders they be given sanity hearings.

The 27 participated last October in a sitdown strike, which the Army has called a mutiny, to protest conditions at the stockade and the shotgun killing of a fellow prison during an escape attempt.

The court-martial board of 10 officers, after 18 minutes behind closed doors, returned to the courtroom to announce they have voted not to sustain the challenge against Robinson.

The remaining 24 defendants are to be tried at a later date. Sood was scheduled to face trial with eight other soldiers, but their attorney obtained a delay to March 18.

Among the 24, some of them veterans of Vietnam, is Pvt. Keith C. Mather of San Bruno, one of the Marin City Nine who chained themselves to clergymen in an antiwar demonstration last summer at St. Andrew United Presbyterian Church.

Auto Tampering Suspects Booked

Two 18-year-olds from Marin City were booked into Marin County Jail early today on suspicion of vehicle tampering after they were found stripping stereo squipment from a car at Shelter Bay apartments, Mill Valley police reported.

Police said an officer on patrol spotted Leroy Barrows, 25 Burgess Court, and Michael Patrick Fowler, 389 Drake Avenue, at 12:34 a.m. tampering with the car of Geoffrey T. Chapman, 4105 Shelter Bay Avenue. Each was held in lieu of $302 bail and was to appear today in Marin Municipal Court.

Panel Attorney Asks PG&E Income Probe

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—An attorney for the state Public Utilities Commission has called for an investigation of all aspects of the income of Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

PUC attorney David R. Larrouy made the request yesterday during the opening session of a hearing on the $13.7 million first phase of a requested rate increase by PG&E.

The hearing continued today before Examiner Carl T. Coffey.

Larrouy asked the commission to deny PG&E's motion fr rate increases for gas.

He said if the increase is a true offset of labor and surcharge tax expenses, the company needed only $6 million to bring it to the authorized rate of return of 6.25 per cent.

Larrouy said it was imperative that all aspects of the utility company be investigated, including the electrical section which is currently returning more than 7 per cent.

The cost of the utility's proposed rate increase to the individual customer will not be known until the investigation, which will take several months, is completed, a commission spokesman reported.

Former PUC commissioner William M. Bennett of Kentfield appeared with several other public witnesses to protest the fare hike. He attacked "the advertising budget and political expenditures" of the utility, and urged that its officials be required to testify on political expenses.

Planting Planned

Enchanted Knolls Homeowners Association directors Wednesday tentatively agreed to landscape Lomita Drive between East Blithedale Avenue and Kipling Drive, according to president Joseph Mendell. He said the landscaping project would be undertaken if approved by the city and if it did not cost too much.

Joint efforts of Dominican College's American Music Research Center and the college's opera workshop last night made possible a good insight into the colonial American equivalent of today's musical comedy.

This was a performance in Angelico Hall of the ballad opera "The Chambermaid," a one-act comedy.

Putting together 23 original airs by well known composers of the era with a chorus, overture and dance and fitting the words of the play to them was a scholarly piece of arranging and musicianship by Sister Dominic, O.P., the musical director. And the staging by workshop director Arthur Conrad was carried out with careful attention to period detail and with well planned timing, action, stage business and costuming.

The play with words complied in 1729 by Edward Phillips (or Charles Johnson?) is built around a confusing plot of mistaken identities, focused largely in the love affair of a young nobleman disguised as a gardener and a chambermaid who is really a young woman of good family.

While most of the story was told in the spoken word, there was some lovely music in the airs sung by some of the characters. Unfortunately the echo Angelico has, when not filled with people, added further to the difficulty of understanding character relationships and intrigues.

Speaking and singing more slowly, where possible, would help but might interfere with the pace and ebullient spirit of the work.

Acting was successful within the framework of the exaggerated and mannered style of the genre, but there was a little too much exaggeration and lack of finesse in the case of Melvyn Poll's portrayal of the rascally Brush and Fred Lewis's Sir Nicholas Wiseacre. Poll did not have much chance to sing in the very powerful tenor we have heard before but showed considerable talent for comedy.

The best singing and acting was done by soporano Elizabeth Heffernan as the chambermaid. Her voice had a beautiful clear ringing quality with much flexibility, and she had a fine feeling for phrasing.

Playing the nobleman, Colin, Sherry Silva was more convincing in the spoken parts than when singing in her light mezzo soprano. Catharine Collette's more mature soprano was pleasing in the role of Roselia, and she acted well.

Suanne O'Hare showed a lot of potential as a comedienne in the role of the servant Dolly, and Marjorie Broughton as Lady Wiseacre and Stan Berde as File were good in their spoken parts.

Adding much to the period character and musicality of the evening was accompaniment on stage by a costumed duo, Nancy Bennett at the harpsichord and Anne Norman playing the flute.

A high point musically before the ballad opera was the beautiful trio, Op. 3, No. 1 by Antes, an example of the rich heritage of Moravian music in America that people know little of today. Students performing it were violinists Mark Jordan and Carma Romano and cellist Jed Barahal. The alcove to the right of the stage where they played made perfect acoustical background by enhancing resonance.

Another performance will be given tonight at 8 p.m.

Stroke Suffered By Dr. Fleming

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Dr. Willard C. Fleming, who is to retire March 1 at the University of California's Medical Center chancellor, has suffered a stroke.

The hospital said yesterday he is in "serious but not critical condition."

Dr. Fleming, 69, is to be succeeded by Dr. Philip R. Lee, who is now assistant secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Mutiny Trial Challenge Voted Down

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — The court-martial of one of 27 soldiers charged with mutiny at the Presidio stockade entered its second day today.

Attorneys for the soldier, Pvt. Nesrey Sood, 25, of Oakland, yesterday unsuccessfully challenged the seating of the presiding Army officer, Lt. Col. George R. Robinson, on the grounds of possible bias. He presided this week at the trials of the first two defendants to be tried under the mass mutiny charge, and recessed their trial Wednesday with orders they be given sanity hearings.

The 27 participated last October in a sitdown strike, which the Army has called a mutiny, to protest conditions at the stockade and the shotgun killing of a fellow prison during an escape attempt.

The court-martial board of 10 officers, after 18 minutes behind closed doors, returned to the courtroom to announce they have voted not to sustain the challenge against Robinson.

The remaining 24 defendants are to be tried at a later date. Sood was scheduled to face trial with eight other soldiers, but their attorney obtained a delay to March 18.

Among the 24, some of them veterans of Vietnam, is Pvt. Keith C. Mather of San Bruno, one of the Marin City Nine who chained themselves to clergymen in an antiwar demonstration last summer at St. Andrew United Presbyterian Church.

Auto Tampering Suspects Booked

Two 18-year-olds from Marin City were booked into Marin County Jail early today on suspicion of vehicle tampering after they were found stripping stereo squipment from a car at Shelter Bay apartments, Mill Valley police reported.

Police said an officer on patrol spotted Leroy Barrows, 25 Burgess Court, and Michael Patrick Fowler, 389 Drake Avenue, at 12:34 a.m. tampering with the car of Geoffrey T. Chapman, 4105 Shelter Bay Avenue. Each was held in lieu of $302 bail and was to appear today in Marin Municipal Court.

Panel Attorney Asks PG&E Income Probe

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—An attorney for the state Public Utilities Commission has called for an investigation of all aspects of the income of Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

PUC attorney David R. Larrouy made the request yesterday during the opening session of a hearing on the $13.7 million first phase of a requested rate increase by PG&E.

The hearing continued today before Examiner Carl T. Coffey.

Larrouy asked the commission to deny PG&E's motion fr rate increases for gas.

He said if the increase is a true offset of labor and surcharge tax expenses, the company needed only $6 million to bring it to the authorized rate of return of 6.25 per cent.

Larrouy said it was imperative that all aspects of the utility company be investigated, including the electrical section which is currently returning more than 7 per cent.

The cost of the utility's proposed rate increase to the individual customer will not be known until the investigation, which will take several months, is completed, a commission spokesman reported.

Former PUC commissioner William M. Bennett of Kentfield appeared with several other public witnesses to protest the fare hike. He attacked "the advertising budget and political expenditures" of the utility, and urged that its officials be required to testify on political expenses.

Planting Planned

Enchanted Knolls Homeowners Association directors Wednesday tentatively agreed to landscape Lomita Drive between East Blithedale Avenue and Kipling Drive, according to president Joseph Mendell. He said the landscaping project would be undertaken if approved by the city and if it did not cost too much.

$25,000 Burglary Denied By Suspect

Kenneth Wayne Vernon, 29, of San Rafael pleaded innocent Wednesday in Marin Municipal Court to a charge of burglarizing Disco Wonderworld in San Rafael on Sept. 21. Preliminary hearing on the charge was set for March 27.

Another man named in connection with the $25,000 burglary, Clifford James Thomas, 26, of Daly City, is in state prison, according to police officers.

Cyclists, Pedestrian Collide; Three Hurt

One person was hospitalized and two others injured in an accident at 7:31 a.m. today involving a motorcycle and a garbage man, Novato police reported.

Joseph R. Rigsby, 18, of 6 Dusel Court, Novato, a passenger on the motorcycle, was taken to Novato General Hospital with cuts on his face, both arms and left knee, and possible head injuries, the hospital reported. The full extent of his injuries was not yet determined.

Howard J. Butler, 40, of Oakland, an employee of the Bay Cities Garbage Co. was to see his own doctor for a bruised left arm, according to police.

Butler's garbage truck, according to police, was stopped in front of 1031 San Jose Boulevard in Rafael Village. Butler stepped include Drs. Joseph J. and struck by the motorcycle, police said.

Speedy Trial Is Ordered In Marijuana Case

A 24-year-old San Rafael man, who faces a variety of felony and misdemeanor drug charges, is entitled to a speedy trial whether or not the district attorney's office has a chemist ready to testify, Judge Hadden W. Roth of Marin Municipal Court ruled yesterday.

James A. Sprague of 14 Sentinel Court has been arrested four times in the last six weeks and is charged with several counts of marijuana possession, assault with a deadly weapon and four misdemeanor charges of being under the influence of narcotics, including one of heroin.

Judge Roth yesterday reduced his bail from $6,250 to $1,875, but his attorney said that Sprague still would be unable to bail out of County Jail.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Ernest Zunino said that a state chemist would not be avialable to testify until Feb. 20, but Judge Roth declined to postpone the case that long. He set a prelininary hearing for 3 p.m. Tuesday.

Driver Reports Pistol Threat

A Fairfax motorist reported yesterday that another motorist, declaring himself a police officer confronted him with a drawn gun, San Anselmo police said today.

Thomas J. Lyons, 120 Gregory Drive, told officers he was following a car driven in erratic manner on Center Boulevard at 11:30 p.m. yesterday when the vehicle halted at the intersection of San Anselmo Avenue.

Lyons said the driver got out, approached his car, drew a pistol and declared he was an officer. The man, described as in his late 40s, about six feet tall, weighing about 180 pounds and wearing light blue uniform pants with black stripes, had no provocation for the incident, said Lyons.

He said he told the motorist to either put the gun away or use it, and the motorist re-entered his vehicle and departed.

Man Is Found Dead In His Locked Auto

Louis Matthew Caso, 40, a newspaper advertising saleman, died yesterday at Marin General Hospital, shortly after being found unconscious in his car parked at his Greenbrae apartment.

Larkspur police said Caso was found in his locked vehicle at 373 Via Casitas, by a neighbor about 11:10 p.m. A hose had been run from the vehicle's exhaust through a window, they said.

The neighbor, Charles McMartin, also of the apartment house, broke a car window and attempted unsuccessfully to revive Caso, then called the Larkspur Fire Department.

Caso was momentarily revived, but died at 11:30 p.m. Police said a note found in the car indicated despondency.

Caso, who came to California 12 years ago and to Marin three years ago, had been a salesman for the Herald Tribune in Marin about six months.

He is survived by a wife, Ruth. An autopsy will be held, according to coroner's investigator Keith C. Craig. Funeral arrangements are pending at Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

Fairer Taxes Pledge From Treasury Boss

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy said today that making taxes fairer for all Americans "will have a high priority" in the Nixon administration.

However, he revealed no specifics.

Kennedy issued a statement, in the form of a news release, which said only that the new administration is studying the whole field of tax reform.

Special emphasis, he said, is being given to whether tax burdens are equally distributed, to the possibility of using tax credits "to help solve the problems of the cities and of our disadvantaged" and to the need for an all-encompassing reexamination of the nation's whole tax system—state and local as well as federal.

A Treasury spokesman who answered newsmen's questions after Kennedy's statement was handed out said the administration is aware that there is considerable public dissatisfaction with taxes.

"I would not be surprised to see some significant tax legislation enacted this year," the spokesman said, "but nothing like a big package that will cover the whole gamut of proposals that have been made. I think the American people are saying something and the message is getting through."

Richmond Bridge's Traffic Increasing

I-J Special Report

OAKLAND — A total of 480,174 vehicles crossed the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge during October, 1968, compared to 445,326 during the same month in 1967, the Division of Bay Toll Crossings reported today.

Gross revenue was $405,856 for the month, which saw an average of 15,489 vehicles cross the bridge each day.

Survey Ordered For New Center

Directors also agreed to purchase materials for channel markers around Strawberry Point, to be installed by the Strawberry Cove Yacht Club, Mrs. Heick said. The materials are estimated to cost $130-$150, she said.

The board, meeting Wednesday, set April 7-13 as cleanup week when the Mill Valley Refuse Co. will collect free of charge up to three cubic yards of trash from each household.

Speedy Trial Is Ordered In Marijuana Case

A 24-year-old San Rafael man, who faces a variety of felony and misdemeanor drug charges, is entitled to a speedy trial whether or not the district attorney's office has a chemist ready to testify, Judge Hadden W. Roth of Marin Municipal Court ruled yesterday.

James A. Sprague of 14 Sentinel Court has been arrested four times in the last six weeks and is charged with several counts of marijuana possession, assault with a deadly weapon and four misdemeanor charges of being under the influence of narcotics, including one of heroin.

Judge Roth yesterday reduced his bail from $6,250 to $1,875, but his attorney said that Sprague still would be unable to bail out of County Jail.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Ernest Zunino said that a state chemist would not be avialable to testify until Feb. 20, but Judge Roth declined to postpone the case that long. He set a preliminary hearing for 3 p.m. Tuesday.

Driver Reports Pistol Threat

A Fairfax motorist reported yesterday that another motorist, declaring himself a police officer confronted him with a drawn gun, San Anselmo police said today.

Thomas J. Lyons, 120 Gregory Drive, told officers he was following a car driven in erratic manner on Center Boulevard at 11:30 p.m. yesterday when the vehicle halted at the intersection of San Anselmo Avenue.

A Five-Minute Market Run Brings Home Bacon

DAILY Independent-Journal Est. 1861
SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

BINGO PRIZES!

THOUGHTFUL MOMENT—Having loaded up with butter, Mrs. Lewis scans the selection of cheeses.

TWO AT A TIME—Mrs. Lewis moves through the canned goods, using both hands at the same time.

QUICK GLANCE — While on the move, Mrs. Lewis keeps an eye on shelves for items she might want.

END OF THE RUN—Straining to move a heavy load of canned goods, Mrs. Lewis heads back to the starting point.

Bay Area, New Mexico Firms Discuss Merger

Discussions regarding a merger are now under way by Nuclear Engineering Co. at Walnut Creek and Continental American Royalty Co., Inc. of Dallas.

Nuclear Engineering is engaged in the business of radioactive waste disposal and similiar services. It operates disposal sites in Nevada, Kentucky, Illinois and Washington.

Continental operates a large potash mine and refinery near Carlsbad, N. M., as its principal business.

SKAGGS PAY LESS DRUG STORES, headquartered in Oakland, reported $84.6 million net sales for 1968, up 20 per cent from 1967 and the highest sales in its history. Earnings before income taxes rose 45 per cent to $4.9 million. Earnings per share, after including the 10 per cent income tax surcharge, increased 24 per cent to $1.07 per share. Payless Drug Store in San Rafael is not a part of this operation.

BROADWAY-HALE STORES, INC. of Los Angeles has been notified by the Federal Trade Commission that its merger acquisition of Neiman-Marcus Co., Dallas, has been approved. Under the merger, 1.05 shares of a recently authorized Broadway-Hale convertible preferred stock will be issued for each share of Neiman-Marcus common stock. The merger must still be approved by Neiman-Marcus shareholders.

SANTA FE INDUSTRIES, Inc. consolidated net income for 1968 amounted to $59.6 million or $2.43 per share, compared with $2.30 per share in 1967. Fourth quarter income at $20.9 million was only slightly above the 1967 fourth quarter. After taxes, 1968 net earnings amounted to $1.81 per share compared to 1967's $1.72 per share.

COMALCO INDUSTRIES PTY., LTD. largest Australian producer of alumnium, reported consolidated net earnings of $10.8 million for 1968 after provision for income tax. This represents a 29 per cent increase from the previous year. Comalco was established in 1961 as a joint equal partnership of Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corp. and Conzinc Rio Tinto of Australia.

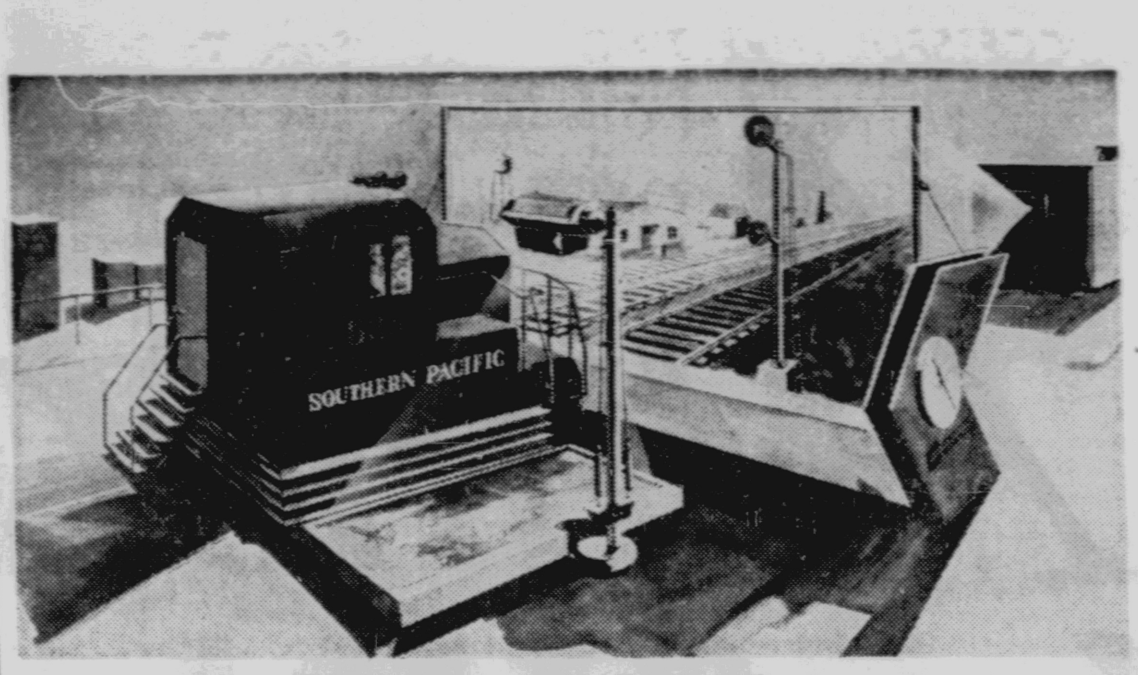
RADIO CORP. OF AMERICA directors have voted to recommend that the company's name be changed to RCA Corp. The change will be submitted to stockholders at their May meeting. While RCA's original communications business has continued to grow it now accounts for only 2 per cent of its total volume. Besides its manufacturing projects in various fields the company is now engaged in publishing, car rentals and leasing and is proposing to enter the paper industry through a merger with the St. Regis Paper Co.

LIQUIDONICS INDUSTRIES, INC. has offered to purchase 1,158,700 shares of UMC Industries, Inc. common stock for $30 per share. The offer expires next Friday.

WEYERHAUSER CO., Tacoma-based forest products firm, has reported a $105 million net profit for 1968, equal to $3.51 per share and up 75 per cent from 1967's $2 per share. Sales exceeded $1 billion, up 16 per cent.

AMERICAN BUILDING MAINTENANCE INDUSTRIES, San Francisco, reported record sales of $55.8 million and $1,145,723 net income for 1968. Sales were up 12.5 per cent from 1967 and net income was up 38 per cent. Earnings per share were $1.02, compared with 76 cents in 1967. The company plans on being listed on the American and Pacific Coast Stock Exchanges in 1969.

NATIONAL AIRMOTIVE CORP., a San Leandro-based aircraft engine specialist company, has been acquired by the Republic Corp. of Beverly Hills. National sales and service operations total over $3 million annually. Republic Corp. operations in communications, electronics and other fields are nationwide and the company employs more than 6,500 persons.



TRAIN ALMOST REAL

Southern Pacific has ordered the railroad industry's first simulator to train locomotive engineers. Artist's conception of the $1 million system shows how multiple motion picture screens will provide the trainee's view of the track and a computer, at left, which will generate "incidents" to make the training experience more realistic. Conductron Missouri Division of Conductron Corp. will build the simulator for Southern Pacific.

Wall Street Ends Week On Upturn

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed with a small gain on balance today. Trading was fairly active.

Volume was 12.78 million shares compared with 12.57 million yesterday.

Of 1,568 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange, 705 advanced and 619 declined. New highs for 1968-'69 totaled 25 and new lows 12.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined .3 to 360.1 with industrials off .1, rails off .4 and utilities off .3.

The market was a little higher from the start, improved through most of the day, and ended in heavy trading with the tacker tape four minutes late.

Clorox traded on 88,400 shares, off ¾ at 25¼. Goldman, Sachs represented institutions on both sides of the transaction.

Cab Firm Buys Airport Buses

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Barrett Transportation Inc., which operates 27 buses from San Francisco International Airport, will become the property of Yellow Cab Co. Feb. 28 for an undisclosed price.

Yellow Cab, a subsidiary of Westgate-California Corp. of San Diego, already has the taxicab franchise from the airport and operates 503 of San Francisco's 739 cabs.

General Manager Robert J. Hamilton of Yellow Cab said there were no immediate plans for changes in personnel.

INCOME TAX FACTS

By PETER JAMES WIKEL, CPA

Some Expenses Are Allowable As Deductions From Income

Wikel

The Internal Revenue Code allows individuals to take a deduction for ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred (1) for the production and collection of income; (2) for the management, conservation or maintenance of income-producing property, or (3) in connection with the determination, collection or refund of any tax.

The expenses of commuting between your residence and any business location situated within the area of your tax home are not deductible, regardless of distance, or different locations on different days.

NON DEDUCTIBLES

If you haul tools, etc., in your car in commuting to and from your place of business for your convenience, the cost of operating the car is non-deductible.

However, if you cannot store the tools, etc., at the place you work, or if you work at different locations every day, and also you would not have used your car except for hauling tools, etc., which are too bulky or heavy to be carried otherwise, the expense is deductible.

CLOTHING POLICY

Work clothes and uniforms are deductible if your occupation is one which specifically requires special apparel or equipment as a condition of employment and it is not adaptable to general or continued usage so as to take the place of ordinary clothing.

Deductible work clothes include the cost of special apparel and equipment required in the occupations of ballplayers, firemen, police officers, letter carriers, nurses and civilian faculty members of a military school.

The cost of theatrical clothing and accessories used by professional musicians and entertainers is deductible if used solely in the course of their employment.

Uniforms of transportation employees — air, rail, bus, etc., are deductible if they are used solely in the course of their employment.

SAFETY ELEMENTS

Some occupations require safety shoes and helmets, others require work gloves, oil clothes and rubber boots, such as are worn by commercial fisherman. Costs of these are deductible.

If you are a reservist in the Armed Forces, you may deduct, to the extent not reimbursed, the cost of your uniform if it may legally be worn only while performing duties as a reservist.

In computing the deduction, the cost must be reduced by any non-taxable allowance you receive on account of such expenses. If you are on full-time duty in the Armed Forces, the cost of your uniform is not deductible.

SUBSTITUTE PAY

To school teachers, amounts which you pay for a substitute teacher to take your place are deductible. However, you are not entitled to this deduction to the extent that it is allocable to amounts excluded as sick pay.

Subscriptions to professional journals, etc., relating to your business or profession.

Membership dues in professional societies, and union dues. Also small tools and supplies, employment agency fees, physical examination fees paid by you and required by your employer to establish your physical fitness to retain your job.

Moving expenses for a new job, traveling expenses not reimbursed by your employer, entertainment expenses not reimbursed by your employer, school teachers' sabbatical leave expenses, use of your home in your work, attorneys' and accountants' fees on tax matters, automobile expenses not reimbursed by your employer, and educational expenses.

These and many more items are deductible if you know the rules.

Get a copy of "Your Federal Income Tax 1969 Edition for Individuals" from your office of the IRS (cost 60 cents) and look up every item of expense you had in 1968. You may have an unexpected deduction.

Studies show that 85 per cent of fatal accidents occur in the home.

Sausalito Police Report Burglars Busy Four Places

Cash and four watches were taken in four weekend burglaries, Sausalito police have reported.

Three residential burglaries were committed Sunday and the victim of one saw the burglar as he fled. Retta Donaldson of 301 Bridgeway, said the burglar fled her house as she arrived home at 6 p.m. He made off with two pocket watches of unknown value. Mrs. Donaldson said the burglar was white, approximately 21, slender and of medium height.

Jay Williar reported his apartment at 80 Bulkley Avenue was entered Sunday and $30 taken. Fifteen dollars was taken from the residence of Martine Bulto, 408 Locust Street.

One Freed, One Held On Credit Card Use

A charge of illegal use of a credit card at the Emporium against a Vallejo man was dismissed yesterday in Marin Municipal Court, but a co-defendant was bound over to Superior Court on a similar charge.

Jesse Jackson, 28, will be arraigned in Superior Court Monday. Discharged was Wilmer Barkus, 39. They were arrested Dec. 6.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Forest Products Company Has Profitable Outlook

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. Seeking a growth stock for my daughter's education — she is now 14 — I purchased Southwest Forest Industries. Ddi I make a good choice? — E.G.

A. You have bought shares in a well-situated, integrated forest products company with an above-average outlook. The company has been active in acquiring firms in related areas to supplement or extend its operations. Four acquisitions are pending which could add $11 million to annual sales.

In addition to production of lumber and plywood, waste products are utilized in the manufacture of pulp and paper. Newsprint is sold principally to Hearst Publications through a long-term contract. Real estate and a short rail line are other aspects of company operations.

In the six-month period through October sales were up 28 per cent to $45 million while earnings were 83 cents a share for a gain of 52 per cent year to year. On a fully diluted basis, earnings for the full year could reach $1.25 a share from 95 cents in fiscal 1968.

Q. Most mutual funds, when new, come out for around $10. How is it possible that after five years of remarkable performance I was able to buy my mutual fund for $8.50 and now nine months later it is only $12.50? Do funds split? Why is there such a variety of prices?—F.S.

A. Merchandising is an important factor in fund prices and lower prices have a broader marketing appeal.

Your fund, which has done very well, split its shares 3 for 1 late in 1967. Although you have a gain of 47 per cent in your shares, this is not necessarily indicative of future performances. Stock splits and dividends are commonly used by funds to keep their shares reasonably priced; more than a dozen funds split last year.

In order to understand fund price variations, you must know how daily quotes are figured. Total assets are divided by the number of shares outstanding to calculate the bid or lower price quote. The higher or ask price is net asset value plus loading or commission charge.

State To Solve Bike Hazards

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Highway drainage gate hazards to bicycle traffic in Novato, Stinson Beach and Point Reyes Station and 18 other Bay Area locations will be eliminated under a $13,662 contract let by the state Department of Public Works.

The Filipovich Construction Co. of Orinda was the lowest of 18 bidders on the project Wednesday, the department reported. The work consists of welding steel bars over the grates to raise them to pavement level.

Tiburon Firemen Tank To District

Tiburon Volunteer Firemen have donated a 15,000-gallon folding water tank to the Tiburon Fire District, according to John Grbac president.

The $350 tank, which is used to hold additional water at a fire site, was purchased with proceeds from the annual firemen's ball held in January.

Bay Area, New Mexico Firms Discuss Merger

Discussions regarding a merger are now under way by Nuclear Engineering Co. at Walnut Creek and Continental American Royalty Co., Inc. of Dallas.

Nuclear Engineering is engaged in the business of radioactive waste disposal and similiar services. It operates disposal sites in Nevada, Kentucky, Illinois and Washington.

Continental operates a large potash mine and refinery near Carlsbad, N. M., as its principal business.

SKAGGS PAY LESS DRUG STORES, headquartered in Oakland, reported $84.6 million net sales for 1968, up 20 per cent from 1967 and the highest sales in its history. Earnings before income taxes rose 45 per cent to $4.9 million. Earnings per share, after including the 10 per cent income tax surcharge, increased 24 per cent to $1.07 per share. Payless Drug Store in San Rafael is not a part of this operation.

BROADWAY-HALE STORES, INC. of Los Angeles has been notified by the Federal Trade Commission that its merger acquisition of Neiman-Marcus Co., Dallas, has been approved. Under the merger, 1.05 shares of a recently authorized Broadway-Hale convertible preferred stock will be issued for each share of Neiman-Marcus common stock. The merger must still be approved by Neiman-Marcus shareholders.

SANTA FE INDUSTRIES, Inc. consolidated net income for 1968 amounted to $59.6 million or $2.43 per share, compared with $2.30 per share in 1967. Fourth quarter income at $20.9 million was only slightly above the 1967 fourth quarter. After taxes, 1968 net earnings amounted to $1.81 per share compared to 1967's $1.72 per share.

COMALCO INDUSTRIES PTY., LTD. largest Australian producer of alumnium, reported consolidated net earnings of $10.8 million for 1968 after provision for income tax. This represents a 29 per cent increase from the previous year. Comalco was established in 1961 as a joint equal partnership of Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corp. and Conzinc Rio Tinto of Australia.

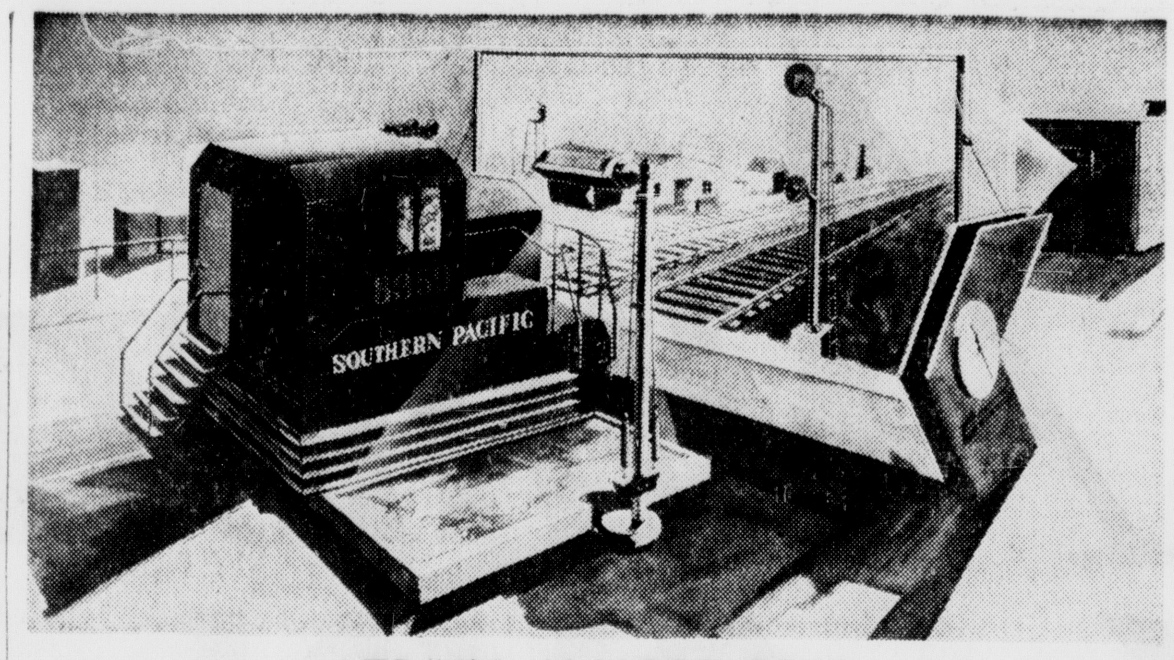
RADIO CORP. OF AMERICA directors have voted to recommend that the company's name be changed to RCA Corp. The change will be submitted to stockholders at their May meeting. While RCA's original communications business has continued to grow it now accounts for only 2 per cent of its total volume. Besides its manufacturing projects in various fields the company is now engaged in publishing, car rentals and leasing and is proposing to enter the paper industry through a merger with the St. Regis Paper Co.

LIQUIDONICS INDUSTRIES, INC. has offered to purchase 1,158,700 shares of UMC Industries, Inc. common stock for $30 per share. The offer expires next Friday.

WEYERHAUSER CO., Tacoma-based forest products firm, has reported a $105 million net profit for 1968, equal to $3.51 per share and up 75 per cent from 1967's $2 per share. Sales exceeded $1 billion, up 16 per cent.

AMERICAN BUILDING MAINTENANCE INDUSTRIES, San Francisco, reported record sales of $55.8 million and $1,145,723 net income for 1968. Sales were up 12.5 per cent from 1967 and net income was up 38 per cent. Earnings per share were $1.02, compared with 76 cents in 1967. The company plans on being listed on the American and Pacific Coast Stock Exchanges in 1969.

NATIONAL AIRMOTIVE CORP., a San Leandro-based aircraft engine specialist company, has been acquired by the Republic Corp. of Beverly Hills. National sales and service operations total over $3 million annually. Republic Corp. operations in communications, electronics and other fields are nationwide and the company employs more than 6,500 persons.



TRAIN ALMOST REAL

Southern Pacific has ordered the railroad industry's first simulator to train locomotive engineers. Artist's conception of the $1 million system shows how multiple motion picture screens will provide the trainee's view of the track and a computer, at left, which will generate "incidents" to make the training experience more realistic. Conductron Missouri Division of Conductron Corp. will build the simulator for Southern Pacific.

Wall Street Ends Week On Upturn

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed with a small gain on balance today. Trading was fairly active.

Volume was 12.78 million shares compared with 12.57 million yesterday.

Of 1,568 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange, 705 advanced and 619 declined. New highs for 1968-'69 totaled 25 and new lows 12.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined .3 to 360.1 with industrials off .1, rails off .4 and utilities off .3.

The market was a little higher from the start, improved through most of the day, and ended in heavy trading with the tacker tape four minutes late.

Clorox traded on 88,400 shares, off ¾ at 25¼. Goldman, Sachs represented institutions on both sides of the transaction.

Cab Firm Buys Airport Buses

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Barrett Transportation Inc., which operates 27 buses from San Francisco International Airport, will become the property of Yellow Cab Co. Feb. 28 for an undisclosed price.

Yellow Cab, a subsidiary of Westgate-California Corp. of San Diego, already has the taxicab franchise from the airport and operates 503 of San Francisco's 739 cabs.

General Manager Robert J. Hamilton of Yellow Cab said there were no immediate plans for changes in personnel.

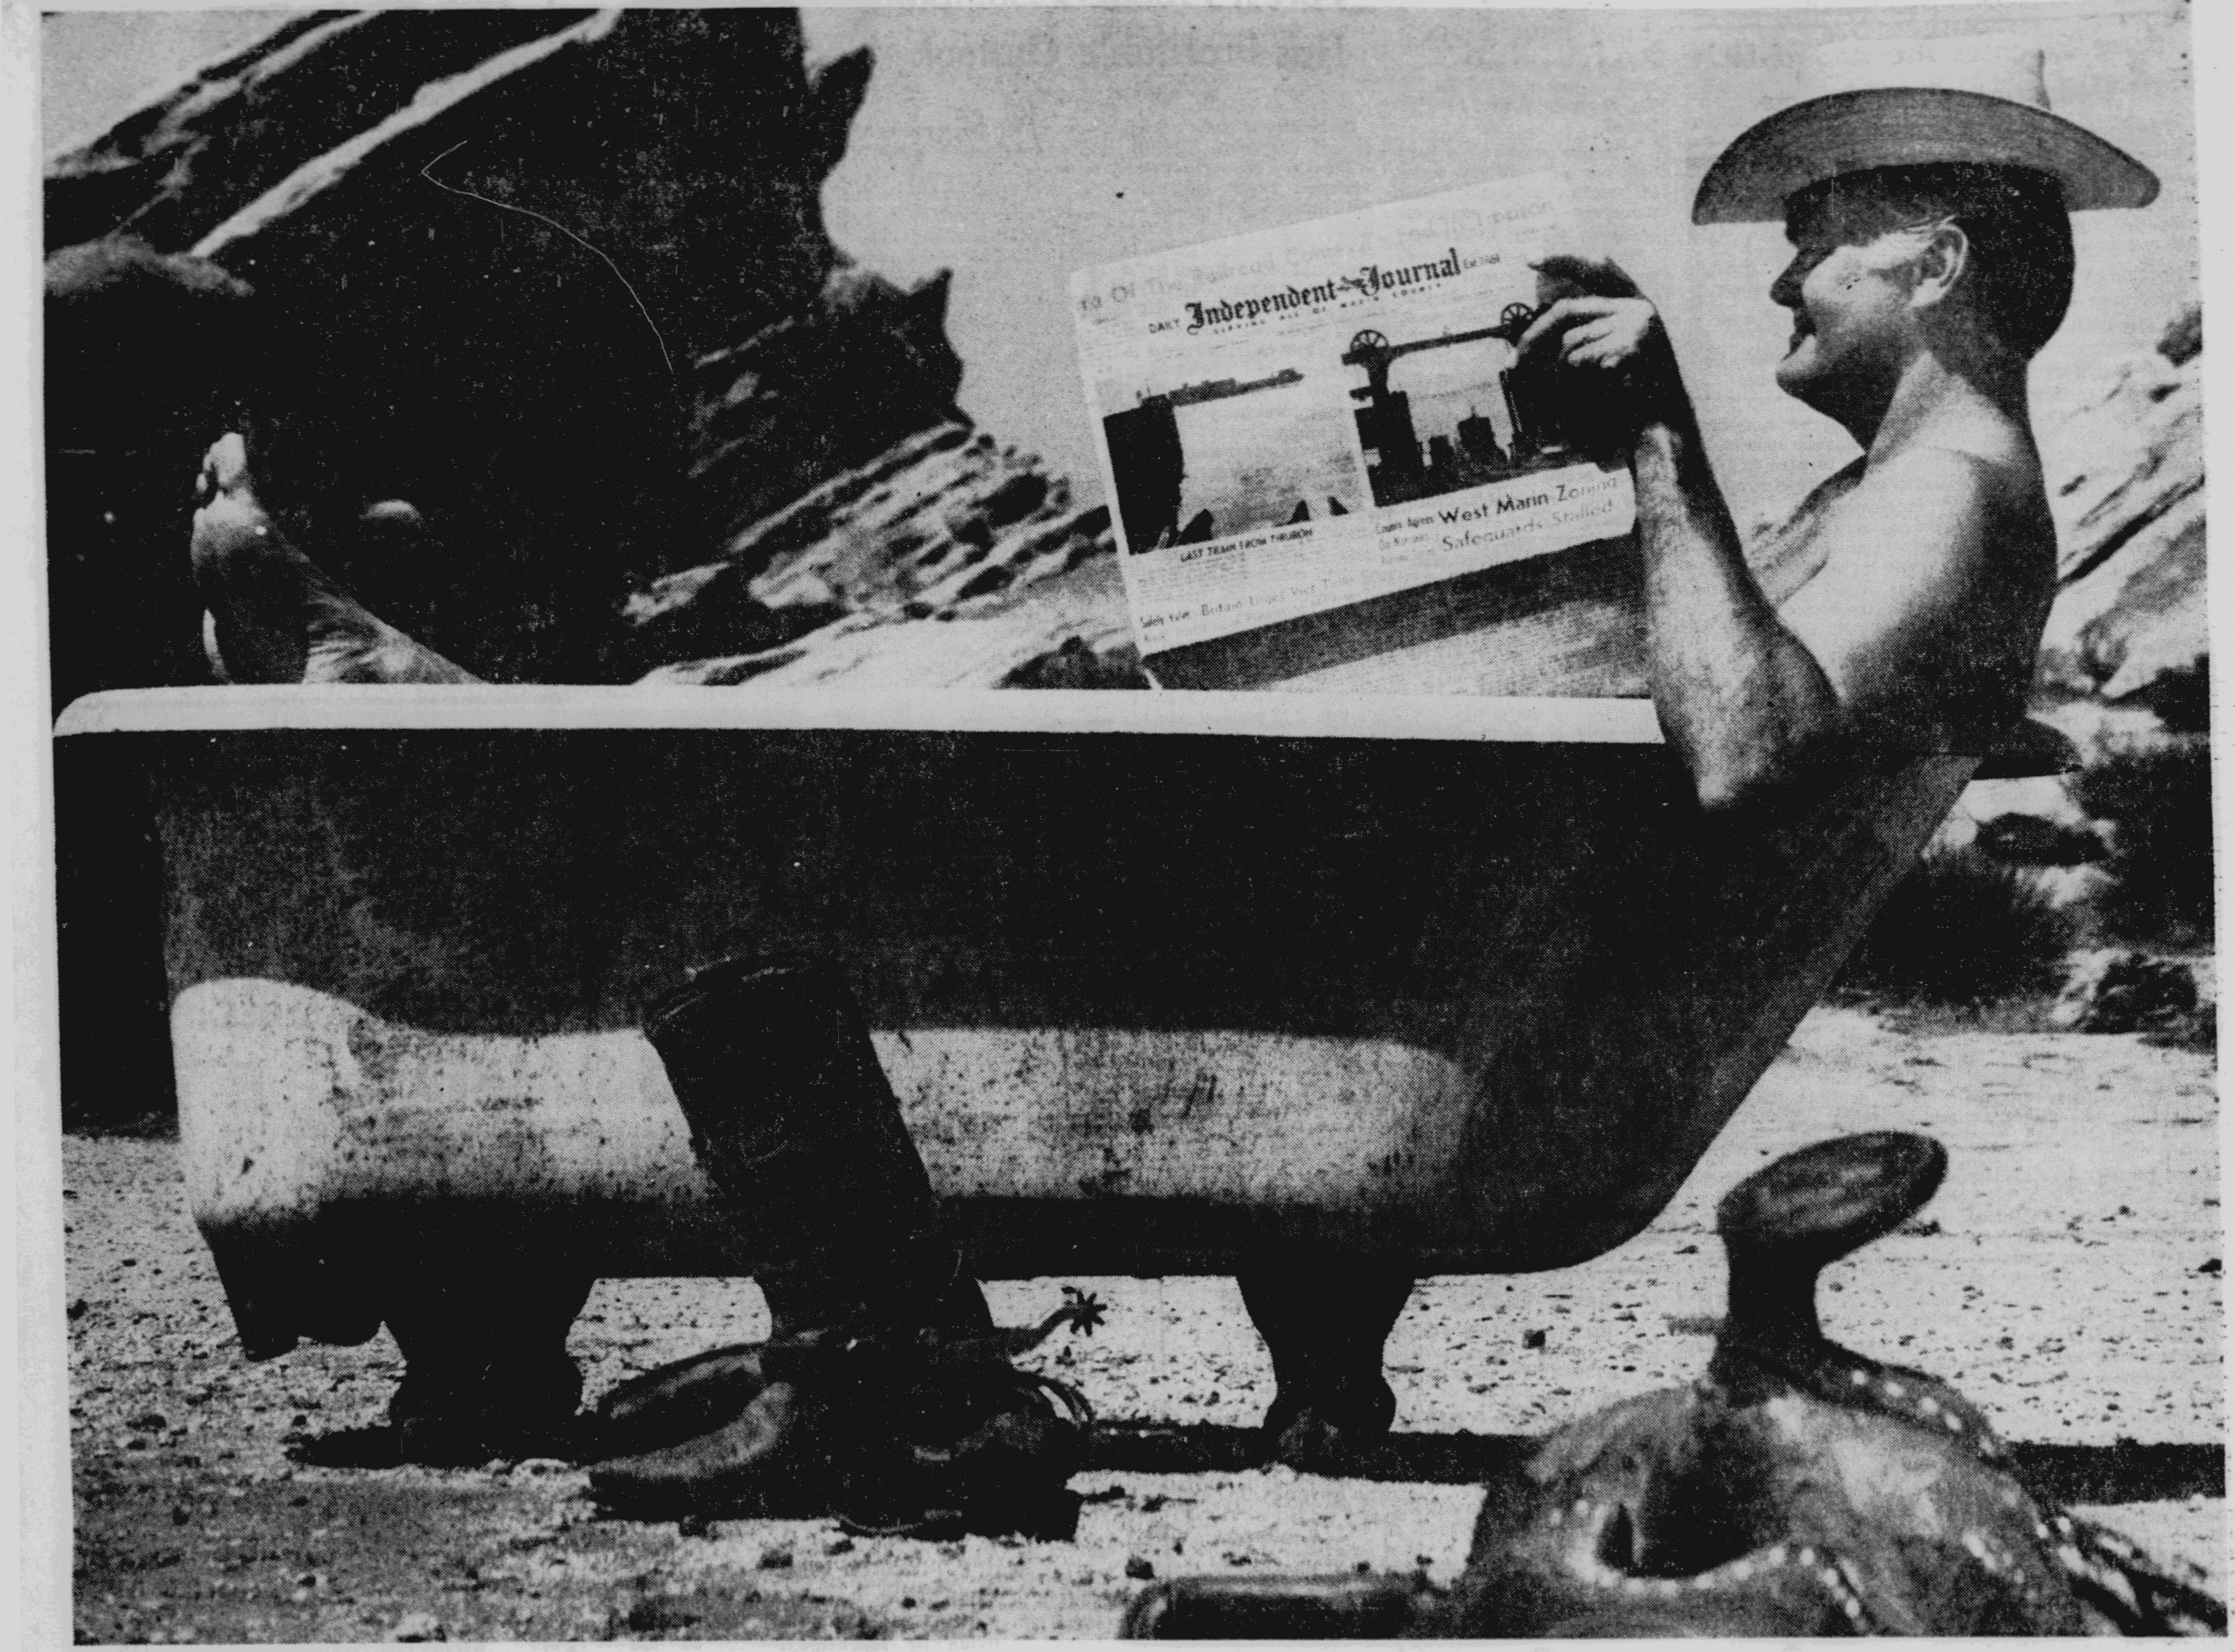
How to get there: Take Ignacio Boulevard turnoff from Highway 101 North of San Rafael. Follow our sign to Ignacio Boulevard and Country Club Drive.



Big spread on the home range*

Ride your eyes over the I-J and you'll see more local Marin and Sonoma County news stories than you'd find in a month of metropolitan or weekly newspapers.

Because our reporters and editors never forget, in rounding up the news, that this is YOUR HOME RANGE. They never forget that local news helps everyone feel at home, be a part of local living, become a better citizen.

This is why our newsmen ride herd so closely on public events, politics, education, cultural affairs, community doings—jumping the fences too, after strays. And since news, like new grass, springs up daily, our staff is always in the saddle on the stirring, spurring drive for information.

I-J covers every acre of important, local news

I-J news bureaus in Mill Valley, Corte Madera, the Civic Center, Novato, and Petaluma (besides the main San Rafael editorial office) bring you on-the-spot reporting.

Photographic coverage, Southern Marin and Southern Sonoma County — and everything in between!

Detailed, in-person reporting of city and county affairs that concern you, the public.

At-the-game reporting of school sports events —by the I-J's own sports staff.

Marin Magazine — perspectives on county history, personalities, architecture, outdoor living, the Arts, gardening.

Women's activities—complete, county-wide reporting of clubs, meetings, projects of special concern to women.

INCOME TAX FACTS

By PETER JAMES WIKEL, CPA

Wikel

The Internal Revenue Code allows individuals to take a deduction for ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred (1) for the production and collection of income; (2) for the management, conservation or maintenance of income-producing property, or (3) in connection with the determination, collection or refund of any tax.

The expenses of commuting between your residence and any business location situated within the area of your tax home are not deductible, regardless of distance, or different locations on different days.

NON DEDUCTIBLES

If you haul tools, etc., in your car in commuting to and from your place of business for your convenience, the cost of operating the car is non-deductible.

However, if you cannot store the tools, etc., at the place you work, or if you work at different locations every day, and also you would not have used your car except for hauling tools, etc., which are too bulky or heavy to be carried otherwise, the expense is deductible.

CLOTHING POLICY

Work clothes and uniforms are deductible if your occupation is one which specifically requires special apparel or equipment as a condition of employment and it is not adaptable to general or continued usage so as to take the place of ordinary clothing.

Deductible work clothes include the cost of special apparel and equipment required in the occupations of ballplayers, firemen, police officers, letter carriers, nurses and civilian faculty members of a military school.

The cost of theatrical clothing and accessories used by professional musicians and entertainers is deductible if used solely in the course of their employment.

Uniforms of transportation employees — air, rail, bus, etc., are deductible if they are used solely in the course of their employment.

SAFETY ELEMENTS

Some occupations require safety shoes and helmets, others require work gloves, oil clothes and rubber boots, such as are worn by commercial fisherman. Costs of these are deductible.

If you are a reservist in the Armed Forces, you may deduct, to the extent not reimbursed, the cost of your uniform if it may legally be worn only while performing duties as a reservist.

In computing the deduction, the cost must be reduced by any non-taxable allowance you receive on account of such expenses. If you are on full-time duty in the Armed Forces, the cost of your uniform is not deductible.

SUBSTITUTE PAY

To school teachers, amounts which you pay for a substitute teacher to take your place are deductible. However, you are not entitled to this deduction to the extent that it is allocable to amounts excluded as sick pay.

Subscriptions to professional journals, etc., relating to your business or profession.

Membership dues in professional societies, and union dues. Also small tools and supplies, employment agency fees, physical examination fees paid by you and required by your employer to establish your physical fitness to retain your job.

Moving expenses for a new job, traveling expenses not reimbursed by your employer, entertainment expenses not reimbursed by your employer, school teachers' sabbatical leave expenses, use of your home in your work, attorneys' and accountants' fees on tax matters, automobile expenses not reimbursed by your employer, and educational expenses.

These and many more items are deductible if you know the rules.

Get a copy of "Your Federal Income Tax 1969 Edition for Individuals" from your office of the IRS (cost 60 cents) and look up every item of expense you had in 1968. You may have an unexpected deduction.

Studies show that 85 per cent of fatal accidents occur in the home.

Sausalito Police Report Burglars Busy Four Places

Cash and four watches were taken in four weekend burglaries, Sausalito police have reported.

Three residential burglaries were committed Sunday and the victim of one saw the burglar as he fled. Retta Donaldson of 301 Bridgeway, said the burglar fled her house as she arrived home at 6 p.m. He made off with two pocket watches of unknown value. Mrs. Donaldson said the burglar was white, approximately 21, slender and of medium height.

Jay Williar reported his apartment at 80 Bulkley Avenue was entered Sunday and $30 taken. Fifteen dollars was taken from the residence of Martine Bulto, 408 Locust Street.

One Freed, One Held On Credit Card Use

A charge of illegal use of a credit card at the Emporium against a Vallejo man was dismissed yesterday in Marin Municipal Court, but a co-defendant was bound over to Superior Court on a similar charge.

Jesse Jackson, 28, will be arraigned in Superior Court Monday. Discharged was Wilmer Barkus, 39. They were arrested Dec. 6.

Forest Products Company Has Profitable Outlook

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. Seeking a growth stock for my daughter's education — she is now 14 — I purchased Southwest Forest Industries. Ddi I make a good choice? — E.G.

A. You have bought shares in a well-situated, integrated forest products company with an above-average outlook. The company has been active in acquiring firms in related areas to supplement or extend its operations. Four acquisitions are pending which could add $11 million to annual sales.

In addition to production of lumber and plywood, waste products are utilized in the manufacture of pulp and paper. Newsprint is sold principally to Hearst Publications through a long-term contract. Real estate and a short rail line are other aspects of company operations.

In the six-month period through October sales were up 28 per cent to $45 million while earnings were 83 cents a share for a gain of 52 per cent year to year. On a fully diluted basis, earnings for the full year could reach $1.25 a share from 95 cents in fiscal 1968.

Q. Most mutual funds, when new, come out for around $10. How is it possible that after five years of remarkable performance I was able to buy my mutual fund for $8.50 and now nine months later it is only $12.50? Do funds split? Why is there such a variety of prices?—F.S.

A. Merchandising is an important factor in fund prices and lower prices have a broader marketing appeal.

Your fund, which has done very well, split its shares 3 for 1 late in 1967. Although you have a gain of 47 per cent in your shares, this is not necessarily indicative of future performances. Stock splits and dividends are commonly used by funds to keep their shares reasonably priced; more than a dozen funds split last year.

In order to understand fund price variations, you must know how daily quotes are figured. Total assets are divided by the number of shares outstanding to calculate the bid or lower price quote. The higher or ask price is net asset value plus loading or commission charge.

State To Solve Bike Hazards

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Highway drainage gate hazards to bicycle traffic in Novato, Stinson Beach and Point Reyes Station and 18 other Bay Area locations will be eliminated under a $13,662 contract let by the state Department of Public Works.

The Filipovich Construction Co. of Orinda was the lowest of 18 bidders on the project Wednesday, the department reported. The work consists of welding steel bars over the grates to raise them to pavement level.

Tiburon Firemen Tank To District

Tiburon Volunteer Firemen have donated a 15,000-gallon folding water tank to the Tiburon Fire District, according to John Grbac president.

The $350 tank, which is used to hold additional water at a fire site, was purchased with proceeds from the annual firemen's ball held in January.

Joint Sewer Agreement Is Reached

The Cotati City Council last night approved an agreement with Rohnert Park to use the neighboring city's sewage treatment and disposal plant.

The agreement sets no charges for use of facilities, but a section allows Cotati to withdraw if the plan is not financially feasible.

The Rohnert Park City Council has not yet studied the plan, but Cotati City Mgr. Gordon C. Howe said the agreement will become final if approved by the Rohnert Park Council. Cotati then would enter into a sewer line construction program to link up with the Rohnert Park system.

The Cotati City Council also:

IMPROVEMENTS Postponed for further study an ordinance that would give the planning commission authority to require improvements such as curbs, gutters and sidewalks where feasible.

SALARY — Granted a regular salary step increase to patrolman Olindo Locarini from $547 per month to $578. Locarini has completed his six months on probationery status.

EQUIPMENT — Authorized Howe to go ahead with the sale of unused city equipment which includes a street sweeper and a mower.

CLAIM — Rejected claim of Johnny Ray Earl, who is charging illegal arrest for drunkeness and distrubing the peace on Oct. 20. Earl is seeking $25,290 for court expenses and humiliation.

WEEDS — Approved motion to begin enforcement of the weed abatement ordinance by sending notices to property owners in violation.

REPAIR — Approved expenditure of $75 for routine repairs to the patrol car.

Ross Valley Clinic Medics In New Home

The Ross Valley Medical Clinic with its staff of 22 doctors has moved to its new home in Greenbrae.

After more than 20 years at 1030 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Kentfield the clinic officially opened this week at 1350 South Eliseo Drive in its new $1,400,000 building near Bon Air Road and Marin General Hospital. Construction on the building was commenced a year ago this month.

In addition to the 22 physicians practicing here, the clinic maintains a laboratory, X-ray and physical therapy facilities and a pharmacy. The clinic continues under C. Don Clay as administrator.

Headed by Dr. John C. Siemens, the group of physicians from in front of it and was Robert J. Alderson, William C. Andrews, E. Muriel Bennett, Frederick Burrell, Wendell Butler, J. Lyman Hurlbut, Duval B. Jaros, Morris R. Katkov, Clarence A. Lesko, Bruce S. Manheim, William G. Manson, Edward A. McCrum, Milton K. McDowell, Chester B. Noyes, Paul Ogden, Warren F. Rogers, Mark Rubenstein, J. Gavin Southerland, R. J. Truex and Joe R. Utley.

Hijacked Jet Passenger Is Asking $50,000

MIAMI (AP) — A $50,000 lawsuit charging Eastern Airlines with negligence has been filed here by a passenger who said he suffered a heart attack and robbery after his plane was hijacked to Cuba.

It was the first suit here against an airline in connection with a hijack. Several thousand Americans have been hijacked.

Rocco Roy Pompeo, 47, a car salesman from North Miami, was aboard Eastern Flight 401 hijacked Jan. 2 by a Negro gunman who held a 2-year-old boy hostage on the scheduled New York-Miami flight.

Pompeo said his $175 camel hair coat and an envelope containing $156 cash were lost while the plane was in Havana. He said he tried to take the coat, with the money in a pocket, but Cuban militiamen prevented him from doing so.

He said he suffered the heart attack Jan. 4, the day after the passengers were flown back from Cuba.

Go-Ahead Is Given On School Sketches

The fourth district school, to be planned by the architectural firm of Steele and Van Dyke, will be located south of La Tercera School on what will be an extension of St. Francis Drive.

Supt. Dean Magown said the school should take an enrollment of 700 to 750 students and estimated that construction would begin in the spring of 1970.

Magown pointed out the school site is presently an open field, but predicted that by the time construction is completed, it will have subdivisions on two sides. He said the extension of St. Francis Drive that will serve the school will be completed this summer.

The Old Adobe School District Board Also:

FURNITURE — Awarded $6,451 in contracts for furniture for the addition to La Tercera School. Contracts went to Virco Furniture Co., $504 for teacher desks; Holsinger Furniture Co., $3,561 for student chairs, and Anco Sales Co., $2,386 for folding tables.

FAMILY LIFE — Heard report from Magown that his office is meeting with representatives of Parent-Teacher Associations to plan a family life education program. He said his office may present a program recommendation to the board at the Feb. 20 meeting.

TRAILER — Approved purchase of a $3,000 trailer to be used as temporary office space for the district office. It will be tentatively located at La Tercera School.

GRANT — Approved district application for $4,300 in federal funds to support the counseling and guidance program.

Legislator To Oppose Closings Of Vet Offices

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A Republican assemblyman said today he will oppose the Reagan administration's closing of five of the 13 offices which process Cal-Vet farm and home loans.

"The department not only cannot justify this decision, but is guilty of not telling the truth," Assemblyman William E. Ketchum, R-Paso Robles, said in a written statement.

On Dec. 31 Veterans Affairs Director James E. Johnson said the closing of offices at Santa Rosa, Oakland, Modesto, Bakersfield and Inglewood would save about $90,000 a year.

Johnson, who since has been appointed a U.S. Civil Service commissioner by President Nixon, said the legislature's action raising the Cal-Vet loan maximum from $15,000 to $20,000 made a great demand on funds prompting money-saving moves.

Street Lighting Poles Discussed

The Fairfax Design Review board was told last night that the number of poles for street lighting on Bolinas Road from Broadway to Sherman Avenue could be reduced since it is possible to install up to three fixtures on a pole.

Phase one of the proposed new street lighting system originally called for 16 poles in this area. Donald F. Heinitz, Pacific Gas and Electric Co. lighting representative, presented the plan but no action was taken, according to secretary Dell Blodgett.

The board agreed to hold a special meeting, but no date was set, to discuss the city's sign ordinance. It will also ask the Fairfax Planning Commission to set a public hearing on the ordinance.

Big spread on the home range*

Ride your eyes over the I-J and you'll see more local Marin and Sonoma County news stories than you'd find in a month of metropolitan or weekly newspapers.

Because our reporters and editors never forget, in rounding up the news, that this is YOUR HOME RANGE. They never forget that local news helps everyone feel at home, be a part of local living, become a better citizen.

This is why our newsmen ride herd so closely on public events, politics, education, cultural affairs, community doings—jumping the fences too, after strays. And since news, like new grass, springs up daily, our staff is always in the saddle on the stirring, spurring drive for information.

I-J covers every acre of important, local news

I-J news bureaus in Mill Valley, Corte Madera, the Civic Center, Novato, and Petaluma (besides the main San Rafael editorial office) bring you on-the-spot reporting.

Photographic coverage, Southern Marin and Southern Sonoma County — and everything in between!

Detailed, in-person reporting of city and county affairs that concern you, the public.

At-the-game reporting of school sports events —by the I-J's own sports staff.

Marin Magazine — perspectives on county history, personalities, architecture, outdoor living, the Arts, gardening.

Women's activities—complete, county-wide reporting of clubs, meetings, projects of special concern to women.

Marin Dining And Wining

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Occidental's Main Industry Is Dinners By The Thousands

Occidental's biggest industry is eating.

This amazing little Sonoma County community, which lies roughly half way between Sebastopol and the Pacific Ocean, comes to life at dinnertime. Once known as Howard's Station, it was founded during the middle of the last century by William (Dutch Bill) Howard, who settled in the area about the time the rest of California was caught up in the gold fever.

Occidental's food service business is controlled by three — or rather four —Italian families, the Fioris, the Negris, the Panizzeras and the Gonnellas. Operating at three restaurants, Fiori's, Negri's and the old Union Hotel, together they will serve on an average balmy Sunday possibly as many as 4,000 dinners.

Make that an Easter Sunday or Mother's Day and the total is somewhere between 8,000 and 9,000. This means a five-time turnover at the tables and up to 10 or 12 times the population of the entire town and its environs.

Main roads enter Occidental from three directions and each of them provides a channel from near and far points for the flow of cutomers. Naturally on weekdays the tide of dinner patrons ebbs, but all three restaurants remain open seven days a week to capture whatever trade may develop.

THERE ARE NO printed menus and dinners are limited to a choice of three entrees, chicken, duck and steak. In the case of Negri's there are four, with both fried chicken and chicken cacciatora served. In all cases, prices are under $3 for chicken and under $5 for steak, with the duck about halfway between.

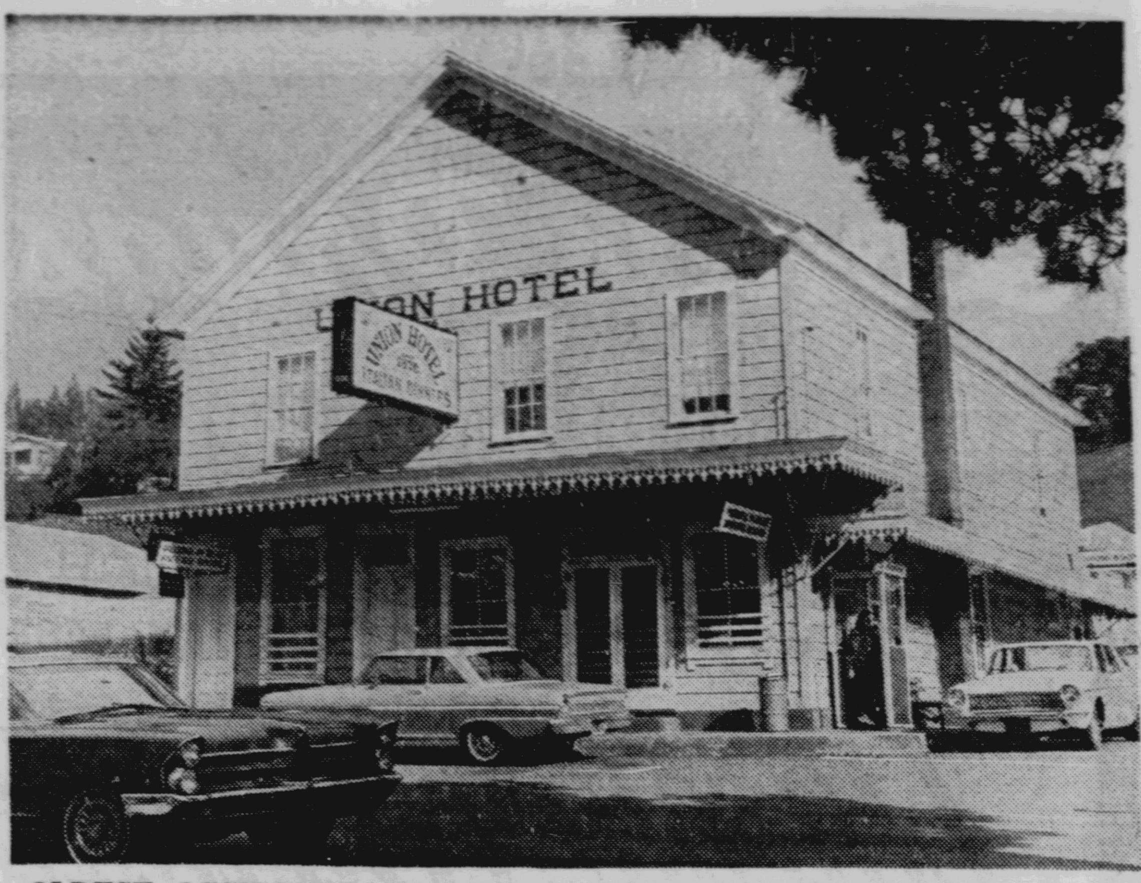
But to describe any of these meals simply as "a chicken dinner" or "a steak dinner" does them a gross injustice. The entree is all but lost in the vast array of food. Soup, salad, antipastos and side dishes are piled on the table. By the time you reach the entree you may be too full to eat it, so just take it home with you.

Lunches on Mondays through Fridays are no less overwhelming. In the $1 to $1.50 range, meals are generous, savory to nose and appetizing to the palate.

The Fiori family has been in the restaurant business here for about 30 years and the Negris eight or nine years longer than that. Negri's burned down in 1966 and was rebuilt along more modern lines and with much more space that same year. It can serve 800 meals at a single sitting, compared with Fiori's 350.

The Union Hotel is the oldst of the three. It was built in 1879 and was taken over by Carlo and Mary Panizzera in 1924. Their daughter Lucille is married to Dan Gonnella and they manage it. There is also a modern Union Motel nearby. Restaurant seating in the old hotel is 450 or 500. All three restaurants have their dining rooms divided, so if business is quiet you are not isolated in a big hall.

Anyone within 100 miles of Occidental should visit there at least once in his lifetime, and having accomplished that feat will undoubtedly return for a repeat performance. The ride from any direction is scenic and enjoyable. But on a weekend, be prepared for a wait, even with all the tables that are available.



OLDEST OCCIDENTAL RESTAURANT—Union Hotel, one of three major restaurants which have made eating a big industry in this Sonoma County community, was built in 1879. On an average Sunday, Union Hotel, Negri's and Fiori's will serve up to 4,000 dinners.

THE FILET STEAK IMPERIAL on the Empress Delight Dinner at Kublai Khan is mouth watering, and you don't need the fabled sword of the great Mongolian monarch to cut it.

Technically, I suppose, there may be more classical Chinese cuisine than this dinner, but the difference is inconsequential when it comes to the sheer pleasure of eating. Besides the filet, there are bird's nest soup, butterfly prawns; gim wah chicken filet sauted with ham, mushrooms, bamboo shoots and water chestnuts; fried rice, tea and dessert. Add lobster if there are four or more of you. The tab is $4.95 per person, but it's well worth it.

An alternate dinner at the same price which should appeal to those with a more Occidental taste is the lobster and chateaubriand, served with appetizer plate, salad, dessert and tea or coffee.

Take-out Chinese dinners are also offered at this Strawberry Town and Country Village dinery. Prices range from $1.75 up to $4 per person, with the same add-on features when ordered for three, four or five persons or more.

FLEUR DE FRANCE, San Rafael, has steadily increased its dinner business, particularly on weekends, and has put out a new menu.

Several of the former favorites are still represented, but among the additions are London broil, saute sirloin Marchand de vin, veal cordon bleu, a club steak billed as Fleur de France steak, double cut lamb chops, frog legs dore or sec and broied lobster tail. Complete dinners are from $3.10 to $5.25.

THE SAN RAFAEL ELKS CLUB has been cited for its coffee.

The Coffee Brewing Center of the Pan American Coffee Bureau in New York has presented the club with its 1969 Golden Cup accolade. This is only its 15th award made this year.

THERE ARE THREE good reasons for the annual celebration which will take place at Lin Fa Gardens in Northgate next Friday night.

First, it commemorates Ethel Barrie's fifth anniversary at this location. Also next Friday happens to be Valentine's Day. And if that isn't enough cause, Chinese New Year's is just around the corner, the following Monday.

But the entertainment, as it always is here, will be Polynesian. Look for two floor shows and dancing at 8:30 and again at 10:30 p.m. Time your arrival for dinner accordingly, with a little leeway, so you can get a table.

Hal Schutz will play the organ in the Mai Tai Room, so there will be plenty of music and gaiety.

NOW FEATURED at Latitude 38 in Sausalito is the "new sound" of Johnny Allair's Trio. Johnny is at the organ, Dale Ramey plays guitar and Dennis Herne is on drums. They play rock-jazz Tuesday through Saturday night sfrom 8:30 p.m. through the week and from 9 p.m. on weekends.

FOOD COSTS at grocery stores are up 4 per cent over a year ago and the cost of restaurant meals are said to have increased 5.7 per cent in the last 12 months.

Pietro Pinoni of Greenbrae, owner of Pietro's 311 Restaurant in San Francisco, wants it known that one figure is higher than the other for several good reasons: Wages for restaurant help are up 5 per cent; welfare is up 10 per cent; income and business taxes are both higher than the year before.

Just in case you were going to make a crack about restaurants getting an extra slice of the melon.

THE SAN FRANCISCO DINERS CLUB, mentioned in this column last week as having an office in the Albert Building, San Rafael, has changed to Room D, 935 Lootens Place, where more telephone lines were available.

FOR SATURDAYS AND SUNDAYS at Sabella's from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. there is now a "Carefree Weekend Menu." Included are a number of eggs, seafood, meat and other specialties ranging from $1.75 to $3.95.

I understand that the late Angelo Sabella's pride and joy, the "Mark Angelo," a 33-foot Pacemaker, fully loaded for sport and commercial fishing, is up for sale and berthed in Sausalito. Talk to Lou Sabella about this.

Monday night's annual American Cancer Society dinner at Sabella's promises to have an array of talent to make this a memorable evening of entertainment. I left this item until last, hoping to get the cast of Hollywood performers who will be on the program — but that information did not come in time for this column.

New Letterman Opening Is Set

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Army will open its new $13 million, 550-bed Letterman General Hospital on the Presidio of San Francisco next Friday.

First patients are to use the 10-story structure in March.

The building is designed eventually to replace the 28 separate building in the present complex, many of them dating to the Spanish-American War.

Letterman, the main Army hospital on the West Coast, will have seven operating rooms and an X-ray machine capable of transmitting two million photon units to a tumor patient.

Snipers Fail In Hitting Policemen

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Snipers unsuccessfully fired on two policemen who were arresting two youths on auto theft charges last night in the Hunters Point district.

Patrolmen Willis Garriott and Bob Gillin were not hit and said they could not find the weapons nor the gunmen.

WINE DISCOVERIES at CAFE BON VIN
WHAT SUNDAYS they have in SAN ANSELMO!
Two people last Sunday thought all we served was Bonnet Carré (Doctor's Cap). But it was only one of a dozen rarely-encountered bruncheon dishes served every Sunday. $3.95, which includes champagne, fruit, hot breads, coffee — and more champagne.
Five people promised to return each week until they had tasted all twelve "dejeuners de roi" (royal court brunches). We promised to keep ahead of them with new discoveries. They sighed . . . happily.
Seven people refused our bottle-fermented brut champagne. We were on the point of tears until we discovered they were, respectively: 9, 7, 14, 6, 19, 12, 17 years of age.
Nine people ordered Dover Sole in the style of the Miller's Wife; after which they ordered the Miller's Wife.
Sunday Brunch at Cafe Bon Vin seems to be establishing another Marin tradition . . . just like Provincial Dinners Wednesday (Carbonnade à la Flamande on Wednesday, February 12 — a Flemish dish which uses beer like wine should be used — preceded by a "Tasting of Wine Discoveries" led by Fred Cherry). And like the Champagne Gala — 10 courses; and the Grand Dinner — 6 courses; and the Petit Dinner — 4 courses . . . priced from 3.75 to 9.75.
And there's wine! Ah, such wine!

Joint Sewer Agreement Is Reached

The Cotati City Council last night approved an agreement with Rohnert Park to use the neighboring city's sewage treatment and disposal plant.

The agreement sets no charges for use of facilities, but a section allows Cotati to withdraw if the plan is not financially feasible.

The Rohnert Park City Council has not yet studied the plan, but Cotati City Mgr. Gordon C. Howe said the agreement will become final if approved by the Rohnert Park Council. Cotati then would enter into a sewer line construction program to link up with the Rohnert Park system.

The Cotati City Council also:

IMPROVEMENTS Postponed for further study an ordinance that would give the planning commission authority to require improvements such as curbs, gutters and sidewalks where feasible.

SALARY — Granted a regular salary step increase to patrolman Olindo Locarini from $547 per month to $578. Locarini has completed his six months on probationery status.

EQUIPMENT — Authorized Howe to go ahead with the sale of unused city equipment which includes a street sweeper and a mower.

CLAIM — Rejected claim of Johnny Ray Earl, who is charging illegal arrest for drunkeness and distrubing the peace on Oct. 20. Earl is seeking $25,290 for court expenses and humiliation.

WEEDS — Approved motion to begin enforcement of the weed abatement ordinance by sending notices to property owners in violation.

REPAIR — Approved expenditure of $75 for routine repairs to the patrol car.

Ross Valley Clinic Medics In New Home

The Ross Valley Medical Clinic with its staff of 22 doctors has moved to its new home in Greenbrae.

After more than 20 years at 1030 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Kentfield the clinic officially opened this week at 1350 South Eliseo Drive in its new $1,400,000 building near Bon Air Road and Marin General Hospital. Construction on the building was commenced a year ago this month.

In addition to the 22 physicians practicing here, the clinic maintains a laboratory, X-ray and physical therapy facilities and a pharmacy. The clinic continues under C. Don Clay as administrator.

Headed by Dr. John C. Siemens, the group of physicians from in front of it and was Robert J. Alderson, William C. Andrews, E. Muriel Bennett, Frederick Burrell, Wendell Butler, J. Lyman Hurlbut, Duval B. Jaros, Morris R. Katkov, Clarence A. Lesko, Bruce S. Manheim, William G. Manson, Edward A. McCrum, Milton K. McDowell, Chester B. Noyes, Paul Ogden, Warren F. Rogers, Mark Rubenstein, J. Gavin Southerland, R. J. Truex and Joe R. Utley.

Hijacked Jet Passenger Is Asking $50,000

MIAMI (AP) — A $50,000 lawsuit charging Eastern Airlines with negligence has been filed here by a passenger who said he suffered a heart attack and robbery after his plane was hijacked to Cuba.

It was the first suit here against an airline in connection with a hijack. Several thousand Americans have been hijacked.

Rocco Roy Pompeo, 47, a car salesman from North Miami, was aboard Eastern Flight 401 hijacked Jan. 2 by a Negro gunman who held a 2-year-old boy hostage on the scheduled New York- Miami flight.

Pompeo said his $175 camel hair coat and an envelope containing $156 cash were lost while the plane was in Havana. He said he tried to take the coat, with the money in a pocket, but Cuban militiamen prevented him from doing so.

He said he suffered the heart attack Jan. 4, the day after the passengers were flown back from Cuba.

Go-Ahead Is Given On School Sketches

The fourth district school, to be planned by the architectural firm of Steele and Van Dyke, will be located south of La Tercera School on what will be an extension of St. Francis Drive.

Supt. Dean Magown said the school should take an enrollment of 700 to 750 students and estimated that construction would begin in the spring of 1970.

Magown pointed out the school site is presently an open field, but predicted that by the time construction is completed, it will have subdivisions on two sides. He said the extension of St. Francis Drive that will serve the school will be completed this summer.

The Old Adobe School District Board Also:

FURNITURE — Awarded $6,451 in contracts for furniture for the addition to La Tercera School. Contracts went to Virco Furniture Co., $504 for teacher desks; Holsinger Furniture Co., $3,561 for student chairs, and Anco Sales Co., $2,386 for folding tables.

FAMILY LIFE — Heard report from Magown that his office is meeting with representatives of Parent-Teacher Associations to plan a family life education program. He said his office may present a program recommendation to the board at the Feb. 20 meeting.

TRAILER — Approved purchase of a $3,000 trailer to be used as temporary office space for the district office. It will be tentatively located at La Tercera School.

GRANT — Approved district application for $4,300 in federal funds to support the counseling and guidance program.

Legislator To Oppose Closings Of Vet Offices

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A Republican assemblyman said today he will oppose the Reagan administration's closing of five of the 13 offices which process Cal-Vet farm and home loans.

"The department not only cannot justify this decision, but is guilty of not telling the truth," Assemblyman William E. Ketchum, R-Paso Robles, said in a written statement.

On Dec. 31 Veterans Affairs Director James E. Johnson said the closing of offices at Santa Rosa, Oakland, Modesto, Bakersfield and Inglewood would save about $90,000 a year.

Johnson, who since has been appointed a U.S. Civil Service commissioner by President Nixon, said the legislature's action raising the Cal-Vet loan maximum from $15,000 to $20,000 made a great demand on funds prompting money-saving moves.

Street Lighting Poles Discussed

The Fairfax Design Review board was told last night that the number of poles for street lighting on Bolinas Road from Broadway to Sherman Avenue could be reduced since it is possible to install up to three fixtures on a pole.

Phase one of the proposed new street lighting system originally called for 16 poles in this area. Donald F. Heinitz, Pacific Gas and Electric Co. lighting representative, presented the plan but no action was taken, according to secretary Dell Blodgett.

The board agreed to hold a special meeting, but no date was set, to discuss the city's sign ordinance. It will also ask the Fairfax Planning Commission to set a public hearing on the ordinance.

Reagan Loses Aide To Nixon

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Spencer Williams, Gov. Ronald Reagan's secretary of human relations, has resigned to accept a post in President Nixon's administration, the Sacramento Union reported today.

The newspaper said Williams did not say what his new job will be but it probably will involve health, education and welfare or law enforcement.

Williams, 47, formerly was counsel for Santa Clara County and ran unsuccessfully as a Republican candidate for attorney general in 1966.

William's current job involves administration of Medi-Cal, the state's medical care program for the poor, and welfare.

'Marshal J' Charge Not A Misdemeanor

The Independent-Journal erred Wednesday in reporting that Jay Alexander, 42, of Novato, had been charged with felony drunken driving as a result of an accident in Novato.

Alexander, a former television cowboy known as "Marshall J," is appealing a conviction in Municipal Court on a lesser drunken driving charge.

Mud Slide Damages Novato Home

Heavy rains this winter have caused a hillside in the Pleasant Valley section of Novato to slip, doing damage estimated at $10,000 to a house at 76 Trish Drive.

The house is owned by Ewald Westphal, who said the ground started moving during the weekend and in its downward push moved the flat ground under the house upward, lifting the foundations of the house.

Westphal, who had purchased the home from Sono-Marin Builders, made an exchange with them for a house at 2238 Parkland Way, Petaluma, and moved there yesterday.

Sono-Marin has engaged Holtzinger Brothers of Corte Madera to remove mud from behind the house so that it will not cave in the walls. The firm reports that the house will have to be lifted and a new foundation put under it when the ground stops moving.

Approach Repairs

Pavement repair on the Marina Viaduct on the San Francisco approach to the Golden Gate Bridge will require the closing of the southbound curb lane between 5:30 and 10 a.m. on Sunday, the Division of Highways has warned motorists.

Locks Takes Stand In Base Court-Martial

Airman Michael R. Locks took the stand in his own defense today at Hamilton Air Force Base as his court-martial moved towards its climax. A verdict today was considered possible.

The 25-year-old airman, formerly of San Anselmo, is being court-martialed for violating an Air Force regulation by taking part in uniform in a San Francisco peace march last Oct. 12 and appearing on a television show the night before.

He testified for 30 minutes today, but was not allowed to challenge the constitutionality of the Air Force regulation, a stand on which the defense had rested its case.

Col. John H. Leonard, presiding officer, was to give instructions this afternoon to the seven-officer court, which decides both on the verdict and sentence.

Leonard refused to allow Locks to testify on his beliefs about the unconstitutionality of the Air Force regulation. On objections by government prosecutors earlier in the trial, Leonard had ruled that the regulation was not a violation of the First Amendment. He repeated his ruling today.

Before the ruling, Locks had said he had knowingly violated the regulation because "I felt to my mind that this regulation was not constitutional."

Locks also told the court he did not think his appearance on the television program to boost the march was in violation of the regulation.

Today's action followed unsuccessful attempts by Locks' attorneys yesterday to block showing of video tapes of the demonstration which they said would make it impossible for the airman to get a fair trial.

Leonard ruled the tapes were "material and relevant," overriding protests by civilian defense counsel Richard J. Werthimer of San Anselmo that they were prejudicial.

Maj. William B. Wirin, Locks' chief military counsel, went even further than Werthimer, charging that the prosecution's "sole purpose" in using the tapes as evidence was to "prejudice the judges."

The tapes, which show about 75 minutes of the three-hour demonstration, were viewed by the court yesterday afternoon. Wirin contended that tapes, which included a number of virulently antimilitary speeches, "cannot help but bias" the judges, some of whom are Vietnam veterans.

He argued that showing the tapes to the seven career officers would "inflame them to disregard their sworn duties."

Three Retire At Air Base

Three men have retired after long terms of military service from headquarters of the Western Communications Region at Hamilton Air Force Base.

They are Col. Maurice A. Prudhomme, M/Sgt. George M. Robinson and S/Sgt. Fred H. Pratt. Each received the Air Force Commendation Medal on his retirement.

Prudhomme, who was the inspector general for the communications headquarters, retired after more than 20 years' service in Europe, Norway, Italy, Libya and Germany. He moved to San Mateo after his retirement.

Robinson, formerly of 102 East Kelly Drive, Hamilton, retired as cryptograph accountant for the communications security branch of the directorate of telecommunications for the western communications region. He lives at 42 Buena Vista Drive, Novato.

Pratt, formerly of 1151 Ransome Drive, Novato, who was an accounting technician with the communications headquarters retired after service in Korea, England, Taiwan, Vietnam and the United States. He and his wife and two children have moved to Greenfield Center, N. Y.

Berkeley Chief Takes U.C. Post

BERKELEY (AP) — Police Chief William P. Beall has resigned effective May 1 to take over the University of California campus police force.

Beall, 51, said he had made a "verbal commitment" some time ago to become chief of the 64-man campus police force which he believes will "soon be substantially larger."

He said he was taking the new job because of "pressing family needs." He did not elaborate.

He has headed the 130-man Berkeley city force since August, 1966. He is a graduate in criminology at U.C. and has served on the Berkeley force since 1941, except for two years with the FBI.

'Oakland 7' Attorney Attacks Infiltrator

I-J Special Report

OAKLAND — The attorney for seven accused antidraft conspirators yesterday conducted a scathing cross-examination of a police officer who infiltrated the "Oakland Seven" militant group as they planned their antidraft demonstrations last October.

James Bruce Coleman, 22, testified he had been assigned to spy on various antiwar groups less than a month after he joined the Oakland Poilce Department.

Coleman admitted, under attorney Charles Garry's questioning, he had been uncovered shortly before the demonstrations at the Oakland Induction Center.

Garry asked if one of the militants had called Coleman a "rat fink" and added, "and that was the truth, wasn't it?"

Judge George Phillips ruled several of Garry's questions out of order during the two-hour cross-examination and told many supporters of the defendants in the courtroom to stop their laughter.

On Wednesday Coleman testified that Michael J. Smith, 27, formerly of Corte Madera and one of the seven, was the man who instructed march monitors in the use of a four-foot long bamboo shaft as a club.

"Confetti, marbles, darts, lettuce, shaving cream and rocks," Coleman testified yesterday were suggested by a defendant, Frank Bardacke, as items to be used against police.

Students Must Find Ways To Spend Big Fund

After three prosperous football seasons, the Student Body Association at Terra Linda High School has more money in reserve than it can keep.

Supt. John F. Plank notified the student council that $8,500 of the $11,500 in reserve must be spent, explaining that student bodies are not meant to be profit-making organizations.

As a result, a committee of administrators and students has been formed to explore ways in which the surplus funds can be used most effectively.

School Bids Rejected By Trustees

Four bids for construction of Reedland Woods School, all above the engineering estimate of $870,000, were rejected last night by Reed Union School District trustees.

Supt H. Joe Edgington said the district will seek new bids as soon as possible on the main building of the school, containing classroom pods, library and multi-media center.

Low base bid was $941,000 by Fostmeier Construction. Others were $960,000 by Pendergraft Construction; $1,017,000 by Martinelli Construction, and $1,029,000 by Hall Construction.

The board set a special meeting for 8 p.m. Tuesday at Bel Aire School to meet with the architect and discuss site problems at Reedlands Woods and discuss rebidding procedures.

The board received some names for a citizens committee to work on a proposed tax rate election, but postponed naming committee members until the Tuesday meeting.

The board also took no action in a closed session on hiring of personnel, Edgington said.

In its meeting Monday, the board accepted the resignation of Lester Livingston, science-mathematics teacher at Del Mar School, who is going into private business. Julie Askeland was hired to replace Livingston at a salary of $6,800.

No School

Adult evening school classes in the Tamalpais Union High School District will not be held Wednesday because it is Lincoln's Brithday, school officials reported.

Marin Dining And Wining

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Occidental's Main Industry Is Dinners By The Thousands

Occidental's biggest industry is eating.

This amazing little Sonoma County community, which lies roughly half way between Sebastopol and the Pacific Ocean, comes to life at dinnertime. Once known as Howard's Station, it was founded during the middle of the last century by William (Dutch Bill) Howard, who settled in the area about the time the rest of California was caught up in the gold fever.

Occidental's food service business is controlled by three — or rather four —Italian families, the Fioris, the Negris, the Panizzeras and the Gonnellas. Operating at three restaurants, Fiori's, Negri's and the old Union Hotel, together they will serve on an average balmy Sunday possibly as many as 4,000 dinners.

Make that an Easter Sunday or Mother's Day and the total is somewhere between 8,000 and 9,000. This means a five-time turnover at the tables and up to 10 or 12 times the population of the entire town and its environs.

Main roads enter Occidental from three directions and each of them provides a channel from near and far points for the flow of cutomers. Naturally on weekdays the tide of dinner patrons ebbs, but all three restaurants remain open seven days a week to capture whatever trade may develop.

THERE ARE NO printed menus and dinners are limited to a choice of three entrees, chicken, duck and steak. In the case of Negri's there are four, with both fried chicken and chicken cacciatora served. In all cases, prices are under $3 for chicken and under $5 for steak, with the duck about halfway between.

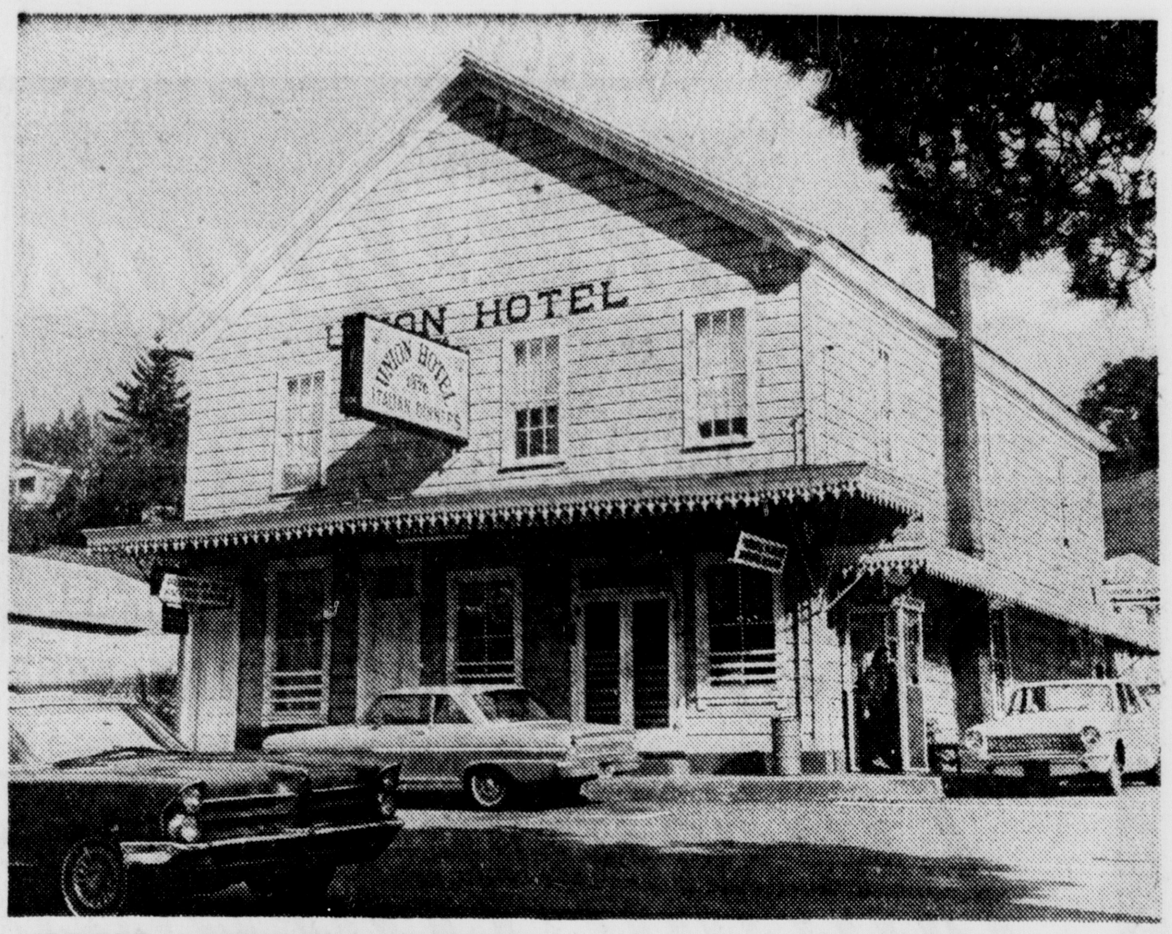
But to describe any of these meals simply as "a chicken dinner" or "a steak dinner" does them a gross injustice. The entree is all but lost in the vast array of food. Soup, salad, antipastos and side dishes are piled on the table. By the time you reach the entree you may be too full to eat it, so just take it home with you.

Lunches on Mondays through Fridays are no less overwhelming. In the $1 to $1.50 range, meals are generous, savory to nose and appetizing to the palate.

The Fiori family has been in the restaurant business here for about 30 years and the Negris eight or nine years longer than that. Negri's burned down in 1966 and was rebuilt along more modern lines and with much more space that same year. It can serve 800 meals at a single sitting, compared with Fiori's 350.

The Union Hotel is the oldst of the three. It was built in 1879 and was taken over by Carlo and Mary Panizzera in 1924. Their daughter Lucille is married to Dan Gonnella and they manage it. There is also a modern Union Motel nearby. Restaurant seating in the old hotel is 450 or 500. All three restaurants have their dining rooms divided, so if business is quiet you are not isolated in a big hall.

Anyone within 100 miles of Occidental should visit there at least once in his lifetime, and having accomplished that feat will undoubtedly return for a repeat performance. The ride from any direction is scenic and enjoyable. But on a weekend, be prepared for a wait, even with all the tables that are available.



OLDEST OCCIDENTAL RESTAURANT—Union Hotel, one of three major restaurants which have made eating a big industry in this Sonoma County community, was built in 1879. On an average Sunday, Union Hotel, Negri's and Fiori's will serve up to 4,000 dinners.

THE FILET STEAK IMPERIAL on the Empress Delight Dinner at Kublai Khan is mouth watering, and you don't need the fabled sword of the great Mongolian monarch to cut it.

Technically, I suppose, there may be more classical Chinese cuisine than this dinner, but the difference is inconsequential when it comes to the sheer pleasure of eating. Besides the filet, there are bird's nest soup, butterfly prawns; gim wah chicken filet sauted with ham, mushrooms, bamboo shoots and water chestnuts; fried rice, tea and dessert. Add lobster if there are four or more of you. The tab is $4.95 per person, but it's well worth it.

An alternate dinner at the same price which should appeal to those with a more Occidental taste is the lobster and chateaubriand, served with appetizer plate, salad, dessert and tea or coffee.

Take-out Chinese dinners are also offered at this Strawberry Town and Country Village dinery. Prices range from $1.75 up to $4 per person, with the same add-on features when ordered for three, four or five persons or more.

FLEUR DE FRANCE, San Rafael, has steadily increased its dinner business, particularly on weekends, and has put out a new menu.

Several of the former favorites are still represented, but among the additions are London broil, saute sirloin Marchand de vin, veal cordon bleu, a club steak billed as Fleur de France steak, double cut lamb chops, frog legs dore or sec and broied lobster tail. Complete dinners are from $3.10 to $5.25.

THE SAN RAFAEL ELKS CLUB has been cited for its coffee.

The Coffee Brewing Center of the Pan American Coffee Bureau in New York has presented the club with its 1969 Golden Cup accolade. This is only its 15th award made this year.

THERE ARE THREE good reasons for the annual celebration which will take place at Lin Fa Gardens in Northgate next Friday night.

First, it commemorates Ethel Barrie's fifth anniversary at this location. Also next Friday happens to be Valentine's Day. And if that isn't enough cause, Chinese New Year's is just around the corner, the following Monday.

But the entertainment, as it always is here, will be Polynesian. Look for two floor shows and dancing at 8:30 and again at 10:30 p.m. Time your arrival for dinner accordingly, with a little leeway, so you can get a table.

Hal Schutz will play the organ in the Mai Tai Room, so there will be plenty of music and gaiety.

NOW FEATURED at Latitude 38 in Sausalito is the "new sound" of Johnny Allair's Trio. Johnny is at the organ, Dale Ramey plays guitar and Dennis Herne is on drums. They play rock-jazz Tuesday through Saturday night sfrom 8:30 p.m. through the week and from 9 p.m. on weekends.

FOOD COSTS at grocery stores are up 4 per cent over a year ago and the cost of restaurant meals are said to have increased 5.7 per cent in the last 12 months.

Pietro Pinoni of Greenbrae, owner of Pietro's 311 Restaurant in San Francisco, wants it known that one figure is higher than the other for several good reasons: Wages for restaurant help are up 5 per cent; welfare is up 10 per cent; income and business taxes are both higher than the year before.

Just in case you were going to make a crack about restaurants getting an extra slice of the melon.

THE SAN FRANCISCO DINERS CLUB, mentioned in this column last week as having an office in the Albert Building, San Rafael, has changed to Room D, 935 Lootens Place, where more telephone lines were available.

FOR SATURDAYS AND SUNDAYS at Sabella's from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. there is now a "Carefree Weekend Menu." Included are a number of eggs, seafood, meat and other specialties ranging from $1.75 to $3.95.

I understand that the late Angelo Sabella's pride and joy, the "Mark Angelo," a 33-foot Pacemaker, fully loaded for sport and commercial fishing, is up for sale and berthed in Sausalito. Talk to Lou Sabella about this.

Monday night's annual American Cancer Society dinner at Sabella's promises to have an array of talent to make this a memorable evening of entertainment. I left this item until last, hoping to get the cast of Hollywood performers who will be on the program — but that information did not come in time for this column.

New Letterman Opening Is Set

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Army will open its new $13 million, 550-bed Letterman General Hospital on the Presidio of San Francisco next Friday.

First patients are to use the 10-story structure in March.

The building is designed eventually to replace the 28 separate building in the present complex, many of them dating to the Spanish-American War.

Letterman, the main Army hospital on the West Coast, will have seven operating rooms and an X-ray machine capable of transmitting two million photon units to a tumor patient.

Snipers Fail In Hitting Policemen

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Snipers unsuccessfully fired on two policemen who were arresting two youths on auto theft charges last night in the Hunters Point district.

Patrolmen Willis Garriott and Bob Gillin were not hit and said they could not find the weapons nor the gunmen.

WINE DISCOVERIES at CAFE BON VIN
WHAT SUNDAYS they have in SAN ANSELMO!

Two people last Sunday thought all we served was Bonnet Carré (Doctor's Cap). But it was only one of a dozen rarely-encountered bruncheon dishes served every Sunday. $3.95, which includes champagne, fruit, hot breads, coffee — and more champagne.

Five people promised to return each week until they had tasted all twelve "dejeuners de roi" (royal court brunches). We promised to keep ahead of them with new discoveries. They sighed . . . happily.

Seven people refused our bottle-fermented brut champagne. We were on the point of tears until we discovered they were, respectively: 9, 7, 14, 6, 19, 12, 17 years of age.

Nine people ordered Dover Sole in the style of the Miller's Wife; after which they ordered the Miller's Wife.

Provincial Dinners Wednesday (Carbonnade á la Flamande on Wednesday, February 12 — a Flemish dish which uses beer like wine should be used — preceded by a "Tasting of Wine Discoveries" led by Fred Cherry). And like the Champagne Gala — 10 courses; and the Grand Dinner — 6 courses; and the Petit Dinner — 4 courses . . . priced from 3.75 to 9.75.

And there's wine! Ah, such wine!

Reagan Loses Aide To Nixon

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Spencer Williams, Gov. Ronald Reagan's secretary of human relations, has resigned to accept a post in President Nixon's administration, the Sacramento Union reported today.

The newspaper said Williams did not say what his new job will be but it probably will involve health, education and welfare or law enforcement.

Williams, 47, formerly was counsel for Santa Clara County and ran unsuccessfully as a Republican candidate for attorney general in 1966.

William's current job involves administration of Medi-Cal, the state's medical care program for the poor, and welfare.

'Marshal J' Charge Not A Misdemeanor

The Independent-Journal erred Wednesday in reporting that Jay Alexander, 42, of Novato, had been charged with felony drunken driving as a result of an accident in Novato.

Alexander, a former television cowboy known as "Marshall J," is appealing a conviction in Municipal Court on a lesser drunken driving charge.

Mud Slide Damages Novato Home

Heavy rains this winter have caused a hillside in the Pleasant Valley section of Novato to slip, doing damage estimated at $10,000 to a house at 76 Trish Drive.

The house is owned by Ewald Westphal, who said the ground started moving during the weekend and in its downward push moved the flat ground under the house upward, lifting the foundations of the house.

Westphal, who had purchased the home from Sono-Marin Builders, made an exchange with them for a house at 2238 Parkland Way, Petaluma, and moved there yesterday.

Sono-Marin has engaged Holtzinger Brothers of Corte Madera to remove mud from behind the house so that it will not cave in the walls. The firm reports that the house will have to be lifted and a new foundation put under it when the ground stops moving.

Approach Repairs

Pavement repair on the Marina Viaduct on the San Francisco approach to the Golden Gate Bridge will require the closing of the southbound curb lane between 5:30 and 10 a.m. on Sunday, the Division of Highways has warned motorists.

Locks Takes Stand In Base Court-Martial

Airman Michael R. Locks took the stand in his own defense today at Hamilton Air Force Base as his court-martial moved towards its climax. A verdict today was considered possible.

The 25-year-old airman, formerly of San Anselmo, is being court-martialed for violating an Air Force regulation by taking part in uniform in a San Francisco peace march last Oct. 12 and appearing on a television show the night before.

He testified for 30 minutes today, but was not allowed to challenge the constitutionality of the Air Force regulation, a stand on which the defense had rested its case.

Col. John H. Leonard, presiding officer, was to give instructions this afternoon to the seven-officer court, which decides both on the verdict and sentence.

Leonard refused to allow Locks to testify on his beliefs about the unconstitutionality of the Air Force regulation. On objections by government prosecutors earlier in the trial, Leonard had ruled that the regulation was not a violation of the First Amendment. He repeated his ruling today.

Before the ruling, Locks had said he had knowingly violated the regulation because "I felt to my mind that this regulation was not constitutional."

Locks also told the court he did not think his appearance on the television program to boost the march was in violation of the regulation.

Today's action followed unsuccessful attempts by Locks' attorneys yesterday to block showing of video tapes of the demonstration which they said would make it impossible for the airman to get a fair trial.

Leonard ruled the tapes were "material and relevant," overriding protests by civilian defense counsel Richard J. Werthimer of San Anselmo that they were prejudicial.

Maj. William B. Wirin, Locks' chief military counsel, went even further than Werthimer, charging that the prosecution's "sole purpose" in using the tapes as evidence was to "prejudice the judges."

The tapes, which show about 75 minutes of the three-hour demonstration, were viewed by the court yesterday afternoon. Wirin contended that tapes, which included a number of virulently antimilitary speeches, "cannot help but bias" the judges, some of whom are Vietnam veterans.

He argued that showing the tapes to the seven career officers would "inflame them to disregard their sworn duties."

Three Retire At Air Base

Three men have retired after long terms of military service from headquarters of the Western Communications Region at Hamilton Air Force Base.

They are Col. Maurice A. Prudhomme, M/Sgt. George M. Robinson and S/Sgt. Fred H. Pratt. Each received the Air Force Commendation Medal on his retirement.

Prudhomme, who was the inspector general for the communications headquarters, retired after more than 20 years' service in Europe, Norway, Italy, Libya and Germany. He moved to San Mateo after his retirement.

Robinson, formerly of 102 East Kelly Drive, Hamilton, retired as cryptograph accountant for the communications security branch of the directorate of telecommunications for the western communications region. He lives at 42 Buena Vista Drive, Novato.

Pratt, formerly of 1151 Ransome Drive, Novato, who was an accounting technician with the communications headquarters retired after service in Korea, England, Taiwan, Vietnam and the United States. He and his wife and two children have moved to Greenfield Center, N. Y.

Berkeley Chief Takes U.C. Post

BERKELEY (AP) — Police Chief William P. Beall has resigned effective May 1 to take over the University of California campus police force.

Beall, 51, said he had made a "verbal commitment" some time ago to become chief of the 64-man campus police force which he believes will "soon be substantially larger."

He said he was taking the new job because of "pressing family needs." He did not elaborate.

He has headed the 130-man Berkeley city force since August, 1966. He is a graduate in criminology at U.C. and has served on the Berkeley force since 1941, except for two years with the FBI.

'Oakland 7' Attorney Attacks Infiltrator

I-J Special Report

OAKLAND — The attorney for seven accused antidraft conspirators yesterday conducted a scathing cross-examination of a police officer who infiltrated the "Oakland Seven" militant group as they planned their antidraft demonstrations last October.

James Bruce Coleman, 22, testified he had been assigned to spy on various antiwar groups less than a month after he joined the Oakland Poilce Department.

Coleman admitted, under attorney Charles Garry's questioning, he had been uncovered shortly before the demonstrations at the Oakland Induction Center.

Garry asked if one of the militants had called Coleman a "rat fink" and added, "and that was the truth, wasn't it?"

Judge George Phillips ruled several of Garry's questions out of order during the two-hour cross-examination and told many supporters of the defendants in the courtroom to stop their laughter.

On Wednesday Coleman testified that Michael J. Smith, 27, formerly of Corte Madera and one of the seven, was the man who instructed march monitors in the use of a four-foot long bamboo shaft as a club.

"Confetti, marbles, darts, lettuce, shaving cream and rocks," Coleman testified yesterday were suggested by a defendant, Frank Bardacke, as items to be used against police.

Students Must Find Ways To Spend Big Fund

After three prosperous football seasons, the Student Body Association at Terra Linda High School has more money in reserve than it can keep.

Supt. John F. Plank notified the student council that $8,500 of the $11,500 in reserve must be spent, explaining that student bodies are not meant to be profit-making organizations.

As a result, a committee of administrators and students has been formed to explore ways in which the surplus funds can be used most effectively.

School Bids Rejected By Trustees

Four bids for construction of Reedland Woods School, all above the engineering estimate of $870,000, were rejected last night by Reed Union School District trustees.

Supt H. Joe Edgington said the district will seek new bids as soon as possible on the main building of the school, containing classroom pods, library and multi-media center.

Low base bid was $941,000 by Fostmeier Construction. Others were $960,000 by Pendergraft Construction; $1,017,000 by Martinelli Construction, and $1,029,000 by Hall Construction.

The board set a special meeting for 8 p.m. Tuesday at Bel Aire School to meet with the architect and discuss site problems at Reedlands Woods and discuss rebidding procedures.

The board received some names for a citizens committee to work on a proposed tax rate election, but postponed naming committee members until the Tuesday meeting.

The board also took no action in a closed session on hiring of personnel, Edgington said.

In its meeting Monday, the board accepted the resignation of Lester Livingston, science-mathematics teacher at Del Mar School, who is going into private business. Julie Askeland was hired to replace Livingston at a salary of $6,800.

No School

Adult evening school classes in the Tamalpais Union High School District will not be held Wednesday because it is Lincoln's Brithday, school officials reported.

Marin Women

SECOND SECTION Friday, February 7, 1969 17

A "HERITAGE TEA" yesterday afternoon at the Mill Valley home of Vera Schultz honored past presidents and longtime active members of the Southern Marin League of Women Voters. Five past presidents reminisce about early days as recalled after looking at minutes dating from the Marin league's founding in 1936 and recorded in the book held by Mrs. Schultz. From left, they are Mmes. Carl Spring, Oliver Conger, Harold H. Bjornstrom, Vera Schultz and John Giuliani. Current president Mrs. E. J. Boessenecker, seated on floor at right, looks at a scrapbook of clippings of league activities. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

League Of Women Voters Honors Past Officers And Members

Past presidents and longtime active members were honored at a "heritage tea" by the Southern Marin League of Women Voters yesterday at the home of Vera Schultz in Mill Valley.

Marking the start of a yearlong 50th anniversary celebration being held nationwide, the tea was attended by several charter members of the Marin League, formed April 20, 1936.

In more than 30 years of existence, Marin Leaguers claim a number of accomplishments in the field of citizen participation in government and politics. From the beginning, members made detailed studies of local governments, published county-wide in a "Know Your Town" series.

A direct result, according to early members, was the decision to inaugurate a city manager form of government in Mill Valley — later in a number of other Marin cities.

More than eight years of study, lobbying, recommendations and public urging led, in 1948, to the establishment of a county health department. Members of the Marin leagues took the lead in the fight to improve the laws and their enforcement in all areas of public health, including the then county farm, maternal and child hygiene and inspection of food handlers in stores and restaurants.

League attention to the problems of sanitation led in the 1940s to the formation of the Southern Marin Sanitation District. Currently league members are making specific recommendations to the Board of Supervisors concerning solutions to Marin's sanitary sewerage problems.

Mrs. Schultz recalls the league's most widely known activity, Voters' Service, as having been "mostly enthusiasm, manned by a dedicated group of amateurs." She describes one election year when the league rented an empty store in downtown Mill Valley, staffed it with groups of members to register prospective voters and provide them with the organization's famed list of "pros and cons."

"I blush to recall the crude hand-lettered signs we made," she said, "but we also stationed members on the sidewalk and 'enticed' passersby to enter.

"Whereupon, other members set to work registering the hapless captive, answering questions on ballot measures and eventually performing a real and appreciated service to the community."

"It is interesting to note," says Mrs. Carl Spring of Sausalito, "that although the National League of Women Voters was an immediate outgrowth of the suffragette movement just after World War I, the Marin League was formed, for the most part, by women who were teen-agers during the bloody years before women gained the right to vote in the United States.

Coed To Edit College Paper

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — For the first time in the more than 100-year history of the undergraduate newspaper at Brown University, it will be edited by a coed, Beverly Hodgson.

The 20-year-old junior at Pembroke, the women's college affiliated with Brown, is majoring in English and will be the first female to hold the top editorial post on the Brown Daily Herald since it began publishing in 1866.

NEW SHOW

Explore The Arts On 'Small World'

By JOAN LISETOR

"Why don't you do something about a good television program for children? Mrs. Kenneth Melmon asked a friend, who had recently been hired by television station KUDO.

"Why don't you do something?" he countered.

THIS CONVERSATION resulted in a children's program, Small World, seen five nights a week on the area's newest UHF station (Channel 38.) Elyce Melmon not only stars in the show but also writes it and makes all decisions on format and content.

Thinking it would be fun to write her own show, Elyce presented an outline to the program director. Her idea was to explore the liberal arts field and appeal to the creative education of five to twelve-year-olds.

"I had some television experience on the Mayor Art show," she explained. "It was fun working with the children, but I had an ambivalent feeling since it was not my own show, and I couldn't do things the way I wanted."

An interest in children began for the former Elyce Edelman when she was a student at Lowell High School in San Francisco.

"A GROUP OF us used to go to a nursery school for underprivileged children. It was called Canon Kip, and it was located on top of an office building on Natoma Street (an alley south of Market Street in San Francisco). We visited about once-a-week and played with the children on the roof top, the only place they had to play. We had to watch them carefully to be sure they didn't fall off the roof."

From these experiences grew an interest in nursery schools. She started her own nursery school in Washington, D.C., where she and her husband were living while he furthered his studies in medicine. Dr. Melmom is now chief of pharmacology at the University of California.

"I've needed an outlet since my husband travels all over the world giving lectures," she said.

Her outlets are numerous. As a volunteer she lectures at Coleman School on art appreciation. Her son, Brad, eight, and daughter, Debby, five, are students at Coleman. She is in her third year of nursery school teaching at Alpha Schools in San Rafael.

"I have continued teaching at Alpha because I enjoy the personal contact with children that you don't get from a television camera," she explained. "I stay busy, but my hours have always coincided pretty much with Ken's and the children."

THE CHILDREN critize the show, and she says they are sometimes very critical.

"Brad's favorite program is on at the same time as Small World," she said. "He is a cartoon addict, so I know what parents are up against who feel their children watch too much violence and hostility on television. I have tried to appeal to the mothers since children don't watch television of their own volition."

Small World with its cultural awareness theme began on Dec. 31. The first month the shows were devoted to the field of art with visits to art galleries and guests from the field of art. Currently the theme is music.

"The themes are engineers to explore and find a medium for the child to communicate with his peers and society," Mrs. Melmom explained.

SHE USES PUPPETS, dolls and other props to tell stories, most of which she has written herself.

A recent show began with Mrs. Melmom singing "I've Got Plenty of Rhythm" and went into a discussion about rhythm.

"You can live without music — but not very well," she told the audience. She described how rhythm effects the body, making you want to tap your toes, clap your hands and snap your fingers, and when the record "Hello Dolly" began it was difficult to imagine that anyone watching could stand still.

Guests have included professional musicians who relate to children.

Bill La Swan was one such guest. In addition to being a professional musician he has a hobby of collecting household items that can be used to make music. Mr. La Swan explained to the audience that everything is musical and proceeded to demonstrate with pots, pans, pieces of pottery, empty bottles, a piece of chain and a fork.

"A little improvisation and you have an orchestra," he told the children. "Music is all around you."

From Bach to the Beatles — Small World is exploring music. Each month the theme will change, but Elyce Melmon's idea — a good television program for children — will continue.

HOLDING A small world is Elyce Melmon, who appears five nights a week on Channel 38. The television show, Small World, which explores the liberal arts field and appeals to the creative education of children, is also written by Mrs. Melmon, a resident of San Rafael.

Designers Contrast Styles For Milady

By NADEANE WALKER

LONDON (AP) — London's fashion season wound up with one show that puts the ladies in trouser suits, and another that sets dressmaking back 25 years, to about the place where the "New Look" came in.

While Michael went all out for the trousers that are still taboo in top restaurants here, Lachasse went back to the 1940's with hems that nearly cover the knee and sheath-fitting clothes that bring back hips and bosoms with a vengeance. In this season of the see-through and the nudie look, Lachasse seemed downright prudish.

MICHAEL'S VERY long-jacketed suits were belted, with pleated skirts ending an inch or so above the knee. Two-yard long scarves went with everything. Yoked, tab-fronted shirtwaisters were queen of the show.

It's hard to tell whether Lachasse is ahead of his time or behind it, but he's certainly out of step. Alas his midknee hem line, wide rounded shoulders, draped bosoms and gathered-on skirts looked sadly old-fashioned. Lozenge and geometric prints added to the effect.

THERE WAS A roll call of such fashion foibles of yesteryear as step and sunburst pleating, ruffled apron and bib fronts, handkerchief-point chiffon skirts, cape backs and fur boleros. Some waistbands and belts nearly brought back an hour-glass figure.

Coats were cut in a loose almond shape, and some were wrapover kimonos. Suits had short jackets and straight skirts, sometimes with a kick pleat in the back.

In earlier collections here, Hartnell, Hardy Amies and Mattli all liked the A-line and a just above the knee hemline. Pleats, plaids, checks and some giant floral prints were in all the shows.

HARTNELL STARTLED with his first-ever trouser suit, leading London fashion editors to speculate on whether the queen will wear them now that her dressmaker has bowed to the inevitable.

But the liveliest show of the season was not couture but high class ready to wear. Worth, with American designer Hylan Booker went all Japanese and rather naughty with hip and navel cut-outs.

San Domenico Alumnae Names Mrs. Robert Dawson President

Mrs. Robert W. Dawson Jr. of San Rafael is elected president of the San Domenico Alimnae. A member of the alumnae group four years, she has previously served as vice president.

MRS. ROBERT DAWSON JR.

Members are participating in a bridge tournament and are making plans for the San Domencio Singers appearance at the de Young Museum in San Francisco on March 6. A luncheon will be held in September to raise funds for the organization, which advances the interests of the school and promotes the welfare of the alumnae, graduates of Dominican Convent and San Domenico School for Girls.

Patricia Ann Suhr Dawson is also a member of the Junior League of San Francosco, the Auxiliary of the Mothers' Milk Bank and St. Sylvester's Women's Guild.

Mrs. Dawson has lived in Marin eight years. She and her husband, who is in the insurance business, have two children: Robert, six, and Elizabeth Ann, four years old.

Following graduation from Dominican Convent, Mrs. Dawson attended the University of Southern California. Her hobbies are cooking, tennis and music.

"We recently spent a holiday in Mexico," she said on the subject of what she enjoys most, "and I look forward to more family traveling of this type."

Other new officers of the alumnae are Mmes. St. George Holden of San Francisco, vice president; Herbert West of San Anselmo, secretary; and Sister Mary Gervaise OP, treasurer.

June Still Leads

June is still the most marrying month, with 14.7 per cent of all couples in 1967 taking their vows then. Runners-up were August, September and December in that order.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Older Single Girl's Letter Brings Variety Of Responses

DEAR HELEN:

The 29-year-old woman who said she was still a virgin and not proud of it should think twice before she equips herself with the Pill and advertises that she is available to all takers.

Being pure and untouched is not prudery unless she looks upon herself as a prude.

First, she should stop worrying. If you get anxious about never getting a man, you'll never get one.

When women develop a devil-may-care "Who needs to get married?" attitude, it's surprising how soon someone does start caring.

As for having an affair. She'd better forget it until she is at least 35. They tie you down and keep you from eligible, marriage-minded men. Usually an older woman gets involved with a married man, and that's the end, as far as a permanent life for her is concerned.

Joining a political party and getting active as a worker is a good idea. Maybe an art institute, or a hiking club, or a dancing club? Or how about a cruise or a vacation at a singles hotel? There are many outlets for the single woman. I know. I'm

—ONE OF THEM

DEAR HELEN:

I read your article about the 29-year-old "Untouchable" who wants to change things, and I would be glad to help her out. Please instruct her to meet me me at 8 p.m. next Saturday night, with a rose in her hair at —— (Whoa, there buddy, this column does not publish propositions. — EVEN when they're signed "Accommodating")—HELEN

DEAR HELEN:

My husband is 52 and the father of eight kids. I have a little trouble with him. He reads your column every night. . . .

So would you please print where he can get in touch with your 29-year-old "Untouchable?"

—TIRED

DEAR HELEN:

You have a little "caboose" under your column that asks for "amusing incidents." Here's mine.

She played "The First Noel" every hour on the hour — and then she followed it with a ringing rendition of "We Shall Overcome!"

Funny thing: Only a few people noticed. — NEARBY RESIDENT

DEAR N.R.:

Sort of the chimes of the times, what? — H.

DEAR HELEN:

It's true that if you save and send in tea bag tags, certain organizations will provide wheel chairs for invalids. The American Legion in various places collects them. I believe they must get a bushel for each wheel chair. One place you can send them is to the WBUT Phone Party, Box 1626, Butler, Pa., 16001. — MRS. G.F.

DEAR HELEN:

Another place that takes tea bag tags to trade in for needed articles is St. Joseph's Manor, Danville, Pa. It is a convalescent home. — H. H. H.

DEAR MRS. P., H.H.H., and many others:

You learn something new every day. I understand from my "Helen Helpers" that many organizations collect used tea bag tags, though I'm stumped as to what value they can have. Won't someone please clue me in? — H.

ALFRED N. THOMSON

Tiburon Man Elected President Of Child Development Center

Continuing his interest in Marin's young people, Alfred N. Thomson, former principal of San Rafael High School, has been elected president of the Marin Child Development Center in Tiburon.

The Marin County educator, now teaching at Terra Linda High School, has been on the board of the center for a year. He is also on the board of directors of San Rafael Military Academy, active with St. Paul's Church in San Rafael and a member of the San Rafael Teachers Association.

In its fifth year of operation, the Marin Child Development Center, formerly under the sponsorship of the Belvedere Nursery School Corp., is now an independent charitable corporation. Thomson, first president under the new setup, says "Projects and activities are in the process of formulation." The education of young children who are marginally handicapped is the objective of the center. The program is geared to the needs of children between the ages of three and six.

A native of Scotland, Thomson grew up in Vacaville. He was graduated from Vacaville High School, and San Francisco State College. After service with the Navy in World War II, he studied for the master's degree at Stanford University and entered the San Rafael school system in 1946.

His hobbies, golf and fishing, are an extension of his life-long interest in sports, as player and coach.

The new president is married to the former Constance Mary James. They have two sons, Norma, 21, and Robert, 18.

Other incoming board members are Mrs. Neal Regin, Belvedere, first vice president; Phillip Smith, San Rafael, second vice president; Mrs. James Clark, Belvedere, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Rafael Bricca, Belvedere, recording secretary; Thomas Fleming, Belvedere, treasurer; Jeffory Morshead, Mill Valley, finance chairman; Mrs. John Buxton, Sausalito, nominating committee chairman.

Dr. H. E. Thelander, Tiburon; Dr. Lee Smith, Mill Valley; Mrs. Neil Fulton, Kentfield; Mrs. Stanley Kane, Greenbrae; Mrs. John O'Neill, San Rafael; and Mrs. John Robinson, Ross, are directors.

Mrs. Robert Bastian of Belvedere continues as executive director and Mrs. Wyman Hicks of Sausalito as principal.

The work of the center has been assisted by grants from the William Babcock Memorial Endowment, the San Francisco Foundation and St. Stephens Guild in Belvedere.

President Prepares Year's Work

Miss Alice Van Houtte of Mill Valley, new president of the Star of the Sea Institute 97, YLI, of Sausalito has been a member of the group 19 years and has previously served as second vice president and marshal.

The present project of the group is making table decorations for Sonoma State Hospital.

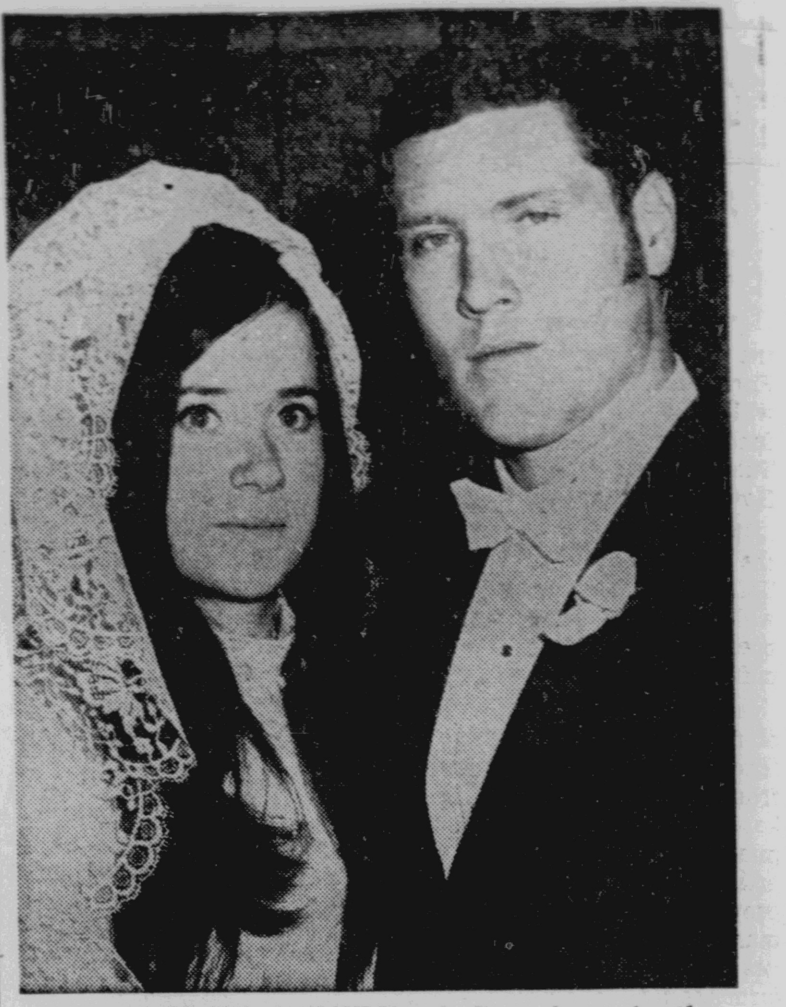
The local unit is also participating in the grand institute projects of accumulating money for the golden jubilee burse for training seminarians and for nursing and social work scholarships.

A graduate of St. Mary's Academy in Eugene, Ore., Miss Van Houtte has lived in Marin 29 years and is employed in the gift shop at the Muir Woods National Monument.

She says she enjoys music and good plays more than anything else and her other interests are television, radio and reading.

Past president is Mrs. Anthony Medeiros. Other new officers serving with the new president are Mmes. Sylvina Dawson, first vice president and Frank Fuetsch, second vice president; Miss Eleanor Martinez, recording secretary; Miss Mary Folli, financial secretary; Mrs. Arthur Jewett, treasurer.

ALICE VAN HOUTTE



DIAN LOUISE WINTLE of Greenbrae is the bride of William M. Weatherford Jr. of Berkeley. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elden G. Wintle of Greenbrae. The newlyweds will live in Berkeley.

Oscar Gonzalezes Are On World Tour Following Wedding Saturday

On a world tour following their wedding Saturday at Our Lady of Loretto Church in Novato are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Justiniano Gonzalez, who will live in Manila, P.I.

Mrs. Gonzalez is the former Janet Norene Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schnur of Novato.

The bride, who is also the sister of Fred Rezzonico of Novato and the granddaughter of Mrs. Effie Cox of San Francisco, was graduated from Novato High School. She attended Lincoln University in San Francisco, and the bridegroom was graduated from the university.

Mrs. Luz Gonzalez of Manila is the bridegroom's mother, and Mrs. Theresita Vallejo of San Francisco is his sister.

Ron Vincent Is President Of Marin Cosmetologists

Ron Vincent of San Rafael has been named president of the Marin Cosmetologists Affiliate 41. He is a hair stylist and has lived in Marin for five years.

The organization, whose members are licensed hairdressers and registered students, has as its purpose to advance the field of cosmetology and to keep cosmetologists up to date in new methods and supplies. Projects for the coming year include instruction in new hair trends and hair care, business management, patron-operator relations and new items and equipment and their uses.

Mr. Vincent is the owner of a beauty salon and gift boutique in Bolinas. He attends all hair style shows and color clinics and is working toward a cosmetology teacher's license.

Assisting with the duties of Marin Cosmetologists Affiliate are Elizabeth Whitehall of Corte Madera, vice president; Alexander E. Perry of San Anselmo, treasurer; Pauline Jenkins of San Rafael, secretary; and Ronald de Armond of San Anselmo, remitting officer.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

The Order of Daedalians must be one of America's most exclusive fraternal organizations. Founded in 1934 by a group of World War I fliers, its membership is restricted to military aviators and to their male progeny. It is an organization that maintains the special esprit de corps that exists among armed forces pilots, and which supports continued U.S. preeminence in the air and space. Tomorrow's Marin Magazine reports on Golden Gate Flight No. 5, headquartered in our county.

Today's family heirlooms had their beginnings generations back in the past. But heirlooms that will be treasured by generations of the future are being born today. Tomorrow's issue of the I-J's weekend supplement tells the story of one such piece — a carefully crafted cradle, produced to perfection by a Marin home handyman for his first grandchild. It is a story that all those who appreciate fine handiwork will appreciate and enjoy.

LEAGUE OF VOTERS MOVES TO REVIVE COUNTY HEALTH PLAN

A "HERITAGE TEA" yesterday afternoon at the Mill Valley home of Vera Schultz honored past presidents and longtime active members of the Southern Marin League of Women Voters. Five past presidents reminisce about early days as recalled after looking at minutes dating from the Marin league's founding in 1936 and recorded in the book held by Mrs. Schultz. From left, they are Mmes. Carl Spring, Oliver Conger, Harold H. Bjornstrom, Vera Schultz and John Giuliani. Current president Mrs. E. J. Boessenecker, seated on floor at right, looks at a scrapbook of clippings of league activities. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

League Of Women Voters Honors Past Officers And Members

Past presidents and longtime active members were honored at a "heritage tea" by the Southern Marin League of Women Voters yesterday at the home of Vera Schultz in Mill Valley.

Marking the start of a yearlong 50th anniversary celebration being held nationwide, the tea was attended by several charter members of the Marin League, formed April 20, 1936.

In more than 30 years of existence, Marin Leaguers claim a number of accomplishments in the field of citizen participation in government and politics. From the beginning, members made detailed studies of local governments, published county-wide in a "Know Your Town" series.

A direct result, according to early members, was the decision to inaugurate a city manager form of government in Mill Valley — later in a number of other Marin cities.

More than eight years of study, lobbying, recommendations and public urging led, in 1948, to the establishment of a county health department. Members of the Marin leagues took the lead in the fight to improve the laws and their enforcement in all areas of public health, including the then county farm, maternal and child hygiene and inspection of food handlers in stores and restaurants.

League attention to the problems of sanitation led in the 1940s to the formation of the Southern Marin Sanitation District. Currently league members are making specific recommendations to the Board of Supervisors concerning solutions to Marin's sanitary sewerage problems.

Mrs. Schultz recalls the league's most widely known activity, Voters' Service, as having been "mostly enthusiasm, manned by a dedicated group of amateurs." She describes one election year when the league rented an empty store in downtown Mill Valley, staffed it with groups of members to register prospective voters and provide them with the organization's famed list of "pros and cons."

"I blush to recall the crude hand-lettered signs we made," she said, "but we also stationed members on the sidewalk and 'enticed' passersby to enter.

"Whereupon, other members set to work registering the hapless captive, answering questions on ballot measures and eventually performing a real and appreciated service to the community."

"It is interesting to note," says Mrs. Carl Spring of Sausalito, "that although the National League of Women Voters was an immediate outgrowth of the suffragette movement just after World War I, the Marin League was formed, for the most part, by women who were teen-agers during the bloody years before women gained the right to vote in the United States.

Coed To Edit College Paper

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — For the first time in the more than 100-year history of the undergraduate newspaper at Brown University, it will be edited by a coed, Beverly Hodgson.

The 20-year-old junior at Pembroke, the women's college affiliated with Brown, is majoring in English and will be the first female to hold the top editorial post on the Brown Daily Herald since it began publishing in 1866.

NEW SHOW

Explore The Arts On 'Small World'

By JOAN LISETOR

"Why don't you do something about a good television program for children? Mrs. Kenneth Melmon asked a friend, who had recently been hired by television station KUDO.

"Why don't you do something?" he countered.

THIS CONVERSATION resulted in a children's program, Small World, seen five nights a week on the area's newest UHF station (Channel 38.) Elyce Melmon not only stars in the show but also writes it and makes all decisions on format and content.

Thinking it would be fun to write her own show, Elyce presented an outline to the program director. Her idea was to explore the liberal arts field and appeal to the creative education of five to twelve-year-olds.

"I had some television experience on the Mayor Art show," she explained. "It was fun working with the children, but I had an ambivalent feeling since it was not my own show, and I couldn't do things the way I wanted."

An interest in children began for the former Elyce Edelman when she was a student at Lowell High School in San Francisco.

"A GROUP OF us used to go to a nursery school for underprivileged children. It was called Canon Kip, and it was located on top of an office building on Natoma Street (an alley south of Market Street in San Francisco). We visited about once-a-week and played with the children on the roof top, the only place they had to play. We had to watch them carefully to be sure they didn't fall off the roof."

From these experiences grew an interest in nursery schools. She started her own nursery school in Washington, D.C., where she and her husband were living while he furthered his studies in medicine. Dr. Melmom is now chief of pharmacology at the University of California.

"I've needed an outlet since my husband travels all over the world giving lectures," she said.

Her outlets are numerous. As a volunteer she lectures at Coleman School on art appreciation. Her son, Brad, eight, and daughter, Debby, five, are students at Coleman. She is in her third year of nursery school teaching at Alpha Schools in San Rafael.

"I have continued teaching at Alpha because I enjoy the personal contact with children that you don't get from a television camera," she explained. "I stay busy, but my hours have always coincided pretty much with Ken's and the children."

THE CHILDREN critize the show, and she says they are sometimes very critical.

"Brad's favorite program is on at the same time as Small World," she said. "He is a cartoon addict, so I know what parents are up against who feel their children watch too much violence and hostility on television. I have tried to appeal to the mothers since children don't watch television of their own volition."

Small World with its cultural awareness theme began on Dec. 31. The first month the shows were devoted to the field of art with visits to art galleries and guests from the field of art. Currently the theme is music.

"The themes are engineers to explore and find a medium for the child to communicate with his peers and society," Mrs. Melmom explained.

SHE USES PUPPETS, dolls and other props to tell stories, most of which she has written herself.

A recent show began with Mrs. Melmom singing "I've Got Plenty of Rhythm" and went into a discussion about rhythm.

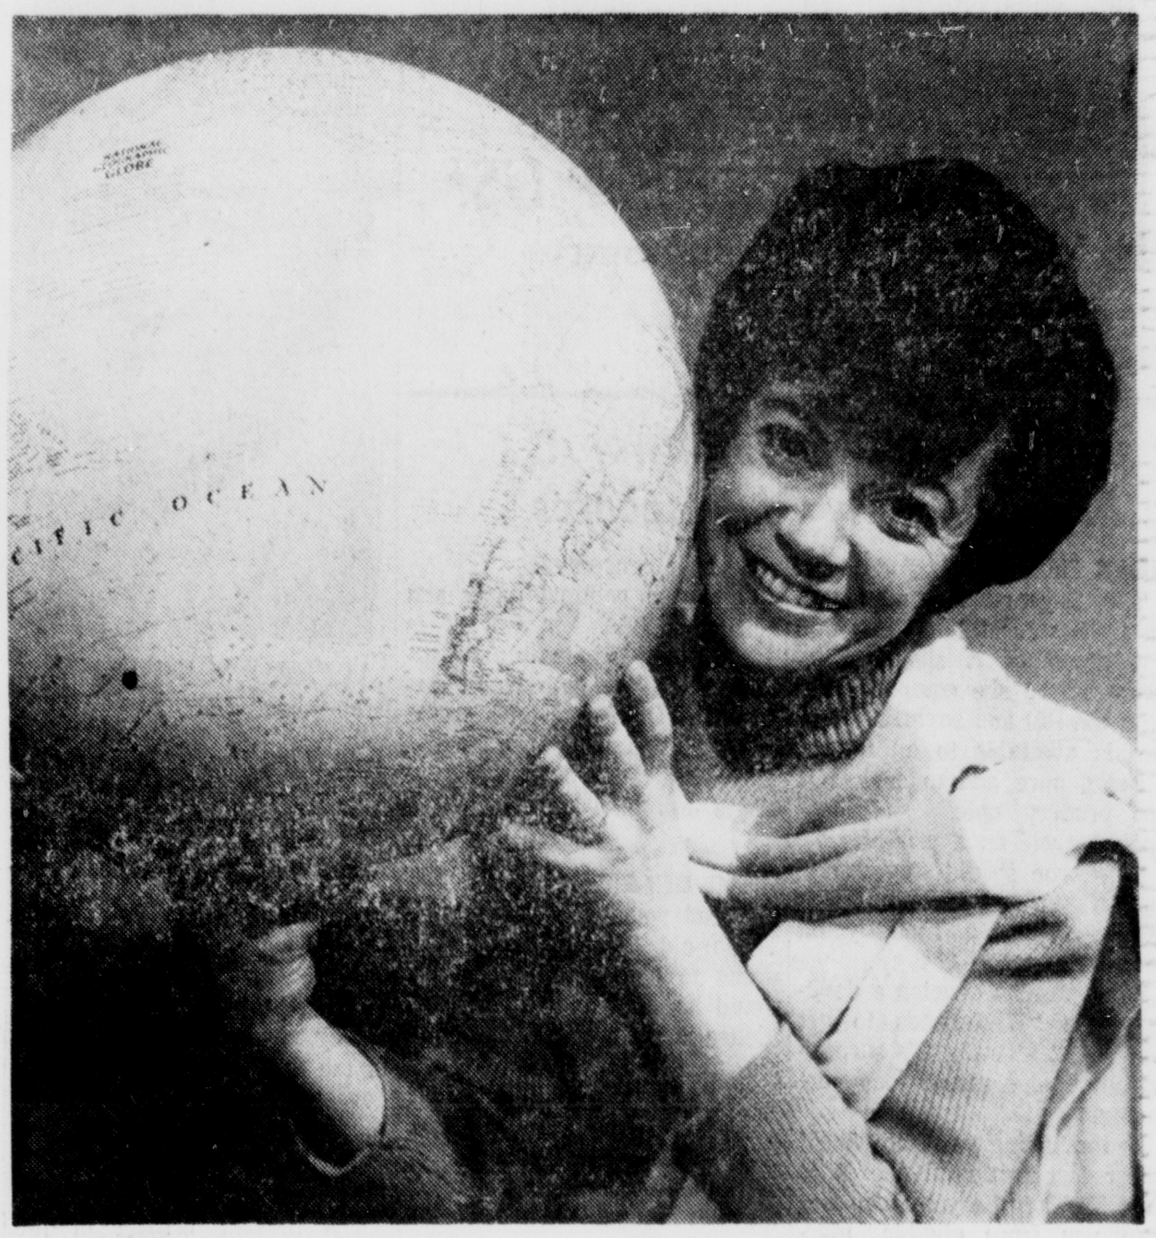
"You can live without music — but not very well," she told the audience. She described how rhythm effects the body, making you want to tap your toes, clap your hands and snap your fingers, and when the record "Hello Dolly" began it was difficult to imagine that anyone watching could stand still.

Guests have included professional musicians who relate to children.

Bill La Swan was one such guest. In addition to being a professional musician he has a hobby of collecting household items that can be used to make music. Mr. La Swan explained to the audience that everything is musical and proceeded to demonstrate with pots, pans, pieces of pottery, empty bottles, a piece of chain and a fork.

"A little improvisation and you have an orchestra," he told the children. "Music is all around you."

From Bach to the Beatles — Small World is exploring music. Each month the theme will change, but Elyce Melmon's idea — a good television program for children — will continue.



HOLDING A small world is Elyce Melmon, who appears five nights a week on Channel 38. The television show, Small World, which explores the liberal arts field and appeals to the creative education of children, is also written by Mrs. Melmon, a resident of San Rafael.

Designers Contrast Styles For Milady

By NADEANE WALKER

LONDON (AP) — London's fashion season wound up with one show that puts the ladies in trouser suits, and another that sets dressmaking back 25 years, to about the place where the "New Look" came in.

While Michael went all out for the trousers that are still taboo in top restaurants here, Lachasse went back to the 1940's with hems that nearly cover the knee and sheath-fitting clothes that bring back hips and bosoms with a vengeance. In this season of the see-through and the nudie look, Lachasse seemed downright prudish.

MICHAEL'S VERY long-jacketed suits were belted, with pleated skirts ending an inch or so above the knee. Two-yard long scarves went with everything. Yoked, tab-fronted shirtwaisters were queen of the show.

It's hard to tell whether Lachasse is ahead of his time or behind it, but he's certainly out of step. Alas his midknee hem line, wide rounded shoulders, draped bosoms and gathered-on skirts looked sadly old-fashioned. Lozenge and geometric prints added to the effect.

THERE WAS A roll call of such fashion foibles of yesteryear as step and sunburst pleating, ruffled apron and bib fronts, handkerchief-point chiffon skirts, cape backs and fur boleros. Some waistbands and belts nearly brought back an hour-glass figure.

Coats were cut in a loose almond shape, and some were wrapover kimonos. Suits had short jackets and straight skirts, sometimes with a kick pleat in the back.

In earlier collections here, Hartnell, Hardy Amies and Mattli all liked the A-line and a just above the knee hemline. Pleats, plaids, checks and some giant floral prints were in all the shows.

HARTNELL STARTLED with his first-ever trouser suit, leading London fashion editors to speculate on whether the queen will wear them now that her dressmaker has bowed to the inevitable.

But the liveliest show of the season was not couture but high class ready to wear. Worth, with American designer Hylan Booker went all Japanese and rather naughty with hip and navel cut-outs.

San Domenico Alumnae Names Mrs. Robert Dawson President

Mrs. Robert W. Dawson Jr. of San Rafael is elected president of the San Domenico Alimnae. A member of the alumnae group four years, she has previously served as vice president.

MRS. ROBERT DAWSON JR.

Members are participating in a bridge tournament and are making plans for the San Domencio Singers appearance at the de Young Museum in San Francisco on March 6. A luncheon will be held in September to raise funds for the organization, which advances the interests of the school and promotes the welfare of the alumnae, graduates of Dominican Convent and San Domenico School for Girls.

Patricia Ann Suhr Dawson is also a member of the Junior League of San Francosco, the Auxiliary of the Mothers' Milk Bank and St. Sylvester's Women's Guild.

Mrs. Dawson has lived in Marin eight years. She and her husband, who is in the insurance business, have two children: Robert, six, and Elizabeth Ann, four years old.

Following graduation from Dominican Convent, Mrs. Dawson attended the University of Southern California. Her hobbies are cooking, tennis and music.

"We recently spent a holiday in Mexico," she said on the subject of what she enjoys most, "and I look forward to more family traveling of this type."

Other new officers of the alumnae are Mmes. St. George Holden of San Francisco, vice president; Herbert West of San Anselmo, secretary; and Sister Mary Gervaise OP, treasurer.

ON THE AGENDA

Foresters' Sweetheart Ball To Raise Funds For Hospital

The annual Forest Frolic of the Independent Order of Foresters, Court Marin 1950, will be a Sweetheart Ball, a fund-raising event for the Tuberculosis Terrace of Ross Hospital.

It will be held on Feb. 15 at the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley. Installation of officers will be held at 8 p.m. preceding the dance, and a buffet supper will be served.

Mrs. Lester Bricca, trustee of the Forester Terrace trust fund, reports that funds raised from last year's frolic have kept the terrace patients supplied with supplies for their arts and crafts projects, and provided a new washing machine. The objective this year will be new outdoor furniture for the terrace.

Mrs. Joseph Terchera is general and reservations chairman; Eileen Mariani, decorations, with all officers of the court assisting; Mrs. H. James Thompson, table arrangements; Mrs. Farr Dell Danford, buffet; Mrs. Robert Frost, installation ceremony; Mrs. Frederick Frauens and awards. Mmes. Winifred Gallegos, Caroline Corrigan and Helen Mojzer will check member and guest reservations.

Dr. George Becker, high chief ranger, and the high court officers will conduct the formal installation ceremony. Officers to be installed are H. James Thompson, chief ranger; Pete Caletti, vice chief ranger; William Broshious, past chief ranger; Robert Frost, court deputy; Eileen Mariani, orator; Peggy Danford, recording secretary; Lyle Terchera, financial secretary-treasurer; James Lannert, senior woodard, Olive Thompson, junior woodard; Chet Wood, senior beadle; Ella Frost, junior beadle; Mmes. Jo Bricca, Dolly Frauens, Dorothy Caletti, finance committee.

A MEETING of the San Rafael Junior Woman's Club, will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frank G. Verbeke Jr., 365 Ironstone Court, San Rafael.

Mrs. Robert Kelley, education chairman for the Marin Chapter of the National Foundation March of Dimes, will be guest speaker. "Operation Healthy Babies" is one of the General Federation Junior projects this year and San Rafael Juniors participated in the Mothers March held in January.

Members of the club have also chosen to help in the patterning of a brain-damaged child in the San Rafael area.

Membership is open to all women in Marin County between the ages of 18 and 35. Mrs. Andrew J. Kogan is president.

The 6:30 p.m. dinner will be followed by entertainment, including folk singing by Mrs. Valda Kulka, a recorder concert by Leo Christiansen's students and an original folk rock concert by Tamalpais High School students.

Proceeds will be used for educational materials to support school programs.

"A MISSIONARY SPEAKS" will be presented by Mrs. Alyce Wilkins, guest speaker, at Tuesday's luncheon meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the United Methodist Church of Mill Valley.

Mrs. Wilkins served as a missionary nurse in West Pakistan, thus enabling her to bring a message directly from the field. She attended grade and high school in Petaluma and was graduated from the Franklin Hospital School of Nursing in San Francisco in 1930.

In June, 1961, after her children were grown, she reported for training to become a short-term missionary and was assigned to the United Christian Hospital in Lahore.

Hostesses for the luncheon will be Mmes. R. A. Young, Nita Bronson, Ralph Mathiesson and Al Hughes. Mrs. Jack Shapiro will give a devotional message.

NOVATO GARDEN CLUB'S tasting luncheon will have a theme of cupids and flowers at noon Tuesday at the Community House in Novato.

Mrs. Sam Marzell is chairman, and members and their guests will be able to taste special salads and favorite desserts prepared from members' special recipes.

Organ music will be played by Tim Clark.

Mrs. Marzell is reservations chairman. Assisting her with the luncheon preparation are Mmes. Inge Ball, Keith Cowan, William Melson, Robert Hood, John Sloat, Walter Von Tagen, Noel Turner, Anthony Jurkus, John Gore and Chester Galway.

"CURRICULUM CHANGES: Why?" will be the topic of the program of Paul Mobley, assistant superintendent of schools in charge of instruction for the Novato Unified School District, when he is guest speaker at the San Ramon Parent-Faculty Club meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the "B" cluster at the school in Novato.

Mobley will discuss new ideas and new reasons for school changes in courses taught to students. Parents and interested people are invited to the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith, co-presidents, have announced that to promote the cultural arts at the school a committee will be formed to coordinate activities with the council of music and arts.

The San Ramon Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls, under the direction of Mmes. Robert Oddone, Irwin Herlihy and Milton Gordon will be in charge of refreshments.

"PORCELAIN AS ART and History" will be the subject of Mrs. D. C. Ashley's illustrated lecture, the second in a series of three sessions on "Antiques as Art and History," presented by the Marin YWCA on Tuesday from 10:30 to noon, in the PG&E demonstration room at Third and Brooks, San Rafael.

Mrs. Ashley is a long time collector of antique porcelain. Her special interest lies in the beginning pieces of porcelain produced by factories in all countries, as objects of beauty and usefulness. Her lecture will be illustrated with pieces from her collection.

Reservations should be made in advance of the presentation, through the Marin YWCA, 305 Mission Avenue, San Rafael.

"HEARTS AND FLOWERS" will be the theme of the Officer's Wives Club luncheon to be held at the Officers Club at Hamilton Air Force Base on Tuesday.

Wives of officers of the Western Communications Region will be hosts. A program of music and rhymes written by Mrs. Blaine Gale will be featured on the program. Catpain Gale will accompany her on the piano.

Mrs. Alfred Mallet is chairman and assisting her will be Mmes. Eugene Meisner, decorations; Blaine Gale, program, William Smith, food, Robert Hamilton, punch table, William Crowell, publicity, and James R. Stephan and John C. Robeson, reservations.

Mrs. Stephan resides in Novato and Mrs. Robeson lives in San Rafael.

MEMBERS AND GUESTS of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Marin Medical Society will meet Tuesday at the Alta Mira Hotel in Sausalito for a film, "Parent to Child About Sex," with a discussion to follow. The meeting will open at 10 a.m. with luncheon afterward.

Mrs. John McGee, school health chairman for the county and state auxiliary, arranged the program. Arrangements chairman for the day is Mrs. Laurence Friedman. Special guest will be Mrs. James Borges of Napa, 10th district councilor at the state auxiliary level.

A LUNCHEON, "Valentine Chatter," will be given by St. Rita's Women's Guild at noon on Tuesday at the parish hall in Fairfax. The Mountain View Ladies Luncheon League will assist with the serving.

Mrs. David Lippi and Mrs. Peter Forni are chairman and co-chairman, and helping them are Mmes. Ernest Valente, Armand Pelleriti, Louis P. DeMartini Jr., Duilio Artigiani, Robert Davidson, John Cuneo, Emanuel Raffo, Donald Stader, Robert Alten, Robert Ghiringhelli, Leo Cronin, Stuart Schriver and William Beighley III.

Reservations chairmen are Mrs. Leonard Wilgenbush and Mrs. Sebastian Saia. Proceeds will be donated to the Parish Center Building Fund.

ST. PATRICK'S annual fashion show and luncheon will be held on Tuesday at St. Patrick's Center, Larkspur.

Mmes. John Erlwein and Fred Buscher are chairmen for this annual event, with the theme "High Flying Fashions."

MRS. THOMAS MARSHALL of Kentfield has been named to the board of directors of the San Francisco Senior Center. She is a past president of the Senior Center Auxiliary.

THE LUTHERAN Women's Missionary League of Peace Lutheran Church, Mill Valley, is planning a Valentine dinner for Tuesday with husbands of league members as special guests.

The 6:30 p.m. dinner will be held in the parish hall of the church, and following dinner a skit will be presented by some of the members. Hostesses will be Mmes. Philip Olson, Lee Rosevear, Marion Koehn and Harvey Le Jeune.

Miss Winkler Is A Bride

Christ Episcopal Church in Sausalito was the setting for the wedding of Helen Winkler and O B Cavanaugh III at 11 a.m. Saturday.

Mrs. Carlo Rode of San Anselmo was matron of honor. Deborah Morse of Berkeley was the bridesmaid.

The reception at the Alta Mira Hotel was given by Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Matson of Tiburo. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Matson and the late Ernest F. Winkler. Her sister is Mrs. Hilary Harris Smith of Belvedere, and her brother, John F. Winkler of Tiburon. Mrs. Gertrude Morgan of Berkeley is her grandmother.

Helen attended Sacred Heart Convent in Tokyo, and was graduated from the Bishop School in La Jolla. She attended California Western University in San Diego and will continue her education at San Jose State College.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. O B Cavanaugh Jr., of Coronado, and the late Lt. Cmdr. O B Cavanaugh. He is the grandson of Mrs. O B Cavanaugh of San Rafael, and of Jules Chourre of Mill Valley. He did his preparatory work in Europe and was graduated from California Western University. He is employed by the Dictaphone Corp. in San Jose.

The couple will live in Mountain View after a wedding trip to Carmel.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Older Single Girl's Letter Brings Variety Of Responses

DEAR HELEN:

The 29-year-old woman who said she was still a virgin and not proud of it should think twice before she equips herself with the Pill and advertises that she is available to all takers.

Being pure and untouched is not prudery unless she looks upon herself as a prude.

First, she should stop worrying. If you get anxious about never getting a man, you'll never get one.

When women develop a devil-may-care "Who needs to get married?" attitude, it's surprising how soon someone does start caring.

As for having an affair. She'd better forget it until she is at least 35. They tie you down and keep you from eligible, marriage-minded men. Usually an older woman gets involved with a married man, and that's the end, as far as a permanent life for her is concerned.

Joining a political party and getting active as a worker is a good idea. Maybe an art institute, or a hiking club, or a dancing club? Or how about a cruise or a vacation at a singles hotel? There are many outlets for the single woman. I know. I'm

DEAR HELEN:

I read your article about the 29-year-old "Untouchable" who wants to change things, and I would be glad to help her out. Please instruct her to meet me me at 8 p.m. next Saturday night, with a rose in her hair at —— (Whoa, there buddy, this column does not publish propositions. — EVEN when they're signed "Accommodating")—HELEN

DEAR HELEN:

My husband is 52 and the father of eight kids. I have a little trouble with him. He reads your column every night. . . .

So would you please print where he can get in touch with your 29-year-old "Untouchable?"

—TIRED

DEAR HELEN:

You have a little "caboose" under your column that asks for "amusing incidents." Here's mine.

She played "The First Noel" every hour on the hour — and then she followed it with a ringing rendition of "We Shall Overcome!"

Funny thing: Only a few people noticed. — NEARBY RESIDENT

DEAR N.R.:

Sort of the chimes of the times, what? — H.

DEAR HELEN:

It's true that if you save and send in tea bag tags, certain organizations will provide wheel chairs for invalids. The American Legion in various places collects them. I believe they must get a bushel for each wheel chair. One place you can send them is to the WBUT Phone Party, Box 1626, Butler, Pa., 16001. — MRS. G.F.

DEAR HELEN:

Another place that takes tea bag tags to trade in for needed articles is St. Joseph's Manor, Danville, Pa. It is a convalescent home. — H. H. H.

DEAR MRS. P., H.H.H., and many others:

You learn something new every day. I understand from my "Helen Helpers" that many organizations collect used tea bag tags, though I'm stumped as to what value they can have. Won't someone please clue me in? — H.

ALFRED N. THOMSON

Tiburon Man Elected President Of Child Development Center

Continuing his interest in Marin's young people, Alfred N. Thomson, former principal of San Rafael High School, has been elected president of the Marin Child Development Center in Tiburon.

The Marin County educator, now teaching at Terra Linda High School, has been on the board of the center for a year. He is also on the board of directors of San Rafael Military Academy, active with St. Paul's Church in San Rafael and a member of the San Rafael Teachers Association.

In its fifth year of operation, the Marin Child Development Center, formerly under the sponsorship of the Belvedere Nursery School Corp., is now an independent charitable corporation. Thomson, first president under the new setup, says "Projects and activities are in the process of formulation." The education of young children who are marginally handicapped is the objective of the center. The program is geared to the needs of children between the ages of three and six.

A native of Scotland, Thomson grew up in Vacaville. He was graduated from Vacaville High School, and San Francisco State College. After service with the Navy in World War II, he studied for the master's degree at Stanford University and entered the San Rafael school system in 1946.

His hobbies, golf and fishing, are an extension of his life-long interest in sports, as player and coach.

The new president is married to the former Constance Mary James. They have two sons, Norma, 21, and Robert, 18.

Other incoming board members are Mrs. Neal Regin, Belvedere, first vice president; Phillip Smith, San Rafael, second vice president; Mrs. James Clark, Belvedere, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Rafael Bricca, Belvedere, recording secretary; Thomas Fleming, Belvedere, treasurer; Jeffory Morshead, Mill Valley, finance chairman; Mrs. John Buxton, Sausalito, nominating committee chairman.

Dr. H. E. Thelander, Tiburon; Dr. Lee Smith, Mill Valley; Mrs. Neil Fulton, Kentfield; Mrs. Stanley Kane, Greenbrae; Mrs. John O'Neill, San Rafael; and Mrs. John Robinson, Ross, are directors.

Mrs. Robert Bastian of Belvedere continues as executive director and Mrs. Wyman Hicks of Sausalito as principal.

The work of the center has been assisted by grants from the William Babcock Memorial Endowment, the San Francisco Foundation and St. Stephens Guild in Belvedere.

President Prepares Year's Work

Miss Alice Van Houtte of Mill Valley, new president of the Star of the Sea Institute 97, YLI, of Sausalito has been a member of the group 19 years and has previously served as second vice president and marshal.

The present project of the group is making table decorations for Sonoma State Hospital.

The local unit is also participating in the grand institute projects of accumulating money for the golden jubilee burse for training seminarians and for nursing and social work scholarships.

A graduate of St. Mary's Academy in Eugene, Ore., Miss Van Houtte has lived in Marin 29 years and is employed in the gift shop at the Muir Woods National Monument.

She says she enjoys music and good plays more than anything else and her other interests are television, radio and reading.

Past president is Mrs. Anthony Medeiros. Other new officers serving with the new president are Mmes. Sylvina Dawson, first vice president and Frank Fuetsch, second vice president; Miss Eleanor Martinez, recording secretary; Miss Mary Folli, financial secretary; Mrs. Arthur Jewett, treasurer.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

The Order of Daedalians must be one of America's most exclusive fraternal organizations. Founded in 1934 by a group of World War I fliers, its membership is restricted to military aviators and to their male progeny. It is an organization that maintains the special esprit de corps that exists among armed forces pilots, and which supports continued U.S. preeminence in the air and space. Tomorrow's Marin Magazine reports on Golden Gate Flight No. 5, headquartered in our county.

Today's family heirlooms had their beginnings generations back in the past. But heirlooms that will be treasured by generations of the future are being born today. Tomorrow's issue of the I-J's weekend supplement tells the story of one such piece — a carefully crafted cradle, produced to perfection by a Marin home handyman for his first grandchild. It is a story that all those who appreciate fine handiwork will appreciate and enjoy.

ON THE AGENDA

Foresters' Sweetheart Ball To Raise Funds For Hospital

The annual Forest Frolic of the Independent Order of Foresters, Court Marin 1950, will be a Sweetheart Ball, a fund-raising event for the Tuberculosis Terrace of Ross Hospital.

It will be held on Feb. 15 at the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley. Installation of officers will be held at 8 p.m. preceding the dance, and a buffet supper will be served.

Mrs. Lester Bricca, trustee of the Forester Terrace trust fund, reports that funds raised from last year's frolic have kept the terrace patients supplied with supplies for their arts and crafts projects, and provided a new washing machine. The objective this year will be new outdoor furniture for the terrace.

Mrs. Joseph Terchera is general and reservations chairman; Eileen Mariani, decorations, with all officers of the court assisting; Mrs. H. James Thompson, table arrangements; Mrs. Farr Dell Danford, buffet; Mrs. Robert Frost, installation ceremony; Mrs. Frederick Frauens and awards. Mmes. Winifred Gallegos, Caroline Corrigan and Helen Mojzer will check member and guest reservations.

Dr. George Becker, high chief ranger, and the high court officers will conduct the formal installation ceremony. Officers to be installed are H. James Thompson, chief ranger; Pete Caletti, vice chief ranger; William Broshious, past chief ranger; Robert Frost, court deputy; Eileen Mariani, orator; Peggy Danford, recording secretary; Lyle Terchera, financial secretary-treasurer; James Lannert, senior woodard, Olive Thompson, junior woodard; Chet Wood, senior beadle; Ella Frost, junior beadle; Mmes. Jo Bricca, Dolly Frauens, Dorothy Caletti, finance committee.

A MEETING of the San Rafael Junior Woman's Club, will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frank G. Verbeke Jr., 365 Ironstone Court, San Rafael.

Mrs. Robert Kelley, education chairman for the Marin Chapter of the National Foundation March of Dimes, will be guest speaker. "Operation Healthy Babies" is one of the General Federation Junior projects this year and San Rafael Juniors participated in the Mothers March held in January.

Members of the club have also chosen to help in the patterning of a brain-damaged child in the San Rafael area.

Membership is open to all women in Marin County between the ages of 18 and 35. Mrs. Andrew J. Kogan is president.

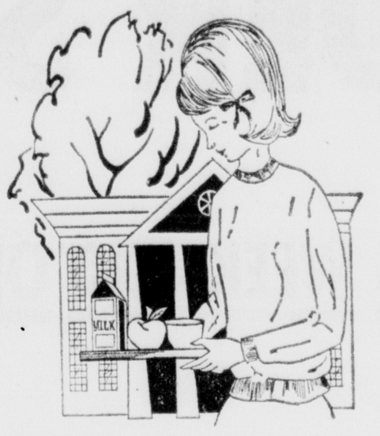
The 6:30 p.m. dinner will be followed by entertainment, including folk singing by Mrs. Valda Kulka, a recorder concert by Leo Christiansen's students and an original folk rock concert by Tamalpais High School students.

Proceeds will be used for educational materials to support school programs.

"A MISSIONARY SPEAKS" will be presented by Mrs. Alyce Wilkins, guest speaker, at Tuesday's luncheon meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the United Methodist Church of Mill Valley.

Mrs. Wilkins served as a missionary nurse in West Pakistan, thus enabling her to bring a message directly from the field. She attended grade and high school in Petaluma and was graduated from the Franklin Hospital School of Nursing in San Francisco in 1930.

In June, 1961, after her children were grown, she reported for training to become a short-term missionary and was assigned to the United Christian Hospital in Lahore.



Hostesses for the luncheon will be Mmes. R. A. Young, Nita Bronson, Ralph Mathiesson and Al Hughes. Mrs. Jack Shapiro will give a devotional message.

NOVATO GARDEN CLUB'S tasting luncheon will have a theme of cupids and flowers at noon Tuesday at the Community House in Novato.

Mrs. Sam Marzell is chairman, and members and their guests will be able to taste special salads and favorite desserts prepared from members' special recipes.

Organ music will be played by Tim Clark.

Mrs. Marzell is reservations chairman. Assisting her with the luncheon preparation are Mmes. Inge Ball, Keith Cowan, William Melson, Robert Hood, John Sloat, Walter Von Tagen, Noel Turner, Anthony Jurkus, John Gore and Chester Galway.

"CURRICULUM CHANGES: Why?" will be the topic of the program of Paul Mobley, assistant superintendent of schools in charge of instruction for the Novato Unified School District, when he is guest speaker at the San Ramon Parent-Faculty Club meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the "B" cluster at the school in Novato.

Mobley will discuss new ideas and new reasons for school changes in courses taught to students. Parents and interested people are invited to the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith, co-presidents, have announced that to promote the cultural arts at the school a committee will be formed to coordinate activities with the council of music and arts.

The San Ramon Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls, under the direction of Mmes. Robert Oddone, Irwin Herlihy and Milton Gordon will be in charge of refreshments.

"PORCELAIN AS ART and History" will be the subject of Mrs. D. C. Ashley's illustrated lecture, the second in a series of three sessions on "Antiques as Art and History," presented by the Marin YWCA on Tuesday from 10:30 to noon, in the PG&E demonstration room at Third and Brooks, San Rafael.

Mrs. Ashley is a long time collector of antique porcelain. Her special interest lies in the beginning pieces of porcelain produced by factories in all countries, as objects of beauty and usefulness. Her lecture will be illustrated with pieces from her collection.

Reservations should be made in advance of the presentation, through the Marin YWCA, 305 Mission Avenue, San Rafael.

"HEARTS AND FLOWERS" will be the theme of the Officer's Wives Club luncheon to be held at the Officers Club at Hamilton Air Force Base on Tuesday.

Wives of officers of the Western Communications Region will be hosts. A program of music and rhymes written by Mrs. Blaine Gale will be featured on the program. Catpain Gale will accompany her on the piano.

Mrs. Alfred Mallet is chairman and assisting her will be Mmes. Eugene Meisner, decorations; Blaine Gale, program, William Smith, food, Robert Hamilton, punch table, William Crowell, publicity, and James R. Stephan and John C. Robeson, reservations.

Mrs. Stephan resides in Novato and Mrs. Robeson lives in San Rafael.

MEMBERS AND GUESTS of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Marin Medical Society will meet Tuesday at the Alta Mira Hotel in Sausalito for a film, "Parent to Child About Sex," with a discussion to follow. The meeting will open at 10 a.m. with luncheon afterward.

Mrs. John McGee, school health chairman for the county and state auxiliary, arranged the program. Arrangements chairman for the day is Mrs. Laurence Friedman. Special guest will be Mrs. James Borges of Napa, 10th district councilor at the state auxiliary level.

A LUNCHEON, "Valentine Chatter," will be given by St. Rita's Women's Guild at noon on Tuesday at the parish hall in Fairfax. The Mountain View Ladies Luncheon League will assist with the serving.

Mrs. David Lippi and Mrs. Peter Forni are chairman and co-chairman, and helping them are Mmes. Ernest Valente, Armand Pelleriti, Louis P. DeMartini Jr., Duilio Artigiani, Robert Davidson, John Cuneo, Emanuel Raffo, Donald Stader, Robert Alten, Robert Ghiringhelli, Leo Cronin, Stuart Schriver and William Beighley III.

Reservations chairmen are Mrs. Leonard Wilgenbush and Mrs. Sebastian Saia. Proceeds will be donated to the Parish Center Building Fund.

ST. PATRICK'S annual fashion show and luncheon will be held on Tuesday at St. Patrick's Center, Larkspur.

Mmes. John Erlwein and Fred Buscher are chairmen for this annual event, with the theme "High Flying Fashions."

MRS. THOMAS MARSHALL of Kentfield has been named to the board of directors of the San Francisco Senior Center. She is a past president of the Senior Center Auxiliary.

THE LUTHERAN Women's Missionary League of Peace Lutheran Church, Mill Valley, is planning a Valentine dinner for Tuesday with husbands of league members as special guests.

The 6:30 p.m. dinner will be held in the parish hall of the church, and following dinner a skit will be presented by some of the members. Hostesses will be Mmes. Philip Olson, Lee Rosevear, Marion Koehn and Harvey Le Jeune.

Miss Winkler Is A Bride

Christ Episcopal Church in Sausalito was the setting for the wedding of Helen Winkler and O B Cavanaugh III at 11 a.m. Saturday.

Mrs. Carlo Rode of San Anselmo was matron of honor. Deborah Morse of Berkeley was the bridesmaid.

The reception at the Alta Mira Hotel was given by Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Matson of Tiburo. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Matson and the late Ernest F. Winkler. Her sister is Mrs. Hilary Harris Smith of Belvedere, and her brother, John F. Winkler of Tiburon. Mrs. Gertrude Morgan of Berkeley is her grandmother.

Helen attended Sacred Heart Convent in Tokyo, and was graduated from the Bishop School in La Jolla. She attended California Western University in San Diego and will continue her education at San Jose State College.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. O B Cavanaugh Jr., of Coronado, and the late Lt. Cmdr. O B Cavanaugh. He is the grandson of Mrs. O B Cavanaugh of San Rafael, and of Jules Chourre of Mill Valley. He did his preparatory work in Europe and was graduated from California Western University. He is employed by the Dictaphone Corp. in San Jose.

The couple will live in Mountain View after a wedding trip to Carmel.

Probation Chief Recruiting Mapped

Choice of a new probation officer to succeed Walter H. Busher will probably go through the regular process of recruiting statewide, screening by a board, and recommendation of one or more applicants to the county board of supervisors, according to County Administrator Alan Bruce

It is still premature to begin looking for candidates because several preliminary steps must be taken first, Bruce said today. Pressed for specifics, he gave this series of steps which he plans to follow:

1. The first step is to clearly delineate the authority of the probation officer in written form. Probation Officer Busher, in his letter of resignation, said the line of authority is not clearly specified. Bruce said he is seeking help of the judiciary (Presiding Judges Joseph G. Wilson and Hadden W. Roth, and Juvenile Judge Samuel W. Gardiner) in order to draw up a clarification of authority. "We hope to complete this in about a month," he said.

2. Job description for the probation officer, which was written in 1957, will need some updating.

3. Recruiting will be through the personnel office, headed by Robert D. Elliott. The job will be open to both county employees and outsiders. Will recruiting be nationwide? "I think the emphasis should be in California," said Bruce. "I'd be surprised if we need to go beyond that." He said it will not be limited to Marin County. However, experience in the county will be given some weight, as is normally the case.

4. After the applications have been received, an examining board will screen and check. This examining board would include disinterested persons from outside the county. "But my personal feeling is that it should also include the presiding judges of both courts (superior and municipal)," said Bruce.

5. From the top qualified candidates screened by the examining board, Bruce will recommend one or more to the county board of supervisors. He does not know how many he will recommend in this case, but normally, he recommends two or three.

6. The supervisors, as the appointing authority, will make the final choice.

It is possible that one of Busher's deputies could take over as acting probation officer?

"It's possible," said Bruce. But he would prefer to recruit for a permanent department head, particularly when there is ample time to do so. In this case, there is time because Busher's resignation is effective June 30.

Busher now gets a salary of $1,481 per month. There is no salary range for the job.

Tiburon Is Granted 47-Acre Annexation

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission last night approved annexation of 47 uninhabited acres to the City of Tiburon despite opposition from the county's planning director.

The commissioners voted unanimously for annexation of the land, which lies north of the city, adjacent to the Bel Aire subdivision.

County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker said a larger annexation would be more feasible, one that included the Bel Aire Estates and the two schools of the Reed School District.

Lawrence D. Rose, Tiburon city manager, told the commission, however, that school district officials say they don't want to get involved now because of current district financial problems.

"They know it won't cost them anything," Rose said, "but they feel they have enough problems to solve right now."

The 47 acres are the site of a planned subdivision being developed by Jeffrey Morshead of Mill Valley. Rose said that the hilly acreage will have 83 single-residences. Ten houses are under construction, Rose said.

Since the land was owned by only one person and 100 per cent property-owner consent was given for the annexation, the matter will not have to be heard before county supervisors. The Tiburon City Council needs only approve the annexation to make it official.

Although the county planning department requested disapproval, the Local Agency Formation Commission's own executive officer, John Barrow, recommended approval.

Rose told the commission that Tiburon "would be back in the near future" to annex Reed School District and Bel Aire Estates.

In his report, Michael A. Chrystal, the commission's administrative analyst, indicated that the school district favored eventual annexation after its financial difficulties were ironed out.

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission also:

O'FLAHERTY ANNEXATION — Unanimously approved annexation of 2.1 acres of tideland and shoreland to the county Sanitary District No. 2.

MEETING DATE — Approved revision of the commission's bylaws, changing the meeting date of the commission from the first Thursday of the month to the second Thursday, beginning in April.

Former Lawman Pleads Guilty To Arms Charge

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — A former Marin sheriff's inspector and an Air Force man have pleaded in U.S. District Court in connection with the theft of ammunition from Hamilton Air Force Base.

William R. Bradford, 36, of San Rafael, who has resigned from the Marin County sheriff's force, pleaded guilty Wednesday to receiving 5,000 rounds.

Air Force Sgt. Gerald K. Bradt, 42, a Hamilton gunnery instructor, pleaded guilty to stealing the ammunition.

The pair waived grand jury indictment before Judge Albert C. Wollenberg and are to be sentenced March 11.

Bradford, who lives at 17 Hart Street, and Bradt were arrested by the Federal Bureau of Investigation Jan. 25 in connection with the theft of over 50,000 rounds of ammunition used for training airmen bound for Vietnam.

Bradford is free on $2,000 bail; Bradt on his own recognizance.

SAN QUENTIN MINERS USE MANY PANTS

A seven-foot tunnel was discovered yesterday under a ground-floor cell in the east wing of San Quentin, prison officials reported.

A prison search squad found 47 prison uniform pants legs, possibly used as sandbags, at the bottom of the tunnel. Digging probably was stopped last summer because the inmates hit muck and water at the end of the tunnel, Park said.

Most prison escape attempts by tunneling have been unsuccessful, said Park, because most tunnels hit either hard rock or water after a few feet.

Two former inmates of the cell have been placed in maximum security quarters.

Six Drinking Drivers Sentenced

Six men have been sentenced in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving on Marin highways and streets.

James Richard Burke, 44, of 52 Corte Lenosa, Greenbrae, arrested Oct. 27 in San Rafael, was placed on six months probation and fined $125.

John Bishop Tunison, 32, of Novato was fined $100, given a two-day jail sentence and placed on six months probation. He was arrested June 13 on Highway 101.

Roger Dixon, 30, of Hamilton Air Force Base, was placed on six months probation and fined $100. He was arrested Friday on Nave Drive in Novato.

Jessie James Seales Jr., 25, of Hamilton Air Force Base, was fined $175 and placed on six months probation. He was arrested Sunday on Highway 101.

Kenneth A. Young, 21, of Hamilton Air Force Base, was placed on six months probation and fined $100. He was arrested Friday on Highway 101.

Alexander C. Anderson, 51, of 10 Bella Vista Avenue, Belvedere, was fined $250 and placed on six months probation. He was arrested Tuesday on Tiburon Boulevard.

Guns, Cameras, Television Taken

Loot which included a shotgun, rifle, three cameras and equipment, a movie projector, hunting knife, color television set and bedding was taken Monday from the home of John A. Davis of 219 Julia Street, Mill Valley.

Sheriff's deputies said a glass door had been broken by the burglar.

Cyclists Seek Use Of Trails

A Marin motorcycle group wants a use permit to ride the fire trails in hills off North San Pedro Road, north of China Camp, the area where the Elizabethan Pleasure Faire was held last fall.

The Marin County Motorcycle Association will apply for the permit to County Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill Monday morning in the planning commission chambers at the Civic Center.

Stanley Wisnes of San Rafael, president of the Association, said his club has about 100 members, all adults between 21 and 60 years of age. "We've ridden in that area for 20 to 30 years," said Wisnes. "Now they want us to get a use permit." The club meets regularly at the Moose Lodge on the Miracle Mile in San Rafael.

Wisnes said the use of the trails is mostly by members and occasionally for nonmember events. The 708-acre site is owned by the New York-California Industrial Corp.

The zoning administrator will also hear two other requests.

Alfred G. Poncia, who owns 171 acres on State Highway 1 at Fallon-Two Rock Road, wants to use a mobile home as living quarters for hired help.

In Fair Condition

Jeanette Wall, 27, of 36 Hawthorne Avenue, San Anselmo, was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital after treatment for an overdose of sedatives. Police were called to her home at 10:05 a.m., yesterday, where they found her semiconscious, three empty drug containers beside her bed.

Hall Of Justice Occupation Postponed Again, To April

Opening of the new Marin Hall of Justice at the Civic Center, originally scheduled for last October, has been delayed at least until April, Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows, has disclosed.

The delay was caused because some of the finishing touches on the building did not come up to specifications and the contractor has been asked to correct the deficiencies, architect Aaron Green reported.

Meanwhile, vandals have caused damage which could reach $10,000 at the new building, project superintendent David Grice said today. Repairs to smashed skylights and damaged gold hand railings are not expected to contribute to the delay in completion of the structure, however.

Grice said the vandals struck Tuesday night, dropping 25 of the specially made hand rails 60 feet from the upper levels of the building. Skylight were either kicked or smashed with rocks.

A year ago, the scheduled date of opening was Oct. 1, 1968. Then last August, the administrator announced that the opening date had been delayed until January of 1969.

Barrows has informed the board of spuervisors that the schedule has not been met.

"After consultation with the architect, we have prepared a new schedule with occupancy to commence approximately April 1," said Barrows in a letter to the supervisors. "Subsequent departmental moves in both wings should be completed in late June. As with any construction, this schedule may, unfortunately, be subject to further revision."

Barrows quoted Green as saying the delay was caused by late delivery of furnishings and equipment, primarily from the California Correctional Industries; problems in meeting color and quality requirements on the outside walls, and delays in correcting some interior ceiling deficiencies.

Architect David Tirrell, who works with Green, said the outside wall finishing did not come up to standard in color and quality. "We've been asking the contractor (Robert E. McKee of El Paso, Tex.) to bring them up to standard."

Further, expansion joints in the ceiling were installed incorrectly, casuing the plaster to crack, said Tirrell, The joints had to be reinstalled, he said.

Youth Is Bound To Higher Court On Drug Charge

John Anthony Gilbert, 18, of San Rafael, was bound over to Marin Superior Court yesterday on felony charges of possessing a switchblade knife and possessing marijuana and misdemeanor charges of illegal use of another person's credit card and possessing narcotics paraphernalia.

Further argument on whether Gilbert, who is also known as Robert Jones, will face two charges of concealing stolen property will be heard Friday in Marin Municipal Court.

Gilbert, whose case was refused by the Juvenile Court, was arrested Oct. 14 after a high speed chase which ended when the vehicle he was driving smashed into a pole on Lucas Valley Road.

His arrainment in Superior Court was set for Tuesday.

Tiburon's Fire Loss In '68 Worst Ever

The Tiburon Fire Protection District had the greatest fire loss in its history during 1968, the district board was told last night. Losses to buildings and contents totaled $249,636.

Major factors in the record loss were two fires which destroyed the Main Street Antique Store and a house on a Paradise Drive, secretary Wellman H. Topham said.

On the brighter side, a new drainage system installed at the fire station in 1968 proved itself during recent heavy rains and high tides, by averting flooding Topham said.

The board received a letter from the Northwestern Pacific Railroad saying the railroad is not interested in selling land behind the fire station, sought by the district for expansion. The possibility of condemning the land will be studied further, Topham said.

The board was shown new shoulder patches for firemen designed by Chief Franklin J. Busher and his men. The patch bears the shark which is Tiburon's city symbol.

Homeowners Set Annual Meeting

Marin Estates Homeowners Association directors last night set 8 p.m. March 6 for their annual meeting to elect new officers and to consider 1969-70 budget adoption.

The meeting will be at Granada School, Corte Madera, board president George R. Hebberd reported. The budget was discussed last night but no action taken.

It Costs A Little Extra To Live In California

It might cheer those of us who are now going through the torture of preparing federal and state income tax returns to realize that for the privilege of living in Golden California, we pay per capita taxes $105.04 higher than the average throughout the United States.

(On the other hand, it might not cheer us at all.)

Taxes in California — local and state — work out at an average of $414.55 for every man, woman and child, according to U. S. Department of Commerce figures which are quoted in the Washington Report of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. The average for all Americans is $309.51.

IF YOU ARE NOT cheered by the realization that you are privileged to pay more for living in California, be cheered by this: New Yorkers pay an average of $457.84 — and anyone with good sense knows California is a better place to live than New York. In no other state, however, does the figure exceed California's.

One reason for this is that Californians have higher per capita income than residents in most states. However, the Department of Commerce figures show this is not the sole reason.

Taxes per $1,000 of personal income in California average $122.14. This is $16.64 higher than the national average. But it is not the highest. That honor belongs to Hawaii at $134.79. And taxes per $1,000 of income are also higher in Wyoming, New York, Arizona, and Minnesota than in California.

IF YOU REALLY WANT to save on taxes, you will have to go south, old man, go south! Alabamans average only $192.05 per capita in taxes; Mississippians, $196.74, and South Carolinians, $197.01.

But here again (as always) there is a catch. Incomes are low there, too.

It is possible, though, to go where incomes are high and taxes are relatively low, the Department of Commerce figures show. Taxes per $1,000 of personal income average only $82.23 in Ohio, $85.29 in Illinois, and $86.40 in the District of Columbia. (Wouldn't you know those lawmakers in Washington would make them a bit lighter there?)

NO MATTER WHERE you go, though, you won't escape constantly rising costs of government.

The U. S. Chamber of Commerce, taking a backward look, reported that federal income taxes took slightly more than $1 billion in 1932. Ten years ago the take was $54 billion. This year, with the 10 per cent surcharge, it will total about $122 billion.

As for state income taxes, 37 states now have them, and seven states (including California) increased them in 1968. Moreover, 44 of the 50 states now have sales taxes. There's just no escaping!

AS FOR PROPERTY taxes, the picture in Marin is probably pretty typical. In fiscal 1959, property taxes in this county totaled $12,998,985. This fiscal year, they total $29,785,000. And right now, every school district and every city and county department is hard at work on budgets for next fiscal year, every one of which probably will be bigger than this year's.

There is, of course, one way to reverse the trend: quit adding to the "services" that governments perform for their citizens.

We put that word "services" in quotation marks on purpose. We can think of quite a few government functions that are of precious little service to those who pay for them.

A Better Way Of Branding?

Most people in the cattle business do not enjoy the dirty business of branding their livestock, but continue in the old way because they cannot devise a better, more foolproof method of identifying their animals.

The red-hot branding iron is very painful to the calves and from a mere financial point of view is wasteful because the scar disfigures the leather, making a small portion useless.

This heavy-handed frontier method may soon give way to a gentler type of branding, cyrogenic branding. This is branding with intense cold. Not only is it practically painless, it also leaves no deep scars on the leather. But the cattle are easily identifiable because the hair on a cyrogenic brand grows back white and remains white thereafter.

Major Divorce Law Changes Proposed In New Legislation

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Reformation of California's divorce laws, a prime issue before the 1967 legislature but relegated to an interim committee for study for two years, is back before the 1969 session, with the study completed and an extensive bill ready for action.

The measure was introduced by Sen. Donald L. Grunsky, R-Watsonville, chairman of the Senate Judicary Committee and innovator of the move to take a lot of the sting out of divorce.

SENATOR GRUNSKY'S proposal would be known as the Family Law Act. It has attracted nationwide attention, both pro and con, as a means of eliminating adversary proceedings and bitter court battles between husband and wife.

He is hopeful that the measure, which contains provisions for voluntary marriage counseling, will ultimately reduce the high incidence of divorce in California.

Five major provisions are contained in the bill. First, it would eliminate fault grounds for divorce, and replace them with a procedure for inquiry into the marriage and dissolution of marriage when there is no reasonable likelihood that it can be saved.

Second, fault would be eliminated for the division of community property, which would be divided equally unless the economic conditions of either party required an unequal division.

Third, fault would also be eliminated in alimony considerations. Grunsky pointed out that under present law, the court must find one of the parties guilty of misconduct before an award is made to the other.

Fourth, award of children would be made without preference between parents, upon a determination of the best interests of the child.

And finally, the proposed law would establish a family division of the superior court in each county, with specialized marriage counseling staff.

"ALL COUNSELING is voluntary, but an initial interview is required for parties with minor children under 18 years of age," according to Grunsky.

He also pointed out that the counseling service would be available to married couples who desire help, but have not filed court proceedings.

Should the bill pass, California would become the first state to adopt such a system.

Unions Claim Teacher Jurisdiction

In your Jan. 24 news item regarding the schools bid to employ union force, it was stated that although there is an AFL-CIO union, the AFT is not mentioned in a long list of trades in which the AFL-CIO union claims jurisdiction.

This statement is in error. . . In The First paragraph, and I quote, "Section — Resolved:" The teachers are listed in the 40 trades with jurisdiction of the Marin County Labor Unions, AFL-CIO who are affiliates of both the Marin County Labor Council and the Building and Construction Trades Council.

(Editor's note: The paragraph in the resolution reads: "Resolved, that this school district will not employ teachers, bus drivers, custodians, or students to work in the following trades." It then lists trades, including teachers.)

Sensitivity Training Questions Raised

I received in today's mail (Feb. 3) an announcement of a meeting to be held locally exposing "sensitivity training" as "a gun aimed at your child's head." This announcement contained much alarming information, most of which seemed hard to prove or disprove. One item that I could evaluate was the statement that "operant conditioning" is one of the many names by which sensitivity training is known. This statement is so far wrong, that I am inclined to distrust every statement in the brochure. Operant conditioning is training by reward or punishment. It has absolutely nothing to do with sensitivity training ("self and group criticism," according to the tract).

Another very doubtful statement was that sensitivity training is mandatory in many public schools. I hope the writers of the pamphlet are prepared to back that statement up with the names of schools where it is mandatory. As one interested in education both professionally and as a citizen. I have not encountered any school where this was the case.

'Ray Of Hope' For Marin Transit

The first ray of hope in Marin's very dark transportation mess has appeared in the Jenkins report, which proposes that the Golden Gate Bridge District buy and operate an inter-county bus system.

The report recommends purchase of 150 new, modern buses, with air conditioning and semi-reclining high-back seats. It proposes that fares be reduced 25 per cent and routes be re-examined to provide better service. This bus system can be the first, long-needed, practical relief for the weary commuter.

Advocates of ferry boats have asked the bridge directors to delay action on the proposal until the ferry studies are completed. Their request seems short-sighted.

Operation of the commuter buses can and must be a step forward in a developing system. Ferries can be a valuable transit aid. But ferries must have buses to feed them — otherwise, Marin will still face the curse of an auto-oriented transportation system, overburdened with freeways and parking lots, and only San Francisco will gain.

Marin badly needs an intra-county service for people who must travel within the county without a car. The commute operation can be the backbone of intra-county transportation — in fact, it must be.

The bridge district is the only entity available to us which can buy and operate any large public transit system. Jenkins estimates total capital investment for the 150 buses, land, equipment, etc., at $8.5 million. The annual deficit is estimated at $1,411. . . — an amount, he says which the district can well afford.

Compare these costs with the annual income of the Marin Transit District, which receives approximately $280,000 at its top legal tax rate of five cents per $100 assessed valuation.

The Golden Gate Bridge Board will hold a public hearing on the proposed bus system at 8 p.m. Tuesday, in the supervisors chambers at the Marin Civic Center.

Social Workers Applaud Series

We, the members of the Marin County Social Workers Union, Local 535, would like to commend the Independent-Journal for the recent series on the racial difficulties taking place in our community. We feel these kinds of articles are extremely important in these times of acute social conflict, and consider it a moral responsibility of the news media to cover racial issues and to inform the public, through series such as this one, about the danger and destructiveness of continued racial prejudice in America.

We would like to state at this time that, as social workers, we concur with the recent Kerner Commission's report which concluded that America's number one mental health problem is white racism. We further contend that for alleviation of this grave problem we as citizens, and especially the white citizens, of Marin County can and must make every effort to move away from racist attitudes and behaviors and to move toward making the ideals of freedom, equality and justice realities today for our non-white brothers.

We can begin by having more open housing in Marin — and to implement this we can advise our neighbors, landlords, realtors that we would welcome having our communities integrated; we can encourage neighbors who are moving to sell or rent their homes to minority persons.

We believe that there are infinite ways of making Marin one community where people are examining their own learned prejudices and are actively committing themselves to eliminating discrimination where it exists.

Packard Appointment Shows Up Military-Industrial-Political Web

WASHINGTON — The web of the military-industrial-political complex is so tangled that the role of David Packard as deputy secretary fo defense has caused hardly a ripple. What would have been unthinkable 15 years ago is taken for granted today.

Packard and his wife own 3,584,950 shares of Hewlett-Packard Co. (minus 30,000 made as an irrevocable gift) which sold last week at $82 a share. For Hewlett-Packard's last fiscal year total orders for the company's complex electronic devices were $280 million, of which $100 million was either directly or indirectly in government contracts — largely with the Department of Defense.

When Packard came before the Senate Armed Services Committee for his confirmation hearing, the questioning was perfunctory, if not downright subservient Members of the committee seemed overawed by a man who had begun from nothing and made a very great fortune by his own ingenuity and drive.

THERE WAS, however, a fleeting glimpse backward at what had been the mores of a simpler day, in these matters an age of innocence. When Charles E. Wilson, president of General Motors, was nominated for secretary of defense by the new Republican President, Dwight Eisenhower, in 1953 he was required to sell $2,500,000 in General Motors stock. GM was reported at that time to have more defense contracts than any other corporation.

Packard put his Hewlett-Packard and other holdings in a trust over which during his tenure in the Pentagon he would have no control and the income of which would go to charity. The only challenge to this arrangement came from Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., who contended it was a bookkeeping trust that did not meet the requirements of the law governing conflict of interest.

The new No. 2 man a the Pentagon testified he could not sell his Hewlett-Packard stock, 30 per cent of all stock outstanding, without doing serious harm to the company and to his associates. No one can question that. Nor does anyone question his integrity and his extraordinary ability.

IT IS A FACT, as was the plea of Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird, that to get a man truly equipped to be his deputy it was necessary to turn to one who for two decades has seen a considerable share of his wealth grow out of the swelling billions for the military. This is the tangle, the Gordian knot, tying together the elements making up perhaps the most powerful single force in both government and the economy.

When it comes to conflict of interest in the military-industrial-political web, Congress is no model of virtue. Some of the rawest examples are in the record of Senate and House as members quarrel over where military installations and defense plants shall be located.

A notorious case history was that of the late Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma. A powerful member of the Senate's club-within-a-club and a close ally of Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson, Kerr never missed an opportunity to promote government leases for his huge uranium holdings. With his large oil holdings, his high rank on the Senate Finance Committee was insurance against any upstart who might want to change the 27 per cent depletion allowance for oil income.

NOW COMES a test putting both the Pentagon and Congress on the hot seat of decision. Congress approved last year $1.2 billion for deployment of an anti-ballistic missile system in the coming fiscal year. As this spending multiplies it touches every large defense contractor — not excepting, one assumes, Hewlett-Packard.

From a number of cities out in the country comes a roar of protest over where the Army proposes to put the ABMs. Together with the insistence of leading scientists that the ABM is futile and probably already obsolete, this latest spiral in the nuclear arms race may be checked. That is the test for Congress and for the country.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

National Park Ruckus Typical Of LBJ Regime

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and JOHN A. GOLDSMITH

WASHINGTON — In a dramatic series of events which enlivened his final hours in the White House, former President Johnson gave his critics a review, in miniature, of those qualities which tumbled his personal popularity and now blur the Johnson record.

The events were climaxed by the blunt offer of resignation from Stewart L. Udall, the outgoing secretary of the interior, made in a stormy discussion before Johnson vetoed Udall's plan for adding nearly 7.5 million acres of government-owned land to the national park system.

As the story is now emerging from the aura of secrecy and stealth, which so frequently cloaked the Johnson administration's worthwhile initiatives, it becomes clear that the controversy had other hallmarks of the Johnson presidency.

THE ANGRY showdown with Udall came after a long period of presidential indecision. The delay necessitated a rather typical last-minute action by the President.

In his last-minute deliberations, Johnson lost his temper (as he has now admitted to some of his associates). Then, in the end, his final "surprise" decision to add something less than 400,000 acres to parklands in Arizona, Alaska and Utah really pleased no one.

JOHNSON was genuinely and rightly concerned about the propriety of so large a park addition under authority of the Antiquities Act. That 1906 law permits a President to proclaim historic landmarks and protect them by reserving surrounding parcels of land.

The 7.5-million-acre plan was first proposed to the White House several months ago. Conservationists in Congress were urging the President to act, and at least one of them advised that the proclamation should be made quickly, so that it would not be a last-grasp action by the outgoing President.

FINALLY, on the Saturday before inauguration Monday, Udall's Interior Department press office erroneously announced that the 7.5-million-acre plan had been approved by the President.

Johnson's anger came very shortly after that mistaken announcement came into his office on the newswires.

The parklands story is still unfinished. Even the scaled-down addition has provoked sharp critism in the states involved. A Utah congressman, Rep. Laurence J. Burton, R., has offered a bill which would limit future land additions under the Antiquities Act to a total of 2,560 acres.

Probation Chief Recruiting Mapped

Choice of a new probation officer to succeed Walter H. Busher will probably go through the regular process of recruiting statewide, screening by a board, and recommendation of one or more applicants to the county board of supervisors, according to County Administrator Alan Bruce

It is still premature to begin looking for candidates because several preliminary steps must be taken first, Bruce said today. Pressed for specifics, he gave this series of steps which he plans to follow:

1. The first step is to clearly delineate the authority of the probation officer in written form. Probation Officer Busher, in his letter of resignation, said the line of authority is not clearly specified. Bruce said he is seeking help of the judiciary (Presiding Judges Joseph G. Wilson and Hadden W. Roth, and Juvenile Judge Samuel W. Gardiner) in order to draw up a clarification of authority. "We hope to complete this in about a month," he said.

2. Job description for the probation officer, which was written in 1957, will need some updating.

3. Recruiting will be through the personnel office, headed by Robert D. Elliott. The job will be open to both county employees and outsiders. Will recruiting be nationwide? "I think the emphasis should be in California," said Bruce. "I'd be surprised if we need to go beyond that." He said it will not be limited to Marin County. However, experience in the county will be given some weight, as is normally the case.

4. After the applications have been received, an examining board will screen and check. This examining board would include disinterested persons from outside the county. "But my personal feeling is that it should also include the presiding judges of both courts (superior and municipal)," said Bruce.

5. From the top qualified candidates screened by the examining board, Bruce will recommend one or more to the county board of supervisors. He does not know how many he will recommend in this case, but normally, he recommends two or three.

6. The supervisors, as the appointing authority, will make the final choice.

It is possible that one of Busher's deputies could take over as acting probation officer?

"It's possible," said Bruce. But he would prefer to recruit for a permanent department head, particularly when there is ample time to do so. In this case, there is time because Busher's resignation is effective June 30.

Busher now gets a salary of $1,481 per month. There is no salary range for the job.

Tiburon Is Granted 47-Acre Annexation

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission last night approved annexation of 47 uninhabited acres to the City of Tiburon despite opposition from the county's planning director.

The commissioners voted unanimously for annexation of the land, which lies north of the city, adjacent to the Bel Aire subdivision.

County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker said a larger annexation would be more feasible, one that included the Bel Aire Estates and the two schools of the Reed School District.

Lawrence D. Rose, Tiburon city manager, told the commission, however, that school district officials say they don't want to get involved now because of current district financial problems.

"They know it won't cost them anything," Rose said, "but they feel they have enough problems to solve right now."

The 47 acres are the site of a planned subdivision being developed by Jeffrey Morshead of Mill Valley. Rose said that the hilly acreage will have 83 single-residences. Ten houses are under construction, Rose said.

Since the land was owned by only one person and 100 per cent property-owner consent was given for the annexation, the matter will not have to be heard before county supervisors. The Tiburon City Council needs only approve the annexation to make it official.

Although the county planning department requested disapproval, the Local Agency Formation Commission's own executive officer, John Barrow, recommended approval.

Rose told the commission that Tiburon "would be back in the near future" to annex Reed School District and Bel Aire Estates.

In his report, Michael A. Chrystal, the commission's administrative analyst, indicated that the school district favored eventual annexation after its financial difficulties were ironed out.

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission also:

O'FLAHERTY ANNEXATION — Unanimously approved annexation of 2.1 acres of tideland and shoreland to the county Sanitary District No. 2.

MEETING DATE — Approved revision of the commission's bylaws, changing the meeting date of the commission from the first Thursday of the month to the second Thursday, beginning in April.

Former Lawman Pleads Guilty To Arms Charge

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — A former Marin sheriff's inspector and an Air Force man have pleaded in U.S. District Court in connection with the theft of ammunition from Hamilton Air Force Base.

William R. Bradford, 36, of San Rafael, who has resigned from the Marin County sheriff's force, pleaded guilty Wednesday to receiving 5,000 rounds.

Air Force Sgt. Gerald K. Bradt, 42, a Hamilton gunnery instructor, pleaded guilty to stealing the ammunition.

The pair waived grand jury indictment before Judge Albert C. Wollenberg and are to be sentenced March 11.

Bradford, who lives at 17 Hart Street, and Bradt were arrested by the Federal Bureau of Investigation Jan. 25 in connection with the theft of over 50,000 rounds of ammunition used for training airmen bound for Vietnam.

Bradford is free on $2,000 bail; Bradt on his own recognizance.

SAN QUENTIN MINERS USE MANY PANTS

A seven-foot tunnel was discovered yesterday under a ground-floor cell in the east wing of San Quentin, prison officials reported.

A prison search squad found 47 prison uniform pants legs, possibly used as sandbags, at the bottom of the tunnel. Digging probably was stopped last summer because the inmates hit muck and water at the end of the tunnel, Park said.

Most prison escape attempts by tunneling have been unsuccessful, said Park, because most tunnels hit either hard rock or water after a few feet.

Two former inmates of the cell have been placed in maximum security quarters.

Six Drinking Drivers Sentenced

Six men have been sentenced in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving on Marin highways and streets.

James Richard Burke, 44, of 52 Corte Lenosa, Greenbrae, arrested Oct. 27 in San Rafael, was placed on six months probation and fined $125.

John Bishop Tunison, 32, of Novato was fined $100, given a two-day jail sentence and placed on six months probation. He was arrested June 13 on Highway 101.

Roger Dixon, 30, of Hamilton Air Force Base, was placed on six months probation and fined $100. He was arrested Friday on Nave Drive in Novato.

Jessie James Seales Jr., 25, of Hamilton Air Force Base, was fined $175 and placed on six months probation. He was arrested Sunday on Highway 101.

Kenneth A. Young, 21, of Hamilton Air Force Base, was placed on six months probation and fined $100. He was arrested Friday on Highway 101.

Alexander C. Anderson, 51, of 10 Bella Vista Avenue, Belvedere, was fined $250 and placed on six months probation. He was arrested Tuesday on Tiburon Boulevard.

Guns, Cameras, Television Taken

Loot which included a shotgun, rifle, three cameras and equipment, a movie projector, hunting knife, color television set and bedding was taken Monday from the home of John A. Davis of 219 Julia Street, Mill Valley.

Sheriff's deputies said a glass door had been broken by the burglar.

Cyclists Seek Use Of Trails

A Marin motorcycle group wants a use permit to ride the fire trails in hills off North San Pedro Road, north of China Camp, the area where the Elizabethan Pleasure Faire was held last fall.

The Marin County Motorcycle Association will apply for the permit to County Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill Monday morning in the planning commission chambers at the Civic Center.

Stanley Wisnes of San Rafael, president of the Association, said his club has about 100 members, all adults between 21 and 60 years of age. "We've ridden in that area for 20 to 30 years," said Wisnes. "Now they want us to get a use permit." The club meets regularly at the Moose Lodge on the Miracle Mile in San Rafael.

Wisnes said the use of the trails is mostly by members and occasionally for nonmember events. The 708-acre site is owned by the New York-California Industrial Corp.

The zoning administrator will also hear two other requests.

Alfred G. Poncia, who owns 171 acres on State Highway 1 at Fallon-Two Rock Road, wants to use a mobile home as living quarters for hired help.

In Fair Condition

Jeanette Wall, 27, of 36 Hawthorne Avenue, San Anselmo, was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital after treatment for an overdose of sedatives. Police were called to her home at 10:05 a.m., yesterday, where they found her semiconscious, three empty drug containers beside her bed.

Hall Of Justice Occupation Postponed Again, To April

Opening of the new Marin Hall of Justice at the Civic Center, originally scheduled for last October, has been delayed at least until April, Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows, has disclosed.

The delay was caused because some of the finishing touches on the building did not come up to specifications and the contractor has been asked to correct the deficiencies, architect Aaron Green reported.

Meanwhile, vandals have caused damage which could reach $10,000 at the new building, project superintendent David Grice said today. Repairs to smashed skylights and damaged gold hand railings are not expected to contribute to the delay in completion of the structure, however.

Grice said the vandals struck Tuesday night, dropping 25 of the specially made hand rails 60 feet from the upper levels of the building. Skylight were either kicked or smashed with rocks.

A year ago, the scheduled date of opening was Oct. 1, 1968. Then last August, the administrator announced that the opening date had been delayed until January of 1969.

Barrows has informed the board of spuervisors that the schedule has not been met.

"After consultation with the architect, we have prepared a new schedule with occupancy to commence approximately April 1," said Barrows in a letter to the supervisors. "Subsequent departmental moves in both wings should be completed in late June. As with any construction, this schedule may, unfortunately, be subject to further revision."

Barrows quoted Green as saying the delay was caused by late delivery of furnishings and equipment, primarily from the California Correctional Industries; problems in meeting color and quality requirements on the outside walls, and delays in correcting some interior ceiling deficiencies.

Architect David Tirrell, who works with Green, said the outside wall finishing did not come up to standard in color and quality. "We've been asking the contractor (Robert E. McKee of El Paso, Tex.) to bring them up to standard."

Further, expansion joints in the ceiling were installed incorrectly, casuing the plaster to crack, said Tirrell. The joints had to be reinstalled, he said.

Youth Is Bound To Higher Court On Drug Charge

John Anthony Gilbert, 18, of San Rafael, was bound over to Marin Superior Court yesterday on felony charges of possessing a switchblade knife and possessing marijuana and misdemeanor charges of illegal use of another person's credit card and possessing narcotics paraphernalia.

Further argument on whether Gilbert, who is also known as Robert Jones, will face two charges of concealing stolen property will be heard Friday in Marin Municipal Court.

Gilbert, whose case was refused by the Juvenile Court, was arrested Oct. 14 after a high speed chase which ended when the vehicle he was driving smashed into a pole on Lucas Valley Road.

His arrainment in Superior Court was set for Tuesday.

Tiburon's Fire Loss In '68 Worst Ever

The Tiburon Fire Protection District had the greatest fire loss in its history during 1968, the district board was told last night. Losses to buildings and contents totaled $249,636.

Major factors in the record loss were two fires which destroyed the Main Street Antique Store and a house on a Paradise Drive, secretary Wellman H. Topham said.

On the brighter side, a new drainage system installed at the fire station in 1968 proved itself during recent heavy rains and high tides, by averting flooding Topham said.

The board received a letter from the Northwestern Pacific Railroad saying the railroad is not interested in selling land behind the fire station, sought by the district for expansion. The possibility of condemning the land will be studied further, Topham said.

The board was shown new shoulder patches for firemen designed by Chief Franklin J. Busher and his men. The patch bears the shark which is Tiburon's city symbol.

Homeowners Set Annual Meeting

Marin Estates Homeowners Association directors last night set 8 p.m. March 6 for their annual meeting to elect new officers and to consider 1969-70 budget adoption.

The meeting will be at Granada School, Corte Madera, board president George R. Hebberd reported. The budget was discussed last night but no action taken.

Maybe There's A Clue Here To Why Railroads Drop Trains

Everyone knows California land is a good investment, but the dollars and cents of it can be startling, as attorney Albert Bianchi demonstrated to the Sausalito City Council Tuesday.

The railroad, Bianchi said, bought the land in 1887 from the father of Frank Pasquinucci, one of Edgewater's principals, for $412.

"I suggested he offer them $800 for it. . . . If they saw they were doubling their money, they might sell it," Bianchi said.

No one knows what the lot is really worth today, since the railroad isn't selling, but a 60-foot frontage on the Sausalito waterfront won't go for $800, or for $8,000 either.

But then $412 isn't what it once was. And if invested at 5 per cent compounded, it would have built to something like $25,000 after 82 years.

SAUSALITO City Hall is still living on borrowed time — four hours and 50 minutes to be precise. The council chamber clock is still that far behind after a power failure during the late January storms.

But deliberative bodies have a way of ignoring the passage of time, so perhaps the clock isn't really needed anyway.

A SOUTHERN Marin educator invented a new verb the other night. No, not a four-letter one. Plans were afoot, he told the school board, to arrange more time for teachers and parents "to conference."

The noun form, presumably, would be conferenceation. Too many people these days are Eisenhowering the language, a trend that one day may finali the last grammarian among us.

SOME PEOPLE still manage, but it get harder daily to maintain absolute faith in the military and its avowed need for antimissile bases on our hilltops.

The Army Engineers held hearings on the offshore drilling off Santa Barbara County, but someone made a mistake. When conservationists protested about possible pollution, the corps said it could consider only navigation problems, not pollution. And now 1,000 gallons of oil an hour are killing birds, seals and fish and messing up some of California's finest beaches.

Then there is the Pueblo incident. The foulups in the chain of command that led to the spy ship's capture surprise few who have served in the military, but they show that mistakes, and serious ones, will happen. Military people, like civilians, are just a lot of people doing about as well as can be expected, and making a good many mistakes as they go along.

It shouldn't be unpatriotic to suggest the military might be fallible and wrong about the missile sites, and the more objections raised the better the chance the mistake might be admitted and plans changed.

PROJECT Breakthrough, Tamalpais High School District's program to help Marin City youths reach their educational potential, has received $300 from an anonymous donor, along with a perceptive letter about the state of black-white relations as they are today.

"I realize that this effort (Project Breakthrough) . . . to be meaningful at this time must be done for an by Negroes with as little apparent help from white people as possible . . . because down the years and centuries we, the white people, have proven our ignorance of . . . the black people's true capabilities and intelligence and their need to do and be men in their own right and responsible citizens.

". . . So I am not offering help . . . only that very impersonal and necessary substance — money — for you to use to further your program of help for the young people you are trying to teach how best to help themselves."

Remember, my son, that any man who is a bear on the future of this country will go broke. — J. P. Morgan.

A machine is a great moral educator. If a horse or a donkey won't go, men lose their tempers and beat it; if a machine won't go, there is no use beating it. You have to think and try till you find what is wrong. That is real education. — Gilbert Murray.

Alameda-Contra Costa District Offers Lesson In Transit Cost

Fusselman

Here are the final paragraphs of the letter written to the Marin County Transit District on Dec. 18 by the gentleman whose name appears below. You should read these startling figures of the financial and operational experiences of a transit district in the Bay Area. To my knowledge his letter was never made public.

"An excellent example of the usual procedure of transit financing is that followed by the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District. Voter approval was obtained for formation of the district (a procedure actually followed by the Marin County Transit District), capital costs were then determined (the same process is now being followed by Marin) and a bond issue was submitted to the voters for approval. That bond issue failed once but was subsequently passed. Only after the voters had approved issuance of the bonds did the district undertake to begin operations and obligate itself on a long-term basis.

"Alameda-Contra Costa also provides an excellent example of the need to obtain popular support for transit operations. The property tax levied by that district has increased from about 2 cents per $100 assessed valuation prior to starting operations to 19.2 cents today. Generally, property taxes are used to retire debt and provide adequate funds each year for replacement of obsolete and wornout equipment. Fare collections are applied to operating costs. In order to achieve this level of fare collections, the district has had to show consistent annual increase in usage and during the last fiscal year this system carried over 13,844,000 passengers.

"DESPITE this tremendous usage, despite a $2,274,430,544 assessed valuation (four times that of Marin) their tax rate is now nearly four times that which the Marin County Transit District is currently authorized to levy.

"My reason for outlining the above factors is to make the point that the Marin Transit District should proceed only after the public has been fully informed of the high cost of transit services and has expressed willingness to support those costs. The legal availability of funds collected for other purposes provides the temptation to proceed in a manner which can result in lack of public support. That would be disaster for Marin Transit District.

Very truly yours,
Donald M. Van Dyke"

EVEN THOUGH the joint powers agreement with the Golden Gate Bridge people seems to be somewhat remote at this time, because of big city opposition, it is well, I think, to ponder the sound thinking of Mr. Van Dyke and the information he has provided. You know, this agreement could end up not so "joint" after all. There are, among many questions, some that are pretty tricky, such as — what happens to the Golden Gate Bridge when the bonds are paid off in 1970? Who is going to be in the saddle? How binding would this joint powers agreement be?

You Marin taxpayers now have a continuing escalating cost to face up to out at Brasilia. Just how many more such situations are you going to stand for without your approval?

No matter how the long green is shuffled, it can end up still your do-re-mi.

Labor to keep alive in your breast that little spark of celestial fire called conscience. — George Washington.

Silent Majority Panel Slated At Redwood

"Why Apathy, Alienation, Revolution? (The College Syndrome)" will be discussed at 7:45 p.m. Thursday in the Redwood High School Little Theater, Larkspur.

Panelists will be Isabelle Schmid, a Redwood senior; Richard (Nip) Grey, a 1968 Redwood graduate now attending Stanford University; Robert Figari, also a 1968 Redwood graduate and now attending the University of California at Davis. Also, Howard L. Waldron, on the faculty of San Francisco State College; Barton Tippetts, a student at Merritt College, Oakland; Richard Geno, a resident of San Mateo County who founded Silent Majority Against Revolutionary Tactics, and tentatively, Michael Collins, continuation school teacher in Marin.

The discussion will be sponsored by Chautauqua '69, a new group which plans to "give voice to some of the less newsworthy participants" involved in current issues, "to fill in the spectrum of opinion between the extremes which are usually the only ones heard," according to Mrs. Della D. Figari, acting president of the group.

The first Navy yard in America was founded at Portsmouth, N.H., in 1833.

It Costs A Little Extra To Live In California

It might cheer those of us who are now going through the torture of preparing federal and state income tax returns to realize that for the privilege of living in Golden California, we pay per capita taxes $105.04 higher than the average throughout the United States.

(On the other hand, it might not cheer us at all.)

Taxes in California — local and state — work out at an average of $414.55 for every man, woman and child, according to U. S. Department of Commerce figures which are quoted in the Washington Report of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. The average for all Americans is $309.51.

IF YOU ARE NOT cheered by the realization that you are privileged to pay more for living in California, be cheered by this: New Yorkers pay an average of $457.84 — and anyone with good sense knows California is a better place to live than New York. In no other state, however, does the figure exceed California's.

One reason for this is that Californians have higher per capita income than residents in most states. However, the Department of Commerce figures show this is not the sole reason.

Taxes per $1,000 of personal income in California average $122.14. This is $16.64 higher than the national average. But it is not the highest. That honor belongs to Hawaii at $134.79. And taxes per $1,000 of income are also higher in Wyoming, New York, Arizona, and Minnesota than in California.

IF YOU REALLY WANT to save on taxes, you will have to go south, old man, go south! Alabamans average only $192.05 per capita in taxes; Mississippians, $196.74, and South Carolinians, $197.01.

But here again (as always) there is a catch. Incomes are low there, too.

It is possible, though, to go where incomes are high and taxes are relatively low, the Department of Commerce figures show. Taxes per $1,000 of personal income average only $82.23 in Ohio, $85.29 in Illinois, and $86.40 in the District of Columbia. (Wouldn't you know those lawmakers in Washington would make them a bit lighter there?)

NO MATTER WHERE you go, though, you won't escape constantly rising costs of government.

The U. S. Chamber of Commerce, taking a backward look, reported that federal income taxes took slightly more than $1 billion in 1932. Ten years ago the take was $54 billion. This year, with the 10 per cent surcharge, it will total about $122 billion.

As for state income taxes, 37 states now have them, and seven states (including California) increased them in 1968. Moreover, 44 of the 50 states now have sales taxes. There's just no escaping!

AS FOR PROPERTY taxes, the picture in Marin is probably pretty typical. In fiscal 1959, property taxes in this county totaled $12,998,985. This fiscal year, they total $29,785,000. And right now, every school district and every city and county department is hard at work on budgets for next fiscal year, every one of which probably will be bigger than this year's.

There is, of course, one way to reverse the trend: quit adding to the "services" that governments perform for their citizens.

We put that word "services" in quotation marks on purpose. We can think of quite a few government functions that are of precious little service to those who pay for them.

A Better Way Of Branding?

Most people in the cattle business do not enjoy the dirty business of branding their livestock, but continue in the old way because they cannot devise a better, more foolproof method of identifying their animals.

The red-hot branding iron is very painful to the calves and from a mere financial point of view is wasteful because the scar disfigures the leather, making a small portion useless.

This heavy-handed frontier method may soon give way to a gentler type of branding, cyrogenic branding. This is branding with intense cold. Not only is it practically painless, it also leaves no deep scars on the leather. But the cattle are easily identifiable because the hair on a cyrogenic brand grows back white and remains white thereafter.

Major Divorce Law Changes Proposed In New Legislation

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Reformation of California's divorce laws, a prime issue before the 1967 legislature but relegated to an interim committee for study for two years, is back before the 1969 session, with the study completed and an extensive bill ready for action.

The measure was introduced by Sen. Donald L. Grunsky, R-Watsonville, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee and innovator of the move to take a lot of the sting out of divorce.

SENATOR GRUNSKY'S proposal would be known as the Family Law Act. It has attracted nationwide attention, both pro and con, as a means of eliminating adversary proceedings and bitter court battles between husband and wife.

He is hopeful that the measure, which contains provisions for voluntary marriage counseling, will ultimately reduce the high incidence of divorce in California.

Five major provisions are contained in the bill. First, it would eliminate fault grounds for divorce, and replace them with a procedure for inquiry into the marriage and dissolution of marriage when there is no reasonable likelihood that it can be saved.

Second, fault would be eliminated for the division of community property, which would be divided equally unless the economic conditions of either party required an unequal division.

Third, fault would also be eliminated in alimony considerations. Grunsky pointed out that under present law, the court must find one of the parties guilty of misconduct before an award is made to the other.

Fourth, award of children would be made without preference between parents, upon a determination of the best interests of the child.

And finally, the proposed law would establish a family division of the superior court in each county, with specialized marriage counseling staff.

"ALL COUNSELING is voluntary, but an initial interview is required for parties with minor children under 18 years of age," according to Grunsky.

He also pointed out that the counseling service would be available to married couples who desire help, but have not filed court proceedings.

Should the bill pass, California would become the first state to adopt such a system.

Unions Claim Teacher Jurisdiction

In your Jan. 24 news item regarding the schools bid to employ union force, it was stated that although there is an AFL-CIO union, the AFT is not mentioned in a long list of trades in which the AFL-CIO union claims jurisdiction.

This statement is in error. . . In The First paragraph, and I quote, "Section — Resolved:" The teachers are listed in the 40 trades with jurisdiction of the Marin County Labor Unions, AFL-CIO who are affiliates of both the Marin County Labor Council and the Building and Construction Trades Council.

(Editor's note: The paragraph in the resolution reads: "Resolved, that this school district will not employ teachers, bus drivers, custodians, or students to work in the following trades." It then lists trades, including teachers.)

Sensitivity Training Questions Raised

I received in today's mail (Feb. 3) an announcement of a meeting to be held locally exposing "sensitivity training" as "a gun aimed at your child's head." This announcement contained much alarming information, most of which seemed hard to prove or disprove. One item that I could evaluate was the statement that "operant conditioning" is one of the many names by which sensitivity training is known. This statement is so far wrong, that I am inclined to distrust every statement in the brochure. Operant conditioning is training by reward or punishment. It has absolutely nothing to do with sensitivity training ("self and group criticism," according to the tract).

Another very doubtful statement was that sensitivity training is mandatory in many public schools. I hope the writers of the pamphlet are prepared to back that statement up with the names of schools where it is mandatory. As one interested in education both professionally and as a citizen, I have not encountered any school where this was the case.

'Ray Of Hope' For Marin Transit

The first ray of hope in Marin's very dark transportation mess has appeared in the Jenkins report, which proposes that the Golden Gate Bridge District buy and operate an inter-county bus system.

The report recommends purchase of 150 new, modern buses, with air conditioning and semi-reclining high-back seats. It proposes that fares be reduced 25 per cent and routes be re-examined to provide better service. This bus system can be the first, long-needed, practical relief for the weary commuter.

Advocates of ferry boats have asked the bridge directors to delay action on the proposal until the ferry studies are completed. Their request seems short-sighted.

Operation of the commuter buses can and must be a step forward in a developing system. Ferries can be a valuable transit aid. But ferries must have buses to feed them — otherwise, Marin will still face the curse of an auto-oriented transportation system, overburdened with freeways and parking lots, and only San Francisco will gain.

Marin badly needs an intra-county service for people who must travel within the county without a car. The commute operation can be the backbone of intra-county transportation — in fact, it must be.

The bridge district is the only entity available to us which can buy and operate any large public transit system. Jenkins estimates total capital investment for the 150 buses, land, equipment, etc., at $8.5 million. The annual deficit is estimated at $1,411. . . — an amount, he says which the district can well afford.

Compare these costs with the annual income of the Marin Transit District, which receives approximately $280,000 at its top legal tax rate of five cents per $100 assessed valuation.

The Golden Gate Bridge Board will hold a public hearing on the proposed bus system at 8 p.m. Tuesday, in the supervisors chambers at the Marin Civic Center.

Social Workers Applaud Series

We, the members of the Marin County Social Workers Union, Local 535, would like to commend the Independent-Journal for the recent series on the racial difficulties taking place in our community. We feel these kinds of articles are extremely important in these times of acute social conflict, and consider it a moral responsibility of the news media to cover racial issues and to inform the public, through series such as this one, about the danger and destructiveness of continued racial prejudice in America.

We would like to state at this time that, as social workers, we concur with the recent Kerner Commission's report which concluded that America's number one mental health problem is white racism. We further contend that for alleviation of this grave problem we as citizens, and especially the white citizens, of Marin County can and must make every effort to move away from racist attitudes and behaviors and to move toward making the ideals of freedom, equality and justice realities today for our non-white brothers.

We can begin by having more open housing in Marin — and to implement this we can advise our neighbors, landlords, realtors that we would welcome having our communities integrated; we can encourage neighbors who are moving to sell or rent their homes to minority persons.

We believe that there are infinite ways of making Marin one community where people are examining their own learned prejudices and are actively committing themselves to eliminating discrimination where it exists.

Packard Appointment Shows Up Military-Industrial-Political Web

WASHINGTON — The web of the military-industrial-political complex is so tangled that the role of David Packard as deputy secretary fo defense has caused hardly a ripple. What would have been unthinkable 15 years ago is taken for granted today.

Packard and his wife own 3,584,950 shares of Hewlett-Packard Co. (minus 30,000 made as an irrevocable gift) which sold last week at $82 a share. For Hewlett-Packard's last fiscal year total orders for the company's complex electronic devices were $280 million, of which $100 million was either directly or indirectly in government contracts — largely with the Department of Defense.

When Packard came before the Senate Armed Services Committee for his confirmation hearing, the questioning was perfunctory, if not downright subservient Members of the committee seemed overawed by a man who had begun from nothing and made a very great fortune by his own ingenuity and drive.

THERE WAS, however, a fleeting glimpse backward at what had been the mores of a simpler day, in these matters an age of innocence. When Charles E. Wilson, president of General Motors, was nominated for secretary of defense by the new Republican President, Dwight Eisenhower, in 1953 he was required to sell $2,500,000 in General Motors stock. GM was reported at that time to have more defense contracts than any other corporation.

Packard put his Hewlett-Packard and other holdings in a trust over which during his tenure in the Pentagon he would have no control and the income of which would go to charity. The only challenge to this arrangement came from Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., who contended it was a bookkeeping trust that did not meet the requirements of the law governing conflict of interest.

The new No. 2 man a the Pentagon testified he could not sell his Hewlett-Packard stock, 30 per cent of all stock outstanding, without doing serious harm to the company and to his associates. No one can question that. Nor does anyone question his integrity and his extraordinary ability.

IT IS A FACT, as was the plea of Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird, that to get a man truly equipped to be his deputy it was necessary to turn to one who for two decades has seen a considerable share of his wealth grow out of the swelling billions for the military. This is the tangle, the Gordian knot, tying together the elements making up perhaps the most powerful single force in both government and the economy.

When it comes to conflict of interest in the military-industrial-political web, Congress is no model of virtue. Some of the rawest examples are in the record of Senate and House as members quarrel over where military installations and defense plants shall be located.

A notorious case history was that of the late Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma. A powerful member of the Senate's club-within-a-club and a close ally of Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson, Kerr never missed an opportunity to promote government leases for his huge uranium holdings. With his large oil holdings, his high rank on the Senate Finance Committee was insurance against any upstart who might want to change the 27 per cent depletion allowance for oil income.

NOW COMES a test putting both the Pentagon and Congress on the hot seat of decision. Congress approved last year $1.2 billion for deployment of an anti-ballistic missile system in the coming fiscal year. As this spending multiplies it touches every large defense contractor — not excepting, one assumes, Hewlett-Packard.

From a number of cities out in the country comes a roar of protest over where the Army proposes to put the ABMs. Together with the insistence of leading scientists that the ABM is futile and probably already obsolete, this latest spiral in the nuclear arms race may be checked. That is the test for Congress and for the country.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

National Park Ruckus Typical Of LBJ Regime

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and JOHN A. GOLDSMITH

WASHINGTON — In a dramatic series of events which enlivened his final hours in the White House, former President Johnson gave his critics a review, in miniature, of those qualities which tumbled his personal popularity and now blur the Johnson record.

The events were climaxed by the blunt offer of resignation from Stewart L. Udall, the outgoing secretary of the interior, made in a stormy discussion before Johnson vetoed Udall's plan for adding nearly 7.5 million acres of government-owned land to the national park system.

As the story is now emerging from the aura of secrecy and stealth, which so frequently cloaked the Johnson administration's worthwhile initiatives, it becomes clear that the controversy had other hallmarks of the Johnson presidency.

THE ANGRY showdown with Udall came after a long period of presidential indecision. The delay necessitated a rather typical last-minute action by the President.

In his last-minute deliberations, Johnson lost his temper (as he has now admitted to some of his associates). Then, in the end, his final "surprise" decision to add something less than 400,000 acres to parklands in Arizona, Alaska and Utah really pleased no one.

JOHNSON was genuinely and rightly concerned about the propriety of so large a park addition under authority of the Antiquities Act. That 1906 law permits a President to proclaim historic landmarks and protect them by reserving surrounding parcels of land.

The 7.5-million-acre plan was first proposed to the White House several months ago. Conservationists in Congress were urging the President to act, and at least one of them advised that the proclamation should be made quickly, so that it would not be a last-grasp action by the outgoing President.

FINALLY, on the Saturday before inauguration Monday, Udall's Interior Department press office erroneously announced that the 7.5-million-acre plan had been approved by the President.

Johnson's anger came very shortly after that mistaken announcement came into his office on the newswires.

The parklands story is still unfinished. Even the scaled-down addition has provoked sharp critism in the states involved. A Utah congressman, Rep. Laurence J. Burton, R., has offered a bill which would limit future land additions under the Antiquities Act to a total of 2,560 acres.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, Feb 7, the 38th day of 1969 with 327 to follow.

The moon is between its full phase and last quarter. The morning stars are Mercury, Mars and Jupiter. The evening stars are Saturn and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1926 a report showed the average pay for common labor throughout the United States was 54 cents an hour.

In 1948 Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower resigned as U.S. Army chief of staff and was succeeded by Gen. Omar Bradley.

In 1956 Autherine Lucy, first Negro admitted to the University of Alabama, was expelled on grounds that she accused school officials of conspiring in the riots that accompanied her court-ordered enrollment.

In 1967 a fire in a restaurant atop a 10-story building in Montgomery, Ala., killed 26 persons.

A thought for the day: Charles Dickens said, "There are books of which the backs and covers are by far the best parts."

HOW TO PLAY
WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

A Defensive Bid Should Be Warning Enough For Declarer

There are advantages in bidding a good suit after an opponent has opened the bidding: your side may be able to play the hand at a reasonable contract, or your partner may know what to lead if your side defends. There are disadvantages, however: your bid may tell an opponent how to play the hand.

SILENCE GOLDEN

South would go down at four hearts if West kept quiet. South would make his contract after West's very normal overcall of one spade.

In either case declarer would play dummy's queen of spades at the first trick. East would put up the king, and South would win with the ace. Now South would have to takcle the trumps.

In the absence of any warining, South might lead a club to dummy and return a heart to try a finesse with the queen. West would win with the king, and East would later win a second trump trick. The defenders would also get a spade trick and the ace of diamonds.

LEAD ACE

South might have a slightly better chance if he led the ace of trumps first and then entered dummy with a club to lead another trump. East would play low, and South might guess the winning play of a low trump. This play is far from clear, however, and South might play the queen of hearts and go down.

LOCATES CARDS

If West enters the bidding South can locate the king of hearts and the ace of diamonds since the first trick shows that West has bid on a jack-high suit. South is warned that the heart finesse cannot succeed.

South must lead the ace of hearts and then a low heart. The king falls, and South can later draw East's last trump with the queen. South makes his contract by limiting the trump loss to one trick.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with 1 no-trump (16 to 18 points), and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ J 10 9 8 6 3
♥ K 8
♦ A 9 8 5
♣ 9.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid four spades.

You should have a reasonable play for this contract, and any other game contract is virtually unthinkable. Do not beat about the bush when you know what final contract you want to reach.

Maybe There's A Clue Here To Why Railroads Drop Trains

Everyone knows California land is a good investment, but the dollars and cents of it can be startling, as attorney Albert Bianchi demonstrated to the Sausalito City Council Tuesday.

The railroad, Bianchi said, bought the land in 1887 from the father of Frank Pasquinucci, one of Edgewater's principals, for $412.

"I suggested he offer them $800 for it. . . . If they saw they were doubling their money, they might sell it," Bianchi said.

No one knows what the lot is really worth today, since the railroad isn't selling, but a 60-foot frontage on the Sausalito waterfront won't go for $800, or for $8,000 either.

But then $412 isn't what it once was. And if invested at 5 per cent compounded, it would have built to something like $25,000 after 82 years.

SAUSALITO City Hall is still living on borrowed time — four hours and 50 minutes to be precise. The council chamber clock is still that far behind after a power failure during the late January storms.

But deliberative bodies have a way of ignoring the passage of time, so perhaps the clock isn't really needed anyway.

A SOUTHERN Marin educator invented a new verb the other night. No, not a four-letter one. Plans were afoot, he told the school board, to arrange more time for teachers and parents "to conference."

The noun form, presumably, would be conferenceation. Too many people these days are Eisenhowering the language, a trend that one day may finali the last grammarian among us.

SOME PEOPLE still manage, but it get harder daily to maintain absolute faith in the military and its avowed need for antimissile bases on our hilltops.

The Army Engineers held hearings on the offshore drilling off Santa Barbara County, but someone made a mistake. When conservationists protested about possible pollution, the corps said it could consider only navigation problems, not pollution. And now 1,000 gallons of oil an hour are killing birds, seals and fish and messing up some of California's finest beaches.

Then there is the Pueblo incident. The foulups in the chain of command that led to the spy ship's capture surprise few who have served in the military, but they show that mistakes, and serious ones, will happen. Military people, like civilians, are just a lot of people doing about as well as can be expected, and making a good many mistakes as they go along.

It shouldn't be unpatriotic to suggest the military might be fallible and wrong about the missile sites, and the more objections raised the better the chance the mistake might be admitted and plans changed.

PROJECT Breakthrough, Tamalpais High School District's program to help Marin City youths reach their educational potential, has received $300 from an anonymous donor, along with a perceptive letter about the state of black-white relations as they are today.

"I realize that this effort (Project Breakthrough) . . . to be meaningful at this time must be done for an by Negroes with as little apparent help from white people as possible . . . because down the years and centuries we, the white people, have proven our ignorance of . . . the black people's true capabilities and intelligence and their need to do and be men in their own right and responsible citizens.

". . . So I am not offering help . . . only that very impersonal and necessary substance — money — for you to use to further your program of help for the young people you are trying to teach how best to help themselves."

A machine is a great moral educator. If a horse or a donkey won't go, men lose their tempers and beat it; if a machine won't go, there is no use beating it. You have to think and try till you find what is wrong. That is real education. — Gilbert Murray.

Alameda-Contra Costa District Offers Lesson In Transit Cost

Fusselman

Here are the final paragraphs of the letter written to the Marin County Transit District on Dec. 18 by the gentleman whose name appears below. You should read these startling figures of the financial and operational experiences of a transit district in the Bay Area. To my knowledge his letter was never made public.

"An excellent example of the usual procedure of transit financing is that followed by the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District. Voter approval was obtained for formation of the district (a procedure actually followed by the Marin County Transit District), capital costs were then determined (the same process is now being followed by Marin) and a bond issue was submitted to the voters for approval. That bond issue failed once but was subsequently passed. Only after the voters had approved issuance of the bonds did the district undertake to begin operations and obligate itself on a long-term basis.

"Alameda-Contra Costa also provides an excellent example of the need to obtain popular support for transit operations. The property tax levied by that district has increased from about 2 cents per $100 assessed valuation prior to starting operations to 19.2 cents today. Generally, property taxes are used to retire debt and provide adequate funds each year for replacement of obsolete and wornout equipment. Fare collections are applied to operating costs. In order to achieve this level of fare collections, the district has had to show consistent annual increase in usage and during the last fiscal year this system carried over 13,844,000 passengers.

"DESPITE this tremendous usage, despite a $2,274,430,544 assessed valuation (four times that of Marin) their tax rate is now nearly four times that which the Marin County Transit District is currently authorized to levy.

"My reason for outlining the above factors is to make the point that the Marin Transit District should proceed only after the public has been fully informed of the high cost of transit services and has expressed willingness to support those costs. The legal availability of funds collected for other purposes provides the temptation to proceed in a manner which can result in lack of public support. That would be disaster for Marin Transit District,

Very truly yours,
Donald M. Van Dyke"

EVEN THOUGH the joint powers agreement with the Golden Gate Bridge people seems to be somewhat remote at this time, because of big city opposition, it is well, I think, to ponder the sound thinking of Mr. Van Dyke and the information he has provided. You know, this agreement could end up not so "joint" after all. There are, among many questions, some that are pretty tricky, such as — what happens to the Golden Gate Bridge when the bonds are paid off in 1970? Who is going to be in the saddle? How binding would this joint powers agreement be?

You Marin taxpayers now have a continuing escalating cost to face up to out at Brasilia. Just how many more such situations are you going to stand for without your approval?

No matter how the long green is shuffled, it can end up still your do-re-mi.

Labor to keep alive in your breast that little spark of celestial fire called conscience. — George Washington.

Silent Majority Panel Slated At Redwood

"Why Apathy, Alienation, Revolution? (The College Syndrome)" will be discussed at 7:45 p.m. Thursday in the Redwood High School Little Theater, Larkspur.

Panelists will be Isabelle Schmid, a Redwood senior; Richard (Nip) Grey, a 1968 Redwood graduate now attending Stanford University; Robert Figari, also a 1968 Redwood graduate and now attending the University of California at Davis. Also, Howard L. Waldron, on the faculty of San Francisco State College; Barton Tippetts, a student at Merritt College, Oakland; Richard Geno, a resident of San Mateo County who founded Silent Majority Against Revolutionary Tactics, and tentatively, Michael Collins, continuation school teacher in Marin.

The discussion will be sponsored by Chautauqua '69, a new group which plans to "give voice to some of the less newsworthy participants" involved in current issues, "to fill in the spectrum of opinion between the extremes which are usually the only ones heard," according to Mrs. Della D. Figari, acting president of the group.

The first Navy yard in America was founded at Portsmouth, N.H., in 1833.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

A Defensive Bid Should Be Warning Enough For Declarer

There are advantages in bidding a good suit after an opponent has opened the bidding: your side may be able to play the hand at a reasonable contract, or your partner may know what to lead if your side defends. There are disadvantages, however: your bid may tell an opponent how to play the hand.

No. 3785 .... Feb. 7, 1969

Opening lead — ♠ J

SILENCE GOLDEN

South would go down at four hearts if West kept quiet. South would make his contract after West's very normal overcall of one spade.

In either case declarer would play dummy's queen of spades at the first trick. East would put up the king, and South would win with the ace. Now South would have to takcle the trumps.

In the absence of any warining, South might lead a club to dummy and return a heart to try a finesse with the queen. West would win with the king, and East would later win a second trump trick. The defenders would also get a spade trick and the ace of diamonds.

LEAD ACE

South might have a slightly better chance if he led the ace of trumps first and then entered dummy with a club to lead another trump. East would play low, and South might guess the winning play of a low trump. This play is far from clear, however, and South might play the queen of hearts and go down.

LOCATES CARDS

If West enters the bidding South can locate the king of hearts and the ace of diamonds since the first trick shows that West has bid on a jack-high suit. South is warned that the heart finesse cannot succeed.

South must lead the ace of hearts and then a low heart. The king falls, and South can later draw East's last trump with the queen. South makes his contract by limiting the trump loss to one trick.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with 1 no-trump (16 to 18 points), and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ J 10 9 8 6 3
♥ K 8
♦ A 9 8 5
♣ 9.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid four spades.

You should have a reasonable play for this contract, and any other game contract is virtually unthinkable. Do not beat about the bush when you know what final contract you want to reach.

Bus To Jail

LONDON (UPI)—Transportation was no problem when police arrested 10 youths and three girls aboard a double-decker bus on suspicion of shoplifting. The bus driver agreed to drive the bus to the nearest police station.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, Feb 7, the 38th day of 1969 with 327 to follow.

The moon is between its full phase and last quarter. The morning stars are Mercury, Mars and Jupiter. The evening stars are Saturn and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1926 a report showed the average pay for common labor throughout the United States was 54 cents an hour.

In 1948 Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower resigned as U.S. Army chief of staff and was succeeded by Gen. Omar Bradley.

In 1956 Autherine Lucy, first Negro admitted to the University of Alabama, was expelled on grounds that she accused school officials of conspiring in the riots that accompanied her court-ordered enrollment.

In 1967 a fire in a restaurant atop a 10-story building in Montgomery, Ala., killed 26 persons.

A thought for the day: Charles Dickens said, "There are books of which the backs and covers are by far the best parts."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. $35,950 ENGLISH COUNTRY HOME

One of the few remaining park-like estates in San Anselmo. Winding garden paths, mature shrubs, extensive use of flagstone all provide a setting of complete privacy. The residence is well constructed and provides 3 bedrooms, large formal dining room, den or family room, large front verandah, fireplace in spacious living room. One block to bus and shopping center from this ½-acre estate.

$26,950 3 BEDROOMS, 2 BATHS

A non-tract home in a quiet traffic-free residential area. The lot is level. Schools, shops and transportation are just a short walk. The residence is ranch style, built in 1958, has built-in modern kitchen, beamed ceilings, walnut stained hardwood flooring, full dining room, double garage. Easily financed — GI, FHA or 10% down will handle.

YOUR OWN MT. LODGE!

$53,500 OWNERS ARE DESPERATE

Absentee owners have reduced this Sleepy Hollow residence $5,000 for an immediate sale. Unquestionably the finest value in the entire County of Marin. A completely level ⅓-acre site, a luxurious ranch style home with 4 bedrooms, large family room with built-in brick BBQ. Entry foyer with Vermont slate flooring, 2 full ceramic tiled baths, completely modern built-in kitchen, fruitwood cabinets. Built-in stereo system, exposed beams, indirect fluorescent lighting. W/w carpeting & draperies. Plus a 16x36 swimming pool in rear garden. Entire grounds landscaped for minimum maintenance. Excellent elementary & parochial schools close by. Miles of countryside for your children to enjoy.

ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Marin General Hospital
Marin Hospital District
250 Bon Air Road
San Rafael, California 94904

We have examined the accompanying balance sheet of MARIN GENERAL HOSPITAL as of June 30, 1968, and the related statement of revenue and expense for the year then ended, and including the accumulated excess of revenue over expense. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The accompanying statements include only the finances of Marin General Hospital and are exclusive of funds and accounts administered by the County Treasurer in connection with Marin Hospital District Bonds.

In our opinion, the accompanying statements present fairly the financial position of Marin General Hospital at June 30, 1968, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year, except for the change in method of computing depreciation (with which we concur) described in Note 2 to the financial statements.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 1968

NOTE 1 — ALLOWANCE FOR MEDICARE REPORTING:
A provision of $20,000 for possible adjustment of amounts recovered under Medicare has been established for the year ended June 30, 1968. The actual amount which may be payable is not determinable at this time, but is not expected to differ materially from the provision established. An additional $5,000 has been provided for unresolved items, currently under review by Medicare auditors, pertaining to the prior year.

NOTE 2 — PROPERTY, PLANT and EQUIPMENT:
An inventory of property, plant and equipment was compiled by an outside firm of specialists as of June 30, 1967. As a result, the fixed asset accounts of the Plant Fund and the General Fund balance were increased in the net amount of $31,966 to reflect the adjustment necessary to record the historical cost of items actually inventoried. Depreciation for the year ended June 30, 1968 was provided for each individual asset included in the inventory, using the straight-line method and estimated useful lives determined by the specialists responsible for the inventory. Depreciation in prior years was computed by applying the straight-line method to group asset accounts with average estimated useful lives; the change in the current year to individual assets each with its own estimated useful life resulted in a provision for depreciation of $19,477 in excess of the provision which would have been made if the group method had been continued.

NOTE 3 — CONSTRUCTION IN PROGRESS (TEMPORARY FUND):
In August, 1965, Marin Hospital District entered into a joint venture with the County of Marin to construct, with federal and state aid, a Community Mental Health Center. At June 30, 1968, the District had paid $333,264 as its full share of the project which amount is reflected as construction in progress in the Temporary Fund accounts.

The title to the project, when complete, will vest in the Hospital District.

NOTE 4 — PENSION PLAN:
The Hospital has in effect a contributory pension plan for its eligible employees. The total pension expense for the year ended June 30, 1968 was $67,718, which includes amortization of prior service cost over a period of 25 years. The Hospital's policy is to fund pension cost accrued. At June 30, 1968, assets of the fund exceeded vested benefits.

NOTE 5 — COMMITMENT AND CONTINGENT LIABILITY:
The Hospital is in the process of negotiating the purchase of five and one-half acres of land to be converted into a parking lot. It is estimated that the purchase price will be approximately $160,000; in addition, $11,245 has already been expanded in improving the property, which amount is included in construction in progress in the Plant Fund accounts.

Certain charges for services to patients were paid through patient loans from outside sources, repayment of which is guaranteed by the Hospital. At June 30, 1968, the Hospital was contingently liable in the amount of $2,611.40 as guarantor of these loans.

Monagan's Urban Affairs Panel Clouded

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The new Urban Affairs and Housing Committee created by Republican Assembly Speaker Robert T. Monagan was designed to help solve big city problems and "open direct channels of communication with minority groups."

But before the committee's first meeting:

Its new chairman was severely criticized by members of Assembly minority groups;

Its vice chairman quit;

Assemblyman Pete Wilson, R-San Diego, named by Monagan to chair the fledgling committee ran into open opposition from two of the five Negro Assembly members when he told newsmen he had favored either repeal or revision of the Rumford Open Housing Law when that issue was before the legislature two years ago.

Wilson said he now considers the open housing law a "dead issue" because the state and U.S. supreme courts have ruled unconstitutional a ballot proposition to repeal it.

But to minority group members Wilson's stand became a symbol of what they considered was his failure to understand urban problems and the concerns of minorities.

Negro Assembyman Leon Ralph, a Democrat representing a large minority area of Los Angeles, said it was as unfitting for Wilson to chair a committee dealing with urban and minority problems as it would have been for Ralph to head the agriculture committee.

Both agreed Monagan asked Ralph if he would be "interested" in the vice chairmanship of the committee and Ralph said "no."

Garcia asked Monagan to keep him on the committee which has a Democratic majority including Brown, Ralph and Negro Assenblyman Bill Greene D-Los Angeles.

Greene was the only one of the five Negro assembly Denocrats who told newsmen he would have accepted the vice chairmanship. But apparently it wasn't offered to him.

Monagan now says "we'll have rotating chairmen. It's not that important."

When it finally holds a meeting Monagan hopes the committee will "develop specific proposals to provide decent housing for low income people.,. review the need to develop a state urbanization policy" and —"open direct channels of communication with minority groups."

$16,200 From UNICEF Cards

The Marin chapter of the United Nations Association has reported it sold $16,200 worth of UNICEF greeting cards during the past Christmas season, a record.

Sales were up $1,200 from the previous year, reported Mrs. Eric Moeller of Ross, drive chairman.

The chapter also gained $5,150 for UNICEF from the Halloween night collections by youngsters.

Aide Belittles State Tax Cut Help To Poor

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Neither Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan's $100 million income tax rebate nor a rival Democratic plan will help the lowest income Californians, Franchise Tax Board officials said today.

The officials commented as the board, the state's income tax collecting agency, began gearing up for the one-time reduction that would come from either bill.

Officials said that since only those who file income tax returns are eligible for the cut, millions of those whose incomes don't reach the taxable level are not covered.

If you are married, with two children and make less than $7,400 a year, you are not affected. Nor are you affected if you are married, have no children and have an income of $6,500 annually. The limit for single people is $3,250 a year.

A rash of changes in the tax laws in the past few years make it difficult to tell how many people now must pay income tax and would benefit by the relief bills, officials said.

But they said that about 4 million returns were filed in 1968, many of them by couples turning in joint returns.

Meanwhile, Reagan and Democrats traded charges in the tax fight.

Senate Democratic Floor Leader George R. Moscone of San Francisco said Reagan's $100 million cut for 1970 should be doubled, and paid by the end of this year. Reagan replied "you don't have the money this year."

Moscone said he will introduce legislation next week providing for a $200 million rebate in the income tax, payable this year. It would mean a return of at least 20 per cent of what the taxpayer put out for 1968, up to a maximum of $400 a family.

He called Reagan's proposal to permit each taxpayer to take 10 per cent off his tax bill next year "a cheap political trick to accumulate the taxpayers' cash and then use it in 1970 — an election year — to finance a deficit budget and pretend to 'cut taxes'."

Reagan replied "if this was a cheap political trick you would have waited until election year and you'd have gotten all the headline value of saying 'look at me, I'm going to give you back some money.' You wouldn't do it this far in advance."

Shrubs Will Replace Road 'Killer Trees'

REDWOOD CITY (AP)—California's plan to remove "killer trees" and other highway hazards will not leave the state's roads barren and desolate, a state traffic engineer says.

The engineer, G. I. Russell, said in an interview the state has begun to remove trees that have caused injuries or fatalities.

Removal of trees is part of a general program to improve safety on roads by eliminating the opportunity for a collision between a straying automobile and a fixed object.

However, Russell said, traffic engineers recognize that a completely barren roadside would be not only unattractive but monotonous and a traffic safety problem in itself.

Road designers in California and elsewhere have selected certain highway landscaping shrubs, such as briar rose, because of their energy-absorbing qualities as a cushion for a careening car, Russell said, and you can expect to see a lot of these on California roads.

Trees beside highways, particularly in urban areas, are a major cause of highway deaths, Russell noted. The Bureau of Public Roads has recommended the removal of such trees within 30 feet of roads, and many states have adopted that standard.

California does not plan any blanket program of tree removal along its highway system, according to Russell, but will remove trees that have proven to be a hazard.

The campaign to remove fixed-objects near roadways is not limited to trees. Light poles and signs have been eliminated or moved.

The campaign, Russell said, has begun to pay off in human lives.

Statistics show, he said, that in 1968 fixed-object collisions finally dropped from first place as a cause of fatalities on California roads.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Treatment Of Elderly Persons Much Changed In Two Decades

VAN DELLEN

During the last 20 years tremendous changes have come about in the treatment of elderly persons with degenerative diseases. No longer is the outlook hopeless as they respond to the same remedies as do younger individuals.

Advances in medicine generally are advances in geriatrics and vice versa.

For example, when a 75-year-old man develops a respiratory infection, appendicitis, heart failure, or prostrate trouble, we no longer throw in the sponge because of his age. We treat him the same way as we do a man of 40.

In contrast, his medical problems may be more difficult to diagnose because oldsters seldom have the same degree of pain or distress as do younger individuals.

Geriatric problems become more complicated when gramps also suffers from degenerative mental changes or has no interest in life because he has outlived his spouse, friends, or the children have moved. Such individuals may have memory lapses, eat poorly, and can't think clearly. These infirmities must be considered if the total man is being treated.

Medicines improve the circulation and the sense of well-being.

CONFINEMENT TO BED has always been hazardous. The senior citizen is more susceptible to chest infections, urinary disorders, and constipation. Falls are common because he gets dizzy on changing posture.

Confusion also plays a role, especially when he gets out of bed at night and gropes about in unfamiliar surroundings.

Bedrest also leads to pressure sores and stiffening of the joints within a short period of time. All of these complications are easily eliminated by encouraging the oldster to spend a great part of the day in a chair. Being upright is also good for the morale and keeps the mind alert.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

DIET AND DERMATITIS

F. R. writes: Does diet have anything to do with dermatitis?

REPLY

Yes, if you refer to allergic skin disorders, psoriasis, acne, or pellagra. The term dermatitis covers a multitude of sins and is synonymous with a variety of eruptions and rashes. Acne, for example, may be aggravated by highly seasoned and rich foods. On the other hand, pellagra is caused by a deficiency of foods containing niacin (part of the vitamin B complex).

LIVER FOR ANEMIA

Mrs. E. L. writes: Will eating liver help a person who suffers from anemia?

REPLY

Yes, because the meat contains blood-forming elements. But best results are obtained when the cause of anemia is found and eliminated. Those who lack iron will improve within a week or 10 days after taking the element but victims of pernicious anemia need vitamin B12.

LARGE TEMPLE VEINS

A reader writes: What causes the veins over the temples to enlarge? Mine are quite prominent.

REPLY

The skin is responsible for this phenomenon. These veins appear more prominent because the overlying epidermis is thinner and there is less fat in the surrounding tissues. I assume these vessels are not pulsating or tender to the touch.

SUSCEPTIBILITY TO FLU

N. N. writes: Is a person more susceptible to flu if he has a cold?

REPLY

Not necessarily, although he could be more susceptible if his resistance is lowered.

Today's Health Hint — Dizzy spells that continue should be investigated.

Biafran Village Bombed, Killing At Least 300

UMUOHIAGU, Biafra (AP) — A crowded open market in this Biafran village was bombed and strafed today, causing what may be one of the worst civilian casualty tolls of the Nigerian civil war.

Local officials estimated that between 200 and 300 persons were killed outright and hundreds more wounded.

Five hours after the noon raid, sturdy youths followed by wailing relatives were still carrying the dead along dusty trails in the bush to their homes.

The Biafran Information Department said it was the second worst bombing incident of the war, the worst being the bombing of a market in Otuocha last year in which an estimated 500 persons died.

Soviet Spaceships Reported On Course

MOSCOW (AP) — Two unmanned Soviet spaceships that will attempt a soft landing on Venus in May are on course and working fine, Tass reported last night.

It was the first progress report since Venus 5 and Venus 6 started on their four and one-half month trip Jan. 5 and Jan. 10 respectively. The soft landing of Venus 4 in October 1967 was a space first for the Soviets.

Driver Booked On Drug Probe

Valerie Vannest, 20, of 55 Marinero Circle, Tiburon, was booked at Marin County Jail yesterday on suspicion of having marijuana after her minibus was stopped on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Greenbrae, the California Highway Patrol reported.

The CHP said an officer was citing her for parking on the freeway when he smelled marijuana. The officer reported finding two marijuana cigarette butts, one freshly smoked, in the vehicle's ashtray.

Miss Vannest was held in lieu of $625 bail and was to appear in Marin Municipal Court today.

Suspect Booked On Marijuana

Arthur Burton Ring, 53, of Pier Three, Sausalito, was booked at Marin County Jail yesterday on suspicion of possessing marijuana after he was arrested on a San Francisco traffic warrant, Sausalito police said.

Police said Burton was arrested in downtown Sausalito at 5:45 p.m. on the warrant, and a marijuana cigarette was found when he was searched at headquarters.

Ring was jailed in lieu of $625 bail and was to appear today in Marin Municipal Court. He was also under a hold order from San Francisco for the $50 traffic warrant.

Priority On Tax Reduction Ruled Out By Weinberger

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—State Finance Director Caspar W. Weinberger said today that tax reduction should have the same priority as many spending programs in the state budget.

Weinberger called it a "new but. . .unassailable premise that tax reduction has as urgent a priority as many of the spending programs of the state, and a higher priority than many of the spending requests that were made."

His remarks were prepared for a Commonwealth Club luncheon.

He also said that every state budget to come will be a record one, "until elected representatives have the authority to allocate 100 per cent of the state's revenues for the highst priorities as determined by your elected officials each year. Many of those critics of the total amount of this budget really want to spend more — they just do not dare to say so publicly."

Weinberger said too much money is tied up in special fund spending, such as education, and not subject to control by the governor or legislators.

Deadline Is Monday For Tam Opening

The deadline is Monday for applications to fill the seat of William B. Lewis on the Tamalpais High School District board, district officials said today.

Lewis, whose term expires June 30, resigned last Monday. His replacement will be selected in a special open session of the Tam board at 8 p.m. Thursday at the district offices in Larkspur.

NOTICE REQUESTING BIDS SANITARY DISTRICT NO. 2 of MARIN COUNTY METERING STATION RELOCATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Sanitary District No. 2 of Marin County will receive up to, but no later than, 2:00 o'clock P.M. of the 4th day of March, 1969, sealed bids for the award of a contract for the construction of improvements in the District in strict accordance with the plans and specifications therefor entitled "Metering Station Relocation," dated February, 1969, prepared by Brown and Caldwell, Consulting Engineers, and on file in the office of the Secretary of said District.

Said sealed proposals or bids shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Sanitary Board of said Sanitary District, 300 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, California. Bids will be publicly opened, examined and declared on said day and hour by the Secretary who shall report to the Sanitary Board her findings, which findings shall be considered by said Sanitary Board at its regular meeting to be held at said place on March 4, 1969, at 7:30 o'clock P.M.

Each bid shall be in accordance with said plans, specifications and other contract documents now on file in the office of the District Secretary located at 300 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, California.

Said proposals or bids must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed "Sanitary District No. 2 of Marin County, 300 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, California," and endorsed "Proposal for Metering Station Relocation."

All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check payable to the order of the District amounting to ten per cent (10%) of the bid, or by a bond in said amount and payable to said District, signed by the bidder and a corporate admitted surety or two individual sureties who shall justify before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double said amount, and over and above all statutory exemptions. Said check shall be forfeited or said bond shall become payable to said District in case the bidder depositing the same does not, within fifteen days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the District, the faithful performance of which shall be secured by an undertaking in the amount of one hundred per cent (100%) of the amount so bid, with sureties satisfactory to the said Sanitary Board, and which shall be accompanied by a labor and material bond in a sum equal to one hundred per cent (100%) of the amount of said bid, under the provision of Chapter 3, comprising Sections 4200 to 4208, inclusive, of the Government Code of the State of California.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on February 4, 1969, the Sanitary Board adopted a resolution determining the general prevailing rate of per diem wages in the locality in which the public work herein provided is to be done for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the contract, a copy of which wage scale is contained in and made a part of the specifications for said work, to which reference is hereby made for a full and detailed description thereof.

The Board reserves the privilege of rejecting any and all bids or to waive any irregularities or informalities in any bid or in the bidding.

No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of thirty (30) days after the date set for the bid opening.

Plans and specifications may be examined at the office of the District, 300 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, California; at the Builder's Exchange, 850 South Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco; at the Builder's Exchange, 320 East 12th Street, Oakland; and at the Marin Builder's Exchange, 110 Belvedere Street, San Rafael. Plans and specifications may be obtained at the office of Brown and Caldwell, 66 Mint Street, San Francisco, California, upon deposit of $10.00 per set, $5.00 of which will be refunded if the set or sets delivered are returned in good condition within fifteen (15) days after the bid opening.

ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Marin General Hospital
Marin Hospital District
250 Bon Air Road
San Rafael, California 94904

We have examined the accompanying balance sheet of MARIN GENERAL HOSPITAL as of June 30, 1968, and the related statement of revenue and expense for the year then ended, and including the accumulated excess of revenue over expense. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The accompanying statements include only the finances of Marin General Hospital and are exclusive of funds and accounts administered by the County Treasurer in connection with Marin Hospital District Bonds.

In our opinion, the accompanying statements present fairly the financial position of Marin General Hospital at June 30, 1968, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year, except for the change in method of computing depreciation (with which we concur) described in Note 2 to the financial statements.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 — ALLOWANCE FOR MEDICARE REPORTING:

A provision of $20,000 for possible adjustment of amounts recovered under Medicare has been established for the year ended June 30, 1968. The actual amount which may be payable is not determinable at this time, but is not expected to differ materially from the provision established. An additional $5,000 has been provided for unresolved items, currently under review by Medicare auditors, pertaining to the prior year.

NOTE 2 — PROPERTY, PLANT and EQUIPMENT:

An inventory of property, plant and equipment was compiled by an outside firm of specialists as of June 30, 1967. As a result, the fixed asset accounts of the Plant Fund and the General Fund balance were increased in the net amount of $31,966 to reflect the adjustment necessary to record the historical cost of items actually inventoried. Depreciation for the year ended June 30, 1968 was provided for each individual asset included in the inventory, using the straight-line method and estimated useful lives determined by the specialists responsible for the inventory. Depreciation in prior years was computed by applying the straight-line method to group asset accounts with average estimated useful lives; the change in the current year to individual assets each with its own estimated useful life resulted in a provision for depreciation of $19,477 in excess of the provision which would have been made if the group method had been continued.

NOTE 3 — CONSTRUCTION IN PROGRESS (TEMPORARY FUND):

In August, 1965, Marin Hospital District entered into a joint venture with the County of Marin to construct, with federal and state aid, a Community Mental Health Center. At June 30, 1968, the District had paid $333,264 as its full share of the project which amount is reflected as construction in progress in the Temporary Fund accounts.

The title to the project, when complete, will vest in the Hospital District.

NOTE 4 — PENSION PLAN:

The Hospital has in effect a contributory pension plan for its eligible employees. The total pension expense for the year ended June 30, 1968 was $67,718, which includes amortization of prior service cost over a period of 25 years. The Hospital's policy is to fund pension cost accrued. At June 30, 1968, assets of the fund exceeded vested benefits.

NOTE 5 — COMMITMENT AND CONTINGENT LIABILITY:

The Hospital is in the process of negotiating the purchase of five and one-half acres of land to be converted into a parking lot. It is estimated that the purchase price will be approximately $160,000; in addition, $11,245 has already been expanded in improving the property, which amount is included in construction in progress in the Plant Fund accounts.

Certain charges for services to patients were paid through patient loans from outside sources, repayment of which is guaranteed by the Hospital. At June 30, 1968, the Hospital was contingently liable in the amount of $2,611.40 as guarantor of these loans.

KQED (9), 9:30 p.m.—"The Avery Brundage Collection of Asian Art" in a half hour special with script written by Dr. Michael Sullivan, professor of Far Eastern art at Stanford University.

KRON (4), 10 p.m.—"This Is Sholom Aleichem" will open the third season of "NBC Experiment in Television." The writings, the philosophy and the life of the Yiddish writer are examined through dramatization, animation, exposition and special effects. Jack Gilford stars with David Burns and Nancy Walker.

Three Burglaries In San Rafael

Radios and stereos were the object of three burglaries reported Wednesday to San Rafael police.

Dorothy Downs King of 124 Elena Circle, San Rafael, reported her stereo and two speakers, valued at a total of $200, were taken from her home between Monday and Wednesday, police said.

The theft of $80 auto stereo from his vehicle Tuesday night was reported by Marion Miller Rundell. The theft occurred while his car was parked outside his home, 42 Forest Lane, San Rafael, police said.

Monagan's Urban Affairs Panel Clouded

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The new Urban Affairs and Housing Committee created by Republican Assembly Speaker Robert T. Monagan was designed to help solve big city problems and "open direct channels of communication with minority groups."

But before the committee's first meeting:

Its new chairman was severely criticized by members of Assembly minority groups;

Its vice chairman quit;

Assemblyman Pete Wilson, R-San Diego, named by Monagan to chair the fledgling committee ran into open opposition from two of the five Negro Assembly members when he told newsmen he had favored either repeal or revision of the Rumford Open Housing Law when that issue was before the legislature two years ago.

Wilson said he now considers the open housing law a "dead issue" because the state and U.S. supreme courts have ruled unconstitutional a ballot proposition to repeal it.

But to minority group members Wilson's stand became a symbol of what they considered was his failure to understand urban problems and the concerns of minorities.

Negro Assembyman Leon Ralph, a Democrat representing a large minority area of Los Angeles, said it was as unfitting for Wilson to chair a committee dealing with urban and minority problems as it would have been for Ralph to head the agriculture committee.

Both agreed Monagan asked Ralph if he would be "interested" in the vice chairmanship of the committee and Ralph said "no."

Garcia asked Monagan to keep him on the committee which has a Democratic majority including Brown, Ralph and Negro Assenblyman Bill Greene D-Los Angeles.

Greene was the only one of the five Negro assembly Democrats who told newsmen he would have accepted the vice chairmanship. But apparently it wasn't offered to him.

Monagan now says "we'll have rotating chairmen. It's not that important."

When it finally holds a meeting Monagan hopes the committee will "develop specific proposals to provide decent housing for low income people... review the need to develop a state urbanization policy" and —"open direct channels of communication with minority groups."

$16,200 From UNICEF Cards

The Marin chapter of the United Nations Association has reported it sold $16,200 worth of UNICEF greeting cards during the past Christmas season, a record.

Sales were up $1,200 from the previous year, reported Mrs. Eric Moeller of Ross, drive chairman.

The chapter also gained $5.150 for UNICEF from the Halloween night collections by youngsters.

Legal Notices

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Sanitary District No. 2 of Marin County will receive up to, but no later than, 2:00 o'clock P.M. of the 4th day of March, 1969, sealed bids for the award of a contract for the construction of improvements in the District in strict accordance with the plans and specifications therefor entitled "Metering Station Relocation," dated February, 1969, prepared by Brown and Caldwell, Consulting Engineers, and on file in the office of the Secretary of said District.

Said sealed proposals or bids shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Sanitary Board of said Sanitary District, 300 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, California. Bids will be publicly opened, examined and declared on said day and hour by the Secretary who shall report to the Sanitary Board her findings, which findings shall be considered by said Sanitary Board at its regular meeting to be held at said place on March 4, 1969, at 7:30 o'clock P.M.

Each bid shall be in accordance with said plans, specifications and other contract documents now on file in the office of the District Secretary located at 300 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, California.

Said proposals or bids must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed "Sanitary District No. 2 of Marin County, 300 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, California," and endorsed "Proposal for Metering Station Relocation."

All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check payable to the order of the District amounting to ten per cent (10%) of the bid, or by a bond in said amount and payable to said District, signed by the bidder and a corporate admitted surety or two individual sureties who shall justify before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double said amount, and over and above all statutory exemptions. Said check shall be forfeited or said bond shall become payable to said District in case the bidder depositing the same does not, within fifteen days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the District, the faithful performance of which shall be secured by an undertaking in the amount of one hundred per cent (100%) of the amount so bid, with sureties satisfactory to the said Sanitary Board, and which shall be accompanied by a labor and material bond in a sum equal to one hundred per cent (100%) of the amount of said bid, under the provision of Chapter 3, comprising Sections 4200 to 4208, inclusive, of the Government Code of the State of California.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on February 4, 1969, the Sanitary Board adopted a resolution determining the general prevailing rate of per diem wages in the locality in which the public work herein provided is to be done for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the contract, a copy of which wage scale is contained in and made a part of the specifications for said work, to which reference is hereby made for a full and detailed description thereof.

The Board reserves the privilege of rejecting any and all bids or to waive any irregularities or informalities in any bid or in the bidding.

No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of thirty (30) days after the date set for the bid opening.

Plans and specifications may be examined at the office of the District, 300 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, California; at the Builder's Exchange, 850 South Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco; at the Builder's Exchange, 320 East 12th Street, Oakland; and at the Marin Builder's Exchange, 110 Belvedere Street, San Rafael. Plans and specifications may be obtained at the office of Brown and Caldwell, 66 Mint Street, San Francisco, California, upon deposit of $10.00 per set, $5.00 of which will be refunded if the set or sets delivered are returned in good condition within fifteen (15) days after the bid opening.

DATED: February 4, 1969.

Aide Belittles State Tax Cut Help To Poor

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Neither Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan's $100 million income tax rebate nor a rival Democratic plan will help the lowest income Californians, Franchise Tax Board officials said today.

The officials commented as the board, the state's income tax collecting agency, began gearing up for the one-time reduction that would come from either bill.

Officials said that since only those who file income tax returns are eligible for the cut, millions of those whose incomes don't reach the taxable level are not covered.

If you are married, with two children and make less than $7,400 a year, you are not affected. Nor are you affected if you are married, have no children and have an income of $6.500 annually. The limit for single people is $3.250 a year.

A rash of changes in the tax laws in the past few years make it difficult to tell how many people now must pay income tax and would benefit by the relief bills, officials said.

But they said that about 4 million returns were filed in 1968, many of them by couples turning in joint returns.

Meanwhile, Reagan and Democrats traded charges in the tax fight.

Senate Democratic Floor Leader George R. Moscone of San Francisco said Reagan's $100 million cut for 1970 should be doubled, and paid by the end of this year. Reagan replied "you don't have the money this year."

Moscone said he will introduce legislation next week providing for a $200 million rebate in the income tax, payable this year. It would mean a return of at least 20 per cent of what the taxpayer put out for 1968, up to a maximum of $400 a family.

He called Reagan's proposal to permit each taxpayer to take 10 per cent off his tax bill next year "a cheap political trick to accumulate the taxpayers' cash and then use it in 1970 — an election year — to finance a deficit budget and pretend to 'cut taxes'."

Reagan replied "if this was a cheap political trick you would have waited until election year and you'd have gotten all the headline value of saying 'look at me, I'm going to give you back some money.' You wouldn't do it this far in advance."

Biafran Village Bombed, Killing At Least 300

UMUOHIAGU, Biafra (AP) — A crowded open market in this Biafran village was bombed and strafed today, causing what may be one of the worst civilian casualty tolls of the Nigerian civil war.

Local officials estimated that between 200 and 300 persons were killed outright and hundreds more wounded.

Five hours after the noon raid, sturdy youths followed by wailing relatives were still carrying the dead along dusty trails in the bush to their homes.

The Biafran Information Department said it was the second worst bombing incident of the war, the worst being the bombing of a market in Otuocha last year in which an estimated 500 persons died.

Shrubs Will Replace Road 'Killer Trees'

REDWOOD CITY (AP)—California's plan to remove "killer trees" and other highway hazards will not leave the state's roads barren and desolate, a state traffic engineer says.

The engineer, G. I. Russell, said in an interview the state has begun to remove trees that have caused injuries or fatalities.

Removal of trees is part of a general program to improve safety on roads by eliminating the opportunity for a collision between a straying automobile and a fixed object.

However, Russell said, traffic engineers recognize that a completely barren roadside would be not only unattractive but monotonous and a traffic safety problem in itself.

Road designers in California and elsewhere have selected certain highway landscaping shrubs, such as briar rose, because of their energy-absorbing qualities as a cushion for a careening car, Russell said, and you can expect to see a lot of these on California roads.

Trees beside highways, particularly in urban areas, are a major cause of highway deaths, Russell noted. The Bureau of Public Roads has recommended the removal of such trees within 30 feet of roads, and many states have adopted that standard.

California does not plan any blanket program of tree removal along its highway system, according to Russell, but will remove trees that have proven to be a hazard.

The campaign to remove fixed-objects near roadways is not limited to trees. Light poles and signs have been eliminated or moved.

The campaign, Russell said, has begun to pay off in human lives.

Statistics show, he said, that in 1968 fixed-object collisions finally dropped from first place as a cause of fatalities on California roads.

Soviet Spaceships Reported On Course

MOSCOW (AP) — Two unmanned Soviet spaceships that will attempt a soft landing on Venus in May are on course and working fine, Tass reported last night.

It was the first progress report since Venus 5 and Venus 6 started on their four and one-half month trip Jan. 5 and Jan. 10 respectively. The soft landing of Venus 4 in October 1967 was a space first for the Soviets.

Annual Marin Horse Clinic On Feb. 15

The second annual Marin Horse Health Clinic will be held Feb. 15 at the Mill Valley corporation yard on Sycamore Avenue.

Veterinarians will examine horses for worms and dental problems and give vaccinations. Two farriers /blacksmiths) and a Marin County Humane Society officer will also be present for consultation on proper shoeing, feeding and care of horses.

Veterinary work will be done by appointment between 9 a.m. and noon and from 2 to 4 p.m. Persons interested should get in touch with Dale Corliss of Mill Valley for an appointment.

The second phase of the clinic, at which booster shots will be given and dentistry performed, will be held March 15 at the corporation yard.

The clinics ars sponsored by the Southern Marin Horsemen's Association.

Driver Booked On Drug Probe

Valerie Vannest, 20, of 55 Marinero Circle, Tiburon, was booked at Marin County Jail yesterday on suspicion of having marijuana after her minibus was stopped on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Greenbrae, the California Highway Patrol reported.

The CHP said an officer was citing her for parking on the freeway when he smelled marijuana. The officer reported finding two marijuana cigarette butts, one freshly smoked, in the vehicle's ashtray.

Miss Vannest was held in lieu of $625 bail and was to appear in Marin Municipal Court today.

Suspect Booked On Marijuana

Arthur Burton Ring, 53, of Pier Three, Sausalito, was booked at Marin County Jail yesterday on suspicion of possessing marijuana after he was arrested on a San Francisco traffic warrant, Sausalito police said.

Police said Burton was arrested in downtown Sausalito at 5:45 p.m. on the warrant, and a marijuana cigarette was found when he was searched at headquarters.

Ring was jailed in lieu of $625 bail and was to appear today in Marin Municipal Court. He was also under a hold order from San Francisco for the $50 traffic warrant.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Treatment Of Elderly Persons Much Changed In Two Decades

VAN DELLEN

During the last 20 years tremendous changes have come about in the treatment of elderly persons with degenerative diseases. No longer is the outlook hopeless as they respond to the same remedies as do younger individuals.

Advances in medicine generally are advances in geriatrics and vice versa.

For example, when a 75-year-old man develops a respiratory infection, appendicitis, heart failure, or prostrate trouble, we no longer throw in the sponge because of his age. We treat him the same way as we do a man of 40.

In contrast, his medical problems may be more difficult to diagnose because oldsters seldom have the same degree of pain or distress as do younger individuals.

Geriatric problems become more complicated when gramps also suffers from degenerative mental changes or has no interest in life because he has outlived his spouse, friends, or the children have moved. Such individuals may have memory lapses, eat poorly, and can't think clearly. These infirmities must be considered if the total man is being treated.

Medicines improve the circulation and the sense of well-being.

CONFINEMENT TO BED has always been hazardous. The senior citizen is more susceptible to chest infections, urinary disorders, and constipation. Falls are common because he gets dizzy on changing posture.

Confusion also plays a role, especially when he gets out of bed at night and gropes about in unfamiliar surroundings.

Bedrest also leads to pressure sores and stiffening of the joints within a short period of time. All of these complications are easily eliminated by encouraging the oldster to spend a great part of the day in a chair. Being upright is also good for the morale and keeps the mind alert.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

DIET AND DERMATITIS

F. R. writes: Does diet have anything to do with dermatitis?

REPLY

Yes, if you refer to allergic skin disorders, psoriasis, acne, or pellagra. The term dermatitis covers a multitude of sins and is synonymous with a variety of eruptions and rashes. Acne, for example, may be aggravated by highly seasoned and rich foods. On the other hand, pellagra is caused by a deficiency of foods containing niacin (part of the vitamin B complex).

LIVER FOR ANEMIA

Mrs. E. L. writes: Will eating liver help a person who suffers from anemia?

REPLY

Yes, because the meat contains blood-forming elements. But best results are obtained when the cause of anemia is found and eliminated. Those who lack iron will improve within a week or 10 days after taking the element but victims of pernicious anemia need vitamin B12.

LARGE TEMPLE VEINS

A reader writes: What causes the veins over the temples to enlarge? Mine are quite prominent.

REPLY

The skin is responsible for this phenomenon. These veins appear more prominent because the overlying epidermis is thinner and there is less fat in the surrounding tissues. I assume these vessels are not pulsating or tender to the touch.

SUSCEPTIBILITY TO FLU

N. N. writes: Is a person more susceptible to flu if he has a cold?

REPLY

Not necessarily, although he could be more susceptible if his resistance is lowered.

Today's Health Hint — Dizzy spells that continue should be investigated.

Priority On Tax Reduction Ruled Out By Weinberger

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—State Finance Director Caspar W. Weinberger said today that tax reduction should have the same priority as many spending programs in the state budget.

Weinberger called it a "new but. . .unassailable premise that tax reduction has as urgent a priority as many of the spending programs of the state, and a higher priority than many of the spending requests that were made."

His remarks were prepared for a Commonwealth Club luncheon.

He also said that every state budget to come will be a record one, "until elected representatives have the authority to allocate 100 per cent of the state's revenues for the highst priorities as determined by your elected officials each year. Many of those critics of the total amount of this budget really want to spend more — they just do not dare to say so publicly."

Weinberger said too much money is tied up in special fund spending, such as education, and not subject to control by the governor or legislators.

Deadline Is Monday For Tam Opening

The deadline is Monday for applications to fill the seat of William B. Lewis on the Tamalpais High School District board, district officials said today.

Lewis, whose term expires June 30, resigned last Monday. His replacement will be selected in a special open session of the Tam board at 8 p.m. Thursday at the district offices in Larkspur.

Three Burglaries In San Rafael

Radios and stereos were the object of three burglaries reported Wednesday to San Rafael police.

Dorothy Downs King of 124 Elena Circle, San Rafael, reported her stereo and two speakers, valued at a total of $200, were taken from her home between Monday and Wednesday, police said.

The theft of $80 auto stereo from his vehicle Tuesday night was reported by Marion Miller Rundell. The theft occurred while his car was parked outside his home, 42 Forest Lane, San Rafael, police said.

BEST SHOWS FOR TONIGHT

Best bets on television tonight:

KGO (7), KNTV (11), 7:30 p.m.—"This It Tom Jones" is a musical variety series, starring Welsh singer Tom Jones host with guests Joey Heatherton, Mary Hopkin, the Moody Blues, Peter Sellers and Richard Pryor. The programs originate in London.

KQED (9), 8:30 p.m.—"NET Playhouse" presents "The Boss's Son," a dramatized documentary by French journalist Danielle Hunebelle. Produced for French television, the film has an American sound track superimposed to allow the French dialogue and sound effect to run under the English translation.

KPIX (5), 9 p.m.—"The CBS Friday Night Movies" offers a comedy, "Penelope," starring Natalie Wood with Ian Bannen, Dick Shawn, Peter Falk and Jonathan Winters.

KQED (9), 9:30 p.m.—"The Avery Brundage Collection of Asian Art" in a half hour special with script written by Dr. Michael Sullivan, professor of Far Eastern art at Stanford University.

KRON (4), 10 p.m.—"This Is Sholom Aleichem" will open the third season of "NBC Experiment in Television." The writings, the philosophy and the life of the Yiddish writer are examined through dramatization, animation, exposition and special effects. Jack Gilford stars with David Burns and Nancy Walker.

Look Out For Lombardi; Beban A New Hornung?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vince Lombardi, chosen to lead Washington out of the Dark Ages in Football, is looking at Heisman Trophy bust Gary Beban as the new Golden Boy for the Redskins' revival.

Lombardi marched into the nation's capital yesterday to take command of the Redskins after a decade of unprecedented greatness at Green Bay and made Beban the focus of his very first move.

Calling for complete movies of Beban's play as a rollout quarterback for UCLA, Lombardi promised a long off-season study to decide where to use Beban—with the strong possibility of turning him into a runner.

The move involked immediate memories of 10 years ago when Lombardi arrived in Green Bay and took another Heisman Trophy quarterback off the bench to make him one of football's most celebrated ball carriers the Golden Boy—Paul Hornung.

Beban, unimpressive in his brief trial as a rookie pro quarterback last year, scored more touchdowns as a runner at UCLA than he did by passing.

Lombardi stressed the need for a strong running attack and said, "The running game is what football is all about. The more you run, the more hard-nosed you are."

Lombardi, who has never coached a loser in his lifetime, is taking over a team that hasn't had a winning season since 1955.

He will be executive vice president, coach and part-owner of the Redskins under a contract that may embrace as much as a million dollars in stock and long-term salary.

"Washington is the world's capital," Lombardi said. "And we have plans to make it the football capital."

But at one point he laughed and said, "Despite what you may think, I can't walk across the Potomac—even when it's frozen."

Perhaps no coach in football history has been watched as closely as Lombardi will be next season to see if the man can match the myth.

Unknown and unsung, Lombardi came to Green Bay almost exactly a decade ago to coach a team that had won only one game the previous season.

Within two years he had his first conference title. In the next seven, he won five NFL championships and capped his triumphs with the first two Super Bowl victories.

He was smiling as much as he did when he won that first Super Bowl. He was happy to be back.

I'll Root For Little Tina Noyes To Win

SPUNKY BUNKIE — I don't know about you guys, but I'm rooting for pixieish, 20-year-old redhead from Colorado Springs, Colo. to win all the marbles tonight in the North American Figure Skating Championships at the Oakland Coliseum Arena.

Being an also-ran for much of my life in anything ranging from hop scotch to patty cake to liar's dice to column writing, I am forever pulling for the underdogs. My heart bleeds for sportsdom's perennial bridesmaids (the 49ers, to name one), which is why my cheers will be directed at Tina Noyes when the girls do their twists and twirls on the ice in tonight's decisive free skating episode.

Standing in third place after yesterday's ladies' compulsory-figures competition, pretty Tina will have to go some to bypass Canada's Karen Magnussen and Janet Lynn, the new U.S. champion, who are 1-2.

Destined For The Shadows

But Tina seems destined to stand in the shadows. You see, she had the misfortune of growing up at the same time as a lass named Peggy Fleming who, you must remember, went on to conquer all worlds in figure skating.

For 12 years she and Peggy had gone through the same competition and only once, when she was 14, did Miss Noyes beat Miss Fleming.

Now, with Peggy turned pro, this was to the Tina's year to emerge from the shadows into the spotlight, but lo and behold the heartbreak girl has hit more cracks in the ice—similar to the 1968 Olympics when she missed a bronze medal by one-tenth of a point.

Last week in Seattle, for example, she was the favorite in the nationals and . . . well, let her tell it as she did in Oakland the other day:

"I was excited getting ready for the nationals," she started off. "I felt, at last, that maybe I would win the title I had worked so long for. But, you know, everything seemed to go wrong.

It All Started With Dress

"It started when my dressmaker in Colorado made my dress wrong, and we had to send to California for more material. Then someone put an iron on my free-skating dress and ruined it.

"Then we had a terrible air trip from Colorado to the west coast. We roared down the runway at Denver, and then the plane slowed down. A few feet farther down the runway and, I'm told, we would have crashed. We finally had to go to Portland, then by plane to Seattle. We arrived in Seattle six hours late, losing valuable practice time and had to look for other rinks when we got there. Everything seemed miserable, but I was skating well and had high hopes.

"After the compulsory school figures, I was almost in a first place tie. Then I drew the last position in the draw for free skating, which is generally considered the worst. I waited around about 25 minutes, and I guess I didn't skate as well as I could have."

No World Championship Trip

The rest is history. Miss Noyes finished third in a close finish that had the judges going down to the fractions of a point. But, for Tina, it meant no national title and no berth on the U.S. team for the world championship. Janet Lynn and runner-up Julie Lynn Homes made the team.

"As hard as I've worked in my skating career," said Miss Noyes, who at 20 is considered middle-aged in her sport, "it seems destined for disappointment. It's several days now since the nationals, and I can't seem to overcome the disappointment. I don't know if I can get up again for this North American championships. Yet, if I am the first American girl in the competition, I still stand an outside chance of making the world championship team."

Nearby, as photographers and reporters swarmed about new U.S. queen Janet Lynn, Miss Noyes smiled, looking cute in her mint green dress and pink ribbon in her red hair: "It's all right," she said, thinking back over 12 years of frustration, "I'm used to it!"

Which is why I'll be rooting for Tina Noyes tonight to write a heart-warming sports story on the cold ice.

To Tina goes my "Is That What's Troubling You, Bunkie" award.

OTTO'S PROBLEMS MULTIPLY

As if losing his job as coach of Washington Redskins of the National Football League wasn't enough, Otto Graham found more trouble yesterday when his ball came to rest against a palm tree during the second round of the Bop Hope Desert Golf Classic at Palm Springs. Graham, who refused comment about being replaced this week by Vince Lombardi in Washington, is competing in the Hope tournament as an eight handicap amateur. (AP Wirephoto)

Canadian Girl Takes Lead In Figure Skating Meet

OAKLAND (AP) — "The only place for me to go is down, but I hope I don't," declared pert Karen Magnussen as she prepared to try and wrap up the ladies' title tonight in the North American Figure Skating Championships.

Canada and the United States each have 18 athletes competing.

Miss Magnussen, a 16-year-old blonde from Vancouver, B.C., gained a narrow lead over favored Janet Lynn, 15, Rockford, Ill., yesterday in the compulsory figures—half of the ladies' program.

The second half—free skating—will help determine who might succeed Peggy Fleming as the world's best female skater.

Miss Magnussen had 1,029.1 points to 1,015.5 for Miss Lynn, the tiny U.S. champion. The Canadian champion, Linda Carbonetto, 19, was a disappointing fifth at 977.3.

Tim Wood of Detroit was favored over Canada's Jay Humphry as the men's competition opened today with compulsory figures. Men's free skating is scheduled tomorrow night.

Also shooting for a title tonight are the four-time U.S. pairs champions, Ronald and Cindy Kauffman of Seattle.

Their precision timing and smooth form brought the biggest ovation from a sparse crowd of 3,000 at the Oakland Arena and gave them 79 points for the compulsory pairs.

Going into tonight's final free skating in pairs, the U.S. teams of Kenneth Shelley and JoJo Starbuck of Los Angeles and Mark and Melissa Militano of Long Island, N.Y., rank second and third, respectively, with 74.1 and 70.7 points.

Dancing, with U.S. champions James Sladky of Rochester, N.Y. and Judy Schwomeyer of Indianapolis leading with 111.6 points after compulsory dances, continues tonight. The Canadian champions, Bruce Lennie of Weston, Ont., and Donna Taylor of Mississauga, Ont., were second with 108.5 points.

How competitors finish in these championships has no bearing on the world finals Feb. 25-March 1 in Colorado Springs, Colo., since entries from each country already have been selected.

No team scores are kept. Seven judges score a maximum of six points after each performance. But after all six entries have run through their routines, the judges award places, which counts more in the over-all standings.

Prep Wrestlers Vie In Marin Loop Meet

Novato High School shoots for a fifth straight team championship when the Marin County Athletic League Wrestling Tournament gets underway with preliminary matches tomorrow 10 a.m. at San Rafael High School.

Novato again will be heavily favored to take the title, although Tamalpais is expected to put up a strong fight.

Finals are slated for 3:30 p.m.

The top three finishers in each weight division will qualify for the North Coast Section meet at Hayward High School in Pacifica Feb. 15.

Michigan Speedway Buys Into Riverside Track

DETROIT (AP) — The newly established Michigan International Speedway has agreed to buy 47 per cent of California's Riverside International Raceway with an option to acquire up to 65.5 per cent of the facility.

Lawrence Lopatin, president of the Michigan track, located in the Irish Hills west of Detroit, said today his group had agreed to buy 600,000 shares of the California track at $2 per share.

In addition, Lopatin said, Michigan International Speedway would lend the Riverside track $1.2 million in 7½ per cent subordinated notes, convertible at $2 per share.

With the Riverside transaction, Michigan International Speedway has interests in tracks already operating or under construction in the far West, the Southeast, the Southwest and the Midwest.

Oaks To Open Road Trip Vs. Kentucky

LOUISVILLE (AP) — The Oakland Oaks, still smarting from their worst loss of the season, open a two-game road trip tonight against the Kentucky Colonels.

Upended 119 - 105 by Denver last Sunday in Oakland, The Oaks saw their season record dip to 38-6, a mark that still leaves them 12½ games ahead of Denver in the American Basketball Association's Western Division.

Hecker Expected To Assist Vince

ATLANTA (AP) — Norb Hecker, former Atlanta Falcon coach, is expected to become an assistant under Vince Lombardi, new coach of the Washington Redskins.

Hecker, contacted at his home here yesterday, declined to comment on the Washington report.

Bills, O.J. Simpson Are 'Miles Apart'

Salary Wrangle Begins

BUFFALO (UPI)—Ralph Wilson Jr. seems to be having as much trouble trying to tackle O. J. Simpson as most of the Southern California opponents did this season.

Wilson said yesterday that he was "miles apart" with Simpson after having a six-hour salary negotiation with the all-America's representatives.

"We concluded the first round amiably but not in accord," Wilson said. "In fact, we were miles apart."

He added facetiously, "it is hoped by the Buffalo Bills' management that at our next meeting we will narrow the gap. I am hoping we can because I would like to stay on as Buffalo owner."

Wilson met in Detroit with Chuck Barnes of Sports Headliners, Inc. and attorney David Lockton, who are representing Simpson. They are expected to be demanding a contract ranging from $600,000 to $750,000.

In the days before the common draft, Donny Anderson of Texas Tech received a five-year contract between the Packers that was announced at $600,000 but was actually supposed to be worth $711,000 when the fringe benefits were included.

Lew Alcindor is supposed to bargain for a million - dollar contract when he leaves UCLA but he has the advantage of being able to dicker with two leagues.

Wilson said he and the negotiators had agreed to meet again soon but no date has been set for the meetings.

Light Heavy Foster Voted Boxer Of Year

He outpolled Joe Frazier, recognized as heavyweight champion in five states, 20 votes to 17, after leading Frazier in the first balloting of the New York Boxing Writers Association, 16-15.

The 30-year-old Foster won the light heavyweight title last year by knocking out Dick Tiger and also scored three non-title KO victories in 1968. He defended his title this year by stopping Frank DePaula in one round. Of his 34 victories in 38 bouts, 28 were knockouts.

Nino Benvenuti of Italy and Middleweight champion bantamweight titleholder Lionel Rose of Australia collected three votes each on the first ballot, necessitating the runoff.

WET, MISERABLE

Funseth Leads Bob Hope Golf

PALM SPRINGS (AP) — Scrawled in chalk on a big board in the press tent was the message:

Weather perfect. Temperature 80.

Both board and message were gone today as the 90-hole Bob Hope Desert Golf Classic ventured — pherhaps perilously— into the third round.

Leading the way was Rod Funseth, with a 36-hole score of 69-66—135, nine shots under par for the distance.

One stroke back was National Open champion Lee Trevino, 67-69—136. Billy Casper was down with 71-68—139. That round yesterday included a hole-in-one on the 207-yard 11th hole at Tamarisk Country Club.

And further back were such esteemed golfers as Jack Nicklaus, 72-71—143, and the three-time defending champion, Arnold Palmer, 72-73—145.

The marathon tournament ends Sunday. To some, it would be a blessing if the end came sooner.

What happened to the missing sign?

It disappeared sometime yesterday from the press tent at Indian Wells Country Club, host club for the 1969 Hope.

It was probably when cold winds were almost whipping the flaps off the tent, the lights were rocking above and there was the suspicion the whole structure might take off.

No one really wanted to step outside, however, because it was raining up a storm. This condition began early in the morning, stopped, bowed out momentarily for a bright rainbow and the sun.

Neither the sun or the rainbow could stand it long, and back came the gloomy skies and rain.

It was, old time observers agreed, the most miserable day in the 10-year-old history of the tournament.

Perhaps the finest shooting was turned in by Trevino and Casper, who got their sub par scores during the worst stages of the day.

Temperature 80, the sign said? Maybe so, because electric heaters were working overtime in the press tent.

Redwood Vs. San Rafael In Key Game

Second half of the Marin County Athletic League basketball schedule gets under way tonight and there could be some changes made in the first division.

The front-running Redwood High School Giants put their 6-1 won-lost record on the line against dangerous San Rafael Bulldogs (5-2) in the evening's feature attraction at Redwood's Larkspur gymnasium.

Elsewhere, Novato (5-2) plays at Drake (3-4) in San Anselmo, Tamalpais (4-3) hosts Marin Catholic (1-6) in Mill Valley, and San Marin (0-7) of Novato plays at Terra Linda (4-3).

All action will start with junior varsity preliminary games at 7 o'clock followed immediately by the varsity games.

All eyes will be on Larkspur where San Rafael will be gunning for its second upset over Coach Dick Hart's Giants. In their first round meeting the Bulldogs eked out a 56-55 victory, but since then Redwood has stormed back to win six straight.

Vince To Find Things Difficult

By MIKE RATHET

NEW YORK (AP) — It is more than likely that in moving from Green Bay to Washington Vince Lombardi will be the instrument that will destroy his own standing as a legend.

For it will be difficult, if not impossible, for Lombardi to duplicate the success he achieved with the Packers—simply because 1969 is not 1959.

To understand that is to understand how Lombardi built the Packers by judicious trades, brilliant drafting and perfect knowledge, understanding and manipulation of the resources available when he first arrived for the 1959 season.

Some of the resouces, however, no longer exist.

First, to disspell a portion of the legend, Lombardi did not take over a Green Bay team without any talent and make it a winner. What he did was take a team with potential, strengthen it, mold it and maintain it.

To look at the roster in 1958 is to find such names as Bart Starr, Paul Hornung, Jim Taylor, Forrest Gregg, Jim Ringo, Jerry Kramer, Max McGee, Ray Nitschke—the names that made the Packers what they were during the Lombardi era.

That club posted a 1-10-1 record. Two years later, Lombardi had the Packers in the championship game, and when his nine-year reign ended he had won six Western titles, five league championships, including the last three in a row, and the first two Super Bowls.

He did it, however, in different circumstances than exist now.

That is not to say that the Redskins don't have the same potential—for there is legitimate talent on a team with such names as Sonny Jurgensen and Charlie Taylor.

The means to build as quickly, and maintain once built, however, are not the same.

When Lombardi conducted his first draft and tapped a guy named Boyd Dowler there were only 12 teams vying for talent among the colleges. Now there are 26.

Where Lombardi was able to get every 12th best player in the country—in his first three drafts he selected such people as Dowler, Bob Jeter, Herb Adderley, Ron Kostelnik, Elijah Pitts—he now must settle for every 26th.

In addition, the recent expansion drafts stocking the new Atlanta and New Orleans club have further thinned talent.

And when Lombardi finally had built, and wanted to maintain, he was able to play the future market, selecting a player such as Donny Anderson who still had a year of college eligibility left and wait for him to finish.

Now futures cannot be drafted, leaving Lombardi less room to operate within the rules of the sport.

As for trades, Lombardi still can maneuver in that area, and possibly find a Willie Davis as he did at Cleveland and acquire him for an A.D. Williams or find a Henry Jordan as he did at Baltimore and acquire him for a fourth draft choice.

But now that has to be more difficult too, for the Lombardi his colleagues were not overly concerned with in 1959 is a colleague whom they have learned to be wary of in the decade that has passed.

It also must be remembered that the Potomac River around Washington is considerably more formidable than the Fox River around Green Bay.

And that will make it just a bit more difficult to walk on water.

Campbell Driver To Try Indy 500

Benson, the first rookie entry of the year, will drive the new Maxson Special entered by Darwin Maxson of Downey. He has been driving in the U.S. Auto Club's midget division for eight years.

Seven entries have now been received for the Memorial Day race and officials expect about 70 before the April 15 deadline.

Laver Vs. Pasarell In Net Quarterfinals

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Top-seeded Rod Laver of Australia meets Charles Pasarell of Puerto Rico, one of two surviving amateurs, tonight in the quarterfinals of the Philadelphia International Indoor Open tennis championships.

Jan Kodes, amateur champ from Czechoslovakia, will meet Tom Okker of the Netherlands; newest recruit to the pro ranks; Spanish pro Andrs Gimeno will play fourth-seeded Ken Rosewall of Australia; and third-ranked Tony Roche of Australia will face the veteran Pancho Gonzales of Los Angeles in the other matches.

Laver overpowered Butch Buchholz of St. Louis, 6-1, 7-5, last night in a tight match decided after Buchholz fought off two match points in the 12th game. Buchholz then double faulted and lost the match by backhanding a volley over the base line.

Pasarell, winner of the All-Amateur Philadelphia tournaments in 1966 and 1967, eliminated Nikki Pilic, the 6-foot-3, lefthanded pro from Yugoslavia, 6-2, 6-3.

The 31-year-old Gimeno upset fifth-ranked John Newcombe, Australian pro, 9-7, 6-3, running the last three games with the loss of only five points. Rosewell was in top form as he eliminated Ray Moore, a new pro from South Africa, 6-4, 6-1, taking the first three games in each set.

Kodes defeated Stan Smith, U.S. inter-collegiate champ and Davis Cup player, 6-2, 2-6, 6-2, by winning the first four games in the third set. Okker weathered a marathon ordeal to defeat Roger Taylor, English pro, 4-6, 6-3, 13-11.

Roche, second only to Laver in money winnings, put out Marty Riessen, an American who turned pro last summer, 10-8, 6-2, running out the second set from 2-2. The 45-year-old Gonzales, his drives as powerful as ever, defeated Thomas Koch, the big and husky Brazilian amateur, 6-3, 7-5.

UCLA, Santa Clara Cagers Resume Play On Weekend

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Unbeaten UCLA and Santa Clara don't figure to change their status this weekend as they each host a couple of conference foes in cage action.

The nationally top-ranked Bruins are at home to Washington and Washington State, who are tied for second in the Pacific Eight behind the Bruins with 4-1 marks. A Husky or Cougar win would cause turmoil to the national collegiate cage scene, but the Bruins have yet to lose on their home floor in two seasons.

Third-ranked Santa Clara faces Loyola and Pepperdine,

The Broncs got a good boost toward their expected West Coast Athletic Conference title last night when Santa Barbara defeated University of Pacific 84-69 to leave both teams at 4-2 in the conference race. Bill Sticker had 32 for the Tigers while Steve Rippe's 19 points led five Gauchos who were in double figures.

But San Jose State gamely stayed in range of the Broncs by taking St. Mary's 89-74 to move the Spartans to 5-1 in conference play. Coby Dietrick hit 20 while Chris Dayak paced the losers with 14.

USC also hosts the two Washington clubs this weekend while Cal meets Oregon State tonight and Oregon tomorrow. and Stanford reverses the procedure.

Grid Coach To Help Coach Baseballers

SAN JOSE (UPI) — Gene Menges has been appointed co-coach of the San Jose State College baseball team.

Menges, a San Jose State graduate and assistant football coach, joins Ed Sobzcak, who has guided the Spartans since 1956.

Staubach Is Still In There Pitching

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Roger Staubach, who won the 1963 Heisman trophy as Navy's quarterback, is still in there pitching. Roger threw four touchdown passes as the Pensacola Navy team beat Youngstown State University 58-38.

Reports are that Staubach will join the Dallas Cowboys for the 1969 football season.

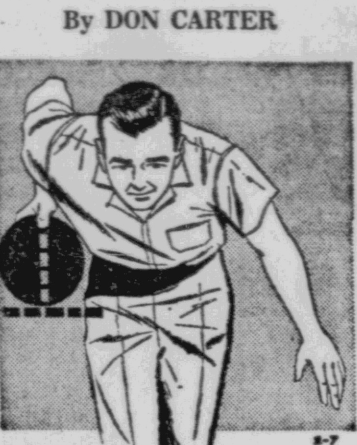
Bowling Tips

By DON CARTER



The wrist must remain firm throughout the delivery. Try to imagine your thumb is perpendicular to a line running parallel to the floor. This position may vary a little bit if you have set the thumb slightly to the left with the intention of throwing a hook, but basically this "perpendicular" idea should be kept in mind.

The guys in the 670 Scratch League at Country Club Bowl had reason to be proud over their pin-busting scores at the San Rafael lanes.

Six of the bowlers had scores of 600 or better, and there were 25 games over the 200 mark. High on the list was Al Hoffmann with a 280 game and 689 series, Sandy Slack, 268-674, and Rich Curry, 250-629.

THIS AND THAT — Terry De Young of Novato came close to making the nationals in the Bay Area Bowling Proprietors all-star tourney in San Francisco, but finished sixth. Top three qualified for the nationals, and Terry fell 337 pins short after bowling 32 games. Dick Treadway of Corte Madera, the other Marin Countian in the finals, finished last in the 16-man final roll-offs. . . . Treadway had high score in Marin this week, 723 series in the 910 Travel. . . . Mike Tauscher came close to that elusive 700 mark with his 696 series (topped by a 267 game) in the Nite Owls at Country Club. . . . Elmer Tynes was star bowler of the Lutheran Late League at Country Club Bowl, 668 series.

STRIKES TO SPARE —Linda Swann has hiked her average from 110 to 140 already this season and last time out in the Magic Fours League rolled her first 500 series, a 534. . . . Lou Ahrens of the Ladies 622 Classic rolled an all-spare game, 183, Greenbrae Lanes . . . Marlene Soldavini of the Triple Threat League had her first, 500 series, a 512. . . . If that 690 (211-225-254) series by Chuck Luby in the TGIF League at Country Club wasn't eough, he also tossed a 233-644 in the Weekenders. . . . Penny Conti led all Marin County women bowlers this past week with a 652 series in the 615 Classic at Country Club, the exact series score she had last week in that league. Then in the Hi-Lo's, she rolled eight strikes in a row on her way to a 266 game and wound up with a 591 series.

DOWN THE LANES — Lyn Tippens has a 149 average in the Striking Trios, but rolled 230—564 to crack the honor roll at Country Club. . . . Chuck Akins, 156 average, overdid his norm by exactly 100 pins, 256 in the Twilite Twirlers League. . . . Larry King (152 avg.) almost ent 100 over in the Mixed Mates, 243, leading to a 638 series. . . . Paul Chaffee, that former southpaw baseball hurler, likes to improve on his score slowly: just look at that 172-173-174 score in the Friday Nite Leftovers at Nave Lanes. . . . In the Lutheran Early, Robert Schoen led the way with 232-652 and Sherry Tauscher rolled her first 200 and 500, like 219—506. . . . George Buston was the kingpin of the Novato Unified Bowlers at Nave Lanes, 226—628.

DOWN THE LANES — Delores Ray rolled a 235 in the Gutter Belles League at Greenbrae Lanes, and Joan Porter came an eyelash away from a triplicate, 147-146-146. . . . Hagel Supply team had a total of 1,018 pins, highlight of the Northern California Merchants League at Greenbrae. . . . Ken Moran (160 avg.) of the Hi-Lo's rolled a 607 series. . . . Maureen Moresco went over the 200 plateau for the initial time in the St. Isabella's Women's League at Nave Lanes, 210. . . . Split time in the Marin County Mixed Travel League at Nave Lanes, Larry Asay converting the 6-7-10 . . .Bea Hoffmann cashed the 6-7-10 split in the Week-Enders League at Country Club. . . . In the San Quentin Mixed Fours, Joe Stocker led the way with a 255 and Steve Evans rolled his first 200, a 205. . . . In junior action, Rich McPherson led the way at Country Club Bowl, 214-621, and tops at Greenbrae Lanes were Wayne Ziegler, 244, and Ron Gottheiner, 591.

Van Alen Raps Tennis Scoring

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The master of the famed Casino Club, home of the National Tennis Museum, said today what the game needs is not a new attitude on amateurs but a different slant on scoring.

"We haven't changed scoring since the game was born in 1877," James Van Alen, Newport socialite and tennis patrol added. "Ten per cent of the people in the world don't understand it. It's awkward, out of date and not in tune with the times."

Van Alen, originator of the Van Alen Simplified Scoring System in tennis (1-2-3, etc., instead of 15s and 30s), said he was flying to Clearwater, Fla., to present his case to the meeting of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association.

Van Alen said there were three main flaws with the current scoring system in tennis, which was borrowed from royal tennis of the Middle Ages.

"It is ambiguous and no one understands it," he said. "Since games must be won by a two-point margin and sets by two-game margins—the deuce principle—there is no way of figuring when a match might end.

"Scheduling is impossible. This affects television sponsors. They won't touch it. For the avrage club player, there is no way to handicap it.

"Tennis must get abreast of the times."

Arthur Ashe: Tennis Players Prima Donnas

NEW YORK (AP) — Some of us may have suspected it, but it took Arthur Ashe Jr. to admit it —tennis players are a bunch of prima donnas.

"We're all egotists, we're all prima donnas," the young Army lieutenant, America's No. 1 court ace, told a luncheon group honoring the successful U.S. Davis Cup team yesterday.

He glanced at former Davis Cup captain Bill Talbert, one of the hosts sitting on the dais, and, apparently half in jest and half seriously, added:

"Everybody knows we just think of ourselves."

Then the articulate Ashe proceeded to give a thumb-nail sketch of his teammates, who helped him wrest the international tennis trophy from Australia in December.

"Stan Smith is the exception," he said, referring to the six-foot-four slugger from the University of Southern California who teams with Bob Lutz in doubles. "He is a thinker. He is quiet and modest. He thinks of other people."

Smith defeated Ashe in the final of the Victorian Open at Melbourne after the Davis Cup matches.

"Charlie Pasarell is the clothes horse. He's always reading Vogue Magazine. Clark Graebner, he's the stubborn type—but that's the kind to have on your side. He says he is going to play only on weekends. I hope I don't have to play him on a weekend.

"Jimmy Osborne, the sixth man on our team, came a long way this year. He will go farther."

Ashe and most of his teammates were in New York to receive the city's Certificate of Appreciation at City Hall. It was designated "U.S. Davis Cup Victory Day."

Tountas Leads Bowl Tourney

DENVER (AP) — Pete Tountas of Tucson, Ariz., remained on top by 11 pins after four rounds yesterday in the Professional Bowlers Association's $45,000 Denver Open.

The 6-foot-3, 170-pound, Greek-born star rolled 1183 in last night's play to total 5143 for 24 games. Billy Hardwick of Louisville, Ky., was in the second spot with 5132.

Dick Ritger of Hartford, Wis., made the big move of the day when he shot 1346 in yesterday's six-game session to go from 10th into the third slot.

The field of 128 was cut to the top 16 who battle 16 games today for a shot at the five spots in the nationally televised finals tomorrow. Top prize is $6,000.

Look Out For Lombardi; Beban A New Hornung?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vince Lombardi, chosen to lead Washington out of the Dark Ages in Football, is looking at Heisman Trophy bust Gary Beban as the new Golden Boy for the Redskins' revival.

Lombardi marched into the nation's capital yesterday to take command of the Redskins after a decade of unprecedented greatness at Green Bay and made Beban the focus of his very first move.

Calling for complete movies of Beban's play as a rollout quarterback for UCLA, Lombardi promised a long off-season study to decide where to use Beban—with the strong possibility of turning him into a runner.

The move involked immediate memories of 10 years ago when Lombardi arrived in Green Bay and took another Heisman Trophy quarterback off the bench to make him one of football's most celebrated ball carriers the Golden Boy—Paul Hornung.

Beban, unimpressive in his brief trial as a rookie pro quarterback last year, scored more touchdowns as a runner at UCLA than he did by passing.

Lombardi stressed the need for a strong running attack and said, "The running game is what football is all about. The more you run, the more hard-nosed you are."

Lombardi, who has never coached a loser in his lifetime, is taking over a team that hasn't had a winning season since 1955.

He will be executive vice president, coach and part-owner of the Redskins under a contract that may embrace as much as a million dollars in stock and long-term salary.

"Washington is the world's capital," Lombardi said. "And we have plans to make it the football capital."

But at one point he laughed and said, "Despite what you may think, I can't walk across the Potomac—even when it's frozen."

Perhaps no coach in football history has been watched as closely as Lombardi will be next season to see if the man can match the myth.

Unknown and unsung, Lombardi came to Green Bay almost exactly a decade ago to coach a team that had won only one game the previous season.

Within two years he had his first conference title. In the next seven, he won five NFL championships and capped his triumphs with the first two Super Bowl victories.

He was smiling as much as he did when he won that first Super Bowl. He was happy to be back.

I'll Root For Little Tina Noyes To Win

SPUNKY BUNKIE — I don't know about you guys, but I'm rooting for pixieish, 20-year-old redhead from Colorado Springs, Colo. to win all the marbles tonight in the North American Figure Skating Championships at the Oakland Coliseum Arena.

Being an also-ran for much of my life in anything ranging from hop scotch to patty cake to liar's dice to column writing, I am forever pulling for the underdogs. My heart bleeds for sportsdom's perennial bridesmaids (the 49ers, to name one), which is why my cheers will be directed at Tina Noyes when the girls do their twists and twirls on the ice in tonight's decisive free skating episode.

Standing in third place after yesterday's ladies' compulsory-figures competition, pretty Tina will have to go some to bypass Canada's Karen Magnussen and Janet Lynn, the new U.S. champion, who are 1-2.

Destined For The Shadows

But Tina seems destined to stand in the shadows. You see, she had the misfortune of growing up at the same time as a lass named Peggy Fleming who, you must remember, went on to conquer all worlds in figure skating.

For 12 years she and Peggy had gone through the same competition and only once, when she was 14, did Miss Noyes beat Miss Fleming.

Now, with Peggy turned pro, this was to the Tina's year to emerge from the shadows into the spotlight, but lo and behold the heartbreak girl has hit more cracks in the ice—similar to the 1968 Olympics when she missed a bronze medal by one-tenth of a point.

Last week in Seattle, for example, she was the favorite in the nationals and . . . well, let her tell it as she did in Oakland the other day:

"I was excited getting ready for the nationals," she started off. "I felt, at last, that maybe I would win the title I had worked so long for. But, you know, everything seemed to go wrong.

It All Started With Dress

"It started when my dressmaker in Colorado made my dress wrong, and we had to send to California for more material. Then someone put an iron on my free-skating dress and ruined it.

"Then we had a terrible air trip from Colorado to the west coast. We roared down the runway at Denver, and then the plane slowed down. A few feet farther down the runway and, I'm told, we would have crashed. We finally had to go to Portland, then by plane to Seattle. We arrived in Seattle six hours late, losing valuable practice time and had to look for other rinks when we got there. Everything seemed miserable, but I was skating well and had high hopes.

"After the compulsory school figures, I was almost in a first place tie. Then I drew the last position in the draw for free skating, which is generally considered the worst. I waited around about 25 minutes, and I guess I didn't skate as well as I could have."

No World Championship Trip

The rest is history. Miss Noyes finished third in a close finish that had the judges going down to the fractions of a point. But, for Tina, it meant no national title and no berth on the U.S. team for the world championship. Janet Lynn and runner-up Julie Lynn Homes made the team.

"As hard as I've worked in my skating career," said Miss Noyes, who at 20 is considered middle-aged in her sport, "it seems destined for disappointment. It's several days now since the nationals, and I can't seem to overcome the disappointment. I don't know if I can get up again for this North American championships. Yet, if I am the first American girl in the competition, I still stand an outside chance of making the world championship team."

Nearby, as photographers and reporters swarmed about new U.S. queen Janet Lynn, Miss Noyes smiled, looking cute in her mint green dress and pink ribbon in her red hair: "It's all right," she said, thinking back over 12 years of frustration, "I'm used to it!"

Which is why I'll be rooting for Tina Noyes tonight to write a heart-warming sports story on the cold ice.

To Tina goes my "Is That What's Troubling You, Bunkie" award.

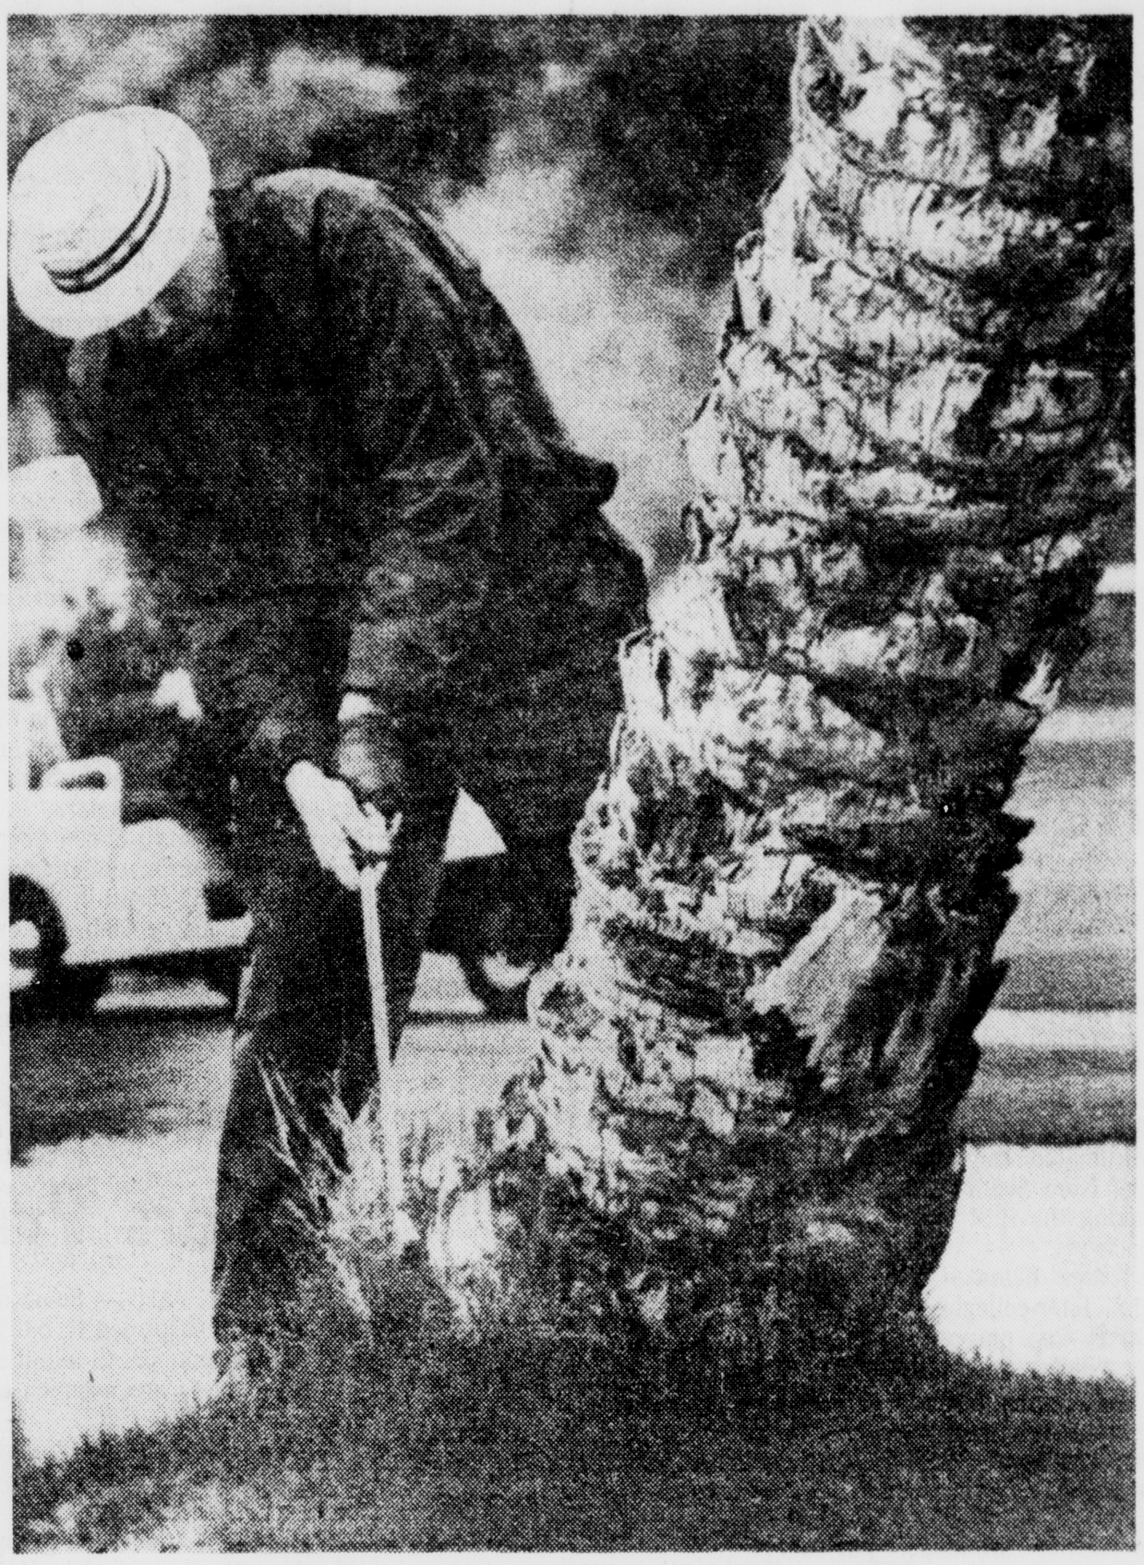
Michigan Speedway Buys Into Riverside Track

DETROIT (AP) — The newly established Michigan International Speedway has agreed to buy 47 per cent of California's Riverside International Raceway with an option to acquire up to 65.5 per cent of the facility.

Lawrence Lopatin, president of the Michigan track, located in the Irish Hills west of Detroit, said today his group had agreed to buy 600,000 shares of the California track at $2 per share.

In addition, Lopatin said, Michigan International Speedway would lend the Riverside track $1.2 million in 7½ per cent subordinated notes, convertible at $2 per share.

With the Riverside transaction, Michigan International Speedway has interests in tracks already operating or under construction in the far West, the Southeast, the Southwest and the Midwest.



OTTO'S PROBLEMS MULTIPLY

As if losing his job as coach of Washington Redskins of the National Football League wasn't enough, Otto Graham found more trouble yesterday when his ball came to rest against a palm tree during the second round of the Bop Hope Desert Golf Classic at Palm Springs. Graham, who refused comment about being replaced this week by Vince Lombardi in Washington, is competing in the Hope tournament as an eight handicap amateur.

Canadian Girl Takes Lead In Figure Skating Meet

OAKLAND (AP) — "The only place for me to go is down, but I hope I don't," declared pert Karen Magnussen as she prepared to try and wrap up the ladies' title tonight in the North American Figure Skating Championships.

Canada and the United States each have 18 athletes competing.

Miss Magnussen, a 16-year-old blonde from Vancouver, B.C., gained a narrow lead over favored Janet Lynn, 15, Rockford, Ill., yesterday in the compulsory figures—half of the ladies' program.

The second half—free skating—will help determine who might succeed Peggy Fleming as the world's best female skater.

Miss Magnussen had 1,029.1 points to 1,015.5 for Miss Lynn, the tiny U.S. champion. The Canadian champion, Linda Carbonetto, 19, was a disappointing fifth at 977.3.

Tim Wood of Detroit was favored over Canada's Jay Humphry as the men's competition opened today with compulsory figures. Men's free skating is scheduled tomorrow night.

Also shooting for a title tonight are the four-time U.S. pairs champions, Ronald and Cindy Kauffman of Seattle.

Their precision timing and smooth form brought the biggest ovation from a sparse crowd of 3,000 at the Oakland Arena and gave them 79 points for the compulsory pairs.

Going into tonight's final free skating in pairs, the U.S. teams of Kenneth Shelley and JoJo Starbuck of Los Angeles and Mark and Melissa Militano of Long Island, N.Y., rank second and third, respectively, with 74.1 and 70.7 points.

Dancing, with U.S. champions James Sladky of Rochester, N.Y. and Judy Schwomeyer of Indianapolis leading with 111.6 points after compulsory dances, continues tonight. The Canadian champions, Bruce Lennie of Weston, Ont., and Donna Taylor of Mississauga, Ont., were second with 108.5 points.

How competitors finish in these championships has no bearing on the world finals Feb. 25-March 1 in Colorado Springs, Colo., since entries from each country already have been selected.

No team scores are kept. Seven judges score a maximum of six points after each performance. But after all six entries have run through their routines, the judges award places, which counts more in the over-all standings.

Prep Wrestlers Vie In Marin Loop Meet

Novato High School shoots for a fifth straight team championship when the Marin County Athletic League Wrestling Tournament gets underway with preliminary matches tomorrow 10 a.m. at San Rafael High School.

Novato again will be heavily favored to take the title, although Tamalpais is expected to put up a strong fight.

Finals are slated for 3:30 p.m.

The top three finishers in each weight division will qualify for the North Coast Section meet at Hayward High School in Pacifica Feb. 15.

Oaks To Open Road Trip Vs. Kentucky

LOUISVILLE (AP) — The Oakland Oaks, still smarting from their worst loss of the season, open a two-game road trip tonight against the Kentucky Colonels.

Upended 119 - 105 by Denver last Sunday in Oakland, The Oaks saw their season record dip to 38-6, a mark that still leaves them 12½ games ahead of Denver in the American Basketball Association's Western Division.

Hecker Expected To Assist Vince

ATLANTA (AP) — Norb Hecker, former Atlanta Falcon coach, is expected to become an assistant under Vince Lombardi, new coach of the Washington Redskins.

Hecker, contacted at his home here yesterday, declined to comment on the Washington report.

Bills, O.J. Simpson Are 'Miles Apart'

Salary Wrangle Begins

BUFFALO (UPI)—Ralph Wilson Jr. seems to be having as much trouble trying to tackle O. J. Simpson as most of the Southern California opponents did this season.

Wilson said yesterday that he was "miles apart" with Simpson after having a six-hour salary negotiation with the all-America's representatives.

"We concluded the first round amiably but not in accord," Wilson said. "In fact, we were miles apart."

He added facetiously, "it is hoped by the Buffalo Bills' management that at our next meeting we will narrow the gap. I am hoping we can because I would like to stay on as Buffalo owner."

Wilson met in Detroit with Chuck Barnes of Sports Headliners, Inc. and attorney David Lockton, who are representing Simpson. They are expected to be demanding a contract ranging from $600,000 to $750,000.

In the days before the common draft, Donny Anderson of Texas Tech received a five-year contract between the Packers that was announced at $600,000 but was actually supposed to be worth $711,000 when the fringe benefits were included.

Lew Alcindor is supposed to bargain for a million-dollar contract when he leaves UCLA but he has the advantage of being able to dicker with two leagues.

Wilson said he and the negotiators had agreed to meet again soon but no date has been set for the meetings.

Light Heavy Foster Voted Boxer Of Year

He outpolled Joe Frazier, recognized as heavyweight champion in five states, 20 votes to 17, after leading Frazier in the first balloting of the New York Boxing Writers Association, 16-15.

The 30-year-old Foster won the light heavyweight title last year by knocking out Dick Tiger and also scored three non-title KO victories in 1968. He defended his title this year by stopping Frank DePaula in one round. Of his 34 victories in 38 bouts, 28 were knockouts.

Nino Benvenuti of Italy and Middleweight champion bantamweight titleholder Lionel Rose of Australia collected three votes each on the first ballot, necessitating the runoff.

PALM SPRINGS (AP) — Scrawled in chalk on a big board in the press tent was the message:

Weather perfect. Temperature 80.

Both board and message were gone today as the 90-hole Bob Hope Desert Golf Classic ventured — pherhaps perilously— into the third round.

Leading the way was Rod Funseth, with a 36-hole score of 69-66—135, nine shots under par for the distance.

One stroke back was National Open champion Lee Trevino, 67-69—136. Billy Casper was down with 71-68—139. That round yesterday included a hole-in-one on the 207-yard 11th hole at Tamarisk Country Club.

And further back were such esteemed golfers as Jack Nicklaus, 72-71—143, and the three-time defending champion, Arnold Palmer, 72-73—145.

The marathon tournament ends Sunday. To some, it would be a blessing if the end came sooner.

What happened to the missing sign?

It disappeared sometime yesterday from the press tent at Indian Wells Country Club, host club for the 1969 Hope.

It was probably when cold winds were almost whipping the flaps off the tent, the lights were rocking above and there was the suspicion the whole structure might take off.

No one really wanted to step outside, however, because it was raining up a storm. This condition began early in the morning, stopped, bowed out momentarily for a bright rainbow and the sun.

Neither the sun or the rainbow could stand it long, and back came the gloomy skies and rain.

It was, old time observers agreed, the most miserable day in the 10-year-old history of the tournament.

Perhaps the finest shooting was turned in by Trevino and Casper, who got their sub par scores during the worst stages of the day.

Temperature 80, the sign said? Maybe so, because electric heaters were working overtime in the press tent.

Redwood Vs. San Rafael In Key Game

Second half of the Marin County Athletic League basketball schedule gets under way tonight and there could be some changes made in the first division.

The front-running Redwood High School Giants put their 6-1 won-lost record on the line against dangerous San Rafael Bulldogs (5-2) in the evening's feature attraction at Redwood's Larkspur gymnasium.

Elsewhere, Novato (5-2) plays at Drake (3-4) in San Anselmo, Tamalpais (4-3) hosts Marin Catholic (1-6) in Mill Valley, and San Marin (0-7) of Novato plays at Terra Linda (4-3).

All action will start with junior varsity preliminary games at 7 o'clock followed immediately by the varsity games.

All eyes will be on Larkspur where San Rafael will be gunning for its second upset over Coach Dick Hart's Giants. In their first round meeting the Bulldogs eked out a 56-55 victory, but since then Redwood has stormed back to win six straight.

Charlie Sifford's Due For Bid To Masters

This was not the first police escort Charlie has gotten in Los Angeles. Only, the last time was late at night, and the red lights were flashing, and they broke off the parade to put Charlie on the side of the car with his hands on the roof while they frisked his jacket and threw open the trunk and said "Aha!" when they found it full of several sets of golf sticks.

Had Charlie knocked over a few sporting goods stores? No, Charlie told them: All he had done was knock in a few putts. These clubs were the gifts of sporting goods manufacturers who hoped he would use them eventually to win the Masters, or the National Open, or some such elite event.

CHARLIE SIFFORD is one of the recognizable athletic silhouettes of our day, now, unlike that time many years ago when he had to offer to take the police to a driving range to demonstrate that he was, too, a championship golfer. Chances are today a policeman who stopped him would want his autograph, not his hands in the air.

The proposition before he house now, is how does Charlie go about crashing the last barricade to membership in golf's front-of-the-bus — play in the Masters.

MUCH HAS been made of the fact there are 14 ways you can get in the Masters. Let us match up Charlie's qualifications against those requirements. On the left are the eligibility requirements, on the right Charlie's fitness or lack of same:

1 — Former Masters champions — lifetime exempt. (Well, obviously, Charlie cannot be a former champion in a tournament he has never got in.)

2 — U.S. Open champions — five years. (Charlie has never won a U.S. Open. Neither has Sam Snead. Neither have 90% of the players in the Masters field.)

3— U.S. Amateur champions. (An amateur is a guy who doesn't have to play golf for money. Charlie lost his eligibility at about the age of 10.)

4 — British Open champions. (The only way Charlie could afford to get to the British Open till the past couple of years was to swim.)

6 — PGA champions — five years. (The PGA had a "Caucasians only" clause the first 14 years of Charlie's career. This tournament has been won by one older man, Julius Boros, but Julie had almost 20 years of practice in it by then.)

7— 1968 Ryder Cup team. (You get Ryder Cup points from your play in the Masters, for instance. And over a two-year period. A guy who piles up 100 or more Ryder points in a tournament Charlie can't even play in, is like a guy who gets the first look at the dice in a dark room. Johnny Pott nailed down the last spot on the last Ryder Cup team in the Masters, for example.)

8 — World Amateur team. (There's that word again.)

9 — First 24 players including ties from last year's Masters. (Well, there goes 24 more places, Charlie!)

10 — First 16 players including ties from last year's National Open. (Well, at least, there's a crack in the door here, but it's not very wide. A lot of Hall of Fame players didn't make the cut in last year's Open. Sifford did and beat a lot of them, including the Masters winner, but fell well short of 16th.)

11 — First eight players of PGA. (Pass.)

12— First eight players U.S. Amateur. ("Daddy, what's an amateur?")

13 — One player not on invitational list selected by ballot of former champions. (Now, we're getting someplace! These guys in the past have invited in cronies on sentiment alone, some of them having as much right in that field as a burro in the Kentucky Derby.)

14 — Six professionals on PGA circuit who establish best full-year showing. (This is the regulation the Masters use as their "out." Charlie can shoot his way in, can't he?)

Charlie could also get in if he were the Chinese or Turko-Roman champion, or runner-up in the Formosa Open, or the All-Madrid City Championship.

THE BARRIERS thrown up remind me of the guy who shoots a kid's parents and then the kid is deprived of his inheritance on the grounds he's an orphan. The 21 former Masters champions can right an historic wrong this April (up until 100 years after the Emancipation Proclamation, their organization was annually voting 60-to-17 against permitting Negroes — until federal officials began rattling briefs at them in the clubhouse). Now that Charlie's won a tournament, inviting him in would be no more than a "gimmie." Charlie's inside the leather. He could probably make the putt by himself, but for the 14 years they kept him out of the "Contestants Only" room, they should invite him in.

Finley Tells Unsigned A's Pack Lunch, Go To Work

OAKLAND (AP) — Charles O. Finley, owner of the Oakland Athletics, has told his players they won't be able to work out during spring training unless they have signed contracts.

The Oakland Tribune quoted Finley yesterday as saying, "In the past, players have come to camp unsigned and worked out by themselves after the team left the field. Not this spring."

Finley told the Tribune from his Chicago office that he would use players from Triple-A teams if major league players carried out a strike threat and added:

"The players can strike if they want. We are going to play ball and, if they don't want to play ball, they can wrap up some sandwiches, pack a lunch bucket and go to work."

EX-CHAMPS HELP NOVATO BOXING SHOW

THE FINANCIAL REPORT

Good, Bad News For Giants

By JACK HANLEY

Horace Stoneman has just finished preparation of his annual report to stockholders of National Exhibition Company which owns the San Francisco Giants. The report by the president contains good and bad news.

"The company experienced a loss from operations of $179,000 for the year ended Oct. 31, 1968," is the bad news.

"But the company had net income of $2,250,000," is the good news. "Net income of this magnitude is the result of extraordinary income derived from the award for condemnation of the Polo Grounds and the company's share of proceeds from the two new expansion teams of the National League."

Those are the highlights of Stoneham's report which he will make to stockholders at their annual meeting Feb. 17 at legal headquarters of the company in Jersey City, N.J.

SHARP DROPOFF

Stoneham has no trouble whatsoever in pinpointing the reason for the $179,000 deficit. It was a sharp droopoff in Candlestick Park attendance during 1968.

"Although finishing second for the fourth consecutive year, the San Francisco Giants' home attendance for 1968 was 837,220, a decrease of 405,260 from 1967," he reported.

"This was mainly attributable to the move of the Kansas City American League franchise to Oakland, thus diluting the baseball market in the San Francisco Bay Area.

"The Giants led the National League in attendance on the road in 1968 with a total of 1,585,762. This marked the seventh time in the past eight years that the Giants have been the leaders in National League road attendance."

Net receipts from baseball games in 1968 was $2,935,806, down more than $1 million from $3,984,262 in 1967. Revenue from radio, television and concession privileges was $1,929,944 in 1968, up more than $150,000 from $1,754,398 in 1967. Operation of the company's hotel and related facilities at Casa Grande returned $758,531, up almost $200,000 from $566,400 in 1967.

Total income, excluding the extraordinary items of $1,028,924 from the Polo Grounds condemnation award and $1.4 million from the expansion clubs, amounted to $5,624,281. Operating expenses totaled $6,033,380, leaving a $409,099 deficit. An estimated income tax expense credit of $230,000 chopped the operating loss to $179,099.

The loss is equivalent to $17.24 a share but stockholders needn't be concerned by that paper loss. The extraordinary income from the Polo Grounds and the Montreal and San Diego expansion clubs was equal to $206.70 a share. That, too, is on paper. But common stock is listed for cash dividends of $18 per share in 1968.

Vince To Find Things Difficult

By MIKE RATHET

NEW YORK (AP) — It is more than likely that in moving from Green Bay to Washington Vince Lombardi will be the instrument that will destroy his own standing as a legend.

For it will be difficult, if not impossible, for Lombardi to duplicate the success he achieved with the Packers—simply because 1969 is not 1959.

To understand that is to understand how Lombardi built the Packers by judicious trades, brilliant drafting and perfect knowledge, understanding and manipulation of the resources available when he first arrived for the 1959 season.

Some of the resouces, however, no longer exist.

First, to disspell a portion of the legend, Lombardi did not take over a Green Bay team without any talent and make it a winner. What he did was take a team with potential, strengthen it, mold it and maintain it.

To look at the roster in 1958 is to find such names as Bart Starr, Paul Hornung, Jim Taylor, Forrest Gregg, Jim Ringo, Jerry Kramer, Max McGee, Ray Nitschke—the names that made the Packers what they were during the Lombardi era.

That club posted a 1-10-1 record. Two years later, Lombardi had the Packers in the championship game, and when his nine-year reign ended he had won six Western titles, five league championships, including the last three in a row, and the first two Super Bowls.

He did it, however, in different circumstances than exist now.

That is not to say that the Redskins don't have the same potential—for there is legitimate talent on a team with such names as Sonny Jurgensen and Charlie Taylor.

The means to build as quickly, and maintain once built, however, are not the same.

When Lombardi conducted his first draft and tapped a guy named Boyd Dowler there were only 12 teams vying for talent among the colleges. Now there are 26.

Where Lombardi was able to get every 12th best player in the country—in his first three drafts he selected such people as Dowler, Bob Jeter, Herb Adderley, Ron Kostelnik, Elijah Pitts—he now must settle for every 26th.

In addition, the recent expansion drafts stocking the new Atlanta and New Orleans club have further thinned talent.

And when Lombardi finally had built, and wanted to maintain, he was able to play the future market, selecting a player such as Donny Anderson who still had a year of college eligibility left and wait for him to finish.

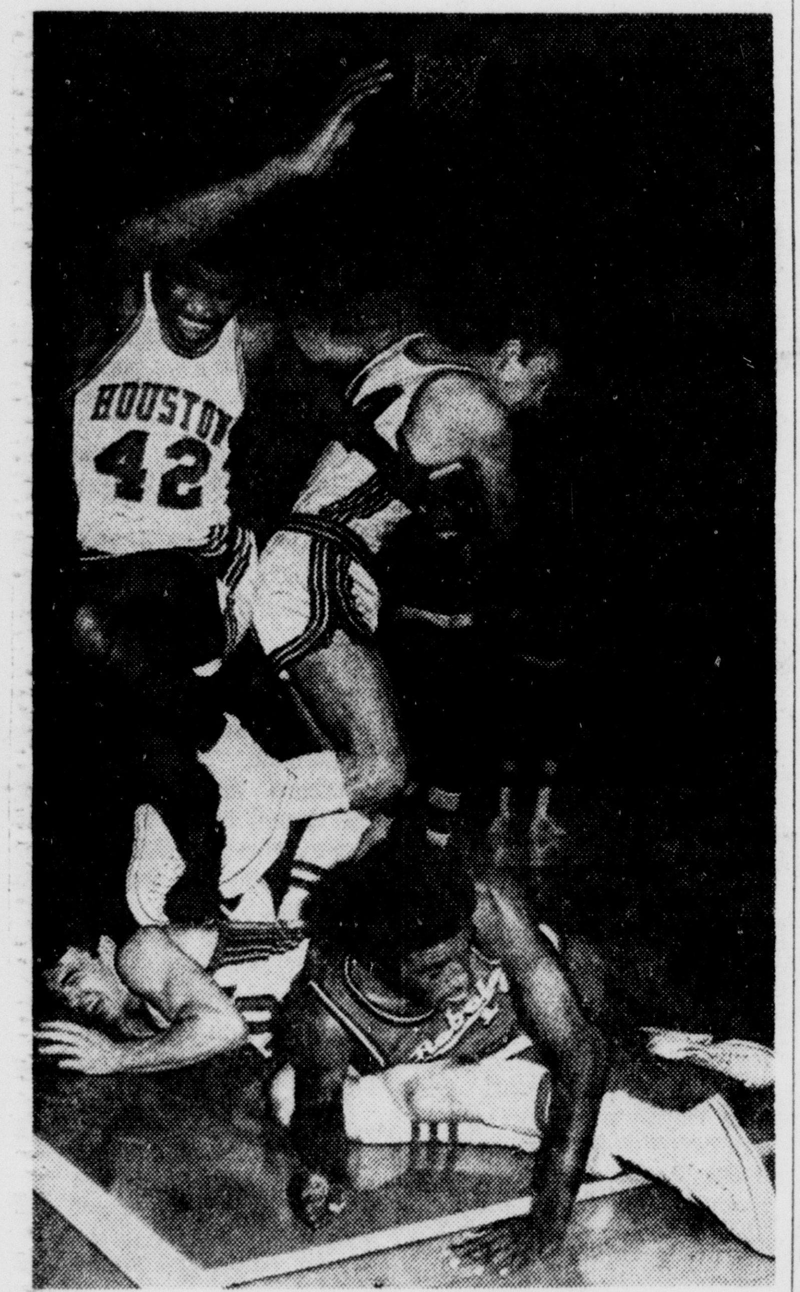
Now futures cannot be drafted, leaving Lombardi less room to operate within the rules of the sport.

As for trades, Lombardi still can maneuver in that area, and possibly find a Willie Davis as he did at Cleveland and acquire him for an A.D. Williams or find a Henry Jordan as he did at Baltimore and acquire him for a fourth draft choice.

But now that has to be more difficult too, for the Lombardi his colleagues were not overly concerned with in 1959 is a colleague whom they have learned to be wary of in the decade that has passed.

It also must be remembered that the Potomac River around Washington is considerably more formidable than the Fox River around Green Bay.

And that will make it just a bit more difficult to walk on water.



IT'S A 'NON-CONTACT' SPORT

Bodies were flying all over the court in Houston last night during the University of Houston - U. of Nevada basketball game. Campbell Driver To Try Indy 500

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — George Benson of Campbell was nominated yesterday for his first attempt to drive in the Indianapolis 500 mile race.

Benson, the first rookie entry of the year, will drive the new Maxson Special entered by Darwin Maxson of Downey. He has been driving in the U.S. Auto Club's midget division for eight years.

Seven entries have now been received for the Memorial Day race and officials expect about 70 before the April 15 deadline.

Laver Vs. Pasarell In Net Quarterfinals

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Top-seeded Rod Laver of Australia meets Charles Pasarell of Puerto Rico, one of two surviving amateurs, tonight in the quarterfinals of the Philadelphia International Indoor Open tennis championships.

Jan Kodes, amateur champ from Czechoslovakia, will meet Tom Okker of the Netherlands; newest recruit to the pro ranks; Spanish pro Andrs Gimeno will play fourth-seeded Ken Rosewall of Australia; and third-ranked Tony Roche of Australia will face the veteran Pancho Gonzales of Los Angeles in the other matches.

Laver overpowered Butch Buchholz of St. Louis, 6-1, 7-5, last night in a tight match decided after Buchholz fought off two match points in the 12th game. Buchholz then double faulted and lost the match by backhanding a volley over the base line.

Pasarell, winner of the All-Amateur Philadelphia tournaments in 1966 and 1967, eliminated Nikki Pilic, the 6-foot-3, lefthanded pro from Yugoslavia, 6-2, 6-3.

The 31-year-old Gimeno upset fifth-ranked John Newcombe, Australian pro, 9-7, 6-3, running the last three games with the loss of only five points. Rosewell was in top form as he eliminated Ray Moore, a new pro from South Africa, 6-4, 6-1, taking the first three games in each set.

Kodes defeated Stan Smith, U.S. inter-collegiate champ and Davis Cup player, 6-2, 2-6, 6-2, by winning the first four games in the third set. Okker weathered a marathon ordeal to defeat Roger Taylor, English pro, 4-6, 6-3, 13-11.

Roche, second only to Laver in money winnings, put out Marty Riessen, an American who turned pro last summer, 10-8, 6-2, running out the second set from 2-2. The 45-year-old Gonzales, his drives as powerful as ever, defeated Thomas Koch, the big and husky Brazilian amateur, 6-3, 7-5.

UCLA, Santa Clara Cagers Resume Play On Weekend

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Unbeaten UCLA and Santa Clara don't figure to change their status this weekend as they each host a couple of conference foes in cage action.

The nationally top-ranked Bruins are at home to Washington and Washington State, who are tied for second in the Pacific Eight behind the Bruins with 4-1 marks. A Husky or Cougar win would cause turmoil to the national collegiate cage scene, but the Bruins have yet to lose on their home floor in two seasons.

Third-ranked Santa Clara faces Loyola and Pepperdine,

The Broncs got a good boost toward their expected West Coast Athletic Conference title last night when Santa Barbara defeated University of Pacific 84-69 to leave both teams at 4-2 in the conference race. Bill Sticker had 32 for the Tigers while Steve Rippe's 19 points led five Gauchos who were in double figures.

But San Jose State gamely stayed in range of the Broncs by taking St. Mary's 89-74 to move the Spartans to 5-1 in conference play. Coby Dietrick hit 20 while Chris Dayak paced the losers with 14.

USC also hosts the two Washington clubs this weekend while Cal meets Oregon State tonight and Oregon tomorrow. and Stanford reverses the procedure.

Grid Coach To Help Coach Baseballers

SAN JOSE (UPI) — Gene Menges has been appointed co-coach of the San Jose State College baseball team.

Menges, a San Jose State graduate and assistant football coach, joins Ed Sobzcak, who has guided the Spartans since 1956.

Staubach Is Still In There Pitching

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Roger Staubach, who won the 1963 Heisman trophy as Navy's quarterback, is still in there pitching. Roger threw four touchdown passes as the Pensacola Navy team beat Youngstown State University 58-38.

Reports are that Staubach will join the Dallas Cowboys for the 1969 football season.

MARIN BOWLING HIGHLIGHTS

San Rafael's High Rollers

By RALPH CHATOIAN

The guys in the 670 Scratch League at Country Club Bowl had reason to be proud over their pin-busting scores at the San Rafael lanes.

Six of the bowlers had scores of 600 or better, and there were 25 games over the 200 mark. High on the list was Al Hoffmann with a 280 game and 689 series, Sandy Slack, 268-674, and Rich Curry, 250-629.

THIS AND THAT — Terry De Young of Novato came close to making the nationals in the Bay Area Bowling Proprietors all-star tourney in San Francisco, but finished sixth. Top three qualified for the nationals, and Terry fell 337 pins short after bowling 32 games. Dick Treadway of Corte Madera, the other Marin Countian in the finals, finished last in the 16-man final roll-offs. . . . Treadway had high score in Marin this week, 723 series in the 910 Travel. . . . Mike Tauscher came close to that elusive 700 mark with his 696 series (topped by a 267 game) in the Nite Owls at Country Club. . . . Elmer Tynes was star bowler of the Lutheran Late League at Country Club Bowl, 668 series.

STRIKES TO SPARE —Linda Swann has hiked her average from 110 to 140 already this season and last time out in the Magic Fours League rolled her first 500 series, a 534. . . . Lou Ahrens of the Ladies 622 Classic rolled an all-spare game, 183, Greenbrae Lanes . . . Marlene Soldavini of the Triple Threat League had her first, 500 series, a 512. . . . If that 690 (211-225-254) series by Chuck Luby in the TGIF League at Country Club wasn't eough, he also tossed a 233-644 in the Weekenders. . . . Penny Conti led all Marin County women bowlers this past week with a 652 series in the 615 Classic at Country Club, the exact series score she had last week in that league. Then in the Hi-Lo's, she rolled eight strikes in a row on her way to a 266 game and wound up with a 591 series.

DOWN THE LANES — Lyn Tippens has a 149 average in the Striking Trios, but rolled 230—564 to crack the honor roll at Country Club. . . . Chuck Akins, 156 average, overdid his norm by exactly 100 pins, 256 in the Twilite Twirlers League. . . . Larry King (152 avg.) almost ent 100 over in the Mixed Mates, 243, leading to a 638 series. . . . Paul Chaffee, that former southpaw baseball hurler, likes to improve on his score slowly: just look at that 172-173-174 score in the Friday Nite Leftovers at Nave Lanes. . . . In the Lutheran Early, Robert Schoen led the way with 232-652 and Sherry Tauscher rolled her first 200 and 500, like 219—506. . . . George Buston was the kingpin of the Novato Unified Bowlers at Nave Lanes, 226—628.

DOWN THE LANES — Delores Ray rolled a 235 in the Gutter Belles League at Greenbrae Lanes, and Joan Porter came an eyelash away from a triplicate, 147-146-146. . . . Hagel Supply team had a total of 1,018 pins, highlight of the Northern California Merchants League at Greenbrae. . . . Ken Moran (160 avg.) of the Hi-Lo's rolled a 607 series. . . . Maureen Moresco went over the 200 plateau for the initial time in the St. Isabella's Women's League at Nave Lanes, 210. . . . Split time in the Marin County Mixed Travel League at Nave Lanes, Larry Asay converting the 6-7-10 . . . Bea Hoffmann cashed the 6-7-10 split in the Week-Enders League at Country Club. . . . In the San Quentin Mixed Fours, Joe Stocker led the way with a 255 and Steve Evans rolled his first 200, a 205. . . . In junior action, Rich McPherson led the way at Country Club Bowl, 214-621, and tops at Greenbrae Lanes were Wayne Ziegler, 244, and Ron Gottheiner, 591.

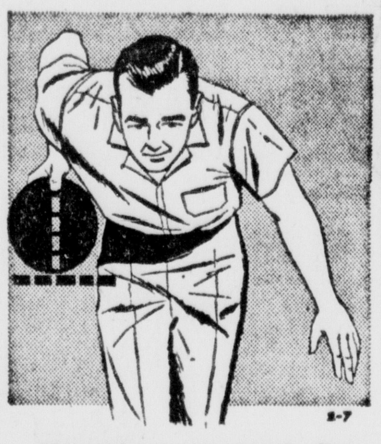
Bowling Tips

By DON CARTER



The wrist must remain firm throughout the delivery. Try to imagine your thumb is perpendicular to a line running parallel to the floor. This position may vary a little bit if you have set the thumb slightly to the left with the intention of throwing a hook, but basically this "perpendicular" idea should be kept in mind.

Van Alen Raps Tennis Scoring

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The master of the famed Casino Club, home of the National Tennis Museum, said today what the game needs is not a new attitude on amateurs but a different slant on scoring.

"We haven't changed scoring since the game was born in 1877," James Van Alen, Newport socialite and tennis patrol added. "Ten per cent of the people in the world don't understand it. It's awkward, out of date and not in tune with the times."

Van Alen, originator of the Van Alen Simplified Scoring System in tennis (1-2-3, etc., instead of 15s and 30s), said he was flying to Clearwater, Fla., to present his case to the meeting of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association.

Van Alen said there were three main flaws with the current scoring system in tennis, which was borrowed from royal tennis of the Middle Ages.

"It is ambiguous and no one understands it," he said. "Since games must be won by a two-point margin and sets by two-game margins—the deuce principle—there is no way of figuring when a match might end.

"Scheduling is impossible. This affects television sponsors. They won't touch it. For the average club player, there is no way to handicap it.

"Tennis must get abreast of the times."

Arthur Ashe: Tennis Players Prima Donnas

NEW YORK (AP) — Some of us may have suspected it, but it took Arthur Ashe Jr. to admit it —tennis players are a bunch of prima donnas.

"We're all egotists, we're all prima donnas," the young Army lieutenant, America's No. 1 court ace, told a luncheon group honoring the successful U.S. Davis Cup team yesterday.

He glanced at former Davis Cup captain Bill Talbert, one of the hosts sitting on the dais, and, apparently half in jest and half seriously, added:

"Everybody knows we just think of ourselves."

Then the articulate Ashe proceeded to give a thumb-nail sketch of his teammates, who helped him wrest the international tennis trophy from Australia in December.

"Stan Smith is the exception," he said, referring to the six-foot-four slugger from the University of Southern California who teams with Bob Lutz in doubles. "He is a thinker. He is quiet and modest. He thinks of other people."

Smith defeated Ashe in the final of the Victorian Open at Melbourne after the Davis Cup matches.

"Charlie Pasarell is the clothes horse. He's always reading Vogue Magazine. Clark Graebner, he's the stubborn type—but that's the kind to have on your side. He says he is going to play only on weekends. I hope I don't have to play him on a weekend.

"Jimmy Osborne, the sixth man on our team, came a long way this year. He will go farther."

Ashe and most of his teammates were in New York to receive the city's Certificate of Appreciation at City Hall. It was designated "U.S. Davis Cup Victory Day."

Tountas Leads Bowl Tourney

DENVER (AP) — Pete Tountas of Tucson, Ariz., remained on top by 11 pins after four rounds yesterday in the Professional Bowlers Association's $45,000 Denver Open.

The 6-foot-3, 170-pound, Greek-born star rolled 1183 in last night's play to total 5143 for 24 games. Billy Hardwick of Louisville, Ky., was in the second spot with 5132.

Dick Ritger of Hartford, Wis., made the big move of the day when he shot 1346 in yesterday's six-game session to go from 10th into the third slot.

The field of 128 was cut to the top 16 who battle 16 games today for a shot at the five spots in the nationally televised finals tomorrow. Top prize is $6,000.

'Citizens For Quality Education' Organize

A group of Petaluma parents calling themselves "Citizens for Quality Education" have met at the home of Kenneth H. Styles to discuss the lack of communication between school boards and parents.

Mrs. Styles said the group was of the opinion Wednesday that the great faith placed in schools has been shaken considerably. "It's time to stop all these experimental classes and get back to teacher the three Rs," Mrs. Styles said.

The group plans to serve as a lobby before the Petaluma Board of Education, but does not plan to take a hostile attitude. "We'll go before the school board as a group when necessary, but we hope it won't be," she said. "We want to maintain a good relationship with both the board and administration."

The group is presently concerned with opposing KQED's "Time of Your Life" film series being considered by the Petaluma board for use in the family program. Superintendent Lesly H. Meyer has recommended the controversial series be used on a voluntary basis.

Noting that three of the five board seats are up for election June 10, Mrs. Styles said her group will be seeking candidates that will carry out their goals.

The group will meet again soon, according to Mrs. Styles, but no date has been set.

Law Enforcement Task Force Studies Priorities

Tentative priorities for consideration by the Law Enforcement Task Force of the Association of Bay Area Governments have been announced by the task force chairman, Edward S. Kreins.

Kreins, former Sausalito police chief who is now police administrator at Pleasant Hill, has asked Marin and other Bay Area police chiefs to evaluate the list and offer suggestions in time for inclusion in the group's first report, due March 1.

Priorities listed by Kreins include determiniation of deficiencies in departmental operation; improvement of community relations programs; expansion of community involvement in law enforcement; improvement of the functions of local government in the prevention and control of crime.

Review of manpower needs and assurance of proper utilization of personnel; improvement of the quality of police personnel; coordination and pooling of selected police services; development of guidelines on police policy and strengthening central staff functions which provide research and crime analysis.

The initial report will establish definite priorities to be worked on over a period of five years with federal money allocated in the Omnibus Crime and Safe Streets Act.

Homeowners Eye Civic Problems

Loch Lomond Home Owners Assn. directors have set a general meeting to discuss the two proposed San Rafael city charter amendments and to elect three board members.

The meeting will be at 8 p.m., March 12, at San Pedro Elementary School.

Support of the amendments, one to extend the term of the mayor from two to four years and the other to expand membership on two commissions and one city board, were discussed Wednesday but no action taken. The board, reported president Andrew J. Ring, was divided in its feelings and decided to call a general meeting.

Directors agreed to support the San Rafael Elementary School District's $2.1 million bond measure on the Feb. 18 ballot for construction of Glenwood Middle School.

The election is to fill positions of three directors, Mrs. Janet Froman, Paul Winton and Joseph Garbarino, whose terms expire March 12.

Demos To Hear Sen. Beilenson

State Sen. Anthony C. Beilenson of Los Angeles will be the featured speaker at a Marin Democratic Assembly meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Bob's of Marin, Corte Madera.

Beilenson, the author of the state's Therapeutic Abortion Act in 1967 and unsuccessful candidate last year for the Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate, is to speak on "Sacramento in 1969."

Program chairman Franzblau siad the meeting will be open to the public.

Marinite's Machine Gun Case Moved

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — Further proceedings in the case of a 20-year-old Sausalito musician and two companions, charged with illegal possession of machine guns, will be held in Los Angeles, U. S. Commissioner Richard S. Goldsmith of Mill Valley said yesterday.

The transfer has been agreed on between U.S. attorney's offices in San Francisco and Los Angeles, since two of the men are from the Los Angeles area.

Michael Maloney of Gate 1, Sausalito, was arrested Jan. 17 by federal alcohol, tobacco and firearms agents and San Francisco and Oakland police.

Arrested with him were Albert C. Holbett, 31, of Newport Beach, and James Winterbourne, 29, of Capistrano Beach. The three were arrested after unloading a trailer of weapons and ammunition at a San Francisco warehouse, federal agents said.

Indictment in the case will be returned in Los Angeles and the men are, in effect, relinquishing their right to a preliminary hearing, Goldsmith said. He has continued the matter until Feb. 17 at which time the men are to appear in U. S. District Court in Los Angeles.

Flood Advisers To Talk Budget

The Novato Flood Control Advisory Board will meet at 8 p.m. Monday at the Novato Community House to discuss a preliminary budget for 1969-70 year.

The board, headed by William K. Mayo, will ultimately make fiscal recommendations to the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

Charles Murphy, flood control officer for the county, said yesterday he was still compiling preliminary budget figures for presentatpon to the advisory board Monday.

The 1968-69 budget is $269,700, supported by a 11.5 cent tax rate.

Charlie Sifford's Due For Bid To Masters

This was not the first police escort Charlie has gotten in Los Angeles. Only, the last time was late at night, and the red lights were flashing, and they broke off the parade to put Charlie on the side of the car with his hands on the roof while they frisked his jacket and threw open the trunk and said "Aha!" when they found it full of several sets of golf sticks.

Had Charlie knocked over a few sporting goods stores? No, Charlie told them: All he had done was knock in a few putts. These clubs were the gifts of sporting goods manufacturers who hoped he would use them eventually to win the Masters, or the National Open, or some such elite event.

CHARLIE SIFFORD is one of the recognizable athletic silhouettes of our day, now, unlike that time many years ago when he had to offer to take the police to a driving range to demonstrate that he was, too, a championship golfer. Chances are today a policeman who stopped him would want his autograph, not his hands in the air.

The proposition before he house now, is how does Charlie go about crashing the last barricade to membership in golf's front-of-the-bus — play in the Masters.

MUCH HAS been made of the fact there are 14 ways you can get in the Masters. Let us match up Charlie's qualifications against those requirements. On the left are the eligibility requirements, on the right Charlie's fitness or lack of same:

1 — Former Masters champions — lifetime exempt. (Well, obviously, Charlie cannot be a former champion in a tournament he has never got in.)

2 — U.S. Open champions — five years. (Charlie has never won a U.S. Open. Neither has Sam Snead. Neither have 90% of the players in the Masters field.)

3— U.S. Amateur champions. (An amateur is a guy who doesn't have to play golf for money. Charlie lost his eligibility at about the age of 10.)

4 — British Open champions. (The only way Charlie could afford to get to the British Open till the past couple of years was to swim.)

6 — PGA champions — five years. (The PGA had a "Caucasians only" clause the first 14 years of Charlie's career. This tournament has been won by one older man, Julius Boros, but Julie had almost 20 years of practice in it by then.)

7— 1968 Ryder Cup team. (You get Ryder Cup points from your play in the Masters, for instance. And over a two-year period. A guy who piles up 100 or more Ryder points in a tournament Charlie can't even play in, is like a guy who gets the first look at the dice in a dark room. Johnny Pott nailed down the last spot on the last Ryder Cup team in the Masters, for example.)

9 — First 24 players including ties from last year's Masters. (Well, there goes 24 more places, Charlie!)

10 — First 16 players including ties from last year's National Open. (Well, at least, there's a crack in the door here, but it's not very wide. A lot of Hall of Fame players didn't make the cut in last year's Open. Sifford did and beat a lot of them, including the Masters winner, but fell well short of 16th.)

11 — First eight players of PGA. (Pass.)

12— First eight players U.S. Amateur. ("Daddy, what's an amateur?")

13 — One player not on invitational list selected by ballot of former champions. (Now, we're getting someplace! These guys in the past have invited in cronies on sentiment alone, some of them having as much right in that field as a burro in the Kentucky Derby.)

14 — Six professionals on PGA circuit who establish best full-year showing. (This is the regulation the Masters use as their "out." Charlie can shoot his way in, can't he?)

Charlie could also get in if he were the Chinese or Turko-Roman champion, or runner-up in the Formosa Open, or the All-Madrid City Championship.

THE BARRIERS thrown up remind me of the guy who shoots a kid's parents and then the kid is deprived of his inheritance on the grounds he's an orphan. The 21 former Masters champions can right an historic wrong this April (up until 100 years after the Emancipation Proclamation, their organization was annually voting 60-to-17 against permitting Negroes — until federal officials began rattling briefs at them in the clubhouse). Now that Charlie's won a tournament, inviting him in would be no more than a "gimmie." Charlie's inside the leather. He could probably make the putt by himself, but for the 14 years they kept him out of the "Contestants Only" room, they should invite him in.

Finley Tells Unsigned A's Pack Lunch, Go To Work

OAKLAND (AP) — Charles O. Finley, owner of the Oakland Athletics, has told his players they won't be able to work out during spring training unless they have signed contracts.

The Oakland Tribune quoted Finley yesterday as saying, "In the past, players have come to camp unsigned and worked out by themselves after the team left the field. Not this spring."

Finley told the Tribune from his Chicago office that he would use players from Triple-A teams if major league players carried out a strike threat and added:

"The players can strike if they want. We are going to play ball and, if they don't want to play ball, they can wrap up some sandwiches, pack a lunch bucket and go to work."

THE FINANCIAL REPORT

Good, Bad News For Giants

By JACK HANLEY

Horace Stoneman has just finished preparation of his annual report to stockholders of National Exhibition Company which owns the San Francisco Giants. The report by the president contains good and bad news.

"The company experienced a loss from operations of $179,000 for the year ended Oct. 31, 1968," is the bad news.

"But the company had net income of $2,250,000," is the good news. "Net income of this magnitude is the result of extraordinary income derived from the award for condemnation of the Polo Grounds and the company's share of proceeds from the two new expansion teams of the National League."

Those are the highlights of Stoneham's report which he will make to stockholders at their annual meeting Feb. 17 at legal headquarters of the company in Jersey City, N.J.

SHARP DROPOFF

Stoneham has no trouble whatsoever in pinpointing the reason for the $179,000 deficit. It was a sharp droopoff in Candlestick Park attendance during 1968.

"Although finishing second for the fourth consecutive year, the San Francisco Giants' home attendance for 1968 was 837,220, a decrease of 405,260 from 1967," he reported.

"This was mainly attributable to the move of the Kansas City American League franchise to Oakland, thus diluting the baseball market in the San Francisco Bay Area.

"The Giants led the National League in attendance on the road in 1968 with a total of 1,585,762. This marked the seventh time in the past eight years that the Giants have been the leaders in National League road attendance."

Net receipts from baseball games in 1968 was $2,935,806, down more than $1 million from $3,984,262 in 1967. Revenue from radio, television and concession privileges was $1,929,944 in 1968, up more than $150,000 from $1,754,398 in 1967. Operation of the company's hotel and related facilities at Casa Grande returned $758,531, up almost $200,000 from $566,400 in 1967.

Total income, excluding the extraordinary items of $1,028,924 from the Polo Grounds condemnation award and $1.4 million from the expansion clubs, amounted to $5,624,281. Operating expenses totaled $6,033,380, leaving a $409,099 deficit. An estimated income tax expense credit of $230,000 chopped the operating loss to $179,099.

The loss is equivalent to $17.24 a share but stockholders needn't be concerned by that paper loss. The extraordinary income from the Polo Grounds and the Montreal and San Diego expansion clubs was equal to $206.70 a share. That, too, is on paper. But common stock is listed for cash dividens of $18 per share in 1968.

'Citizens For Quality Education' Organize

A group of Petaluma parents calling themselves "Citizens for Quality Education" have met at the home of Kenneth H. Styles to discuss the lack of communication between school boards and parents.

Mrs. Styles said the group was of the opinion Wednesday that the great faith placed in schools has been shaken considerably. "It's time to stop all these experimental classes and get back to teacher the three Rs," Mrs. Styles said.

The group plans to serve as a lobby before the Petaluma Board of Education, but does not plan to take a hostile attitude. "We'll go before the school board as a group when necessary, but we hope it won't be," she said. "We want to maintain a good relationship with both the board and administration."

The group is presently concerned with opposing KQED's "Time of Your Life" film series being considered by the Petaluma board for use in the family program. Superintendent Lesly H. Meyer has recommended the controversial series be used on a voluntary basis.

Noting that three of the five board seats are up for election June 10, Mrs. Styles said her group will be seeking candidates that will carry out their goals.

The group will meet again soon, according to Mrs. Styles, but no date has been set.

Law Enforcement Task Force Studies Priorities

Tentative priorities for consideration by the Law Enforcement Task Force of the Association of Bay Area Governments have been announced by the task force chairman, Edward S. Kreins.

Kreins, former Sausalito police chief who is now police administrator at Pleasant Hill, has asked Marin and other Bay Area police chiefs to evaluate the list and offer suggestions in time for inclusion in the group's first report, due March 1.

Priorities listed by Kreins include determiniation of deficiencies in departmental operation; improvement of community relations programs; expansion of community involvement in law enforcement; improvement of the functions of local government in the prevention and control of crime.

Review of manpower needs and assurance of proper utilization of personnel; improvement of the quality of police personnel; coordination and pooling of selected police services; development of guidelines on police policy and strengthening central staff functions which provide research and crime analysis.

The initial report will establish definite priorities to be worked on over a period of five years with federal money allocated in the Omnibus Crime and Safe Streets Act.

Homeowners Eye Civic Problems

Loch Lomond Home Owners Assn. directors have set a general meeting to discuss the two proposed San Rafael city charter amendments and to elect three board members.

The meeting will be at 8 p.m., March 12, at San Pedro Elementary School.

Support of the amendments, one to extend the term of the mayor from two to four years and the other to expand membership on two commissions and one city board, were discussed Wednesday but no action taken. The board, reported president Andrew J. Ring, was divided in its feelings and decided to call a general meeting.

Directors agreed to support the San Rafael Elementary School District's $2.1 million bond measure on the Feb. 18 ballot for construction of Glenwood Middle School.

The election is to fill positions of three directors. Mrs. Janet Froman, Paul Winton and Joseph Garbarino, whose terms expire March 12.

Demos To Hear Sen. Beilenson

State Sen. Anthony C. Beilenson of Los Angeles will be the featured speaker at a Marin Democratic Assembly meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Bob's of Marin, Corte Madera.

Beilenson, the author of the state's Therapeutic Abortion Act in 1967 and unsuccessful candidate last year for the Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate, is to speak on "Sacramento in 1969."

Program chairman Franzblau siad the meeting will be open to the public.

Marinite's Machine Gun Case Moved

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — Further proceedings in the case of a 20-year-old Sausalito musician and two companions, charged with illegal possession of machine guns, will be held in Los Angeles, U. S. Commissioner Richard S. Goldsmith of Mill Valley said yesterday.

The transfer has been agreed on between U.S. attorney's offices in San Francisco and Los Angeles, since two of the men are from the Los Angeles area.

Michael Maloney of Gate 1, Sausalito, was arrested Jan. 17 by federal alcohol, tobacco and firearms agents and San Francisco and Oakland police.

Arrested with him were Albert C. Holbett, 31, of Newport Beach, and James Winterbourne, 29, of Capistrano Beach. The three were arrested after unloading a trailer of weapons and ammunition at a San Francisco warehouse, federal agents said.

Indictment in the case will be returned in Los Angeles and the men are, in effect, relinquishing their right to a preliminary hearing, Goldsmith said. He has continued the matter until Feb. 17 at which time the men are to appear in U. S. District Court in Los Angeles.

Flood Advisers To Talk Budget

The Novato Flood Control Advisory Board will meet at 8 p.m. Monday at the Novato Community House to discuss a preliminary budget for 1969-70 year.

The board, headed by William K. Mayo, will ultimately make fiscal recommendations to the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

Charles Murphy, flood control officer for the county, said yesterday he was still compiling preliminary budget figures for presentatpon to the advisory board Monday.

The 1968-69 budget is $269,700, supported by a 11.5 cent tax rate.

NEW BAGLEY ROLE?

Nixon Chooses Veneman For No. 2 Spot In HEW

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — California Assemblyman John G. Veneman, R-Modesto, today was nominated by President Nixon as Undersecretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

Selection of the 43-year-old peach farmer and veteran legislator for the number two spot in the mammoth federal department had been expected for weeks, but reportedly was opposed by the Reagan administration because his departure may cost the GOP its one-vote majority in the Assembly.

Veneman's appointment also leaves vacant his seat as chairman of the powerful Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee, and it is expected to be filled by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael. Bagley long has been a close political and personal friend of Veneman and of Veneman's new boss, former California Lt. Governor Robert H. Finch.

JOHN G. VENEMAN
New HEW undersecretary

Assembly Republicans, after 10 years as a minority, won a 41-39 edge in the November elections. Veneman's district has more Democrats than Republicans, and it is considered a toss-up whether his seat will be retained by the Republicans.

However, even if Veneman's seat goes to the Democrats in the special election the governor will have to call, the Republicans probably will hold onto the leadership positions they got when the 1969 session opened. Forty-one votes would be needed by the Democrats to make any changes, and with a 40-40 split they would be most unlikely to find the necessary votes.

A lifelong resident of Stanislaus County, Veneman has been in the Assembly since 1962, and before that served four years as a county supervisor.

Veneman was statewide manager of Finch's 1966 campaign, and he and Bagley campaigned for Nixon last year.

In 1968, the Sacramento Capitol press corps selected Veneman as the most outstanding assemblyman of the year.

Veneman will be joined in Washington by his wife, Nita, and their three children, Ann, 19, John, 17, and Jane, 15.

Santa Barbara Oil Drilling Off; Slick Heads Toward Los Angeles

COMBINED AP & UPI

SANTA BARBARA — The federal government ordered oil drilling halted today in the Santa Barbara Channel, where a huge oil slick from a ruptured undersea well has blackened beaches and harbors.

The order, from Secretary of the Interior Walter J. Hickel in Washington, came as high seas delayed an all-out try to plug the leak with mud.

The oil was spurting at nearly 1,000 gallons an hour with its slick of more than 800 square miles moving toward Los Angeles, roughly 65 miles away, at three miles an hour.

Hickel issued the order in telegrams to firms drilling on federal lands in the channel. Besides Union Oil of California, operator of the leaky well, the firms include Humble, Phillips, Mobil and Texaco.

Hickel said President Nixon and Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell "strongly concurred" with his ruling. He added: "I have directed all of the oil companies involved to reduce their platform operations to a standby condition until it can be shown with some certainty that we are not risking another blowout."

"It has become increasingly clear," he said, "that there is a lack of sufficient knowledge of this particular geological area. This lack leaves us no other reasonable course of action than to halt drilling until Union's ruptured well can be sealed and until the required geological knowledge is secured."

The order does not affect a relief well Union is drilling as part of its effort to stop the flow.

This is the second time in less than a week that Hickel has called a halt to drilling. He permitted resumption yesterday, saying he had been assured by department engineers that continued drilling posed no threat of further leaks.

"Unless the wind shifts, I don't know what can stop it," said William Kerrigan, district manager of the Ventura Port.

By last night, some raw petroleum was reported in Ventura's marina 24 nautical miles south of oil-clogged Santa Barbara Harbor and 50 miles northwest of Los Angeles.

Heaviest concentrations were still around the drilling platform six miles at sea where swells up to 15 feet prevented a 300-man crew from efforts to stop the sea-leak by pumping a mineral mud preparation into the hole.

The Union Oil Co. crews pumped 3,000 barrels of the gooey substances into the hole a few days ago but it didn't do the job. When the sea calms enough, new barge loads will be poured into the fissure 325 feet below the ocean surface.

There was no indication how soon the 11-day-old leak might

AN HOUR TO BURN

Pueblo Fate Spurs Destruction Studies

CORONADO (AP) — It took the capture of the USS Pueblo and some of her secret documents to spur the Navy into "an ongoing effort" to improve emergency destruction and scuttling devices, a Pentagon officer said today.

But Capt. John H. D. Williams, an emergency destruction expert from the office of the chief of Naval Operations, also said the skipper of the Pueblo should have been able to destroy his allotment of secret papers and equipment in an hour.

Testimony before a court of inquiry which heard Williams' time estimate has indicated two hours elapsed between the time North Koreans first threatened to fire on the Pueblo and the time she was boarded en route to Wonsan harbor.

"Which is more important," asked an attorney for the skipper, Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher, "... the destruction of classified material which might fall into enemy hands or the protection of human life."

"This is a judgment matter, and the definition of top secret I think should be weighed in this judgment ... that loss of this material would mean exceptionally grave danger to the nation ... ", Wilson said.

"I was not proposing a Viking funeral pyre," Williams said. "I was proposing a fire that could be controlled in the spaces ... the trade off of a gutted compartment against complete destruction is acceptable, sir."

"Did it take a Pueblo-type incident to spur this to fruitation?" asked Vice Adm. Harold G. Bowen.

"There was no ongoing effort until after Pueblo," Williams replied.

Williams recommended "placing a mass of classified material in a compartment of space and dumping gasoline, diesel oil, or alcohol on it and setting fire to it in the space is an acceptable means of destruction." Ship's hand cutters, welding torches and other gear also may be used, he said.

Bucher and several members of his crew have testified that they burned torn up publications and charts in waste baskets, but Lt. Stephen Harris, in charge of most of the ship's registered publications, called the process "painfully slow."

Yesterday the senior oceanographer aboard the Pueblo, a civilian, said one of his assignments was to serve as a cover for the intelligence ship.

In fact, said Dunnie R. Tuck, when the first North Korean gunboat appeared on the day of

Nixon Reveals Boyhood Wish

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon revealed today that as a youngster he had wanted to be a Boy Scout but his parents couldn't afford it.

He got an honorary membership card today though, as a delegation of 15 scouts and explorers visited the White House to mark the first day of National Boy Scout Week Feb. 7-13.

The scouts told Nixon they are launching a long-range plan—Boy Power '76—to get more American boys interested in scouting and to bring scout programs to disadvantaged youth.

The President said he hopes every youngster, regardless of his financial condition, can get a chance to join.

Plague, Other Vaccines Are Stolen

Several vials of deadly plague and other vaccines were stolen last night from Permanente Clinic at 1930 Fourth Street, San Rafael, and county health officials fear the serum could cause a painful death to the burglars or anyone else who injected the virus into the blood stream.

Police reported 18 cubic centimeters of the plague vaccine, plus 12 cubic centimeters of typhus, 22 cubic centimeters of tetanus and four cubic centimeters of diphtheria vaccines were taken from a refrigerator in the hospital.

Dr. Marilyn Hicks of the county public health office said the normal dose for plague vaccination is one-half to one cubic centimeter. A cubic centimeter is about one-quarter of a teaspoon. "Even that dosage many times causes vomiting, sore muscles and fever; anyone who took more than the normal dose would have to be out of their minds," said Dr. Hicks.

She expressed the fear that the burglars might take the vaccine, thinking it was a drug that might induce a "high."

Dr. Hicks said that since the virus is dead, there is no danger of an epidemic, and the ill person could not spread the dread disease.

She also said that the vaccine must be injected and if swallowed it would have little effect.

One Suspect To Aid Kidnap Prosecution

One of the three men accused of kidnaping and robbing restaurant owner Luciano A. Sabella pleaded guilty to a lesser charge yesterday and was expected to testify this afternoon against his two companions.

Walter John Hoefler, 26, of Petaluma was quietly brought from Sonoma County yesterday to be arraigned before Judge Hadden W. Roth and to enter his plea of guilty to lesser charges.

Hoefler, who was sentenced to state prison Friday for a robbery in Petaluma on Dec. 15, pleaded guilty to simple kidnaping, a lesser charge than kidnaping for ransom or reward, the original charge. He also pleaded guilty to second degree robbery for his part in the holdup of the Greenbrae Lanes in Larkspur on Oct. 28.

Hoefler was being held today at San Quentin Prison to keep him apart from his co-defendants, Daniel Thomas Stathos, 22, and Kenneth Lee Harnal, also 22, who are being held in Marin County Jail in lieu of bail.

Hoefler did not appear yesterday at the afternoon criminal calendar in Municipal Court where most arraignments and entries of pleas take place, but was brought before Judge Roth in the morning.

The public and press were barred today from the preliminary hearing for Stathos and Harnal. District Attorney Bruce B. Bales said that Hoefler would be brought to court this afternoon to testify.

Reagan Observes 58th Birthday

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan, celebrating his 58th birthday in Mexican tradition, says much progress has been made in his two-year-old goal to make the border a meeting place instead of a dividing line.

Reagan introduced Lt. Gov. Ed Reinecke to representatives of the Commission of the Californias, then swung a broom stick while blindfolded to break a donkey-shaped pinata at last night's reception.

The pinata was filled with souvenirs of San Diego's 20th anniversary. The governor flew back to Los Angeles after spending an hour at the reception attended by 100 persons at the Point Loma home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Roberts.

GENEVA, (AP) —The Hong Kong flu, subsiding in most of the world, is slowly moving through the northern and eastern parts of Europe, the World Health Organization said today.

Crash Kills Petaluman

I-J Special Report

UKIAH — A 58-year-old Petaluma truck driver was killed instantly in a dawn crash today on a narrow bridge across McNab Creek about seven miles south of here.

The dead man, Fred Boom of 114 Upham Street, was caught in the cab of his northbound truck on Highway 101 in the two-truck collision, the Californit Highway Patrol reported.

The accident happened when his truck was struck by the trailer of a southbound lumber truck. The impact sent tons of lumber crashing into the cab of Boom's truck, overturning the truck and crushing its cab, the highway patrol said.

The driver of the lumber truck, Newton Chaffin, 32, of Eureka, was not injured, the highway patrol said.

Chaffin's truck was partially over the center line on the bridge, and there was not enough room for both trucks to pass on the narrow span, officers reported.

Star Of 'Candy' Reveals Marriage

ROME (UPI)—Ewa Aulin, the 18-year-old Swedish star of the film "Candy" announced today she was secretly married last March 21 to English actor John Shadow, 32, in Tijuana, Mexico.

The teen-age blonde made her announcement at the studios of the Dear Film Co. where "Candy," based on the racy Terry Southern novel, was filmed in 1967 with a cast that included Marlon Brando and Richard Burton.

College Sets 77-Cent Tax Vote In April

Four-Year Override Try To Speed North Campus

By FRANK FARRARA

There will be a 77-cent tax rate increase for College of Marin on the April 15 ballot, deeply troubled college district trustees decided at a tension-ridden meeting last night.

The final 4-2 vote, at one point a cliff-hanger, came a half-hour before the midnight deadline for getting the controversial override tax on the ballot.

The swing vote for the tax increase came from Board President Theodore C. Wellman, who had not been expected to go for the full 77 cents. Without his yes vote the issue would have been deadlocked, with Trustee Robert E. Oliver absent.

Moore, slapping the board table for emphasis, said "the people just will not vote for it."

Other trustees felt the public should be made aware of the need for both operating and building funds and then have their say.

"This is an issue we let the people decide," said Trustee Charles W. Gray.

Shunted aside during a three-hour discussion was an idea that the board could go for a lesser tax hike April 15 to cover immediate operating costs and then call a bond election before the end of the year for long range financing.

The revenue from the proposed tax rate hike would be used both for operating expenses at the Kentfield campus and building at the Novato campus, planned to open in the fall of 1972.

The district's current total tax rate is 82.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation consisting of 35 cents for operation, a 35-cent override for capital expenditures and 12.5 cents in overrides for fringe benefits, adult education and community services.

Trustees had a choice of withdrawing the election call, modifying the amount of the tax hike or standing by the 77-cent figure.

There was no move to withdraw in the face of a recommendation Tuesday by the staff of the California Coordinating Council for Higher Education that there

JEROME B. GILBERT
Leaving Marin job

J. B. Gilbert Takes State Water Post

Jerome B. Gilbert, general manager and chief engineer of the North Marin County Water District, was named executive officer of the California Water Resources Control Board yesterday.

Gilbert, who succeeds Kerry W. Mulligan of St. Helena, will take office March 1.

The key state executive job in water pollution and water rights activities includes both inland waters and coastal waters extending out to three miles.

Gilbert, who has been in his present post 10 years, will assist the North Marin County Water District through June. He has informed the district of his plans but his resignation will be taken up formally at the Feb. 18 board meeting, Eugene S. Churchill, auditor, reported.

Gilbert's new salary will be $23,173 a year. He now earns $21,000 with the North Marin County Water District.

Mulligan will become chairman of the state Water Resource Control Board.

Javits Submits Bill For Draft Lottery

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Legislation calling for a lottery system for selecting draftees — and specifying that 19-year-olds would be called first —was proposed today by Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N. Y.

Javits also called for a thorough study of an all-volunteer Army but indicated he is not as enthusiastic about the possibility of eliminating the draft as is President Nixon.

Saigon Tightens Security Watch

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese forces tightened security around Saigon and Da Nang today as part of the campaign to prevent a repetition of last year's Communist Tet offensive.

Security forces stopped hundreds of vehicles at checkpoints along key highways leading into Saigon, searching for hidden arms and munitions that could support an attack on the capital.

Outside Da Nang, the country's second largest city, Route Nationale One and another key highway south of the city were sealed off from the countryside to prevent infiltration of enemy troops.

U.S. and South Vietnamese forces also cordoned off the marble mountain area south of Da Nang and were conducting an extensive search operation.

The Viet Cong has proclaimed a cease-fire from Feb. 15 to Feb. 22 for Tet, the lunar new year feast during which last year the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese attacked Saigon, Da Nang and 100 other population centers. South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu said last night his government was ready "in principle" to declare a Tet truce, but he was not ready to announce the dates. It is expected to be much shorter than the Viet Cong truce, and Thieu has canceled the holiday leaves that usually are given at least half the South Vietnamese forces.

South Vietnamese Rangers on a clearing operation 15 miles southwest of Da Nang report that the Viet Cong are using loudspeakers to propagandize their cease-fire, saying South Vietnamese soldiers who leave their weapons behind will be welcome when they come to visit their families in villages controlled by the Viet Cong.

Ground action remained at a very low level. U.S. troops from the 9th Infantry Division fought with a Viet Cong force 15 miles southwest of Saigon last night and reported finding 14 enemy bodies at dawn.

No U.S. casualties were reported.

South Vietnamese headquarters said 34 enemy soldiers were killed in a series of clashes in the Mekong Delta. No government losses were reported.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

$250,000 Home

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson plan to build a $250,000 home on a sylvan 19-acre lot they own in Austin, Tex., their friends said today.

The Johnsons were expected to build on a beautiful wooded plot near the $70,000 pink brick one-story home of their daughter Luci Nugent in a fashionable section of Austin.

The johnson's architect is Max Brooks, one of a trio who designed the Lyndon B. Johnson Library and School of Public Service at the University of Texas.

Huks Trap Set

MANILA (UPI)—About 15 Communist Huk guerrillas ambushed a Philippine government force today about 70 miles northeast of Manila, killing two soldiers and wounding six others. Government military officials said the raid appeared to be a reprisal for the killing of a key Huk commander in a battle Jan. 9.

No Jewish Spies

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Iraq's president says no more Jews are awaiting trial on spy charges in Baghdad, the Egyptian Middle East News Agency reported today.

The agency said President Ahmad Hassan el Bakr told a news conference yesterday that all those facing spy charges are Iraqi Moslems.

Storm Deaths

Japan's Maritime Safety Agency said 84 persons were dead or missing in the sinking or grounding of 10 ships off Japan and Formosa and in the crash of a U.S. Air Force rescue plane near Formosa.

Seventeen other persons were missing and five bodies were recovered after three motorboats capsized in rough seas about 100 miles northeast of Manila yesterday. Seven survivors were rescued.

10 Rail Deaths

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Railway officials tonight said 10 passengers were killed today when the Sydney-Melbourne streamliner express roared into a freight train and burst into flames 104 miles northeast of Melbourne.

Railway officials told police earlier they feared as many as 20 passengers might have been trapped in one sleeping car that was telescoped and burned, and a total of 28 might be dead. But a 12-hour search of the wreckage produced no more bodies, and people earlier reported missing were calling in to police throughout the day. Officials said they believed the final toll was 10 dead.

CHARLES WINFIELD AT PLAY
No protests at San Antonio college

DOWN WITH PROTESTS

He Swallows 210 Goldfish

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A 19-year-old college student from Texas has managed to make his mark without picketing, protesting, sitting in or shouting slogans. He simply swallowed a lot of goldfish — 210 of them to be exact.

While many of his colleagues at colleges and universities from coast to coast were demonstrating for a variety of causes, Charles Winfield put on his own exhibition yesterday.

During an hour and 40-minute period, Winfield, a sophomore at St. Mary's University in San Antonio, swallowed one after another of the live fish while about 200 cheering students and faculty members looked on.

University officials — probably relieved at not being asked to relinquish control of the school — claimed his feat was a world's record. They said the previous record was 199, set in 1966 by a student at St. Francis College in Philadelphia.

Winfield, a native of Pharr, Tex., said he practiced for some time for his feat. "I ate a lot," he said, "and tried not to think about it."

Hayakawa Offers To Rehire 199 Strikers; Deadline Set Monday

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — If they apply by Monday, San Francisco State College's acting president is offering to rehire the 199 striking teachers who have lost their jobs because of state law.

S. I. Hayakawa, speaking yesterday at a news conference, said the AFL-CIO American Federation of Teachers members have lost their positions because they were absent from duty five days without excuses.

He urged them to apply for rehiring at the same pay and in the same positions for the spring term which begins Feb. 17.

"We have felt all along that this provision (the educational code law on terminations) operates punitively," he continued. "Yet, we cannot, as public officials, refuse to carry out legal requirements."

Hayakawa also suggested that the striking teachers apply to the state Personnel Board for full reinstatement since rehiring alone would not reinstate tenure or accumulated sabbatical leave time.

Led by the Black Students Union, students struck the school Nov. 6 demanding a school of ethnic studies and admission of all Negroes regardless of academic qualifications.

Teachers struck in support of demands for more pay, better working conditions and support for the student walkout.

No immediate reaction to Hayakawa's suggestions came from the union which went into conference with its lawyers.

Delivery Is Assured Of Delayed Mail

WASHINGTON (AP) —Nearly 3.5 million pounds of mail aboard 45 ships tied up by the waterfront strike in New York will be unloaded by military personnel next week, the Post Office Department announced yesterday.

A department spokesman agreement was reached with the International Longshoreman's Association and the Defense Department to begin unloading operations on Monday.

In apparent criticism of the Johnson administration, Postmaster Gen. Winton M. Blount commented: "The action that we are taking today should have been taken before last Christmas."

The mail has accumulated since the strike—which covered all Atlantic and Gulf Coast ports — began Dec. 20.

The spokesman said the Defense Department was called in to assist with the massive unloading operations because it had both manpower and equipment to complete the task.

Part of the mail volume consists of late posted Christmas parcels and cards.

Witness Links Shaw To Oswald, Ferrie

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A one-time civil rights worker told the jury at Clay L. Shaw's conspiracy trial he saw Shaw, Lee Harvey Oswald and David W. Ferrie together.

The testimony by Corrie C. Collins of Baton Rouge was the highlight of opening testimony yesterday as the prosecution hammered at a major defense position.

Shaw is accused of conspiring with Oswald, Ferrie and others to murder President John F. Kennedy.

Over defense objections, Asst. Dist. Atty. James L. Alcock made no attempt to first lay the foundation for the charge. Instead, he opened the case by summoning five surprise witnesses.

Collins, the fifth to testify, insisted he saw Shaw, Oswald and Ferrie in Clinton, La., in "late August, or early September" of 1963.

Shortly before, in his opening statement, chief defense Lawyer F. Irvin Dymond had told the criminal district court jury that:

"It is our intention to prove to you that not only did Clay Shaw not engage in conspiracy, but that he never knew nor laid eyes on either Oswald or Ferrie."

Oswald, a former New Orleans resident, was named Kennedy's killer by the Warren Commission. The report said he operated alone, with no credible evidence of a conspiracy."

In opening, Dist Atty. Jim Garrison told the jury the state would show the President "was struck by a number of bullets coming from different guns at different locations—thus showing that more than one person was shooting at the President."

The 6-foot-6 district attorney thus served notice that the Warren Report would be, in effect, a codefendant. Dymond reacted sharply.

"We are not here to defend the findings of the Warren Report," he told the jury. "I implore you, do not let the drama and pagentry of what happened in Dealey Plaza in Dallas obscure the real issues in this case."

Jack Ruby killed Oswald two days after the Nov. 22, 1963, assassination—shooting him inside police headquarters. Ferrie died in his apartment in New Orleans in 1967. The coroner said death was due to natural causes.

Athletes Win Status Quo On Low Grades

A proposal to eliminate D and F grades at the College of Marin ran into a high hurdle last night from the athletic department. (Another College of Marin story, page 1.)

Marin Junior College District trustees last night postponed action on the proposal after Cal Riemcke, basketball coach, said it would have an adverse effect on athletic eligibility.

At present a D student is eligible to compete, but under the new plan there would be no D, just A, B, C or no credit for the course.

Riemcke said this would put college teams at a disadvantage in competing with schools which didn't have these standards.

Trustee Harry J. Moore opposed a system that proved "an inequity to one department" and to students in athletic competition.

Acting President Louis H. Herkenhoff said the intent was to eliminate grading as a punitive measure, and the negative approach in grading. If a student's work was poor, he wouldn't get credit and would lose nothing but time, he said. It wouldn't count against his grade average, he explained.

Dave Brown, president of Associated Students, said eliminating the D and F grades would be "a step forward in education and much better for students."

Trustees also hired Eva M. Turner, who has been filling the post part-time, as full time community liaison coordinator to aid minority students, at a salary of $505 a month, effective Monday.

The Black Students Union had requested that her post be full-time. Last night Del Mar of the BSU contended the salary should be retroactive to when Mrs. Turner started because of the long hours she put in at the job.

Trustees noted that the salary was higher than the $458 a month originally recommended for the job, and that it would be reviewed at budget time.

Marin Junior College District trustees also:

SITE PLANS — Heard a report from Ernest Wertheim, landscape architect, of site development and landscaping plans for the planned new Harlan Center and Science Center, approved the plans in principle, and agreed to tour the sites at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday starting from Herkenhoff's office.

INTERDISTRICT STUDENTS — Postponed until Thursday action on a policy which would limit the number of out-of-district students permitted to attend the college.

NAME PLANNER — Designated Planning Director Dale A. Fleming as the district's representative for filing applications for federal funds.

NEXT MEETING — Because of the late hour — 12:40 a.m. — adjourned until 8 a.m. next Thursday at Room 72, Fine Arts Building, at the Kentfield campus, to complete the agenda.

Parking Meter Revenues Off

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Revenues from parking meters are decreasing, partly because more of them are being jammed, the Parking Authority heard yesterday.

City engineer Robert C. Levy said 6,500 of the city's 13,000 meters are jammed each month. In 1965, he continued, only 2,600 were jammed in a month.

The authority voted to ask support for hiring 29 additional meter maids.

Reagan's U.C. Edict Hit; Daily Demands Shutdown

BERKELEY (UPI) — Gov. Ronald Reagan's declaration that the University of California's Berkeley campus is in a state of "extreme emergency" has drawn bitter response from a variety of student spokesmen.

"Our idiot governor declared a state of extreme emergency and immediately there was one," an editorial in yesterdays edition of the Daily Cal said. The student paper called for a shutting down of the university in order to talk over problems calmly.

The student senate also voted 10-1 for a closure of the school for a two-day convocation to discuss strike demands by the Third World Liberation Front, spearhead group of the 16-day-old strike to press for an autonomous college of ethnic studies.

Student body president Charles Palmer told a news conference that minority students had been "lied to, deceived and received resistance all the way."

Fernando Garcia, third world spokesman, saw Reagan's declaration as "an attempt to mobilize the reactionary forces in the state."

The campus itself was calm as more than 150 riot equipped police calmly watched about 450 strikers first picket outside Sather Gate and then march around campus Thursday.

There was no violence, no vandalism and only one arrest.

The big force of police included highway patrolmen authorized by Reagan in his emergency declaration Wednesday in the wake of Tuesday's campus violence that produced two dozen injuries and 20 arrests.

Harbin Springs Commune Told To Clear Out

I-J Special Report

HARBIN SPRINGS — About 50 persons remaining at the Frontiers of Science commune at this former resort in Lake County have been ordered to leave because of health and building code violations.

Dist. Atty. David Luce said yesterday that the Sandy Estate Co. of San Francisco, owner of the 1,080-acre property, planned to begin eviction proceedings. Last week, William Arnone, assistant Lake County health inspector, served the commune's inhabitants with an order to clean and repair the quarters or vacate.

The commune was quarantined briefly two weeks ago when a resident was detected to be suffering from infectious hepatitis. Frontiers of Science formerly was headquartered in San Rafael.

capture he began lowering water-testing bottles over the side "to show the North Koreans why we were there."

But when the Koreans began firing, the ship's skipper, Cmdr. Lloyd Bucher, shouted: "Friar Tuck, get that damned gear up here. I'm leaving."

Tuck, 31, of Richmond, Va., told a Navy court of inquiry yesterday that making hydrographic tests—obtaining samples of ocean water for analysis—was one of the main parts of his assignment. But, said Tuck, his orders were to handle his work "on a not-to-interfere basis" with the main surveillance mission of the ship, which Bucher has described as watching Soviet vessels and North Korean radar.

"It was one of my missions to serve as cover for the ship, to show that it was an oceanographic ship," he added.

Meeting Sought On Slide Worry

The Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club last night voted to call Supervisor Michael Wornum and the public works department to express its worry over a recent slide on a rock cut at Tamalpais Junction. The homes above the cut may be in jeopardy because of the slide, president Charles H. Norton Jr. said.

The club named Bernard Healey director of the 1969 Rhubarb Revue, which will open April 25.

The club reviewed the parks and recreation master plan developed by the Tamalpais Valley Community Services District.

Condemnation Case Trial Set

The state condemnation suit to add the 15-acre Muir Beach to the state park system will come to trial March 17 in Marin Superior Court.

About June 1967, an anonymous woman donor offered $125,000 as a gift to the state to purchase Muir Beach, which was valued at the time at about $250,000.

Because of differences in various appraislas and failure to agree on a price, the case was taken to court.

Pleads Innocent

Bruce Gustave Bonniver, 24, of Sausalito pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to a charge of possessing marijuana Dec. 14 in Sausalito. Preliminary hearing was scheduled for 2 p.m. Feb. 20.

be plugged, a company spokesman said. Union Oil, one of several companies with federal leases to drill the offshore wells, also hoped to reach the ruptured formation by early next week with a slant well to relieve pressure.

Along the normally white sandy beaches, for more than 12 miles soaked a half-inch or more with oil, 500 men worked with log booms, straw and chemicals absorbents to hold back the oil and save the rich tourist business.

In Los Angeles, Deputy Atty. Gen. Charles O'Brien said California would seek a court order forcing Hickel to control oil drilling.

In Sacramento, Calif., Gov. Ronald Reagan said he wants U.S. offshore drilling regulations stiffened to match more stringent California regulations governing wells inside the three-mile limit.

Conservationists said birds by the thousands had been affected by the oil and that many seeking fish had plunged to their deaths through the inch-thick oil.

The latest official count of oil-soaked seabirds found on shore was 151 dead or dying out of 427 treated at several centers.

"We have a real killer on our hands," said Dr. Robert F. Dill, chairman of the State Advisory Board for Underwater Parks and reservoirs.

Mill Valley Eyes Racial Problem

The commission asked the committee's help in functioning as a sounding board for community human relations problems.

Problems discussed were in five areas, according to chairman Charles P. Guichard: minority group employment in Mill Valley, housing availability to racial minorities, education, police-community relations, and racial attitudes.

Each area will be discussed at a commission meeting set for 8 p.m. Feb. 27, Guichard said, and standing committees may be appointed in each area to deal with problems as they arise.

Water Hemlock Victim On Mend

Wayne Paul Breiding, 14, who ate poisonous water hemlock last week, was reported improved and in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Although he was taken off the serious list, he is still in the intensive care unit where he has been since becoming ill last week after eating the herbs during an outing at Samuel P. Taylor State Park.

His older brother, Michael Breiding, 15, was removed from intensive care two days ago. Two other brothers, William Mark, 13, and Sutton, 17, who also became ill from eating the hemlock, were released from the hospital last week.

Camera Stolen

A camera was stolen Tuesday from a car belonging to A. C. Dawlin of 30 Madera Drive, Corte Madera, while the car was parked at Vista Point at the north end of Golden Gate Bridge, according to the sheriff's department.

Poverty War Committees Given Tasks

Marin Economic Opportunity Council directors have established five standing committees and appointed a nominating committee to prepare for the election of new officers in March.

Committee chairmen named Tuesday were:

Gilbert Medeiros of San Rafael, personnel; Adelaide Wilson of Fairfax, budget and finance; Robert Simmons of Corte Madera, outside resources (funds and services); Richard Mermin of Tiburon, public relations, and Eloise Brown of Marin City, planning and program.

A nominating committee, headed by John V. Holm, will prepare a slate of new officers for the coming program year, April through March.

Directors decided that meeting of the board will be held the first Wednesday of each month, at 8 p.m., in the Courthouse in San Rafael.

Victor H. Carey, executive director, reported that an all-day public hearing will be held on March 1, probably at the Courthouse, to acquaint the people with the various programs administered by the EOC, such as the youth, senior citizens, and legal aid programs.

The total EOC budget for the 1969-70 program year is expected to be about $174,000, said Carey.

early this morning. The burglars apparently entered by breaking a window and removing a screen, she told police.

Morphine and other hard narcotics are kept in a safe, which was not touched, she said.

Nurse Newman said the bottles were about two inches high and clearly marked plague vaccines. They are used for vaccinations for persons traveling overseas.

Clausen Named To Committee

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — Rep. Don Clausen, R-First District, newly appointed to the House Interior and Insular Affairs Committee, has been assigned to its subcommittee on irrigation and reclamation, national parks and recreation, and public lands.

Clausen, in a press release announcing his appointments, said they "dovetail with many of our district problems on which I am now working — the Redwood National Park, Point Reyes National Seashore, water conservation and the millions of acres of public lands in Northern California.

Clausen retained his position on the House Committee on Public Works and on the subcommittees on flood control, rivers and harbors and roads, highway program, and economic development.

Course Continues

Alto volunteer firemen Wednesday night voted to continue their emergency health care course for firemen for one more month, Chief Carl O. Heynen Jr. reported. Firemen have completed the first aid section and now will study childbirth, emergency care of radiation effects and how to maintain good health in a continuing emergency, he said.

Administrators, students and faculty recommended the 77-cent tax hike to avoid cuts in the educational program or limiting of enrollment.

Board President Theodore C. Wellman said if the district called for a lesser levy in April, "possibly a bond election would succeed at a later date."

Harry Gilbert, vice president of Associated Students, said if voters approved an override in April and the district came back about nine months later for bond funds voters might "think the College of Marin is out to soak the taxpayer dry."

One resident commented that if the college needs 77 cents to "do the job" it should go for the full 77 cents, and if voters are against a proposal they would reject it, even if it were for a lesser amount.

Moore advocated a lesser tax hike over a longer period, "50 cents for five or six years, I'll buy that."

Felt suggested a sliding tax rate that would be less in the earlier year and increase in the later years, eventually to be supplanted by bond funds.

Planning Director Dale A. Fleming noted that a lesser tax increase could delay "some elements" of construction at the Novato campus for two to three years and reduce the district's ability to match state construction funds.

Acting President Louis H. Herkenhoff reminded the board that the current 35-cent override for capital expenditures ends in June, 1972.

The board was only 30 minutes from its midnight deadline for calling the election when Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy moved to adopt the 77-cent proposal.

Felt immediately took issue with the rate, claiming it was unfair and "unconscionable" to ask the voters "to build $20 million worth of buildings in four years."

Mrs. Deedy admitted it would be "a tremendous hardship on everyone," but contended there wasn't a better investment than education, and "we should give people a chance to say if they'll go the whole way."

Moore felt the board was throwing away its chance to win needed operating funds for the next school year, by going for the 77-cent tax hike.

"Let's face it, taxes are not popular," he said.

"We all know this will be a terrific blow to the taxpayers," said Trustee Robert E. Rogers. "We have to let them know the college is of utmost importance."

If everyone, students, faculty, administrators, work together "77 cents is not an impossiblity, he said.

There was some tension when the vote reached 3-2 and the roll call came to Wellman, who earlier had talked of a modest tax increase.

If he had voted in that direction, the board would have deadlocked.

Then he voted for the 77-cent hike, saying that because of increasing enrollment and increasing construction costs the district "is going to have to move more quickly."

If thet ax hike is defeated, the district will have to make cuts and make other plans for financing, he said. "The second effort might be a bond issue."

OBITUARIES

Kathleen M. Pullen Dies At 51

Kathleen M. Pullen, 51, a psychiatric social worker at the Family Service Agency of Marin County, died yesterday in an Oakland hospital following a brief illness.

A native of North Dakota, she was a graduate of the University of California in Berkeley, a woman Marine in World War II, and had taught in private seminars in the Bay Area.

She was a member of the National Association of Social Workers and the National Association of Family Therapists, and was termed one of Marin's outstanding family therapists.

She came to California in 1946 and resided in Oakland. She suffered a brain hemorrhage about a week ago and had been in the hospital since that time.

She is survived by three sons, Richard, 18, Larry, 15, and Keith Pullen, 13. The East Bay Funeral Association is selecting a mortuary. Funeral arrangements are pending.

WILLIAM STEWART

Private funeral for William James Stewart, 52, of Corte Madera, who died Sunday in a local hospital after a long illness, was held Monday.

Stewart, of 14 Prospect Lane, was a native of California and had lived in Marin eight years. He had been operations manager at the Oakland Container Terminal for 34 years.

He is survived by his wife, Llewellyn Stewart; a daughter, Sally Ann Stewart of Fresno; his mother, Mrs. Isabella Stewart of San Rafael, and three sisters, Mrs. Betty Dickman and Mrs. Barbara Spence, both of Oakland, and Mrs. Jean Crotty of San Rafael.

THELMA DIXON

Thelma Pollyanna Dixon, 48, of 27 Burlingame Drive, Petaluma, a former bank teller, died yesterday at a local hospital after a long illness.

Born in Kansas, Mrs. Dixon moved to San Francisco in 1939 and to Petaluma in 1948. She had been employed by the Wells Fargo Bank and by Montgomery Ward Co.

Mrs. Dixon was a member of the First Baptist Church of Petaluma and took an interest in the Sunday school, youth and women's groups. She was the wife of Gene F. Dixon, a mechanic at the Hunter's Point Shipyard.

She is also survived by two sons, Lawrence Dixon of San Anselmo, and Timothy Dixon of Santa Rosa; a daughter, Diane Speakman of Crestline, San Bernardino County; her mother, Mrs. Ruth Terhuns of Collinsville, Kan.; two brothers, Thomas Terhune, also of Collinsville, and Leonard Wertz of Las Vegas, and two sisters, Aileen Ware of Oregon and Phyllis Smith of Parsons, Kan.

Funeral will be at 2 p.m. Monday at the Parent Funeral Chapel, Petaluma. Burial will be at Cypress Hill Memorial Park.

Four On County School Ballots

Four persons, including three incumbents have filed candidacy papers for election April 15 to Marin County school district boards.

Thomas N. McNamara of 240 Mount Shasta Drive, San Rafael, John A. Starkweather, of 612 Las Colindas Road, Terra Linda, and Dorothy C. Brown, 1069 Las Gallinas Avenue, Terra Linda, all incumbents of Dixie School District board, filed yesterday.

Only the three terms expire June 20 in that district. No other person has yet filed.

George F.Caldwell Jr., an insurance inspector of 22 Truman Drive, Novato, filed yesterday for one of three vacancies on the Novato Unified School District board. Expiring are terms of Gordon Leathers, Marett Boissevain and William Schneeflock.

LESTOR SECOR

Lester F. Secor, 81, a founder of the original Sausalito Yacht Club and father of a former Mill Valley city councilman, died yesterday in a local convalescent home after a long illness.

A native of California, he resided in San Francisco and was owner of the Guaranty Typewriter Co. there. He and others founded the yacht club in Sausalito about 50 years ago, but it ceased operations during the depression era and was not connected with the present Sausalito Yacht Club.

Secor was a member of the Vallejo Yacht Club, past chairman of the San Francisco Office Machine Dealers Association, a past toparch (president) of the San Francisco Pyramid No. 1 AEO Sciots, and a 50-year member of the Masonic Park Lodge 449.

He had been in the convalescent home one month. His son, William M. Secor, served on the Mill Valley City Council for four years until 1966.

Survivors besides the son are a daughter, Mrs. Beverlie Wenig of Tiburon; a sister, Mrs. Ethel Royer, San Francisco, and four grandchildren.

Funeral will be at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at Maneely Matthews Chapel in San Francisco. Inurnment is pending.

LEWIS CARLESON

Retired Air Force CWO Lewis H. Carleson, 63, of 702 Del Mar, Novato, died yesterday in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness.

Born in Amarillo, Tex., Carleson served 12 years in the Army cavalry before enlisting in the Army Air Corps in 1943. Besides World War II, Carleson also served in the Korean War.

He retired from the Air Force in 1961 at Hamilton Air Force Base. He sold real estate and then became a bartender until ill health forced his retirement.

Carleson was a member of Hamilton Lodge 751, Free and Accepted Masons; Marin Sciots' Scottish Rite of Santa Rosa, Islam Temple of the Shrine in San Francisco, the Novato chapter of the Order of Eastern Star and Bartenders and Cullinary Workers Local 126.

He is survived by his wife, Golda; a daughter, Mrs. Robert O. Blackwell of Novato; two granddaughters and six great-grandchildren.

Masonic services will be at 1 p.m. tomorrow at the Redwood Chapel Funeral Home in Novato. Military burial will follow at Marin Memorial Gardens in Novato.

MRS. RAGAN

Funeral for Mrs. Jeannine M. Ragan of San Rafael will be at 11 a.m. Monday at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

Mrs. Ragan, 40, died Wednesday in a Palo Alto hospital after a long illness.

A native of Indianola, Okla., she had lived in Marin the past 14 years. She resided at 41 Brookdale Avenue.

She was a member of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Davidson and Coleman schools and of the Volunteers of Sunny Hills, San Anselmo.

She is survived by her husband, Hollis, a teamster; three children, Elaine, 15, Karen, 14, and Denise, 12, all at home, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Q. Hodge of McAlester, Okla.

MRS. VINCENT

Mrs. Charolotte J. Vincent, 47, of 860 Penny Royal Lane, Terra Linda, died yesterday in a San Mateo County hospital after a short illness.

She was the wife of retired Army Lt. Col. Howard Vincent, now a contract adviser for General Dynamics Corp. in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Vincent, a native of Hyannis, Neb., lived in Marin for 15 years. She belonged to the Christ Presbyterian Church in Terra Linda.

Survivors, beside her husband, are two sons, Charles P. and Thomas Vincent, both of San Rafael, and her mother, Mrs. Helen J. Gabril of Grand Island, Neb.

Memorial services will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday at Christ Presbyterian Church. The family prefers contributions to the Heart Fund.

Nixon Clears Desk For Trip To Florida

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Nixon conferred with his cabinet today and was to have his first White House meeting with a Negro leader before flying to Florida for a weekend of rest and work at Key Biscayne.

The President was believed to have discussed his pending five-nation trip to Europe and a range of domestic legislation with his cabinet in the morning.

The meeting with Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), was announced shortly after the cabinet session began.

kAt his news conference yesterday, Nixon acknowledged that a number of American Negroes viewed him with distrust but expressed hope "that I can gain the respect and I hope eventually the friendship of black citizens and other Americans."

Also added to Nixon's schedule before leaving for a Florida appointment with Gen. George Brown, commander of the 7th Air Force in Vietnam, who was expected to give the President a first hand report on the progress of the air war.

The President intends to devote a good part of his Florida weekend to foreign policy discussions. But some relaxation was also planned, and a group of Boy Scouts gave him a fishing rod this morning, suggesting he use it at Key Biscayne.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Security affairs specialist Henry A. Kissinger were to accompany him on the flight from Andrews Air Force Base.

Kissinger and Rogers were expected to explore the problems and possibilities of Nixon's first venture into foreign capitals as president. Nixon said the purpose of his visit to Brussels, London, Bonn, Berlin, Rome and Paris, scheduled to start Feb. 23, was to "discuss, not to propose; for work, not for ceremony."

Nixon told his news conference yesterday he will devote a morning while in Paris to a talk with U.S. negotiators at the Paris peace talks. But he said he did not see the possibility he would have any contact with the North Vietnamese or Viet Cong representatives while he was there.

CHAMBER PRESIDENT — Stanley Goldsmith, San Rafael sporting goods dealer, will be installed as president of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce at a noon meeting next Thursday at the Elks Club. Goldsmith, a resident of San Rafael since 1954, lives at 405 Quietwood Drive. He operates Stan's for Sports, Inc.

Theft Reported

The theft of a fur-trimmed coat and a sample case, valued at a total of $150, was reported Wednesday to San Rafael police by Ella M. Umland of 193 Railroad Avenue, Woodacre. She said the items were taken from her car while it was parked on E Street between Second and Third streets.

Decision Seen Next Month On Missile System Fate

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The future of the $6 billion Sentinel antiballistic missile system (ABM) to defend the United States against missile attacks by the Soviet Union and China apparently will be decided within the next month.

The Pentagon yesterday halted further acquisition of sites and construction projects, and was under mandate from President Nixon to make the decision — for or against ABM — "based on the security of the United States."

(Wolfback Ridge above Sausalito has been tentatively selected as one of the sites for the missile system. Angel Island is an alternative, according to Army plans.)

On Capitol Hill, however, powerful congressmen were reported softening their all-out endorsement of the ABM. One of them, L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, suggested the Pentagon may be working on a modification or complete substitute for the ADM.

The Chicago Sun-Times, in a copyrighted story quoting "senate sources," said the Nixon administration had decided to scrap the ABM and would announce the decision in mid-March.

Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird was understood to believe suspending the acquisition of sites and construction programs for a month would not seriously delay the years-long project.

Defense officials report the Soviet Union has, during the past two years curtailed construction of some segments of its ABM system, called Galosh. These officials said the Soviets have left some segments of the Galosh ring around Moscow incomplete.

But their best guess is that the Soviets would have held up the project to switch to better equipment, probably better radars.

Sentinel would employ long-range missiles to intercept incoming missiles in space, before they re-enter the atmosphere, and destroy them with X-ray effects from a nuclear explosion.

Suspect To Base

Homer Lee Hall, 21, arrested Tuesday in Marin City for being absent without leave from the Air Force, has been turned over to Hamilton Air Force Base authorities, the sheriff's department reported.

Rohnert Park Plans Fountain Fund Events

The Rohnert Park Cultural Arts Commission last night voted to take on the responsiblity of financing a fountain to beautify the new community and recreation center and scheduled three fund-raising events.

The fountain is estimated to cost $7,000 and will include special light and water display for the front of the building nearing completion on Burton Avenue.

The first event to benefit the fountain construction will be a foreign film festival scheduled for four showings beginning March 21 through April. Headed by Larry Statan, a Sonoma State College student, films mentioned include "Lord Jim," "Moment of Truth," and "Shoot the Piano Player."

Tickets will be sold for each showing as well as the complete series.

Another event will be a weekend bus trip May 3-4 to the Nugget Lodge in Sparks, Nev. Tickets will include transportation, lodging, beverages, meals and spending money.

Commissioner Dr. John Bullen is planning a "mystery dinner" for later in May. Dr. Bullen said, "Those attending will get on a bus in Rohnert Park and be driven to a place dripping with atmosphere and a tradition of good food."

Planning a more serious event at the meeting, the commission set Feb. 20 at 7:30 p.m. for a special preview showing of the Rohnert Park Mayors' Gallery in the council chambers.

The commission will hang framed color photographs of all past and present mayors and councilmen and will indicate the terms served on small gold plaques. After the invitational showing, the pictures will be hung in the city hall vestibule.

Judge Imposes Cleanup Terms

Three Petaluma men have been fined in Northwest Marin Justice Court for possession of an alcoholic beverage in and about a car and throwing bottles on a Marshall-Petaluma Road on Feb. 1.

Placed on one year's probation and ordered to perform 20 hours road clean-up work by Judge David R. Baty Wednesday were Kenneth R. Maack, 19, of 5748 Redhill Road, fined $65; Timothy F. Aurrecoechea, 19, 2004 Gilrix Street and Dale F. Bettinelli, 18, 334½ Bodega Avenue, fined $125 each.

Two Novato men, Jerry N. Morgan, 26, and James L. Underhill, 26, both of 914 Bel Marin Drive, were found guilty of discharging firearms and littering private property at Nicasio Dam on Jan. 14. They were fined $50 each.

Actress, Rock Leader To Wed

Janell Pulis, who plays Lucy in the San Francisco production of "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown," and Robert John Bohanna, leader of the Morning Glory rock group, took out a marriage license Wednesday at the San Rafael Court House.

Both gave their ages as 25 and their residence as Sausalito.

FAMILY

Horse In a Grey Flannel Suit — Delightful, lighthearted Disney comedy. Film gives opportunity to see finest horses in this country jumping the highest barriers.

Paper Lion — Sports writer joins football team as a rookie so he can write an authentic story. Exceptional for football fans.

Winnie the Pooh in a Blustery Day — Film imparts a gentle lesson in sharing with and sacrificing for, one's friends.

Yellow Submarine — Sparkling animated cartoon featuring special humor and music of the Beatles will appeal to those interested in new techniques of cartooning.

ADULTS AND TEENS

Bullitt —Melodrama involves gangsters, police and an ambitious politician. Violence goes all out in blood and gore for its shock effect.

Charly — Poignant dramatization of a fictional case history of first human subject of new type of brain surgery on a mentally retarded young man. Thought-provoking, sensitive performances from the cast.

The FIxer — Powerful, provocative film about a Jew in Czarist Russia who endures inhuman torture as he refuses to confess to a murder he did not commit.

Heart Is a Lonely Hunter —A rather sad story about a deaf-mute who in his loneliness touches the lives of many. Compassionate tale is tenderly told and played with rare perception.

Hombre — Captured by Apaches as a child, Paul Newman finds it hard to adjust in the white world of eastern Arizona in the 1880's. Strong script, characters are well chosen.

BORDERLINE
(Some say Adults Only)

Cool Hand Luke — A brutal downbeat story about a non-conformist prisoner in a Southern road construction prison camp. Paul Newman is excellent in the title role . . . depressing.

The Night They Raided Minsky's — Filmed in New York's lower East Side set in the 1920s film recreates the burlesque shows with bawdy skits, double entendre and is garish and at times offensive.

ADULTS ONLY

Faces — Two middle-aged people find their marriage empty and seek satisfaction elsewhere Dialogue is pretentious and there is much profanity and sex.

Secret Life of an American Wife — Satirical farce about sex life of 34-year-old mother before and after marriage. Nudity, risque dialogue and adultery are casually presented.

Thomas Crown Affair — Plotting and execution of big bank robberis is ingenious. Criminal and investigator become involved in torrid love affair. Crime pays well in this case. Very modern treatment: all phases of immorality are taken for granted.

Slavery was abolished in Puerto Rico in 1873.

Tarpon, Springs, Fla., is known as "the sponge center of the world."

Singing Auditions Slated For Opera

Singing auditions for the College of Marin's production of Prokofiev's "The Duenna" will be held from 7 to 10 p.m. Feb. 24 and 26 in Room 72 of the Fine Arts Building at the Kentfield campus.

The four-act comic opera, based on a play by Richard Brinsley Sheridan, is scheduled to be presented May 9, 10, 15, 16 and 17.

The State Flower of Montana is the bitterroot.

ART REVIEW

Israeli Artists At Last Seen In Bay Area Shows

By LAURA DEVENDORF

Where it has been all this time is not explained, but Israeli art is suddenly enjoying its first exposure in Bay Area galleries. Through March 7, the College of Marin art gallery and through Feb. 23, the San Francisco Museum of Art in the Civic Center, are featuring drawings, watercolors, prints and mixed media paintings by contemporary Israeli artists.

The museum show has more the look of the explosive growth and activity of this new country.

The watercolors and mixed media selections are frequently frenetic, with lines, colors and shapes boiling turbulently over the surfaces. And while some of the abstract styles seem warmed over, their treatment still lends its own excitement, the tortured figuritive pieces their own personal pathos in a blended image that somehow paints a portrait of Isreal itself.

In a quieter, less conglomerate way, the College of Marin exhibit also has persence.

The Marin show is predominantly prints. Lithographs, etchings, drypoint, collographs, itaglio and silk screen account for much of it and the concepts are as many as the printmaking techniques.

The etchings are often strange, moody things, as gray and restrained as serigraphs by Arie Kilemnik are shimmering with hot, jarring color. Rina Rotholz' figures and symbols in simple velvet tones have an antique dignity. Yehuda Yordan's collographs swirl with embossing, the colors mixing as they rise on ridges and sink into crevices.

There are a few charcoal drawings and paintings included, notably Shlomo Koren's pencil and oil drawings which are all white except for a sparse jumble of mathematical scrawls. Koren is also shown in San Francisco.

The only other artist in both shows is Uri Lifchitz. His smokey opaques washed over violent shapes and hues are like clouded explosions of energy, the best examples of which are in the San Francisco exhibit.

There is one final artist in the College of Marin group whose work is singularly impressive. Al-Kara's ink drawings have exacting hairline networks so intricate and so perfectly drawn that they could be engravings legal tender.

CONCERT REVIEW

Dominican Creates A Colonial Comedy

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Joint efforts of Dominican College's American Music Research Center and the college's opera workshop last night made possible a good insight into the colonial American equivalent of today's musical comedy.

This was a performance in Angelico Hall of the ballad opera "The Chambermaid," a one-act comedy.

Putting together 23 original airs by well known composers of the era with a chorus, overture and dance and fitting the words of the play to them was a scholarly piece of arranging and musicianship by Sister Dominic, O.P., the musical director. And the staging by workshop director Arthur Conrad was carried out with careful attention to period detail and with well planned timing, action, stage business and costuming.

The play with words complied in 1729 by Edward Phillips (or Charles Johnson?) is built around a confusing plot of mistaken identities, focused largely in the love affair of a young nobleman disguised as a gardener and a chambermaid who is really a young woman of good family.

While most of the story was told in the spoken word, there was some lovely music in the airs sung by some of the characters. Unfortunately the echo Angelico has, when not filled with people, added further to the difficulty of understanding character relationships and intrigues.

Speaking and singing more slowly, where possible, would help but might interfere with the pace and ebullient spirit of the work.

Acting was successful within the framework of the exaggerated and mannered style of the genre, but there was a little too much exaggeration and lack of finesse in the case of Melvyn Poll's portrayal of the rascally Brush and Fred Lewis's Sir Nicholas Wiseacre. Poll did not have much chance to sing in the very powerful tenor we have heard before but showed considerable talent for comedy.

The best singing and acting was done by soporano Elizabeth Heffernan as the chambermaid. Her voice had a beautiful clear ringing quality with much flexibility, and she had a fine feeling for phrasing.

Playing the nobleman, Colin, Sherry Silva was more convincing in the spoken parts than when singing in her light mezzo soprano. Catharine Collette's more mature soprano was pleasing in the role of Roselia, and she acted well.

Suanne O'Hare showed a lot of potential as a comedienne in the role of the servant Dolly, and Marjorie Broughton as Lady Wiseacre and Stan Berde as File were good in their spoken parts.

Adding much to the period character and musicality of the evening was accompaniment on stage by a costumed duo, Nancy Bennett at the harpsichord and Anne Norman playing the flute.

A high point musically before the ballad opera was the beautiful trio, Op. 3, No. 1 by Antes, an example of the rich heritage of Moravian music in America that people know little of today. Students performing it were violinists Mark Jordan and Carma Romano and cellist Jed Barahal. The alcove to the right of the stage where they played made perfect acoustical background by enhancing resonance.

Another performance will be given tonight at 8 p.m.

Stroke Suffered By Dr. Fleming

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Dr. Willard C. Fleming, who is to retire March 1 at the University of California's Medical Center chancellor, has suffered a stroke.

The hospital said yesterday he is in "serious but not critical condition."

Dr. Fleming, 69, is to be succeeded by Dr. Philip R. Lee, who is now assistant secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Mutiny Trial Challenge Voted Down

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — The court-martial of one of 27 soldiers charged with mutiny at the Presidio stockade entered its second day today.

Attorneys for the soldier, Pvt. Nesrey Sood, 25, of Oakland, yesterday unsuccessfully challenged the seating of the presiding Army officer, Lt. Col. George R. Robinson, on the grounds of possible bias. He presided this week at the trials of the first two defendants to be tried under the mass mutiny charge, and recessed their trial Wednesday with orders they be given sanity hearings.

The 27 participated last October in a sitdown strike, which the Army has called a mutiny, to protest conditions at the stockade and the shotgun killing of a fellow prison during an escape attempt.

The court-martial board of 10 officers, after 18 minutes behind closed doors, returned to the courtroom to announce they have voted not to sustain the challenge against Robinson.

The remaining 24 defendants are to be tried at a later date. Sood was scheduled to face trial with eight other soldiers, but their attorney obtained a delay to March 18.

Among the 24, some of them veterans of Vietnam, is Pvt. Keith C. Mather of San Bruno, one of the Marin City Nine who chained themselves to clergymen in an antiwar demonstration last summer at St. Andrew United Presbyterian Church.

Auto Tampering Suspects Booked

Two 18-year-olds from Marin City were booked into Marin County Jail early today on suspicion of vehicle tampering after they were found stripping stereo squipment from a car at Shelter Bay apartments, Mill Valley police reported.

Police said an officer on patrol spotted Leroy Barrows, 25 Burgess Court, and Michael Patrick Fowler, 389 Drake Avenue, at 12:34 a.m. tampering with the car of Geoffrey T. Chapman, 4105 Shelter Bay Avenue. Each was held in lieu of $302 bail and was to appear today in Marin Municipal Court.

Panel Attorney Asks PG&E Income Probe

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—An attorney for the state Public Utilities Commission has called for an investigation of all aspects of the income of Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

PUC attorney David R. Larrouy made the request yesterday during the opening session of a hearing on the $13.7 million first phase of a requested rate increase by PG&E.

The hearing continued today before Examiner Carl T. Coffey.

Larrouy asked the commission to deny PG&E's motion fr rate increases for gas.

He said if the increase is a true offset of labor and surcharge tax expenses, the company needed only $6 million to bring it to the authorized rate of return of 6.25 per cent.

Larrouy said it was imperative that all aspects of the utility company be investigated, including the electrical section which is currently returning more than 7 per cent.

The cost of the utility's proposed rate increase to the individual customer will not be known until the investigation, which will take several months, is completed, a commission spokesman reported.

Former PUC commissioner William M. Bennett of Kentfield appeared with several other public witnesses to protest the fare hike. He attacked "the advertising budget and political expenditures" of the utility, and urged that its officials be required to testify on political expenses.

Planting Planned

Enchanted Knolls Homeowners Association directors Wednesday tentatively agreed to landscape Lomita Drive between East Blithedale Avenue and Kipling Drive, according to president Joseph Mendell. He said the landscaping project would be undertaken if approved by the city and if it did not cost too much.

$25,000 Burglary Denied By Suspect

Kenneth Wayne Vernon, 29, of San Rafael pleaded innocent Wednesday in Marin Municipal Court to a charge of burglarizing Disco Wonderworld in San Rafael on Sept. 21. Preliminary hearing on the charge was set for March 27.

Another man named in connection with the $25,000 burglary, Clifford James Thomas, 26, of Daly City, is in state prison, according to police officers.

Cyclists, Pedestrian Collide; Three Hurt

One person was hospitalized and two others injured in an accident at 7:31 a.m. today involving a motorcycle and a garbage man, Novato police reported.

Joseph R. Rigsby, 18, of 6 Dusel Court, Novato, a passenger on the motorcycle, was taken to Novato General Hospital with cuts on his face, both arms and left knee, and possible head injuries, the hospital reported. The full extent of his injuries was not yet determined.

Howard J. Butler, 40, of Oakland, an employee of the Bay Cities Garbage Co. was to see his own doctor for a bruised left arm, according to police.

Butler's garbage truck, according to police, was stopped in front of 1031 San Jose Boulevard in Rafael Village. Butler stepped include Drs. Joseph J. and struck by the motorcycle, police said.

Speedy Trial Is Ordered In Marijuana Case

A 24-year-old San Rafael man, who faces a variety of felony and misdemeanor drug charges, is entitled to a speedy trial whether or not the district attorney's office has a chemist ready to testify, Judge Hadden W. Roth of Marin Municipal Court ruled yesterday.

James A. Sprague of 14 Sentinel Court has been arrested four times in the last six weeks and is charged with several counts of marijuana possession, assault with a deadly weapon and four misdemeanor charges of being under the influence of narcotics, including one of heroin.

Judge Roth yesterday reduced his bail from $6.250 to $1.875, but his attorney said that Sprague still would be unable to bail out of County Jail.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Ernest Zunino said that a state chemist would not be avialable to testify until Feb. 20, but Judge Roth declined to postpone the case that long. He set a prelininary hearing for 3 p.m. Tuesday.

Driver Reports Pistol Threat

A Fairfax motorist reported yesterday that another motorist, declaring himself a police officer confronted him with a drawn gun, San Anselmo police said today.

Thomas J. Lyons, 120 Gregory Drive, told officers he was following a car driven in erratic manner on Center Boulevard at 11:30 p.m. yesterday when the vehicle halted at the intersection of San Anselmo Avenue.

Lyons said the driver got out, approached his car, drew a pistol and declared he was an officer. The man, described as in his late 40s, about six feet tall, weighing about 180 pounds and wearing light blue uniform pants with black stripes, had no provocation for the incident, said Lyons.

He said he told the motorist to either put the gun away or use it, and the motorist re-entered his vehicle and departed.

Man Is Found Dead In His Locked Auto

Louis Matthew Caso, 40, a newspaper advertising saleman, died yesterday at Marin General Hospital, shortly after being found unconscious in his car parked at his Greenbrae apartment.

Larkspur police said Caso was found in his locked vehicle at 373 Via Casitas, by a neighbor about 11:10 p.m. A hose had been run from the vehicle's exhaust through a window, they said.

The neighbor, Charles McMartin, also of the apartment house, broke a car window and attempted unsuccessfully to revive Caso, then called the Larkspur Fire Department.

Caso was momentarily revived, but died at 11:30 p.m. Police said a note found in the car indicated despondency.

Caso, who came to California 12 years ago and to Marin three years ago, had been a salesman for the Herald Tribune in Marin about six months.

He is survived by a wife, Ruth. An autopsy will be held, according to coroner's investigator Keith C. Craig. Funeral arrangements are pending at Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

Fairer Taxes Pledge From Treasury Boss

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy said today that making taxes fairer for all Americans "will have a high priority" in the Nixon administration.

However, he revealed no specifics.

Kennedy issued a statement, in the form of a news release, which said only that the new administration is studying the whole field of tax reform.

Special emphasis, he said, is being given to whether tax burdens are equally distributed, to the possibility of using tax credits "to help solve the problems of the cities and of our disadvantaged" and to the need for an all-encompassing reexamination of the nation's whole tax system—state and local as well as federal.

A Treasury spokesman who answered newsmen's questions after Kennedy's statement was handed out said the administration is aware that there is considerable public dissatisfaction with taxes.

"I would not be surprised to see some significant tax legislation enacted this year," the spokesman said, "but nothing like a big package that will cover the whole gamut of proposals that have been made. I think the American people are saying something and the message is getting through."

Richmond Bridge's Traffic Increasing

I-J Special Report

OAKLAND — A total of 480.174 vehicles crossed the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge during October, 1968, compared to 445.326 during the same month in 1967, the Division of Bay Toll Crossings reported today.

Gross revenue was $405,856 for the month, which saw an average of 15,489 vehicles cross the bridge each day.

Survey Ordered For New Center

Directors also agreed to purchase materials for channel markers around Strawberry Point, to be installed by the Strawberry Cove Yacht Club, Mrs. Heick said. The materials are estimated to cost $130-$150, she said.

The board, meeting Wednesday, set April 7-13 as cleanup week when the Mill Valley Refuse Co. will collect free of charge up to three cubic yards of trash from each household.

A Five-Minute Market Run Brings Home Bacon

FIRST STOP—Mrs. Lewis swings into action at the meat department, slinging a roast into her cart.

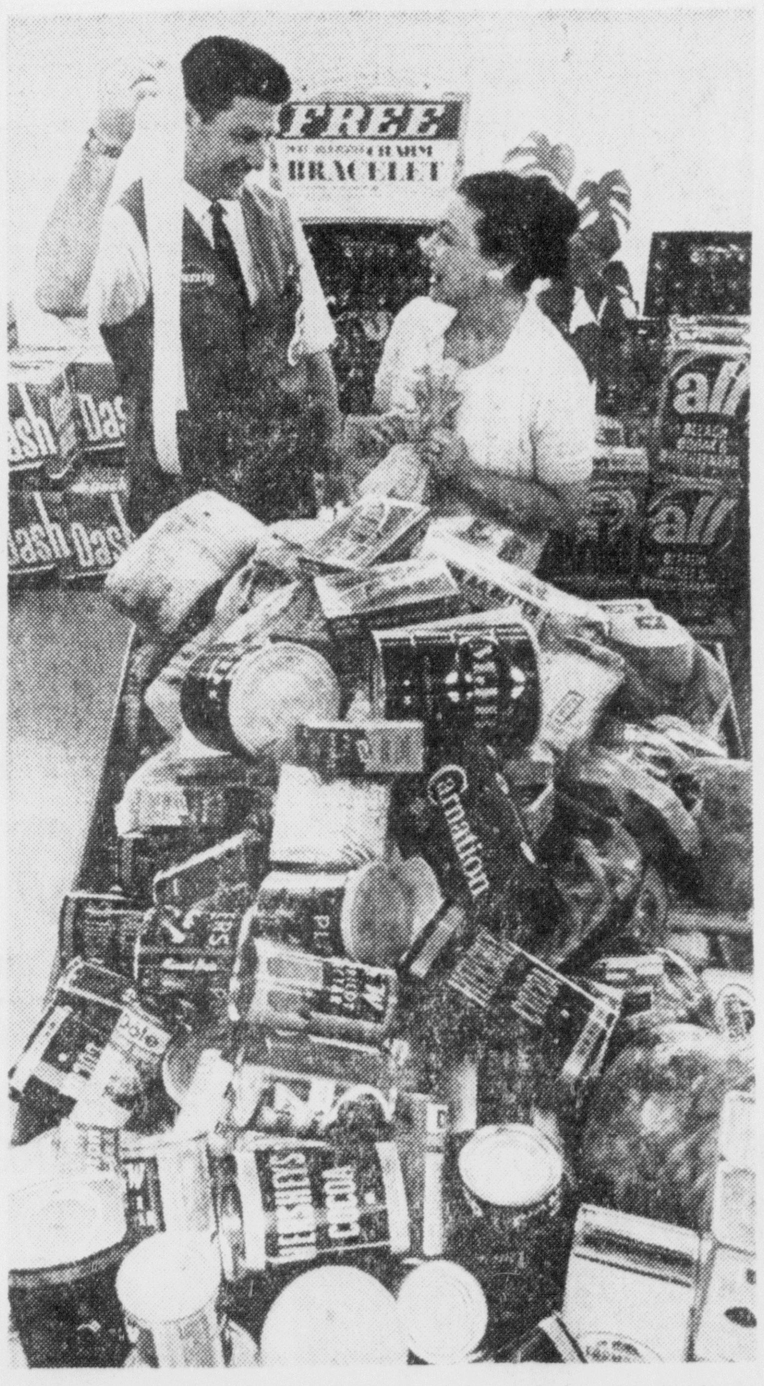
BINGO PRIZES!

THOUGHTFUL MOMENT—Having loaded up with butter, Mrs. Lewis scans the selection of cheeses.

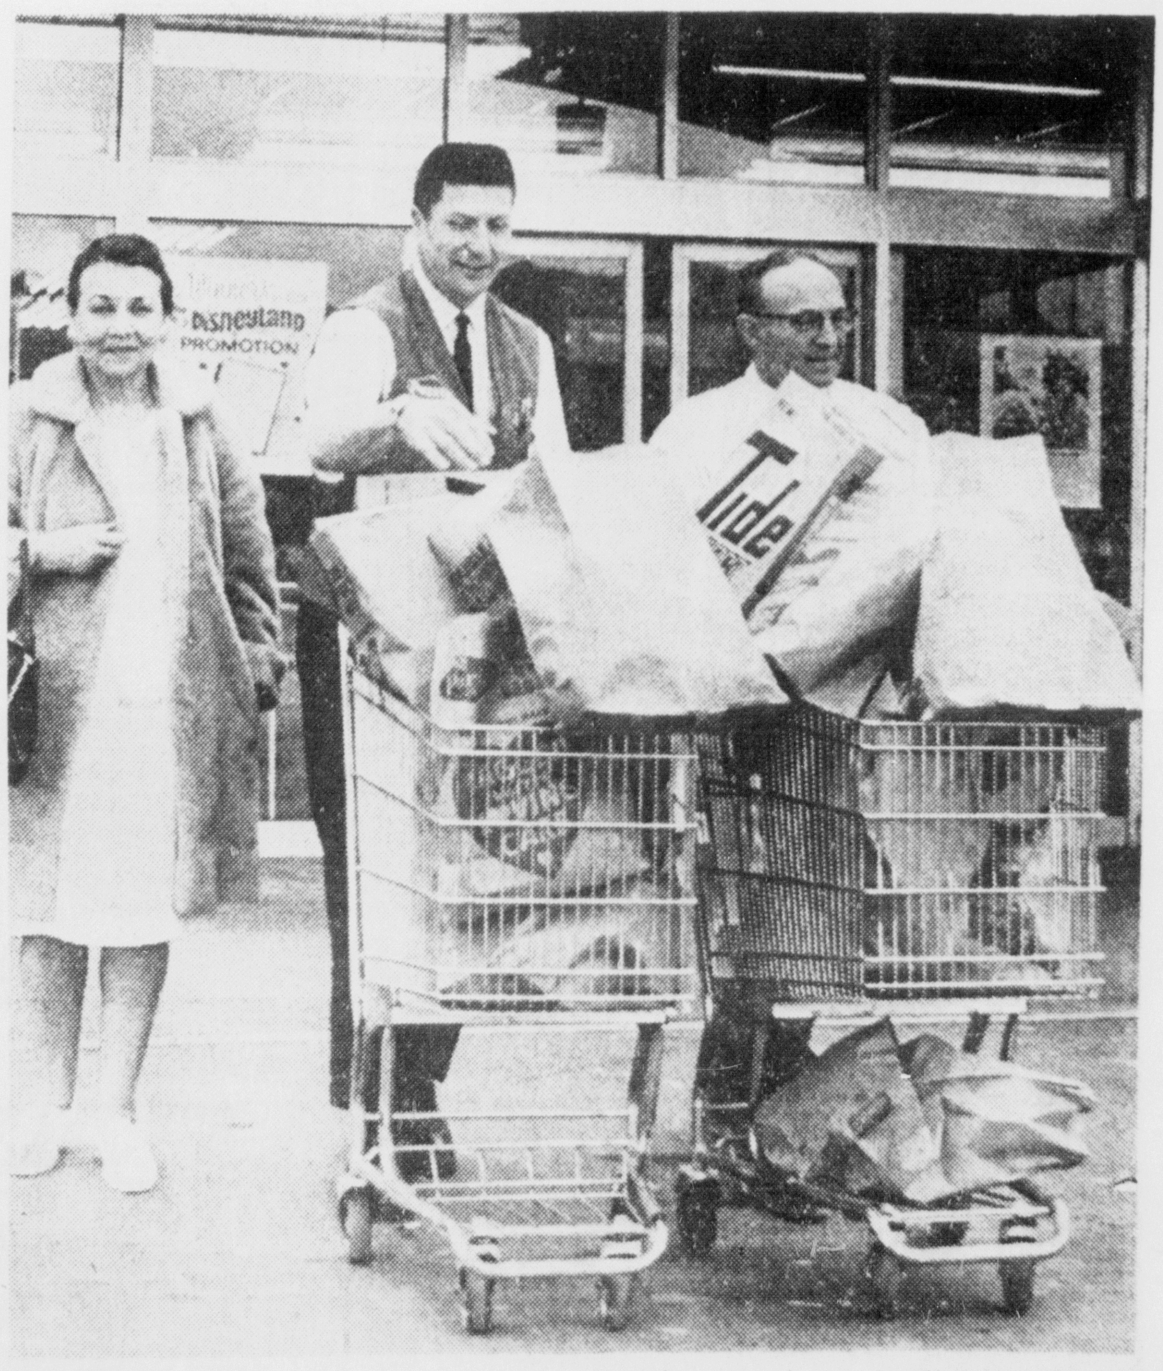
TWO AT A TIME—Mrs. Lewis moves through the canned goods, using both hands at the same time.

QUICK GLANCE — While on the move, Mrs. Lewis keeps an eye on shelves for items she might want.

END OF THE RUN—Straining to move a heavy load of canned goods, Mrs. Lewis heads back to the starting point.



FINAL TALLY—Store manager Robert Lebsack, holding register tapes, tells Mrs. Lewis she has gathered $388.72 worth of food, with meat totaling $201.65 and groceries $87.07.



HEADING HOME—Mrs. Lewis, accompanied by Lebsack (center) and head butcher, Romeo Biasotti, right, heads toward the family car. Now the family can settle down to fancy meals.

THIS WEEK IN BUSINESS

Bay Area, New Mexico Firms Discuss Merger

Discussions regarding a merger are now under way by Nuclear Engineering Co. at Walnut Creek and Continental American Royalty Co., Inc. of Dallas.

Nuclear Engineering is engaged in the business of radioactive waste disposal and similiar services. It operates disposal sites in Nevada, Kentucky, Illinois and Washington.

Continental operates a large potash mine and refinery near Carlsbad, N. M., as its principal business.

SKAGGS PAY LESS DRUG STORES, headquartered in Oakland, reported $84.6 million net sales for 1968, up 20 per cent from 1967 and the highest sales in its history. Earnings before income taxes rose 45 per cent to $4.9 million. Earnings per share, after including the 10 per cent income tax surcharge, increased 24 per cent to $1.07 per share. Payless Drug Store in San Rafael is not a part of this operation.

BROADWAY-HALE STORES, INC. of Los Angeles has been notified by the Federal Trade Commission that its merger acquisition of Neiman-Marcus Co., Dallas, has been approved. Under the merger, 1.05 shares of a recently authorized Broadway-Hale convertible preferred stock will be issued for each share of Neiman-Marcus common stock. The merger must still be approved by Neiman-Marcus shareholders.

SANTA FE INDUSTRIES, Inc. consolidated net income for 1968 amounted to $59.6 million or $2.43 per share, compared with $2.30 per share in 1967. Fourth quarter income at $20.9 million was only slightly above the 1967 fourth quarter. After taxes, 1968 net earnings amounted to $1.81 per share compared to 1967's $1.72 per share.

COMALCO INDUSTRIES PTY., LTD. largest Australian producer of alumnium, reported consolidated net earnings of $10.8 million for 1968 after provision for income tax. This represents a 29 per cent increase from the previous year. Comalco was established in 1961 as a joint equal partnership of Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corp. and Conzinc Rio Tinto of Australia.

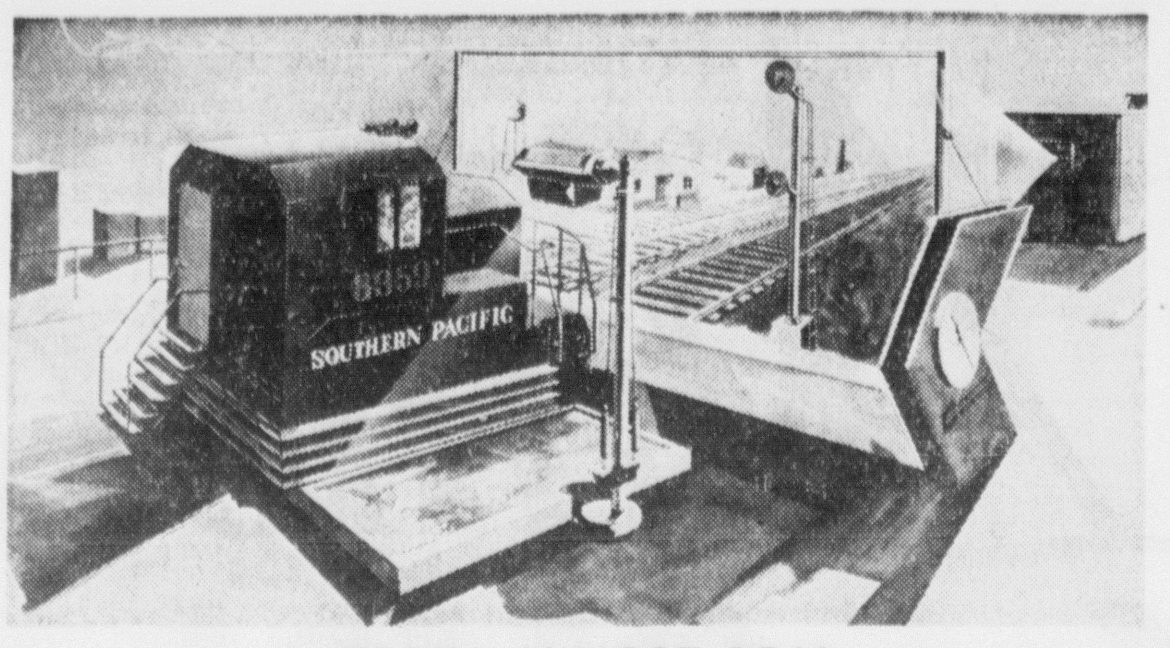
RADIO CORP. OF AMERICA directors have voted to recommend that the company's name be changed to RCA Corp. The change will be submitted to stockholders at their May meeting. While RCA's original communications business has continued to grow it now accounts for only 2 per cent of its total volume. Besides its manufacturing projects in various fields the company is now engaged in publishing, car rentals and leasing and is proposing to enter the paper industry through a merger with the St. Regis Paper Co.

LIQUIDONICS INDUSTRIES, INC. has offered to purchase 1,158,700 shares of UMC Industries, Inc. common stock for $30 per share. The offer expires next Friday.

WEYERHAUSER CO., Tacoma-based forest products firm, has reported a $105 million net profit for 1968, equal to $3.51 per share and up 75 per cent from 1967's $2 per share. Sales exceeded $1 billion, up 16 per cent.

AMERICAN BUILDING MAINTENANCE INDUSTRIES, San Francisco, reported record sales of $55.8 million and $1,145,723 net income for 1968. Sales were up 12.5 per cent from 1967 and net income was up 38 per cent. Earnings per share were $1.02, compared with 76 cents in 1967. The company plans on being listed on the American and Pacific Coast Stock Exchanges in 1969.

NATIONAL AIRMOTIVE CORP., a San Leandro-based aircraft engine specialist company, has been acquired by the Republic Corp. of Beverly Hills. National sales and service operations total over $3 million annually. Republic Corp. operations in communications, electronics and other fields are nationwide and the company employs more than 6,500 persons.



TRAIN ALMOST REAL

Southern Pacific has ordered the railroad industry's first simulator to train locomotive engineers. Artist's conception of the $1 million system shows how multiple motion picture screens will provide the trainee's view of the track and a computer, at left, which will generate "incidents" to make the training experience more realistic. Conductron Missouri Division of Conductron Corp. will build the simulator for Southern Pacific.

Wall Street Ends Week On Upturn

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed with a small gain on balance today. Trading was fairly active.

Volume was 12.78 million shares compared with 12.57 million yesterday.

Of 1,568 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange, 705 advanced and 619 declined. New highs for 1968-'69 totaled 25 and new lows 12.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined .3 to 360.1 with industrials off .1, rails off .4 and utilities off .3.

The New York Stock Exchange index of some 1,200 stocks, however, rose 4 cents to $58.65.

The market was a little higher from the start, improved through most of the day, and ended in heavy trading with the tacker tape four minutes late.

Prices were irregularly higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Clorox traded on 88,400 shares, off ¾ at 25¼. Goldman, Sachs represented institutions on both sides of the transaction.

Cab Firm Buys Airport Buses

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Barrett Transportation Inc., which operates 27 buses from San Francisco International Airport, will become the property of Yellow Cab Co. Feb. 28 for an undisclosed price.

Yellow Cab, a subsidiary of Westgate-California Corp. of San Diego, already has the taxicab franchise from the airport and operates 503 of San Francisco's 739 cabs.

General Manager Robert J. Hamilton of Yellow Cab said there were no immediate plans for changes in personnel.

INCOME TAX FACTS

By PETER JAMES WIKEL, CPA

Some Expenses Are Allowable As Deductions From Income

Wikel

The Internal Revenue Code allows individuals to take a deduction for ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred (1) for the production and collection of income; (2) for the management, conservation or maintenance of income-producing property, or (3) in connection with the determination, collection or refund of any tax.

The expenses of commuting between your residence and any business location situated within the area of your tax home are not deductible, regardless of distance, or different locations on different days.

NON DEDUCTIBLES

If you haul tools, etc., in your car in commuting to and from your place of business for your convenience, the cost of operating the car is non-deductible.

However, if you cannot store the tools, etc., at the place you work, or if you work at different locations every day, and also you would not have used your car except for hauling tools, etc., which are too bulky or heavy to be carried otherwise, the expense is deductible.

CLOTHING POLICY

Work clothes and uniforms are deductible if your occupation is one which specifically requires special apparel or equipment as a condition of employment and it is not adaptable to general or continued usage so as to take the place of ordinary clothing.

Deductible work clothes include the cost of special apparel and equipment required in the occupations of ballplayers, firemen, police officers, letter carriers, nurses and civilian faculty members of a military school.

The cost of theatrical clothing and accessories used by professional musicians and entertainers is deductible if used solely in the course of their employment.

Uniforms of transportation employees — air, rail, bus, etc., are deductible if they are used solely in the course of their employment.

SAFETY ELEMENTS

Some occupations require safety shoes and helmets, others require work gloves, oil clothes and rubber boots, such as are worn by commercial fisherman. Costs of these are deductible.

If you are a reservist in the Armed Forces, you may deduct, to the extent not reimbursed, the cost of your uniform if it may legally be worn only while performing duties as a reservist.

In computing the deduction, the cost must be reduced by any non-taxable allowance you receive on account of such expenses. If you are on full-time duty in the Armed Forces, the cost of your uniform is not deductible.

SUBSTITUTE PAY

To school teachers, amounts which you pay for a substitute teacher to take your place are deductible. However, you are not entitled to this deduction to the extent that it is allocable to amounts excluded as sick pay.

Subscriptions to professional journals, etc., relating to your business or profession.

Membership dues in professional societies, and union dues. Also small tools and supplies, employment agency fees, physical examination fees paid by you and required by your employer to establish your physical fitness to retain your job.

Moving expenses for a new job, traveling expenses not reimbursed by your employer, entertainment expenses not reimbursed by your employer, school teachers' sabbatical leave expenses, use of your home in your work, attorneys' and accountants' fees on tax matters, automobile expenses not reimbursed by your employer, and educational expenses.

These and many more items are deductible if you know the rules.

Get a copy of "Your Federal Income Tax 1969 Edition for Individuals" from your office of the IRS (cost 60 cents) and look up every item of expense you had in 1968. You may have an unexpected deduction.

Studies show that 85 per cent of fatal accidents occur in the home.

Sausalito Police Report Burglars Busy Four Places

Cash and four watches were taken in four weekend burglaries, Sausalito police have reported.

Three residential burglaries were committed Sunday and the victim of one saw the burglar as he fled, Retta Donaldson of 301 Bridgeway, said the burglar fled her house as she arrived home at 6 p.m. He made off with two pocket watches of unknown value. Mrs. Donaldson said the burglar was white, approximately 21, slender and of medium height.

Jay Williar reported his apartment at 80 Bulkley Avenue was entered Sunday and $30 taken. Fifteen dollars was taken from the residence of Martine Bulto, 408 Locust Street.

One Freed, One Held On Credit Card Use

A charge of illegal use of a credit card at the Emporium against a Vallejo man was dismissed yesterday in Marin Municipal Court, but a co-defendant was bound over to Superior Court on a similar charge.

Jesse Jackson, 28, will be arraigned in Superior Court Monday. Discharged was Wilmer Barkus, 39. They were arrested Dec. 6.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Forest Products Company Has Profitable Outlook

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. Seeking a growth stock for my daughter's education — she is now 14 — I purchased Southwest Forest Industries. Ddi I make a good choice? — E.G.

A. You have bought shares in a well-situated, integrated forest products company with an above-average outlook. The company has been active in acquiring firms in related areas to supplement or extend its operations. Four acquisitions are pending which could add $11 million to annual sales.

In addition to production of lumber and plywood, waste products are utilized in the manufacture of pulp and paper. Newsprint is sold principally to Hearst Publications through a long-term contract. Real estate and a short rail line are other aspects of company operations.

In the six-month period through October sales were up 28 per cent to $45 million while earnings were 83 cents a share for a gain of 52 per cent year to year. On a fully diluted basis, earnings for the full year could reach $1.25 a share from 95 cents in fiscal 1968.

Q. Most mutual funds, when new, come out for around $10. How is it possible that after five years of remarkable performance I was able to buy my mutual fund for $8.50 and now nine months later it is only $12.50? Do funds split? Why is there such a variety of prices?—F.S.

A. Merchandising is an important factor in fund prices and lower prices have a broader marketing appeal.

Your fund, which has done very well, split its shares 3 for 1 late in 1967. Although you have a gain of 47 per cent in your shares, this is not necessarily indicative of future performances. Stock splits and dividends are commonly used by funds to keep their shares reasonably priced; more than a dozen funds split last year.

In order to understand fund price variations, you must know how daily quotes are figured. Total assets are divided by the number of shares outstanding to calculate the bid or lower price quote. The higher or ask price is net asset value plus loading or commission charge.

State To Solve Bike Hazards

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Highway drainage gate hazards to bicycle traffic in Novato, Stinson Beach and Point Reyes Station and 18 other Bay Area locations will be eliminated under a $13,662 contract let by the state Department of Public Works.

The Filipovich Construction Co. of Orinda was the lowest of 18 bidders on the project Wednesday, the department reported. The work consists of welding steel bars over the grates to raise them to pavement level.

The grates are located at highway intersections with local cross streets.

Tiburon Firemen Tank To District

Tiburon Volunteer Firemen have donated a 15,000-gallon folding water tank to the Tiburon Fire District, according to John Grbac president.

The $350 tank, which is used to hold additional water at a fire site, was purchased with proceeds from the annual firemen's ball held in January.

Big spread on the home range*

Ride your eyes over the I-J and you'll see more local Marin and Sonoma County news stories than you'd find in a month of metropolitan or weekly newspapers.

Because our reporters and editors never forget, in rounding up the news, that this is YOUR HOME RANGE. They never forget that local news helps everyone feel at home, be a part of local living, become a better citizen.

This is why our newsmen ride herd so closely on public events, politics, education, cultural affairs, community doings—jumping the fences too, after strays. And since news, like new grass, springs up daily, our staff is always in the saddle on the stirring, spurring drive for information.

I-J covers every acre of important, local news

I-J news bureaus in Mill Valley, Corte Madera, the Civic Center, Novato, and Petaluma (besides the main San Rafael editorial office) bring you on-the-spot reporting.

Photographic coverage, Southern Marin and Southern Sonoma County — and everything in between!

Detailed, in-person reporting of city and county affairs that concern you, the public.

At-the-game reporting of school sports events —by the I-J's own sports staff.

Joint Sewer Agreement Is Reached

The Cotati City Council last night approved an agreement with Rohnert Park to use the neighboring city's sewage treatment and disposal plant.

The agreement sets no charges for use of facilities, but a section allows Cotati to withdraw if the plan is not financially feasible.

The Rohnert Park City Council has not yet studied the plan, but Cotati City Mgr. Gordon C. Howe said the agreement will become final if approved by the Rohnert Park Council. Cotati then would enter into a sewer line construction program to link up with the Rohnert Park system.

The Cotati City Council also:

IMPROVEMENTS Postponed for further study an ordinance that would give the planning commission authority to require improvements such as curbs, gutters and sidewalks where feasible.

SALARY — Granted a regular salary step increase to patrolman Olindo Locarini from $547 per month to $578. Locarini has completed his six months on probationery status.

EQUIPMENT — Authorized Howe to go ahead with the sale of unused city equipment which includes a street sweeper and a mower.

CLAIM — Rejected claim of Johnny Ray Earl, who is charging illegal arrest for drunkeness and distrubing the peace on Oct. 20. Earl is seeking $25,290 for court expenses and humiliation.

WEEDS — Approved motion to begin enforcement of the weed abatement ordinance by sending notices to property owners in violation.

REPAIR — Approved expenditure of $75 for routine repairs to the patrol car.

Ross Valley Clinic Medics In New Home

The Ross Valley Medical Clinic with its staff of 22 doctors has moved to its new home in Greenbrae.

After more than 20 years at 1030 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Kentfield the clinic officially opened this week at 1350 South Eliseo Drive in its new $1,400,000 building near Bon Air Road and Marin General Hospital. Construction on the building was commenced a year ago this month.

In addition to the 22 physicians practicing here, the clinic maintains a laboratory, X-ray and physical therapy facilities and a pharmacy. The clinic continues under C. Don Clay as administrator.

Headed by Dr. John C. Siemens, the group of physicians from in front of it and was Robert J. Alderson, William C. Andrews, E. Muriel Bennett, Frederick Burrell, Wendell Butler, J. Lyman Hurlbut, Duval B. Jaros, Morris R. Katkov, Clarence A. Lesko, Bruce S. Manheim, William G. Manson, Edward A. McCrum, Milton K. McDowell, Chester B. Noyes, Paul Ogden, Warren F. Rogers, Mark Rubenstein, J. Gavin Southerland, R. J. Truex and Joe R. Utley.

Two radiologists, Dr. Paul O. Sather and Dr. Merall Roth, also associated with the clinic, maintain offices at 599 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Hijacked Jet Passenger Is Asking $50,000

MIAMI (AP) — A $50,000 lawsuit charging Eastern Airlines with negligence has been filed here by a passenger who said he suffered a heart attack and robbery after his plane was hijacked to Cuba.

It was the first suit here against an airline in connection with a hijack. Several thousand Americans have been hijacked.

Rocco Roy Pompeo, 47, a car salesman from North Miami, was aboard Eastern Flight 401 hijacked Jan. 2 by a Negro gunman who held a 2-year-old boy hostage on the scheduled New York-Miami flight.

Pompeo said his $175 camel hair coat and an envelope containing $156 cash were lost while the plane was in Havana. He said he tried to take the coat, with the money in a pocket, but Cuban militiamen prevented him from doing so.

He said he suffered the heart attack Jan. 4, the day after the passengers were flown back from Cuba.

Go-Ahead Is Given On School Sketches

The fourth district school, to be planned by the architectural firm of Steele and Van Dyke, will be located south of La Tercera School on what will be an extension of St. Francis Drive.

Supt. Dean Magown said the school should take an enrollment of 700 to 750 students and estimated that construction would begin in the spring of 1970.

Magown pointed out the school site is presently an open field, but predicted that by the time construction is completed, it will have subdivisions on two sides. He said the extension of St. Francis Drive that will serve the school will be completed this summer.

The Old Adobe School District Board Also:

FURNITURE — Awarded $6,451 in contracts for furniture for the addition to La Tercera School. Contracts went to Virco Furniture Co., $504 for teacher desks; Holsinger Furniture Co., $3,561 for student chairs, and Anco Sales Co., $2,386 for folding tables.

FAMILY LIFE — Heard report from Magown that his office is meeting with representatives of Parent-Teacher Associations to plan a family life education program. He said his office may present a program recommendation to the board at the Feb. 20 meeting.

TRAILER — Approved purchase of a $3,000 trailer to be used as temporary office space for the district office. It will be tentatively located at La Tercera School.

GRANT — Approved district application for $4,300 in federal funds to support the counseling and guidance program.

GASOLINE — Awarded bid to Phillips Petroleum Co., to supply gasoline and diesel oil to the district for the year.

Legislator To Oppose Closings Of Vet Offices

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A Republican assemblyman said today he will oppose the Reagan administration's closing of five of the 13 offices which process Cal-Vet farm and home loans.

"The department not only cannot justify this decision, but is guilty of not telling the truth," Assemblyman William E. Ketchum, R-Paso Robles, said in a written statement.

On Dec. 31 Veterans Affairs Director James E. Johnson said the closing of offices at Santa Rosa, Oakland, Modesto, Bakersfield and Inglewood would save about $90,000 a year.

Johnson, who since has been appointed a U.S. Civil Service commissioner by President Nixon, said the legislature's action raising the Cal-Vet loan maximum from $15,000 to $20,000 made a great demand on funds prompting money-saving moves.

Street Lighting Poles Discussed

The Fairfax Design Review board was told last night that the number of poles for street lighting on Bolinas Road from Broadway to Sherman Avenue could be reduced since it is possible to install up to three fixtures on a pole.

Phase one of the proposed new street lighting system originally called for 16 poles in this area. Donald F. Heinitz, Pacific Gas and Electric Co. lighting representative, presented the plan but no action was taken, according to secretary Dell Blodgett.

The board agreed to hold a special meeting, but no date was set, to discuss the city's sign ordinance. It will also ask the Fairfax Planning Commission to set a public hearing on the ordinance.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Occidental's Main Industry Is Dinners By The Thousands

OLDEST OCCIDENTAL RESTAURANT—Union Hotel, one of three major restaurants which have made eating a big industry in this Sonoma County community, was built in 1879. On an average Sunday, Union Hotel, Negri's and Fiori's will serve up to 4,000 dinners.

Occidental's biggest industry is eating.

This amazing little Sonoma County community, which lies roughly half way between Sebastopol and the Pacific Ocean, comes to life at dinnertime. Once known as Howard's Station, it was founded during the middle of the last century by William (Dutch Bill) Howard, who settled in the area about the time the rest of California was caught up in the gold fever.

Occidental's food service business is controlled by three — or rather four —Italian families, the Fioris, the Negris, the Panizzeras and the Gonnellas. Operating at three restaurants, Fiori's, Negri's and the old Union Hotel, together they will serve on an average balmy Sunday possibly as many as 4,000 dinners.

Make that an Easter Sunday or Mother's Day and the total is somewhere between 8,000 and 9,000. This means a five-time turnover at the tables and up to 10 or 12 times the population of the entire town and its environs.

Main roads enter Occidental from three directions and each of them provides a channel from near and far points for the flow of cutomers. Naturally on weekdays the tide of dinner patrons ebbs, but all three restaurants remain open seven days a week to capture whatever trade may develop.

THERE ARE NO printed menus and dinners are limited to a choice of three entrees, chicken, duck and steak. In the case of Negri's there are four, with both fried chicken and chicken cacciatora served. In all cases, prices are under $3 for chicken and under $5 for steak, with the duck about halfway between.

But to describe any of these meals simply as "a chicken dinner" or "a steak dinner" does them a gross injustice. The entree is all but lost in the vast array of food. Soup, salad, antipastos and side dishes are piled on the table. By the time you reach the entree you may be too full to eat it, so just take it home with you.

Lunches on Mondays through Fridays are no less overwhelming. In the $1 to $1.50 range, meals are generous, savory to nose and appetizing to the palate.

The Fiori family has been in the restaurant business here for about 30 years and the Negris eight or nine years longer than that. Negri's burned down in 1966 and was rebuilt along more modern lines and with much more space that same year. It can serve 800 meals at a single sitting, compared with Fiori's 350.

The Union Hotel is the oldst of the three. It was built in 1879 and was taken over by Carlo and Mary Panizzera in 1924. Their daughter Lucille is married to Dan Gonnella and they manage it. There is also a modern Union Motel nearby. Restaurant seating in the old hotel is 450 or 500. All three restaurants have their dining rooms divided, so if business is quiet you are not isolated in a big hall.

Anyone within 100 miles of Occidental should visit there at least once in his lifetime, and having accomplished that feat will undoubtedly return for a repeat performance. The ride from any direction is scenic and enjoyable. But on a weekend, be prepared for a wait, even with all the tables that are available.

THE FILET STEAK IMPERIAL on the Empress Delight Dinner at Kublai Khan is mouth watering, and you don't need the fabled sword of the great Mongolian monarch to cut it.

Technically, I suppose, there may be more classical Chinese cuisine than this dinner, but the difference is inconsequential when it comes to the sheer pleasure of eating. Besides the filet, there are bird's nest soup, butterfly prawns; gim wah chicken filet sauted with ham, mushrooms, bamboo shoots and water chestnuts; fried rice, tea and dessert. Add lobster if there are four or more of you. The tab is $4.95 per person, but it's well worth it.

An alternate dinner at the same price which should appeal to those with a more Occidental taste is the lobster and chateaubriand, served with appetizer plate, salad, dessert and tea or coffee.

Take-out Chinese dinners are also offered at this Strawberry Town and Country Village dinery. Prices range from $1.75 up to $4 per person, with the same add-on features when ordered for three, four or five persons or more.

FLEUR DE FRANCE, San Rafael, has steadily increased its dinner business, particularly on weekends, and has put out a new menu.

Several of the former favorites are still represented, but among the additions are London broil, saute sirloin Marchand de vin, veal cordon bleu, a club steak billed as Fleur de France steak, double cut lamb chops, frog legs dore or sec and broied lobster tail. Complete dinners are from $3.10 to $5.25.

THE SAN RAFAEL ELKS CLUB has been cited for its coffee.

The Coffee Brewing Center of the Pan American Coffee Bureau in New York has presented the club with its 1969 Golden Cup accolade. This is only its 15th award made this year.

THERE ARE THREE good reasons for the annual celebration which will take place at Lin Fa Gardens in Northgate next Friday night.

First, it commemorates Ethel Barrie's fifth anniversary at this location. Also next Friday happens to be Valentine's Day. And if that isn't enough cause, Chinese New Year's is just around the corner, the following Monday.

But the entertainment, as it always is here, will be Polynesian. Look for two floor shows and dancing at 8:30 and again at 10:30 p.m. Time your arrival for dinner accordingly, with a little leeway, so you can get a table.

Hal Schutz will play the organ in the Mai Tai Room, so there will be plenty of music and gaiety.

NOW FEATURED at Latitude 38 in Sausalito is the "new sound" of Johnny Allair's Trio. Johnny is at the organ, Dale Ramey plays guitar and Dennis Herne is on drums. They play rock-jazz Tuesday through Saturday night sfrom 8:30 p.m. through the week and from 9 p.m. on weekends.

FOOD COSTS at grocery stores are up 4 per cent over a year ago and the cost of restaurant meals are said to have increased 5.7 per cent in the last 12 months.

Pietro Pinoni of Greenbrae, owner of Pietro's 311 Restaurant in San Francisco, wants it known that one figure is higher than the other for several good reasons: Wages for restaurant help are up 5 per cent; welfare is up 10 per cent; income and business taxes are both higher than the year before.

Just in case you were going to make a crack about restaurants getting an extra slice of the melon.

THE SAN FRANCISCO DINERS CLUB, mentioned in this column last week as having an office in the Albert Building, San Rafael, has changed to Room D, 935 Lootens Place, where more telephone lines were available.

FOR SATURDAYS AND SUNDAYS at Sabella's from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. there is now a "Carefree Weekend Menu." Included are a number of eggs, seafood, meat and other specialties ranging from $1.75 to $3.95.

I understand that the late Angelo Sabella's pride and joy, the "Mark Angelo," a 33-foot Pacemaker, fully loaded for sport and commercial fishing, is up for sale and berthed in Sausalito. Talk to Lou Sabella about this.

Monday night's annual American Cancer Society dinner at Sabella's promises to have an array of talent to make this a memorable evening of entertainment. I left this item until last, hoping to get the cast of Hollywood performers who will be on the program — but that information did not come in time for this column.

Make reservations at Sabella's or the society's office, 18 Mary Street, San Rafael.

New Letterman Opening Is Set

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Army will open its new $13 million, 550-bed Letterman General Hospital on the Presidio of San Francisco next Friday.

First patients are to use the 10-story structure in March.

The building is designed eventually to replace the 28 separate building in the present complex, many of them dating to the Spanish-American War.

Letterman, the main Army hospital on the West Coast, will have seven operating rooms and an X-ray machine capable of transmitting two million photon units to a tumor patient.

Snipers Fail In Hitting Policemen

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Snipers unsuccessfully fired on two policemen who were arresting two youths on auto theft charges last night in the Hunters Point district.

Patrolmen Willis Garriott and Bob Gillin were not hit and said they could not find the weapons nor the gunmen.

WINE DISCOVERIES at CAFE BON VIN
WHAT SUNDAYS they have in SAN ANSELMO!

Two people last Sunday thought all we served was Bonnet Carré (Doctor's Cap). But it was only one of a dozen rarely-encountered bruncheon dishes served every Sunday. $3.95, which includes champagne, fruit, hot breads, coffee — and more champagne.

Five people promised to return each week until they had tasted all twelve "dejeuners de roi" (royal court brunches). We promised to keep ahead of them with new discoveries. They sighed . . . happily.

Seven people refused our bottle-fermented brut champagne. We were on the point of tears until we discovered they were, respectively: 9, 7, 14, 6, 19, 12, 17 years of age.

Nine people ordered Dover Sole in the style of the Miller's Wife; after which they ordered the Miller's Wife.

Provincial Dinners Wednesday (Carbonnade á la Flamande on Wednesday, February 12 — a Flemish dish which uses beer like wine should be used — preceded by a "Tasting of Wine Discoveries" led by Fred Cherry). And like the Champagne Gala — 10 courses; and the Grand Dinner — 6 courses; and the Petit Dinner — 4 courses . . . priced from 3.75 to 9.75.

And there's wine! Ah, such wine!

Reagan Loses Aide To Nixon

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Spencer Williams, Gov. Ronald Reagan's secretary of human relations, has resigned to accept a post in President Nixon's administration, the Sacramento Union reported today.

The newspaper said Williams did not say what his new job will be but it probably will involve health, education and welfare or law enforcement.

Williams, 47, formerly was counsel for Santa Clara County and ran unsuccessfully as a Republican candidate for attorney general in 1966.

William's current job involves administration of Medi-Cal, the state's medical care program for the poor, and welfare.

'Marshal J' Charge Not A Misdemeanor

The Independent-Journal erred Wednesday in reporting that Jay Alexander, 42, of Novato, had been charged with felony drunken driving as a result of an accident in Novato.

Alexander, a former television cowboy known as "Marshall J," is appealing a conviction in Municipal Court on a lesser drunken driving charge.

Mud Slide Damages Novato Home

Heavy rains this winter have caused a hillside in the Pleasant Valley section of Novato to slip, doing damage estimated at $10,000 to a house at 76 Trish Drive.

The house is owned by Ewald Westphal, who said the ground started moving during the weekend and in its downward push moved the flat ground under the house upward, lifting the foundations of the house.

Westphal, who had purchased the home from Sono-Marin Builders, made an exchange with them for a house at 2238 Parkland Way, Petaluma, and moved there yesterday.

Sono-Marin has engaged Holtzinger Brothers of Corte Madera to remove mud from behind the house so that it will not cave in the walls. The firm reports that the house will have to be lifted and a new foundation put under it when the ground stops moving.

Approach Repairs

Pavement repair on the Marina Viaduct on the San Francisco approach to the Golden Gate Bridge will require the closing of the southbound curb lane between 5:30 and 10 a.m. on Sunday, the Division of Highways has warned motorists.

Locks Takes Stand In Base Court-Martial

Airman Michael R. Locks took the stand in his own defense today at Hamilton Air Force Base as his court-martial moved towards its climax. A verdict today was considered possible.

The 25-year-old airman, formerly of San Anselmo, is being court-martialed for violating an Air Force regulation by taking part in uniform in a San Francisco peace march last Oct. 12 and appearing on a television show the night before.

He testified for 30 minutes today, but was not allowed to challenge the constitutionality of the Air Force regulation, a stand on which the defense had rested its case.

Col. John H. Leonard, presiding officer, was to give instructions this afternoon to the seven-officer court, which decides both on the verdict and sentence.

Leonard refused to allow Locks to testify on his beliefs about the unconstitutionality of the Air Force regulation. On objections by government prosecutors earlier in the trial, Leonard had ruled that the regulation was not a violation of the First Amendment. He repeated his ruling today.

Before the ruling, Locks had said he had knowingly violated the regulation because "I felt to my mind that this regulation was not constitutional."

Locks also told the court he did not think his appearance on the television program to boost the march was in violation of the regulation.

Today's action followed unsuccessful attempts by Locks' attorneys yesterday to block showing of video tapes of the demonstration which they said would make it impossible for the airman to get a fair trial.

Leonard ruled the tapes were "material and relevant," overriding protests by civilian defense counsel Richard J. Werthimer of San Anselmo that they were prejudicial.

Maj. William B. Wirin, Locks' chief military counsel, went even further than Werthimer, charging that the prosecution's "sole purpose" in using the tapes as evidence was to "prejudice the judges."

The tapes, which show about 75 minutes of the three-hour demonstration, were viewed by the court yesterday afternoon. Wirin contended that tapes, which included a number of virulently antimilitary speeches, "cannot help but bias" the judges, some of whom are Vietnam veterans.

He argued that showing the tapes to the seven career officers would "inflame them to disregard their sworn duties."

Three Retire At Air Base

Three men have retired after long terms of military service from headquarters of the Western Communications Region at Hamilton Air Force Base.

They are Col. Maurice A. Prudhomme, M/Sgt. George M. Robinson and S/Sgt. Fred H. Pratt. Each received the Air Force Commendation Medal on his retirement.

Prudhomme, who was the inspector general for the communications headquarters, retired after more than 20 years' service in Europe, N'orway, Italy, Libya and Germany. He moved to San Mateo after his retirement.

Robinson, formerly of 102 East Kelly Drive, Hamilton, retired as cryptograph accountant for the communications security branch of the directorate of telecommunications for the western communications region. He lives at 42 Buena Vista Drive, Novato.

Pratt, formerly of 1151 Ransome Drive, Novato, who was an accounting technician with the communications headquarters retired after service in Korea, England, Taiwan, Vietnam and the United States. He and his wife and two children have moved to Greenfield Center, N. Y.

Berkeley Chief Takes U.C. Post

BERKELEY (AP) — Police Chief William P. Beall has resigned effective May 1 to take over the University of California campus police force.

Beall, 51, said he had made a "verbal commitment" some time ago to become chief of the 64-man campus police force which he believes will "soon be substantially larger."

He said he was taking the new job because of "pressing family needs." He did not elaborate.

He has headed the 130-man Berkeley city force since August, 1966. He is a graduate in criminology at U.C. and has served on the Berkeley force since 1941, except for two years with the FBI.

'Oakland 7' Attorney Attacks Infiltrator

I-J Special Report

OAKLAND — The attorney for seven accused antidraft conspirators yesterday conducted a scathing cross-examination of a police officer who infiltrated the "Oakland Seven" militant group as they planned their antidraft demonstrations last October.

James Bruce Coleman, 22, testified he had been assigned to spy on various antiwar groups less than a month after he joined the Oakland Poilce Department.

Coleman admitted, under attorney Charles Garry's questioning, he had been uncovered shortly before the demonstrations at the Oakland Induction Center.

Garry asked if one of the militants had called Coleman a "rat fink" and added, "and that was the truth, wasn't it?"

Judge George Phillips ruled several of Garry's questions out of order during the two-hour cross-examination and told many supporters of the defendants in the courtroom to stop their laughter.

On Wednesday Coleman testified that Michael J. Smith, 27, formerly of Corte Madera and one of the seven, was the man who instructed march monitors in the use of a four-foot long bamboo shaft as a club.

"Confetti, marbles, darts, lettuce, shaving cream and rocks," Coleman testified yesterday were suggested by a defendant, Frank Bardacke, as items to be used against police.

The felony conspiracy trial was being continued today.

Students Must Find Ways To Spend Big Fund

After three prosperous football seasons, the Student Body Association at Terra Linda High School has more money in reserve than it can keep.

Supt. John F. Plank notified the student council that $8,500 of the $11,500 in reserve must be spent, explaining that student bodies are not meant to be profit-making organizations.

As a result, a committee of administrators and students has been formed to explore ways in which the surplus funds can be used most effectively.

The committee is seeking suggestions from students how the funds should be used.

School Bids Rejected By Trustees

Four bids for construction of Reedland Woods School, all above the engineering estimate of $870,000, were rejected last night by Reed Union School District trustees.

Supt H. Joe Edgington said the district will seek new bids as soon as possible on the main building of the school, containing classroom pods, library and multi-media center.

Low base bid was $941,000 by Fostmeier Construction. Others were $960,000 by Pendergraft Construction; $1,017,000 by Martinelli Construction, and $1,029,000 by Hall Construction.

The board set a special meeting for 8 p.m. Tuesday at Bel Aire School to meet with the architect and discuss site problems at Reedlands Woods and discuss rebidding procedures.

The board received some names for a citizens committee to work on a proposed tax rate election, but postponed naming committee members until the Tuesday meeting.

The board also took no action in a closed session on hiring of personnel, Edgington said.

In its meeting Monday, the board accepted the resignation of Lester Livingston, science-mathematics teacher at Del Mar School, who is going into private business. Julie Askeland was hired to replace Livingston at a salary of $6,800.

No School

Adult evening school classes in the Tamalpais Union High School District will not be held Wednesday because it is Lincoln's Brithday, school officials reported.

LEAGUE OF VOTERS MOVES TO REVIVE COUNTY HEALTH PLAN

A "HERITAGE TEA" yesterday afternoon at the Mill Valley home of Vera Schultz honored past presidents and longtime active members of the Southern Marin League of Women Voters. Five past presidents reminisce about early days as recalled after looking at minutes dating from the Marin league's founding in 1936 and recorded in the book held by Mrs. Schultz. From left, they are Mmes. Carl Spring, Oliver Conger, Harold H. Bjornstrom, Vera Schultz and John Giuliani. Current president Mrs. E. J. Boessenecker, seated on floor at right, looks at a scrapbook of clippings of league activities. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

League Of Women Voters Honors Past Officers And Members

Past presidents and longtime active members were honored at a "heritage tea" by the Southern Marin League of Women Voters yesterday at the home of Vera Schultz in Mill Valley.

Marking the start of a year-long 50th anniversary celebration being held nationwide, the tea was attended by several charter members of the Marin League, formed April 20, 1936.

In more than 30 years of existence, Marin Leaguers claim a number of accomplishments in the field of citizen participation in government and politics. From the beginning, members made detailed studies of local governments, published county-wide in a "Know Your Town" series.

A direct result, according to early members, was the decision to inaugurate a city manager form of government in Mill Valley — later in a number of other Marin cities.

More than eight years of study, lobbying, recommendations and public urging led, in 1948, to the establishment of a county health department. Members of the Marin leagues took the lead in the fight to improve the laws and their enforcement in all areas of public health, including the then county farm, maternal and child hygiene and inspection of food handlers in stores and restaurants.

League attention to the problems of sanitation led in the 1940s to the formation of the Southern Marin Sanitation District. Currently league members are making specific recommendations to the Board of Supervisors concerning solutions to Marin's sanitary sewerage problems.

Mrs. Schultz recalls the league's most widely known activity, Voters' Service, as having been "mostly enthusiasm, manned by a dedicated group of amateurs." She describes one election year when the league rented an empty store in downtown Mill Valley, staffed it with groups of members to register prospective voters and provide them with the organization's famed list of "pros and cons."

"I blush to recall the crude hand-lettered signs we made," she said, "but we also stationed members on the sidewalk and 'enticed' passersby to enter.

"Whereupon, other members set to work registering the hapless captive, answering questions on ballot measures and eventually performing a real and appreciated service to the community."

"It is interesting to note," says Mrs. Carl Spring of Sausalito, "that although the National League of Women Voters was an immediate outgrowth of the suffragette movement just after World War I, the Marin League was formed, for the most part, by women who were teen-agers during the bloody years before women gained the right to vote in the United States.

Coed To Edit College Paper

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — For the first time in the more than 100-year history of the undergraduate newspaper at Brown University, it will be edited by a coed, Beverly Hodgson.

The 20-year-old junior at Pembroke, the women's college affiliated with Brown, is majoring in English and will be the first female to hold the top editorial post on the Brown Daily Herald since it began publishing in 1866.

NEW SHOW

Explore The Arts On 'Small World'

By JOAN LISETOR

"Why don't you do something about a good television program for children? Mrs. Kenneth Melmon asked a friend, who had recently been hired by television station KUDO.

"Why don't you do something?" he countered.

THIS CONVERSATION resulted in a children's program, Small World, seen five nights a week on the area's newest UHF station (Channel 38.) Elyce Melmon not only stars in the show but also writes it and makes all decisions on format and content.

Thinking it would be fun to write her own show, Elyce presented an outline to the program director. Her idea was to explore the liberal arts field and appeal to the creative education of five to twelve-year-olds.

"I had some television experience on the Mayor Art show," she explained. "It was fun working with the children, but I had an ambivalent feeling since it was not my own show, and I couldn't do things the way I wanted."

An interest in children began for the former Elyce Edelman when she was a student at Lowell High School in San Francisco.

"A GROUP OF us used to go to a nursery school for underprivileged children. It was called Canon Kip, and it was located on top of an office building on Natoma Street (an alley south of Market Street in San Francisco). We visited about once-a-week and played with the children on the roof top, the only place they had to play. We had to watch them carefully to be sure they didn't fall off the roof."

From these experiences grew an interest in nursery schools. She started her own nursery school in Washington, D.C., where she and her husband were living while he furthered his studies in medicine. Dr. Melmom is now chief of pharmacology at the University of California.

"I've needed an outlet since my husband travels all over the world giving lectures," she said.

Her outlets are numerous. As a volunteer she lectures at Coleman School on art appreciation. Her son, Brad, eight, and daughter, Debby, five, are students at Coleman. She is in her third year of nursery school teaching at Alpha Schools in San Rafael.

"I have continued teaching at Alpha because I enjoy the personal contact with children that you don't get from a television camera," she explained. "I stay busy, but my hours have always coincided pretty much with Ken's and the children."

THE CHILDREN critize the show, and she says they are sometimes very critical.

"Brad's favorite program is on at the same time as Small World," she said. "He is a cartoon addict, so I know what parents are up against who feel their children watch too much violence and hostility on television. I have tried to appeal to the mothers since children don't watch television of their own volition."

Small World with its cultural awareness theme began on Dec. 31. The first month the shows were devoted to the field of art with visits to art galleries and guests from the field of art. Currently the theme is music.

"The themes are engineers to explore and find a medium for the child to communicate with his peers and society," Mrs. Melmom explained.

SHE USES PUPPETS, dolls and other props to tell stories, most of which she has written herself.

A recent show began with Mrs. Melmom singing "I've Got Plenty of Rhythm" and went into a discussion about rhythm.

"You can live without music — but not very well," she told the audience. She described how rhythm effects the body, making you want to tap your toes, clap your hands and snap your fingers, and when the record "Hello Dolly" began it was difficult to imagine that anyone watching could stand still.

Guests have included professional musicians who relate to children.

Bill La Swan was one such guest. In addition to being a professional musician he has a hobby of collecting household items that can be used to make music. Mr. La Swan explained to the audience that everything is musical and proceeded to demonstrate with pots, pans, pieces of pottery, empty bottles, a piece of chain and a fork.

"A little improvisation and you have an orchestra," he told the children. "Music is all around you."

From Bach to the Beatles — Small World is exploring music. Each month the theme will change, but Elyce Melmon's idea — a good television program for children — will continue.

HOLDING A small world is Elyce Melmon, who appears five nights a week on Channel 38. The television show, Small World, which explores the liberal arts field and appeals to the creative education of children, is also written by Mrs. Melmon, a resident of San Rafael.

Designers Contrast Styles For Milady

By NADEANE WALKER

LONDON (AP) — London's fashion season wound up with one show that puts the ladies in trouser suits, and another that sets dressmaking back 25 years, to about the place where the "New Look" came in.

While Michael went all out for the trousers that are still taboo in top restaurants here, Lachasse went back to the 1940's with hems that nearly cover the knee and sheath-fitting clothes that bring back hips and bosoms with a vengeance. In this season of the see-through and the nudie look, Lachasse seemed downright prudish.

MICHAEL'S VERY long-jacketed suits were belted, with pleated skirts ending an inch or so above the knee. Two-yard long scarves went with everything. Yoked, tab-fronted shirtwaisters were queen of the show.

It's hard to tell whether Lachasse is ahead of his time or behind it, but he's certainly out of step. Alas his midknee hem line, wide rounded shoulders, draped bosoms and gathered-on skirts looked sadly old-fashioned. Lozenge and geometric prints added to the effect.

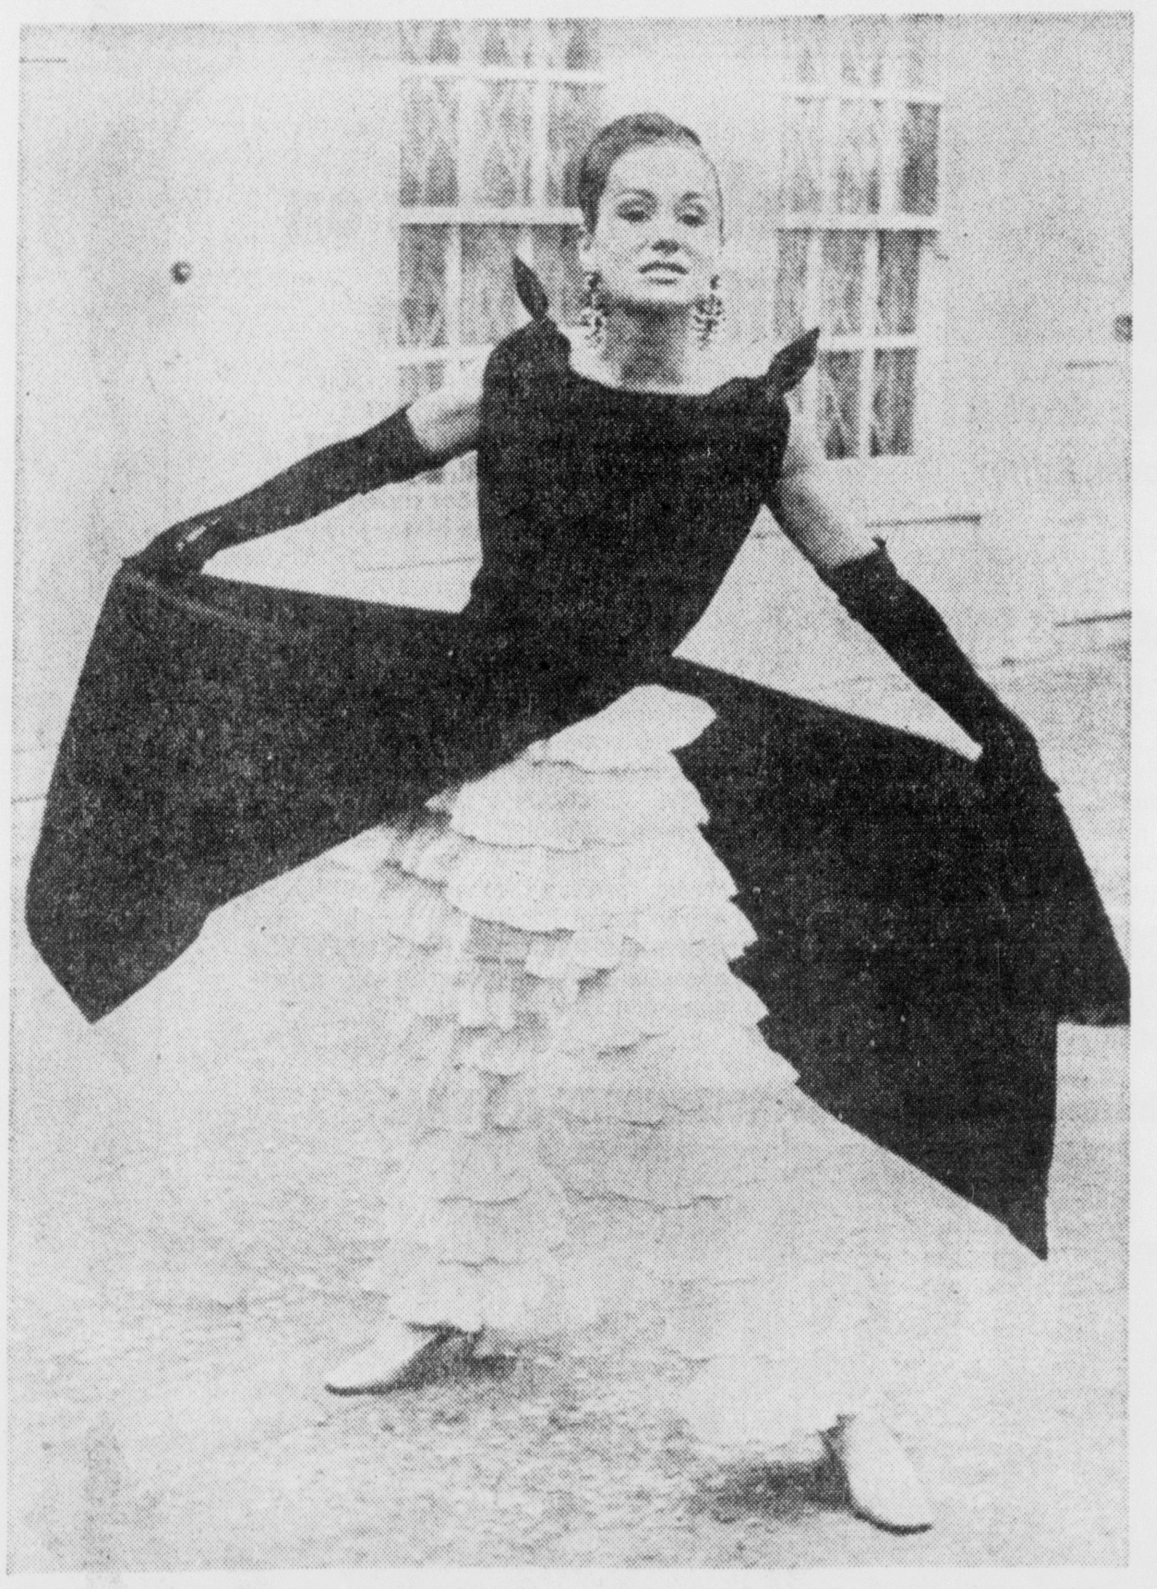
THERE WAS A roll call of such fashion foibles of yester-year as step and sunburst pleating, ruffled apron and bib fronts, handkerchief-point chiffon skirts, cape backs and fur boleros. Some waistbands and belts nearly brought back an hour-glass figure.

Coats were cut in a loose almond shape, and some were wrapover kimonos. Suits had short jackets and straight skirts, sometimes with a kick pleat in the back.

In earlier collections here, Hartnell, Hardy Amies and Mattli all liked the A-line and a just above the knee hemline. Pleats, plaids, checks and some giant floral prints were in all the shows.

HARTNELL STARTLED with his first-ever trouser suit, leading London fashion editors to speculate on whether the queen will wear them now that her dressmaker has bowed to the inevitable.

But the liveliest show of the season was not couture but high class ready to wear. Worth, with American designer Hylan Booker went all Japanese and rather naughty with hip and navel cut-outs.



THIS EVENING outfit composed of knife-pleated pantaloons in pink silver lurex and black nylon tabard was presented in the 1969 spring and summer collection of Lachesse in London. (UPI Cablephoto)

San Domenico Alumnae Names Mrs. Robert Dawson President

Mrs. Robert W. Dawson Jr. of San Rafael is elected president of the San Domenico Alimnae. A member of the alumnae group four years, she has previously served as vice president.

MRS. ROBERT DAWSON JR.

Members are participating in a bridge tournament and are making plans for the San Domencio Singers appearance at the de Young Museum in San Francisco on March 6. A luncheon will be held in September to raise funds for the organization, which advances the interests of the school and promotes the welfare of the alumnae, graduates of Dominican Convent and San Domenico School for Girls.

Patricia Ann Suhr Dawson is also a member of the Junior League of San Francosco, the Auxiliary of the Mothers' Milk Bank and St. Sylvester's Women's Guild.

Mrs. Dawson has lived in Marin eight years. She and her husband, who is in the insurance business, have two children: Robert, six, and Elizabeth Ann, four years old.

Following graduation from Dominican Convent, Mrs. Dawson attended the University of Southern California. Her hobbies are cooking, tennis and music.

"We recently spent a holiday in Mexico," she said on the subject of what she enjoys most, "and I look forward to more family traveling of this type."

Other new officers of the alumnae are Mmes. St. George Holden of San Francisco, vice president; Herbert West of San Anselmo, secretary; and Sister Mary Gervaise OP, treasurer.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Older Single Girl's Letter Brings Variety Of Responses

DEAR HELEN:

The 29-year-old woman who said she was still a virgin and not proud of it should think twice before she equips herself with the Pill and advertises that she is available to all takers.

Being pure and untouched is not prudery unless she looks upon herself as a prude.

First, she should stop worrying. If you get anxious about never getting a man, you'll never get one.

When women develop a devil-may-care "Who needs to get married?" attitude, it's surprising how soon someone does start caring.

As for having an affair. She'd better forget it until she is at least 35. They tie you down and keep you from eligible, marriage-minded men. Usually an older woman gets involved with a married man, and that's the end, as far as a permanent life for her is concerned.

Joining a political party and getting active as a worker is a good idea. Maybe an art institute, or a hiking club, or a dancing club? Or how about a cruise or a vacation at a singles hotel? There are many outlets for the single woman. I know. I'm

DEAR HELEN:

I read your article about the 29-year-old "Untouchable" who wants to change things, and I would be glad to help her out. Please instruct her to meet me me at 8 p.m. next Saturday night, with a rose in her hair at —— (Whoa, there buddy, this column does not publish propositions. — EVEN when they're signed "Accommodating")—HELEN

DEAR HELEN:

My husband is 52 and the father of eight kids. I have a little trouble with him. He reads your column every night. . . .

So would you please print where he can get in touch with your 29-year-old "Untouchable?"

—TIRED

DEAR HELEN:

You have a little "caboose" under your column that asks for "amusing incidents." Here's mine.

She played "The First Noel" every hour on the hour — and then she followed it with a ringing rendition of "We Shall Overcome!"

Funny thing: Only a few people noticed. — NEARBY RESIDENT

DEAR N.R.:

Sort of the chimes of the times, what? — H.

DEAR HELEN:

It's true that if you save and send in tea bag tags, certain organizations will provide wheel chairs for invalids. The American Legion in various places collects them. I believe they must get a bushel for each wheel chair. One place you can send them is to the WBUT Phone Party, Box 1626, Butler, Pa., 16001. — MRS. G.F.

DEAR HELEN:

Another place that takes tea bag tags to trade in for needed articles is St. Joseph's Manor, Danville, Pa. It is a convalescent home. — H. H. H.

DEAR MRS. P., H.H.H., and many others:

You learn something new every day. I understand from my "Helen Helpers" that many organizations collect used tea bag tags, though I'm stumped as to what value they can have. Won't someone please clue me in? — H.

ALFRED N. THOMSON

President Prepares Year's Work

Miss Alice Van Houtte of Mill Valley, new president of the Star of the Sea Institute 97, YLI, of Sausalito has been a member of the group 19 years and has previously served as second vice president and marshal.

The present project of the group is making table decorations for Sonoma State Hospital.

The local unit is also participating in the grand institute projects of accumulating money for the golden jubilee burse for training seminarians and for nursing and social work scholarships.

A graduate of St. Mary's Academy in Eugene, Ore., Miss Van Houtte has lived in Marin 29 years and is employed in the gift shop at the Muir Woods National Monument.

She says she enjoys music and good plays more than anything else and her other interests are television, radio and reading.

Past president is Mrs. Anthony Medeiros. Other new officers serving with the new president are Mmes. Sylvina Dawson, first vice president and Frank Fuetsch, second vice president; Miss Eleanor Martinez, recording secretary; Miss Mary Folli, financial secretary; Mrs. Arthur Jewett, treasurer.

ALICE VAN HOUTTE

Tiburon Man Elected President Of Child Development Center

Continuing his interest in Marin's young people, Alfred N. Thomson, former principal of San Rafael High School, has been elected president of the Marin Child Development Center in Tiburon.

The Marin County educator, now teaching at Terra Linda High School, has been on the board of the center for a year. He is also on the board of directors of San Rafael Military Academy, active with St. Paul's Church in San Rafael and a member of the San Rafael Teachers Association.

In its fifth year of operation, the Marin Child Development Center, formerly under the sponsorship of the Belvedere Nursery School Corp., is now an independent charitable corporation. Thomson, first president under the new setup, says "Projects and activities are in the process of formulation." The education of young children who are marginally handicapped is the objective of the center. The program is geared to the needs of children between the ages of three and six.

A native of Scotland, Thomson grew up in Vacaville. He was graduated from Vacaville High School, and San Francisco State College. After service with the Navy in World War II, he studied for the master's degree at Stanford University and entered the San Rafael school system in 1946.

His hobbies, golf and fishing, are an extension of his life-long interest in sports, as player and coach.

The new president is married to the former Constance Mary James. They have two sons, Norma, 21, and Robert, 18.

Other incoming board members are Mrs. Neal Regin, Belvedere, first vice president; Phillip Smith, San Rafael, second vice president; Mrs. James Clark, Belvedere, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Rafael Bricca, Belvedere, recording secretary; Thomas Fleming, Belvedere, treasurer; Jeffory Morshead, Mill Valley, finance chairman; Mrs. John Buxton, Sausalito, nominating committee chairman.

Dr. H. E. Thelander, Tiburon; Dr. Lee Smith, Mill Valley; Mrs. Neil Fulton, Kentfield; Mrs. Stanley Kane, Greenbrae; Mrs. John O'Neill, San Rafael; and Mrs. John Robinson, Ross, are directors.

Mrs. Robert Bastian of Belvedere continues as executive director and Mrs. Wyman Hicks of Sausalito as principal.

The work of the center has been assisted by grants from the William Babcock Memorial Endowment, the San Francisco Foundation and St. Stephens Guild in Belvedere.

Oscar Gonzalezes Are On World Tour Following Wedding Saturday

On a world tour following their wedding Saturday at Our Lady of Loretto Church in Novato are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Justiniano Gonzalez, who will live in Manila, P.I.

Mrs. Gonzalez is the former Janet Norene Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schnur of Novato.

The bride, who is also the sister of Fred Rezzonico of Novato and the granddaughter of Mrs. Effie Cox of San Francisco, was graduated from Novato High School. She attended Lincoln University in San Francisco, and the bridegroom was graduated from the university.

Mrs. Luz Gonzalez of Manila is the bridegroom's mother, and Mrs. Theresita Vallejo of San Francisco is his sister.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

The Order of Daedalians must be one of America's most exclusive fraternal organizations. Founded in 1934 by a group of World War I fliers, its membership is restricted to military aviators and to their male progeny. It is an organization that maintains the special esprit de corps that exists among armed forces pilots, and which supports continued U.S. preeminence in the air and space. Tomorrow's Marin Magazine reports on Golden Gate Flight No. 5, headquartered in our county.

Today's family heirlooms had their beginnings generations back in the past. But heirlooms that will be treasured by generations of the future are being born today. Tomorrow's issue of the I-J's weekend supplement tells the story of one such piece — a carefully crafted cradle, produced to perfection by a Marin home handyman for his first grandchild. It is a story that all those who appreciate fine handiwork will appreciate and enjoy.

ON THE AGENDA

Foresters' Sweetheart Ball To Raise Funds For Hospital

The annual Forest Frolic of the Independent Order of Foresters, Court Marin 1950, will be a Sweetheart Ball, a fund-raising event for the Tuberculosis Terrace of Ross Hospital.

It will be held on Feb. 15 at the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley. Installation of officers will be held at 8 p.m. preceding the dance, and a buffet supper will be served.

Mrs. Lester Bricca, trustee of the Forester Terrace trust fund, reports that funds raised from last year's frolic have kept the terrace patients supplied with supplies for their arts and crafts projects, and provided a new washing machine. The objective this year will be new outdoor furniture for the terrace.

Mrs. Joseph Terchera is general and reservations chairman; Eileen Mariani, decorations, with all officers of the court assisting; Mrs. H. James Thompson, table arrangements; Mrs. Farr Dell Danford, buffet; Mrs. Robert Frost, installation ceremony; Mrs. Frederick Frauens and awards. Mmes. Winifred Gallegos, Caroline Corrigan and Helen Mojzer will check member and guest reservations.

Dr. George Becker, high chief ranger, and the high court officers will conduct the formal installation ceremony. Officers to be installed are H. James Thompson, chief ranger; Pete Caletti, vice chief ranger; William Broshious, past chief ranger; Robert Frost, court deputy; Eileen Mariani, orator; Peggy Danford, recording secretary; Lyle Terchera, financial secretary-treasurer; James Lannert, senior woodard, Olive Thompson, junior woodard; Chet Wood, senior beadle; Ella Frost, junior beadle; Mmes. Jo Bricca, Dolly Frauens, Dorothy Caletti, finance committee.

A MEETING of the San Rafael Junior Woman's Club, will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frank G. Verbeke Jr., 365 Ironstone Court, San Rafael.

Mrs. Robert Kelley, education chairman for the Marin Chapter of the National Foundation March of Dimes, will be guest speaker. "Operation Healthy Babies" is one of the General Federation Junior projects this year and San Rafael Juniors participated in the Mothers March held in January.

Members of the club have also chosen to help in the patterning of a brain-damaged child in the San Rafael area.

Membership is open to all women in Marin County between the ages of 18 and 35. Mrs. Andrew J. Kogan is president.

MILL VALLEY'S Old Mill School Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor its annual pot luck dinner tonight at the school.

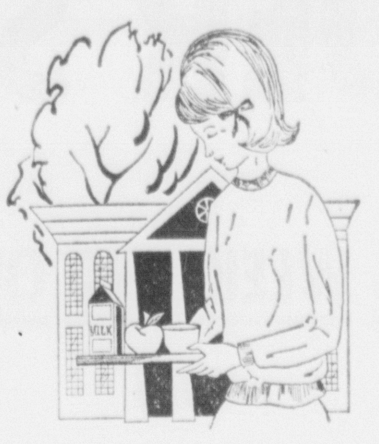
The 6:30 p.m. dinner will be followed by entertainment, including folk singing by Mrs. Valda Kulka, a recorder concert by Leo Christiansen's students and an original folk rock concert by Tamalpais High School students.

Proceeds will be used for educational materials to support school programs.

"A MISSIONARY SPEAKS" will be presented by Mrs. Alyce Wilkins, guest speaker, at Tuesday's luncheon meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the United Methodist Church of Mill Valley.

Mrs. Wilkins served as a missionary nurse in West Pakistan, thus enabling her to bring a message directly from the field. She attended grade and high school in Petaluma and was graduated from the Franklin Hospital School of Nursing in San Francisco in 1930.

In June, 1961, after her children were grown, she reported for training to become a short-term missionary and was assigned to the United Christian Hospital in Lahore.



Hostesses for the luncheon will be Mmes. R. A. Young, Nita Bronson, Ralph Mathiesson and Al Hughes. Mrs. Jack Shapiro will give a devotional message.

NOVATO GARDEN CLUB'S tasting luncheon will have a theme of cupids and flowers at noon Tuesday at the Community House in Novato.

Mrs. Sam Marzell is chairman, and members and their guests will be able to taste special salads and favorite desserts prepared from members' special recipes.

Organ music will be played by Tim Clark.

Mrs. Marzell is reservations chairman. Assisting her with the luncheon preparation are Mmes. Inge Ball, Keith Cowan, William Melson, Robert Hood, John Sloat, Walter Von Tagen, Noel Turner, Anthony Jurkus, John Gore and Chester Galway.

"CURRICULUM CHANGES: Why?" will be the topic of the program of Paul Mobley, assistant superintendent of schools in charge of instruction for the Novato Unified School District, when he is guest speaker at the San Ramon Parent-Faculty Club meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the "B" cluster at the school in Novato.

Mobley will discuss new ideas and new reasons for school changes in courses taught to students. Parents and interested people are invited to the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith, co-presidents, have announced that to promote the cultural arts at the school a committee will be formed to coordinate activities with the council of music and arts.

The San Ramon Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls, under the direction of Mmes. Robert Oddone, Irwin Herlihy and Milton Gordon will be in charge of refreshments.

"PORCELAIN AS ART and History" will be the subject of Mrs. D. C. Ashley's illustrated lecture, the second in a series of three sessions on "Antiques as Art and History," presented by the Marin YWCA on Tuesday from 10:30 to noon, in the PG&E demonstration room at Third and Brooks, San Rafael.

Mrs. Ashley is a long time collector of antique porcelain. Her special interest lies in the beginning pieces of porcelain produced by factories in all countries, as objects of beauty and usefulness. Her lecture will be illustrated with pieces from her collection.

Reservations should be made in advance of the presentation, through the Marin YWCA, 305 Mission Avenue, San Rafael.

"HEARTS AND FLOWERS" will be the theme of the Officer's Wives Club luncheon to be held at the Officers Club at Hamilton Air Force Base on Tuesday.

Wives of officers of the Western Communications Region will be hosts. A program of music and rhymes written by Mrs. Blaine Gale will be featured on the program. Catpain Gale will accompany her on the piano.

Mrs. Alfred Mallet is chairman and assisting her will be Mmes. Eugene Meisner, decorations; Blaine Gale, program, William Smith, food, Robert Hamilton, punch table, William Crowell, publicity, and James R. Stephan and John C. Robeson, reservations.

Mrs. Stephan resides in Novato and Mrs. Robeson lives in San Rafael.

MEMBERS AND GUESTS of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Marin Medical Society will meet Tuesday at the Alta Mira Hotel in Sausalito for a film, "Parent to Child About Sex," with a discussion to follow. The meeting will open at 10 a.m. with luncheon afterward.

Mrs. John McGee, school health chairman for the county and state auxiliary, arranged the program. Arrangements chairman for the day is Mrs. Laurence Friedman. Special guest will be Mrs. James Borges of Napa, 10th district councilor at the state auxiliary level.

A LUNCHEON, "Valentine Chatter," will be given by St. Rita's Women's Guild at noon on Tuesday at the parish hall in Fairfax. The Mountain View Ladies Luncheon League will assist with the serving.

Mrs. David Lippi and Mrs. Peter Forni are chairman and co-chairman, and helping them are Mmes. Ernest Valente, Armand Pelleriti, Louis P. DeMartini Jr., Duilio Artigiani, Robert Davidson, John Cuneo, Emanuel Raffo, Donald Stader, Robert Alten, Robert Ghiringhelli, Leo Cronin, Stuart Schriver and William Beighley III.

Reservations chairmen are Mrs. Leonard Wilgenbush and Mrs. Sebastian Saia. Proceeds will be donated to the Parish Center Building Fund.

ST. PATRICK'S annual fashion show and luncheon will be held on Tuesday at St. Patrick's Center, Larkspur.

Mmes. John Erlwein and Fred Buscher are chairmen for this annual event, with the theme "High Flying Fashions."

MRS. THOMAS MARSHALL of Kentfield has been named to the board of directors of the San Francisco Senior Center. She is a past president of the Senior Center Auxiliary.

THE LUTHERAN Women's Missionary League of Peace Lutheran Church, Mill Valley, is planning a Valentine dinner for Tuesday with husbands of league members as special guests.

The 6:30 p.m. dinner will be held in the parish hall of the church, and following dinner a skit will be presented by some of the members. Hostesses will be Mmes. Philip Olson, Lee Rosevear, Marion Koehn and Harvey Le Jeune.

Miss Winkler Is A Bride

Christ Episcopal Church in Sausalito was the setting for the wedding of Helen Winkler and O B Cavanaugh III at 11 a.m. Saturday.

Mrs. Carlo Rode of San Anselmo was matron of honor. Deborah Morse of Berkeley was the bridesmaid.

Steven Hoffman of San Jose served as best man, and Jack Chapell of San Jose ushered.

The reception at the Alta Mira Hotel was given by Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Matson of Tiburo. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Matson and the late Ernest F. Winkler. Her sister is Mrs. Hilary Harris Smith of Belvedere, and her brother, John F. Winkler of Tiburon. Mrs. Gertrude Morgan of Berkeley is her grandmother.

Helen attended Sacred Heart Convent in Tokyo, and was graduated from the Bishop School in La Jolla. She attended California Western University in San Diego and will continue her education at San Jose State College.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. O B Cavanaugh Jr., of Coronado, and the late Lt. Cmdr. O B Cavanaugh. He is the grandson of Mrs. O B Cavanaugh of San Rafael, and of Jules Chourre of Mill Valley. He did his preparatory work in Europe and was graduated from California Western University. He is employed by the Dictaphone Corp. in San Jose.

The couple will live in Mountain View after a wedding trip to Carmel.

Students at Marin Catholic High School in Kentfield found this mess upon arriving at school yesterday. School officials said fierce winds the night before smashed an aluminum quonset hut used for storage and scattered the pieces around the baseball field. (Photo by Paul Blissenbach)

Probation Chief Recruiting Mapped

Choice of a new probation officer to succeed Walter H. Busher will probably go through the regular process of recruiting statewide, screening by a board, and recommendation of one or more applicants to the county board of supervisors, according to County Administrator Alan Bruce

It is still premature to begin looking for candidates because several preliminary steps must be taken first, Bruce said today. Pressed for specifics, he gave this series of steps which he plans to follow:

1. The first step is to clearly delineate the authority of the probation officer in written form. Probation Officer Busher, in his letter of resignation, said the line of authority is not clearly specified. Bruce said he is seeking help of the judiciary (Presiding Judges Joseph G. Wilson and Hadden W. Roth, and Juvenile Judge Samuel W. Gardiner) in order to draw up a clarification of authority. "We hope to complete this in about a month," he said.

2. Job description for the probation officer, which was written in 1957, will need some updating.

3. Recruiting will be through the personnel office, headed by Robert D. Elliott. The job will be open to both county employees and outsiders. Will recruiting be nationwide? "I think the emphasis should be in California," said Bruce. "I'd be surprised if we need to go beyond that." He said it will not be limited to Marin County. However, experience in the county will be given some weight, as is normally the case.

4. After the applications have been received, an examining board will screen and check. This examining board would include disinterested persons from outside the county. "But my personal feeling is that it should also include the presiding judges of both courts (superior and municipal)," said Bruce.

5. From the top qualified candidates screened by the examining board, Bruce will recommend one or more to the county board of supervisors. He does not know how many he will recommend in this case, but normally, he recommends two or three.

6. The supervisors, as the appointing authority, will make the final choice.

It is possible that one of Busher's deputies could take over as acting probation officer?

"It's possible," said Bruce. But he would prefer to recruit for a permanent department head, particularly when there is ample time to do so. In this case, there is time because Busher's resignation is effective June 30.

Busher now gets a salary of $1,431 per month. There is no salary range for the job.

Tiburon Is Granted 47-Acre Annexation

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission last night approved annexation of 47 uninhabited acres to the City of Tiburon despite opposition from the county's planning director.

The commissioners voted unanimously for annexation of the land, which lies north of the city, adjacent to the Bel Aire subdivision.

County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker said a larger annexation would be more feasible, one that included the Bel Aire Estates and the two schools of the Reed School District.

Lawrence D. Rose, Tiburon city manager, told the commission, however, that school district officials say they don't want to get involved now because of current district financial problems.

"They know it won't cost them anything," Rose said, "but they feel they have enough problems to solve right now."

The 47 acres are the site of a planned subdivision being developed by Jeffrey Morshead of Mill Valley. Rose said that the hilly acreage will have 83 single-residences. Ten houses are under construction, Rose said.

Since the land was owned by only one person and 100 per cent property-owner consent was given for the annexation, the matter will not have to be heard before county supervisors. The Tiburon City Council needs only approve the annexation to make it official.

Although the county planning department requested disapproval, the Local Agency Formation Commission's own executive officer, John Barrow, recommended approval.

Rose told the commission that Tiburon "would be back in the near future" to annex Reed School District and Bel Aire Estates.

In his report, Michael A. Chrystal, the commission's administrative analyst, indicated that the school district favored eventual annexation after its financial difficulties were ironed out.

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission also:

O'FLAHERTY ANNEXATION — Unanimously approved annexation of 2.1 acres of tideland and shoreland to the county Sanitary District No. 2.

MEETING DATE — Approved revision of the commission's bylaws, changing the meeting date of the commission from the first Thursday of the month to the second Thursday, beginning in April.

CENTER ROAD — Unanimously approved the annexation of four acres of Center Road to the City of Novato.

Former Lawman Pleads Guilty To Arms Charge

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — A former Marin sheriff's inspector and an Air Force man have pleaded in U.S. District Court in connection with the theft of ammunition from Hamilton Air Force Base.

William R. Bradford, 36, of San Rafael, who has resigned from the Marin County sheriff's force, pleaded guilty Wednesday to receiving 5,000 rounds.

Air Force Sgt. Gerald K. Bradt, 42, a Hamilton gunnery instructor, pleaded guilty to stealing the ammunition.

The pair waived grand jury indictment before Judge Albert C. Wollenberg and are to be sentenced March 11.

Bradford, who lives at 17 Hart Street, and Bradt were arrested by the Federal Bureau of Investigation Jan. 25 in connection with the theft of over 50,000 rounds of ammunition used for training airmen bound for Vietnam.

Bradford is free on $2,000 bail; Bradt on his own recognizance.

SAN QUENTIN MINERS USE MANY PANTS

A seven-foot tunnel was discovered yesterday under a ground-floor cell in the east wing of San Quentin, prison officials reported.

The roughly 14-inch diameter hole, concealed by cement, was discovered by tapping during a routine cell check, according to Associate Warden James W. L. Park.

A prison search squad found 47 prison uniform pants legs, possibly used as sandbags, at the bottom of the tunnel. Digging probably was stopped last summer because the inmates hit muck and water at the end of the tunnel, Park said.

Most prison escape attempts by tunneling have been unsuccessful, said Park, because most tunnels hit either hard rock or water after a few feet.

Two former inmates of the cell have been placed in maximum security quarters.

Six Drinking Drivers Sentenced

Six men have been sentenced in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving on Marin highways and streets.

James Richard Burke, 44, of 52 Corte Lenosa, Greenbrae, arrested Oct. 27 in San Rafael, was placed on six months probation and fined $125.

John Bishop Tunison, 32, of Novato was fined $100, given a two-day jail sentence and placed on six months probation. He was arrested June 13 on Highway 101.

Roger Dixon, 30, of Hamilton Air Force Base, was placed on six months probation and fined $100. He was arrested Friday on Nave Drive in Novato.

Jessie James Seales Jr., 25, of Hamilton Air Force Base, was fined $175 and placed on six months probation. He was arrested Sunday on Highway 101.

Kenneth A. Young, 21, of Hamilton Air Force Base, was placed on six months probation and fined $100. He was arrested Friday on Highway 101.

Alexander C. Anderson, 51, of 10 Bella Vista Avenue, Belvedere, was fined $250 and placed on six months probation. He was arrested Tuesday on Tiburon Boulevard.

Guns, Cameras, Television Taken

Loot which included a shotgun, rifle, three cameras and equipment, a movie projector, hunting knife, color television set and bedding was taken Monday from the home of John A. Davis of 219 Julia Street, Mill Valley.

Sheriff's deputies said a glass door had been broken by the burglar.

Cyclists Seek Use Of Trails

A Marin motorcycle group wants a use permit to ride the fire trails in hills off North San Pedro Road, north of China Camp, the area where the Elizabethan Pleasure Faire was held last fall.

The Marin County Motorcycle Association will apply for the permit to County Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill Monday morning in the planning commission chambers at the Civic Center.

Stanley Wisnes of San Rafael, president of the Association, said his club has about 100 members, all adults between 21 and 60 years of age. "We've ridden in that area for 20 to 30 years," said Wisnes. "Now they want us to get a use permit." The club meets regularly at the Moose Lodge on the Miracle Mile in San Rafael.

Wisnes said the use of the trails is mostly by members and occasionally for nonmember events. The 708-acre site is owned by the New York-California Industrial Corp.

The zoning administrator will also hear two other requests.

Douglas Anawalt wants to split his 10,000 square foot parcel at 218 and 220 McAllister Avenue, Kentfield, into two building sites.

Alfred G. Poncia, who owns 171 acres on State Highway 1 at Fallon-Two Rock Road, wants to use a mobile home as living quarters for hired help.

In Fair Condition

Jeanette Wall, 27, of 36 Hawthorne Avenue, San Anselmo, was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital after treatment for an overdose of sedatives. Police were called to her home at 10:05 a.m., yesterday, where they found her semiconscious, three empty drug containers beside her bed.

Hall Of Justice Occupation Postponed Again, To April

Opening of the new Marin Hall of Justice at the Civic Center, originally scheduled for last October, has been delayed at least until April, Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows, has disclosed.

The delay was caused because some of the finishing touches on the building did not come up to specifications and the contractor has been asked to correct the deficiencies, architect Aaron Green reported.

Meanwhile, vandals have caused damage which could reach $10,000 at the new building, project superintendent David Grice said today. Repairs to smashed skylights and damaged gold hand railings are not expected to contribute to the delay in completion of the structure, however.

Grice said the vandals struck Tuesday night, dropping 25 of the specially made hand rails 60 feet from the upper levels of the building. Skylight were either kicked or smashed with rocks.

A year ago, the scheduled date of opening was Oct. 1, 1968. Then last August, the administrator announced that the opening date had been delayed until January of 1969.

Barrows has informed the board of spuervisors that the schedule has not been met.

"After consultation with the architect, we have prepared a new schedule with occupancy to commence approximately April 1," said Barrows in a letter to the supervisors. "Subsequent departmental moves in both wings should be completed in late June. As with any construction, this schedule may, unfortunately, be subject to further revision."

Barrows quoted Green as saying the delay was caused by late delivery of furnishings and equipment, primarily from the California Correctional Industries; problems in meeting color and quality requirements on the outside walls, and delays in correcting some interior ceiling deficiencies.

Architect David Tirrell, who works with Green, said the outside wall finishing did not come up to standard in color and quality. "We've been asking the contractor (Robert E. McKee of El Paso, Tex.) to bring them up to standard."

Further, expansion joints in the ceiling were installed incorrectly, casuing the plaster to crack, said Tirrell. The joints had to be reinstalled, he said.

Youth Is Bound To Higher Court On Drug Charge

John Anthony Gilbert, 18, of San Rafael, was bound over to Marin Superior Court yesterday on felony charges of possessing a switchblade knife and possessing marijuana and misdemeanor charges of illegal use of another person's credit card and possessing narcotics paraphernalia.

Further argument on whether Gilbert, who is also known as Robert Jones, will face two charges of concealing stolen property will be heard Friday in Marin Municipal Court.

Gilbert, whose case was refused by the Juvenile Court, was arrested Oct. 14 after a high speed chase which ended when the vehicle he was driving smashed into a pole on Lucas Valley Road.

His arrainment in Superior Court was set for Tuesday.

Tiburon's Fire Loss In '68 Worst Ever

The Tiburon Fire Protection District had the greatest fire loss in its history during 1968, the district board was told last night. Losses to buildings and contents totaled $249,636.

Major factors in the record loss were two fires which destroyed the Main Street Antique Store and a house on a Paradise Drive, secretary Wellman H. Topham said.

On the brighter side, a new drainage system installed at the fire station in 1968 proved itself during recent heavy rains and high tides, by averting flooding Topham said.

The board received a letter from the Northwestern Pacific Railroad saying the railroad is not interested in selling land behind the fire station, sought by the district for expansion. The possibility of condemning the land will be studied further, Topham said.

The board was shown new shoulder patches for firemen designed by Chief Franklin J. Busher and his men. The patch bears the shark which is Tiburon's city symbol.

Homeowners Set Annual Meeting

Marin Estates Homeowners Association directors last night set 8 p.m. March 6 for their annual meeting to elect new officers and to consider 1969-70 budget adoption.

The meeting will be at Granada School, Corte Madera, board president George R. Hebberd reported. The budget was discussed last night but no action taken.

It Costs A Little Extra To Live In California

It might cheer those of us who are now going through the torture of preparing federal and state income tax returns to realize that for the privilege of living in Golden California, we pay per capita taxes $105.04 higher than the average throughout the United States.

(On the other hand, it might not cheer us at all.)

Taxes in California — local and state — work out at an average of $414.55 for every man, woman and child, according to U. S. Department of Commerce figures which are quoted in the Washington Report of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. The average for all Americans is $309.51.

IF YOU ARE NOT cheered by the realization that you are privileged to pay more for living in California, be cheered by this: New Yorkers pay an average of $457.84 — and anyone with good sense knows California is a better place to live than New York. In no other state, however, does the figure exceed California's.

One reason for this is that Californians have higher per capita income than residents in most states. However, the Department of Commerce figures show this is not the sole reason.

Taxes per $1,000 of personal income in California average $122.14. This is $16.64 higher than the national average. But it is not the highest. That honor belongs to Hawaii at $134.79. And taxes per $1,000 of income are also higher in Wyoming, New York, Arizona, and Minnesota than in California.

IF YOU REALLY WANT to save on taxes, you will have to go south, old man, go south! Alabamans average only $192.05 per capita in taxes; Mississippians, $196.74, and South Carolinians, $197.01.

But here again (as always) there is a catch. Incomes are low there, too.

It is possible, though, to go where incomes are high and taxes are relatively low, the Department of Commerce figures show. Taxes per $1,000 of personal income average only $82.23 in Ohio, $85.29 in Illinois, and $86.40 in the District of Columbia. (Wouldn't you know those lawmakers in Washington would make them a bit lighter there?)

NO MATTER WHERE you go, though, you won't escape constantly rising costs of government.

The U. S. Chamber of Commerce, taking a backward look, reported that federal income taxes took slightly more than $1 billion in 1932. Ten years ago the take was $54 billion. This year, with the 10 per cent surcharge, it will total about $122 billion.

As for state income taxes, 37 states now have them, and seven states (including California) increased them in 1968. Moreover, 44 of the 50 states now have sales taxes. There's just no escaping!

AS FOR PROPERTY taxes, the picture in Marin is probably pretty typical. In fiscal 1959, property taxes in this county totaled $12,998,985. This fiscal year, they total $29,785,000. And right now, every school district and every city and county department is hard at work on budgets for next fiscal year, every one of which probably will be bigger than this year's.

There is, of course, one way to reverse the trend: quit adding to the "services" that governments perform for their citizens.

We put that word "services" in quotation marks on purpose. We can think of quite a few government functions that are of precious little service to those who pay for them.

A Better Way Of Branding?

Most people in the cattle business do not enjoy the dirty business of branding their livestock, but continue in the old way because they cannot devise a better, more foolproof method of identifying their animals.

The red-hot branding iron is very painful to the calves and from a mere financial point of view is wasteful because the scar disfigures the leather, making a small portion useless.

This heavy-handed frontier method may soon give way to a gentler type of branding, cyrogenic branding. This is branding with intense cold. Not only is it practically painless, it also leaves no deep scars on the leather. But the cattle are easily identifiable because the hair on a cyrogenic brand grows back white and remains white thereafter.

Major Divorce Law Changes Proposed In New Legislation

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Reformation of California's divorce laws, a prime issue before the 1967 legislature but relegated to an interim committee for study for two years, is back before the 1969 session, with the study completed and an extensive bill ready for action.

The measure was introduced by Sen. Donald L. Grunsky, R-Watsonville, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee and innovator of the move to take a lot of the sting out of divorce.

SENATOR GRUNSKY'S proposal would be known as the Family Law Act. It has attracted nationwide attention, both pro and con, as a means of eliminating adversary proceedings and bitter court battles between husband and wife.

He is hopeful that the measure, which contains provisions for voluntary marriage counseling, will ultimately reduce the high incidence of divorce in California.

Five major provisions are contained in the bill. First, it would eliminate fault grounds for divorce, and replace them with a procedure for inquiry into the marriage and dissolution of marriage when there is no reasonable likelihood that it can be saved.

Second, fault would be eliminated for the division of community property, which would be divided equally unless the economic conditions of either party required an unequal division.

Third, fault would also be eliminated in alimony considerations. Grunsky pointed out that under present law, the court must find one of the parties guilty of misconduct before an award is made to the other.

Fourth, award of children would be made without preference between parents, upon a determination of the best interests of the child.

And finally, the proposed law would establish a family division of the superior court in each county, with specialized marriage counseling staff.

"ALL COUNSELING is voluntary, but an initial interview is required for parties with minor children under 18 years of age," according to Grunsky.

He also pointed out that the counseling service would be available to married couples who desire help, but have not filed court proceedings.

The one-year waiting period for a final decree of divorce would be replaced with a minimum period of four months.

Should the bill pass, California would become the first state to adopt such a system.

Unions Claim Teacher Jurisdiction

In your Jan. 24 news item regarding the schools bid to employ union force, it was stated that although there is an AFL-CIO union, the AFT is not mentioned in a long list of trades in which the AFL-CIO union claims jurisdiction.

This statement is in error. . . In The First paragraph, and I quote, "Section — Resolved:" The teachers are listed in the 40 trades with jurisdiction of the Marin County Labor Unions, AFL-CIO who are affiliates of both the Marin County Labor Council and the Building and Construction Trades Council.

JAMES A. SMITH
Secretary-Treasurer
Marin County Labor Council
San Rafael

(Editor's note: The paragraph in the resolution reads: "Resolved, that this school district will not employ teachers, bus drivers, custodians, or students to work in the following trades." It then lists trades, including teachers.)

Sensitivity Training Questions Raised

I received in today's mail (Feb. 3) an announcement of a meeting to be held locally exposing "sensitivity training" as "a gun aimed at your child's head." This announcement contained much alarming information, most of which seemed hard to prove or disprove. One item that I could evaluate was the statement that "operant conditioning" is one of the many names by which sensitivity training is known. This statement is so far wrong, that I am inclined to distrust every statement in the brochure. Operant conditioning is training by reward or punishment. It has absolutely nothing to do with sensitivity training ("self and group criticism," according to the tract).

Another very doubtful statement was that sensitivity training is mandatory in many public schools. I hope the writers of the pamphlet are prepared to back that statement up with the names of schools where it is mandatory. As one interested in education both professionally and as a citizen, I have not encountered any school where this was the case.

'Ray Of Hope' For Marin Transit

The first ray of hope in Marin's very dark transportation mess has appeared in the Jenkins report, which proposes that the Golden Gate Bridge District buy and operate an inter-county bus system.

The report recommends purchase of 150 new, modern buses, with air conditioning and semi-reclining high-back seats. It proposes that fares be reduced 25 per cent and routes be re-examined to provide better service. This bus system can be the first, long-needed, practical relief for the weary commuter.

Advocates of ferry boats have asked the bridge directors to delay action on the proposal until the ferry studies are completed. Their request seems short-sighted.

Operation of the commuter buses can and must be a step forward in a developing system. Ferries can be a valuable transit aid. But ferries must have buses to feed them — otherwise, Marin will still face the curse of an auto-oriented transportation system, overburdened with freeways and parking lots, and only San Francisco will gain.

Marin badly needs an intra-county service for people who must travel within the county without a car. The commute operation can be the backbone of intra-county transportation — in fact, it must be.

The bridge district is the only entity available to us which can buy and operate any large public transit system. Jenkins estimates total capital investment for the 150 buses, land, equipment, etc., at $8.5 million. The annual deficit is estimated at $1,411. . . — an amount, he says which the district can well afford.

Compare these costs with the annual income of the Marin Transit District, which receives approximately $280,000 at its top legal tax rate of five cents per $100 assessed valuation.

The Golden Gate Bridge Board will hold a public hearing on the proposed bus system at 8 p.m. Tuesday, in the supervisors chambers at the Marin Civic Center.

Social Workers Applaud Series

We, the members of the Marin County Social Workers Union, Local 535, would like to commend the Independent-Journal for the recent series on the racial difficulties taking place in our community. We feel these kinds of articles are extremely important in these times of acute social conflict, and consider it a moral responsibility of the news media to cover racial issues and to inform the public, through series such as this one, about the danger and destructiveness of continued racial prejudice in America.

We would like to state at this time that, as social workers, we concur with the recent Kerner Commission's report which concluded that America's number one mental health problem is white racism. We further contend that for alleviation of this grave problem we as citizens, and especially the white citizens, of Marin County can and must make every effort to move away from racist attitudes and behaviors and to move toward making the ideals of freedom, equality and justice realities today for our non-white brothers.

We can begin by having more open housing in Marin — and to implement this we can advise our neighbors, landlords, realtors that we would welcome having our communities integrated; we can encourage neighbors who are moving to sell or rent their homes to minority persons.

We believe that there are infinite ways of making Marin one community where people are examining their own learned prejudices and are actively committing themselves to eliminating discrimination where it exists.

Packard Appointment Shows Up Military-Industrial-Political Web

WASHINGTON — The web of the military-industrial-political complex is so tangled that the role of David Packard as deputy secretary fo defense has caused hardly a ripple. What would have been unthinkable 15 years ago is taken for granted today.

Packard and his wife own 3,584,950 shares of Hewlett-Packard Co. (minus 30,000 made as an irrevocable gift) which sold last week at $82 a share. For Hewlett-Packard's last fiscal year total orders for the company's complex electronic devices were $280 million, of which $100 million was either directly or indirectly in government contracts — largely with the Department of Defense.

When Packard came before the Senate Armed Services Committee for his confirmation hearing, the questioning was perfunctory, if not downright subservient Members of the committee seemed overawed by a man who had begun from nothing and made a very great fortune by his own ingenuity and drive.

THERE WAS, however, a fleeting glimpse backward at what had been the mores of a simpler day, in these matters an age of innocence. When Charles E. Wilson, president of General Motors, was nominated for secretary of defense by the new Republican President, Dwight Eisenhower, in 1953 he was required to sell $2,500,000 in General Motors stock. GM was reported at that time to have more defense contracts than any other corporation.

Packard put his Hewlett-Packard and other holdings in a trust over which during his tenure in the Pentagon he would have no control and the income of which would go to charity. The only challenge to this arrangement came from Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., who contended it was a bookkeeping trust that did not meet the requirements of the law governing conflict of interest.

The new No. 2 man a the Pentagon testified he could not sell his Hewlett-Packard stock, 30 per cent of all stock outstanding, without doing serious harm to the company and to his associates. No one can question that. Nor does anyone question his integrity and his extraordinary ability.

IT IS A FACT, as was the plea of Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird, that to get a man truly equipped to be his deputy it was necessary to turn to one who for two decades has seen a considerable share of his wealth grow out of the swelling billions for the military. This is the tangle, the Gordian knot, tying together the elements making up perhaps the most powerful single force in both government and the economy.

When it comes to conflict of interest in the military-industrial-political web, Congress is no model of virtue. Some of the rawest examples are in the record of Senate and House as members quarrel over where military installations and defense plants shall be located.

A notorious case history was that of the late Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma. A powerful member of the Senate's club-within-a-club and a close ally of Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson, Kerr never missed an opportunity to promote government leases for his huge uranium holdings. With his large oil holdings, his high rank on the Senate Finance Committee was insurance against any upstart who might want to change the 27 per cent depletion allowance for oil income.

NOW COMES a test putting both the Pentagon and Congress on the hot seat of decision. Congress approved last year $1.2 billion for deployment of an anti-ballistic missile system in the coming fiscal year. As this spending multiplies it touches every large defense contractor — not excepting, one assumes, Hewlett-Packard.

From a number of cities out in the country comes a roar of protest over where the Army proposes to put the ABMs. Together with the insistence of leading scientists that the ABM is futile and probably already obsolete, this latest spiral in the nuclear arms race may be checked. That is the test for Congress and for the country.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

National Park Ruckus Typical Of LBJ Regime

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and JOHN A. GOLDSMITH

WASHINGTON — In a dramatic series of events which enlivened his final hours in the White House, former President Johnson gave his critics a review, in miniature, of those qualities which tumbled his personal popularity and now blur the Johnson record.

The events were climaxed by the blunt offer of resignation from Stewart L. Udall, the outgoing secretary of the interior, made in a stormy discussion before Johnson vetoed Udall's plan for adding nearly 7.5 million acres of government-owned land to the national park system.

As the story is now emerging from the aura of secrecy and stealth, which so frequently cloaked the Johnson administration's worthwhile initiatives, it becomes clear that the controversy had other hallmarks of the Johnson presidency.

THE ANGRY showdown with Udall came after a long period of presidential indecision. The delay necessitated a rather typical last-minute action by the President.

In his last-minute deliberations, Johnson lost his temper (as he has now admitted to some of his associates). Then, in the end, his final "surprise" decision to add something less than 400,000 acres to parklands in Arizona, Alaska and Utah really pleased no one.

JOHNSON was genuinely and rightly concerned about the propriety of so large a park addition under authority of the Antiquities Act. That 1906 law permits a President to proclaim historic landmarks and protect them by reserving surrounding parcels of land.

The 7.5-million-acre plan was first proposed to the White House several months ago. Conservationists in Congress were urging the President to act, and at least one of them advised that the proclamation should be made quickly, so that it would not be a last-grasp action by the outgoing President.

Johnson, however, hesitated. He knew that Rep. Wayne L. Aspinall, D-Colo., chairman of the House Interior Committee, would oppose the plan.

FINALLY, on the Saturday before inauguration Monday, Udall's Interior Department press office erroneously announced that the 7.5-million-acre plan had been approved by the President.

Johnson's anger came very shortly after that mistaken announcement came into his office on the newswires.

The parklands story is still unfinished. Even the scaled-down addition has provoked sharp critism in the states involved. A Utah congressman, Rep. Laurence J. Burton, R., has offered a bill which would limit future land additions under the Antiquities Act to a total of 2,560 acres.

Maybe There's A Clue Here To Why Railroads Drop Trains

Everyone knows California land is a good investment, but the dollars and cents of it can be startling, as attorney Albert Bianchi demonstrated to the Sausalito City Council Tuesday.

Bianchi successfully represented Edgewater Yacht Co. in its request for off-site parking on a parcel owned by Northwestern Pacific Railroad for a proposed restaurant at Bridgeway and Turney Street.

The railroad, Bianchi said, bought the land in 1887 from the father of Frank Pasquinucci, one of Edgewater's principals, for $412.

"I suggested he offer them $800 for it. . . . If they saw they were doubling their money, they might sell it," Bianchi said.

No one knows what the lot is really worth today, since the railroad isn't selling, but a 60-foot frontage on the Sausalito waterfront won't go for $800, or for $8,000 either.

But then $412 isn't what it once was. And if invested at 5 per cent compounded, it would have built to something like $25,000 after 82 years.

SAUSALITO City Hall is still living on borrowed time — four hours and 50 minutes to be precise. The council chamber clock is still that far behind after a power failure during the late January storms.

But deliberative bodies have a way of ignoring the passage of time, so perhaps the clock isn't really needed anyway.

A SOUTHERN Marin educator invented a new verb the other night. No, not a four-letter one. Plans were afoot, he told the school board, to arrange more time for teachers and parents "to conference."

The noun form, presumably, would be conferenceation. Too many people these days are Eisenhowering the language, a trend that one day may finali the last grammarian among us.

SOME PEOPLE still manage, but it get harder daily to maintain absolute faith in the military and its avowed need for antimissile bases on our hilltops.

The Army Engineers held hearings on the offshore drilling off Santa Barbara County, but someone made a mistake. When conservationists protested about possible pollution, the corps said it could consider only navigation problems, not pollution. And now 1,000 gallons of oil an hour are killing birds, seals and fish and messing up some of California's finest beaches.

Then there is the Pueblo incident. The foulups in the chain of command that led to the spy ship's capture surprise few who have served in the military, but they show that mistakes, and serious ones, will happen. Military people, like civilians, are just a lot of people doing about as well as can be expected, and making a good many mistakes as they go along.

It shouldn't be unpatriotic to suggest the military might be fallible and wrong about the missile sites, and the more objections raised the better the chance the mistake might be admitted and plans changed.

PROJECT Breakthrough, Tamalpais High School District's program to help Marin City youths reach their educational potential, has received $300 from an anonymous donor, along with a perceptive letter about the state of black-white relations as they are today.

"I realize that this effort (Project Breakthrough) . . . to be meaningful at this time must be done for an by Negroes with as little apparent help from white people as possible . . . because down the years and centuries we, the white people, have proven our ignorance of . . . the black people's true capabilities and intelligence and their need to do and be men in their own right and responsible citizens.

". . . So I am not offering help . . . only that very impersonal and necessary substance — money — for you to use to further your program of help for the young people you are trying to teach how best to help themselves."

Alameda-Contra Costa District Offers Lesson In Transit Cost

Fusselman

Here are the final paragraphs of the letter written to the Marin County Transit District on Dec. 18 by the gentleman whose name appears below. You should read these startling figures of the financial and operational experiences of a transit district in the Bay Area. To my knowledge his letter was never made public.

"An excellent example of the usual procedure of transit financing is that followed by the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District. Voter approval was obtained for formation of the district (a procedure actually followed by the Marin County Transit District), capital costs were then determined (the same process is now being followed by Marin) and a bond issue was submitted to the voters for approval. That bond issue failed once but was subsequently passed. Only after the voters had approved issuance of the bonds did the district undertake to begin operations and obligate itself on a long-term basis.

"Alameda-Contra Costa also provides an excellent example of the need to obtain popular support for transit operations. The property tax levied by that district has increased from about 2 cents per $100 assessed valuation prior to starting operations to 19.2 cents today. Generally, property taxes are used to retire debt and provide adequate funds each year for replacement of obsolete and wornout equipment. Fare collections are applied to operating costs. In order to achieve this level of fare collections, the district has had to show consistent annual increase in usage and during the last fiscal year this system carried over 13,844,000 passengers.

"DESPITE this tremendous usage, despite a $2,274,430,544 assessed valuation (four times that of Marin) their tax rate is now nearly four times that which the Marin County Transit District is currently authorized to levy.

"My reason for outlining the above factors is to make the point that the Marin Transit District should proceed only after the public has been fully informed of the high cost of transit services and has expressed willingness to support those costs. The legal availability of funds collected for other purposes provides the temptation to proceed in a manner which can result in lack of public support. That would be disaster for Marin Transit District.

Very truly yours,
Donald M. Van Dyke"

EVEN THOUGH the joint powers agreement with the Golden Gate Bridge people seems to be somewhat remote at this time, because of big city opposition, it is well, I think, to ponder the sound thinking of Mr. Van Dyke and the information he has provided. You know, this agreement could end up not so "joint" after all. There are, among many questions, some that are pretty tricky, such as — what happens to the Golden Gate Bridge when the bonds are paid off in 1970? Who is going to be in the saddle? How binding would this joint powers agreement be?

You Marin taxpayers now have a continuing escalating cost to face up to out at Brasilia. Just how many more such situations are you going to stand for without your approval?

No matter how the long green is shuffled, it can end up still your do-re-mi.

Labor to keep alive in your breast that little spark of celestial fire called conscience. — George Washington.

Silent Majority Panel Slated At Redwood

"Why Apathy, Alienation, Revolution? (The College Syndrome)" will be discussed at 7:45 p.m. Thursday in the Redwood High School Little Theater, Larkspur.

Panelists will be Isabelle Schmid, a Redwood senior; Richard (Nip) Grey, a 1968 Redwood graduate now attending Stanford University; Robert Figari, also a 1968 Redwood graduate and now attending the University of California at Davis. Also, Howard L. Waldron, on the faculty of San Francisco State College; Barton Tippetts, a student at Merritt College, Oakland; Richard Geno, a resident of San Mateo County who founded Silent Majority Against Revolutionary Tactics, and tentatively, Michael Collins, continuation school teacher in Marin.

The discussion will be sponsored by Chautauqua '69, a new group which plans to "give voice to some of the less newsworthy participants" involved in current issues, "to fill in the spectrum of opinion between the extremes which are usually the only ones heard," according to Mrs. Della D. Figari, acting president of the group.

The first Navy yard in America was founded at Portsmouth, N.H., in 1833.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

A Defensive Bid Should Be Warning Enough For Declarer

There are advantages in bidding a good suit after an opponent has opened the bidding: your side may be able to play the hand at a reasonable contract, or your partner may know what to lead if your side defends. There are disadvantages, however: your bid may tell an opponent how to play the hand.

SILENCE GOLDEN

South would go down at four hearts if West kept quiet. South would make his contract after West's very normal overcall of one spade.

In either case declarer would play dummy's queen of spades at the first trick. East would put up the king, and South would win with the ace. Now South would have to takcle the trumps.

In the absence of any warining, South might lead a club to dummy and return a heart to try a finesse with the queen. West would win with the king, and East would later win a second trump trick. The defenders would also get a spade trick and the ace of diamonds.

LEAD ACE

South might have a slightly better chance if he led the ace of trumps first and then entered dummy with a club to lead another trump. East would play low, and South might guess the winning play of a low trump. This play is far from clear, however, and South might play the queen of hearts and go down.

LOCATES CARDS

If West enters the bidding South can locate the king of hearts and the ace of diamonds since the first trick shows that West has bid on a jack-high suit. South is warned that the heart finesse cannot succeed.

South must lead the ace of hearts and then a low heart. The king falls, and South can later draw East's last trump with the queen. South makes his contract by limiting the trump loss to one trick.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with 1 no-trump (16 to 18 points), and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ J 10 9 8 6 3
♥ K 8
♦ A 9 8 5
♣ 9.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid four spades.

You should have a reasonable play for this contract, and any other game contract is virtually unthinkable. Do not beat about the bush when you know what final contract you want to reach.

Bus To Jail

LONDON (UPI)—Transportation was no problem when police arrested 10 youths and three girls aboard a double-decker bus on suspicion of shoplifting. The bus driver agreed to drive the bus to the nearest police station.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, Feb 7, the 38th day of 1969 with 327 to follow.

The moon is between its full phase and last quarter. The morning stars are Mercury, Mars and Jupiter. The evening stars are Saturn and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1926 a report showed the average pay for common labor throughout the United States was 54 cents an hour.

In 1948 Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower resigned as U.S. Army chief of staff and was succeeded by Gen. Omar Bradley.

In 1956 Autherine Lucy, first Negro admitted to the University of Alabama, was expelled on grounds that she accused school officials of conspiring in the riots that accompanied her court-ordered enrollment.

In 1967 a fire in a restaurant atop a 10-story building in Montgomery, Ala., killed 26 persons.

A thought for the day: Charles Dickens said, "There are books of which the backs and covers are by far the best parts."

$35,950 ENGLISH COUNTRY HOME

One of the few remaining park-like estates in San Anselmo. Winding garden paths, mature shrubs, extensive use of flagstone all provide a setting of complete privacy. The residence is well constructed and provides 3 bedrooms, large formal dining room, den or family room, large front verandah, fireplace in spacious living room. One block to bus and shopping center from this ½-acre estate.

$26,950 3 BEDROOMS, 2 BATHS

A non-tract home in a quiet traffic-free residential area. The lot is level. Schools, shops and transportation are just a short walk. The residence is ranch style, built in 1958, has built-in modern kitchen, beamed ceilings, walnut stained hardwood flooring, full dining room, double garage. Easily financed — GI, FHA or 10% down will handle.

YOUR OWN MT. LODGE!

Right smack in the middle of San Anselmo. Surrounded by a high fence and graced by spreading old Bay trees, we've found the perfect hideaway. Wrought iron gates at the entry hall invite you to a magnificent sunken living room, with quarry tile floors, elaborate stone fireplace, cathedral beamed ceilings, all done in rich redwood planking. Three bedrooms, 2 baths. Separate family room adjoins a large family-type kitchen with all the built-ins. 18' BY 40' HEATED & FILTERED POOL completes the picture of a most unique home for only $43,950.

$53,500 OWNERS ARE DESPERATE

Absentee owners have reduced this Sleepy Hollow residence $5,000 for an immediate sale. Unquestionably the finest value in the entire County of Marin. A completely level ⅓-acre site, a luxurious ranch style home with 4 bedrooms, large family room with built-in brick BBQ. Entry foyer with Vermont slate flooring, 2 full ceramic tiled baths, completely modern built-in kitchen, fruitwood cabinets. Built-in stereo system, exposed beams, indirect fluorescent lighting. W/w carpeting & draperies. Plus a 16x36 swimming pool in rear garden. Entire grounds landscaped for minimum maintenance. Excellent elementary & parochial schools close by. Miles of countryside for your children to enjoy.

High ceilings and quarry tile flooring in the large entry are very impressive. There is a lovely sunken living room with marble fireplace, and built in formalized wet bar and a spacious dining room with parquet floors. Gourmet kitchen, breakfast nook, built in barbecue, family room with fireplace, utility room, 3 large bedrooms and 3 baths. The master bedroom is accordingly dramatic. It has loads of closets and an elegant bath with sunken tub. ⅔ of an acre, mostly level, is well landscaped by William Kapranos. Sprinklers and outdoor lighting and a HEATED POOL with pool sweep and slide. EXCLUSIVE.

NOTICE OF HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Marin County Planning Commission will hold a public hearing to consider the hereinafter described property as an Agricultural Preserve pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 51200) of Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5 of the Government Code of the State of California. Within said Agricultural Preserve the County may, by contract with a landowner, and through the expenditure of public funds, limit the use of prime agricultural land for the purpose of preserving such land pursuant and subject to the conditions set forth in the contract and in said Chapter 7. Within said Agricultural Preserve the County may also, by agreement pursuant to said Chapter 7, but without payment to the landowner of public funds, limit the use of any land to agricultural or compatible uses. The proposed Agricultural Preserve consists of approximately 61.34 acres and is described as Assessor's Parcel 164-280-35, which is located southerly of the intersection of Mt. Shasta Drive and Lucas Valley Road.

NOTICE IS HEREBY FURTHER GIVEN that said public hearing will be held during the meeting of the Marin County Planning Commission on Monday, February 17, 1969, in the Planning Commission Hearing Room, Civic Center, San Rafael, which meeting commences at 9:00 a.m. Those wishing to attend said hearing may call the Planning Department, 479-1100, Extension 2526, on Friday, February 14, 1969, in order to be informed of the place on the agenda and approximate time of the hearing.

ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Marin General Hospital
Marin Hospital District
250 Bon Air Road
San Rafael, California 94904

We have examined the accompanying balance sheet of MARIN GENERAL HOSPITAL as of June 30, 1968, and the related statement of revenue and expense for the year then ended, and including the accumulated excess of revenue over expense. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The accompanying statements include only the finances of Marin General Hospital and are exclusive of funds and accounts administered by the County Treasurer in connection with Marin Hospital District Bonds.

In our opinion, the accompanying statements present fairly the financial position of Marin General Hospital at June 30, 1968, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year, except for the change in method of computing depreciation (with which we concur) described in Note 2 to the financial statements.

MARIN GENERAL HOSPITAL
MARIN HOSPITAL DISTRICT
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 1968

NOTE 1 — ALLOWANCE FOR MEDICARE REPORTING:

A provision of $20,000 for possible adjustment of amounts recovered under Medicare has been established for the year ended June 30, 1968. The actual amount which may be payable is not determinable at this time, but is not expected to differ materially from the provision established. An additional $5,000 has been provided for unresolved items, currently under review by Medicare auditors, pertaining to the prior year.

NOTE 2 — PROPERTY, PLANT and EQUIPMENT:

An inventory of property, plant and equipment was compiled by an outside firm of specialists as of June 30, 1967. As a result, the fixed asset accounts of the Plant Fund and the General Fund balance were increased in the net amount of $31,966 to reflect the adjustment necessary to record the historical cost of items actually inventoried. Depreciation for the year ended June 30, 1968 was provided for each individual asset included in the inventory, using the straight-line method and estimated useful lives determined by the specialists responsible for the inventory. Depreciation in prior years was computed by applying the straight-line method to group asset accounts with average estimated useful lives; the change in the current year to individual assets each with its own estimated useful life resulted in a provision for depreciation of $19,477 in excess of the provision which would have been made if the group method had been continued.

NOTE 3 — CONSTRUCTION IN PROGRESS (TEMPORARY FUND):

In August, 1965, Marin Hospital District entered into a joint venture with the County of Marin to construct, with federal and state aid, a Community Mental Health Center. At June 30, 1968, the District had paid $333,264 as its full share of the project which amount is reflected as construction in progress in the Temporary Fund accounts.

The title to the project, when complete, will vest in the Hospital District.

NOTE 4 — PENSION PLAN:

The Hospital has in effect a contributory pension plan for its eligible employees. The total pension expense for the year ended June 30, 1968 was $67,718, which includes amortization of prior service cost over a period of 25 years. The Hospital's policy is to fund pension cost accrued. At June 30, 1968, assets of the fund exceeded vested benefits.

NOTE 5 — COMMITMENT AND CONTINGENT LIABILITY:

The Hospital is in the process of negotiating the purchase of five and one-half acres of land to be converted into a parking lot. It is estimated that the purchase price will be approximately $160,000; in addition, $11,245 has already been expanded in improving the property, which amount is included in construction in progress in the Plant Fund accounts.

Certain charges for services to patients were paid through patient loans from outside sources, repayment of which is guaranteed by the Hospital. At June 30, 1968, the Hospital was contingently liable in the amount of $2,611.40 as guarantor of these loans.

Monagan's Urban Affairs Panel Clouded

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The new Urban Affairs and Housing Committee created by Republican Assembly Speaker Robert T. Monagan was designed to help solve big city problems and "open direct channels of communication with minority groups."

But before the committee's first meeting:

Its new chairman was severely criticized by members of Assembly minority groups;

Its vice chairman quit;

Assemblyman Pete Wilson, R-San Diego, named by Monagan to chair the fledgling committee ran into open opposition from two of the five Negro Assembly members when he told newsmen he had favored either repeal or revision of the Rumford Open Housing Law when that issue was before the legislature two years ago.

Wilson said he now considers the open housing law a "dead issue" because the state and U.S. supreme courts have ruled unconstitutional a ballot proposition to repeal it.

But to minority group members Wilson's stand became a symbol of what they considered was his failure to understand urban problems and the concerns of minorities.

Negro Assembyman Leon Ralph, a Democrat representing a large minority area of Los Angeles, said it was as unfitting for Wilson to chair a committee dealing with urban and minority problems as it would have been for Ralph to head the agriculture committee.

Ralph and Monagan became enmeshed in another difference of opinion.

Both agreed Monagan asked Ralph if he would be "interested" in the vice chairmanship of the committee and Ralph said "no."

Garcia asked Monagan to keep him on the committee which has a Democratic majority including Brown, Ralph and Negro Assenblyman Bill Greene D-Los Angeles.

Greene was the only one of the five Negro assembly Denocrats who told newsmen he would have accepted the vice chairmanship. But apparently it wasn't offered to him.

Monagan now says "we'll have rotating chairmen. It's not that important."

When it finally holds a meeting Monagan hopes the committee will "develop specific proposals to provide decent housing for low income people... review the need to develop a state urbanization policy" and —"open direct channels of communication with minority groups."

$16,200 From UNICEF Cards

The Marin chapter of the United Nations Association has reported it sold $16,200 worth of UNICEF greeting cards during the past Christmas season, a record.

Sales were up $1,200 from the previous year, reported Mrs. Eric Moeller of Ross, drive chairman.

The chapter also gained $5,150 for UNICEF from the Halloween night collections by youngsters.

NOTICE REQUESTING BIDS SANITARY DISTRICT NO. 2 of MARIN COUNTY METERING STATION RELOCATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Sanitary District No. 2 of Marin County will receive up to, but no later than, 2:00 o'clock P.M. of the 4th day of March, 1969, sealed bids for the award of a contract for the construction of improvements in the District in strict accordance with the plans and specifications therefor entitled "Metering Station Relocation," dated February, 1969, prepared by Brown and Caldwell, Consulting Engineers, and on file in the office of the Secretary of said District.

Said sealed proposals or bids shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Sanitary Board of said Sanitary District, 300 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, California. Bids will be publicly opened, examined and declared on said day and hour by the Secretary who shall report to the Sanitary Board her findings, which findings shall be considered by said Sanitary Board at its regular meeting to be held at said place on March 4, 1969, at 7:30 o'clock P.M.

Each bid shall be in accordance with said plans, specifications and other contract documents now on file in the office of the District Secretary located at 300 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, California.

Said proposals or bids must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed "Sanitary District No. 2 of Marin County, 300 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, California," and endorsed "Proposal for Metering Station Relocation."

All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check payable to the order of the District amounting to ten per cent (10%) of the bid, or by a bond in said amount and payable to said District, signed by the bidder and a corporate admitted surety or two individual sureties who shall justify before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double said amount, and over and above all statutory exemptions. Said check shall be forfeited or said bond shall become payable to said District in case the bidder depositing the same does not, within fifteen days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the District, the faithful performance of which shall be secured by an undertaking in the amount of one hundred per cent (100%) of the amount so bid, with sureties satisfactory to the said Sanitary Board, and which shall be accompanied by a labor and material bond in a sum equal to one hundred per cent (100%) of the amount of said bid, under the provision of Chapter 3, comprising Sections 4200 to 4208, inclusive, of the Government Code of the State of California.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on February 4, 1969, the Sanitary Board adopted a resolution determining the general prevailing rate of per diem wages in the locality in which the public work herein provided is to be done for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the contract, a copy of which wage scale is contained in and made a part of the specifications for said work, to which reference is hereby made for a full and detailed description thereof.

The Board reserves the privilege of rejecting any and all bids or to waive any irregularities or informalities in any bid or in the bidding.

No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of thirty (30) days after the date set for the bid opening.

Plans and specifications may be examined at the office of the District, 300 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, California; at the Builder's Exchange, 850 South Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco; at the Builder's Exchange, 320 East 12th Street, Oakland; and at the Marin Builder's Exchange, 110 Belvedere Street, San Rafael. Plans and specifications may be obtained at the office of Brown and Caldwell, 66 Mint Street, San Francisco, California, upon deposit of $10.00 per set, $5.00 of which will be refunded if the set or sets delivered are returned in good condition within fifteen (15) days after the bid opening.

Aide Belittles State Tax Cut Help To Poor

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Neither Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan's $100 million income tax rebate nor a rival Democratic plan will help the lowest income Californians, Franchise Tax Board officials said today.

The officials commented as the board, the state's income tax collecting agency, began gearing up for the one-time reduction that would come from either bill.

Officials said that since only those who file income tax returns are eligible for the cut, millions of those whose incomes don't reach the taxable level are not covered.

If you are married, with two children and make less than $7,400 a year, you are not affected. Nor are you affected if you are married, have no children and have an income of $6,500 annually. The limit for single people is $3,250 a year.

A rash of changes in the tax laws in the past few years make it difficult to tell how many people now must pay income tax and would benefit by the relief bills, officials said.

But they said that about 4 million returns were filed in 1968, many of them by couples turning in joint returns.

Meanwhile, Reagan and Democrats traded charges in the tax fight.

Senate Democratic Floor Leader George R. Moscone of San Francisco said Reagan's $100 million cut for 1970 should be doubled, and paid by the end of this year. Reagan replied "you don't have the money this year."

Moscone said he will introduce legislation next week providing for a $200 million rebate in the income tax, payable this year. It would mean a return of at least 20 per cent of what the taxpayer put out for 1968, up to a maximum of $400 a family.

He called Reagan's proposal to permit each taxpayer to take 10 per cent off his tax bill next year "a cheap political trick to accumulate the taxpayers' cash and then use it in 1970 — an election year — to finance a deficit budget and pretend to 'cut taxes'."

Reagan replied "if this was a cheap political trick you would have waited until election year and you'd have gotten all the headline value of saying 'look at me, I'm going to give you back some money.' You wouldn't do it this far in advance."

Biafran Village Bombed, Killing At Least 300

UMUOHIAGU, Biafra (AP) — A crowded open market in this Biafran village was bombed and strafed today, causing what may be one of the worst civilian casualty tolls of the Nigerian civil war.

Local officials estimated that between 200 and 300 persons were killed outright and hundreds more wounded.

Five hours after the noon raid, sturdy youths followed by wailing relatives were still carrying the dead along dusty trails in the bush to their homes.

The Biafran Information Department said it was the second worst bombing incident of the war, the worst being the bombing of a market in Otuocha last year in which an estimated 500 persons died.

Shrubs Will Replace Road 'Killer Trees'

REDWOOD CITY (AP)—California's plan to remove "killer trees" and other highway hazards will not leave the state's roads barren and desolate, a state traffic engineer says.

The engineer, G. I. Russell, said in an interview the state has begun to remove trees that have caused injuries or fatalities.

Removal of trees is part of a general program to improve safety on roads by eliminating the opportunity for a collision between a straying automobile and a fixed object.

However, Russell said, traffic engineers recognize that a completely barren roadside would be not only unattractive but monotonous and a traffic safety problem in itself.

Road designers in California and elsewhere have selected certain highway landscaping shrubs, such as briar rose, because of their energy-absorbing qualities as a cushion for a careening car, Russell said, and you can expect to see a lot of these on California roads.

Trees beside highways, particularly in urban areas, are a major cause of highway deaths, Russell noted. The Bureau of Public Roads has recommended the removal of such trees within 30 feet of roads, and many states have adopted that standard.

California does not plan any blanket program of tree removal along its highway system, according to Russell, but will remove trees that have proven to be a hazard.

The campaign to remove fixed-objects near roadways is not limited to trees. Light poles and signs have been eliminated or moved.

The campaign, Russell said, has begun to pay off in human lives.

Statistics show, he said, that in 1968 fixed-object collisions finally dropped from first place as a cause of fatalities on California roads.

Soviet Spaceships Reported On Course

MOSCOW (AP) — Two unmanned Soviet spaceships that will attempt a soft landing on Venus in May are on course and working fine, Tass reported last night.

It was the first progress report since Venus 5 and Venus 6 started on their four and one-half month trip Jan. 5 and Jan. 10 respectively. The soft landing of Venus 4 in October 1967 was a space first for the Soviets.

Annual Marin Horse Clinic On Feb. 15

The second annual Marin Horse Health Clinic will be held Feb. 15 at the Mill Valley corporation yard on Sycamore Avenue.

Veterinarians will examine horses for worms and dental problems and give vaccinations. Two farriers /blacksmiths) and a Marin County Humane Society officer will also be present for consultation on proper shoeing, feeding and care of horses.

Veterinary work will be done by appointment between 9 a.m. and noon and from 2 to 4 p.m. Persons interested should get in touch with Dale Corliss of Mill Valley for an appointment.

The second phase of the clinic, at which booster shots will be given and dentistry performed, will be held March 15 at the corporation yard.

The clinics ars sponsored by the Southern Marin Horsemen's Association.

Driver Booked On Drug Probe

Valerie Vannest, 20, of 55 Marinero Circle, Tiburon, was booked at Marin County Jail yesterday on suspicion of having marijuana after her minibus was stopped on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Greenbrae, the California Highway Patrol reported.

The CHP said an officer was citing her for parking on the freeway when he smelled marijuana. The officer reported finding two marijuana cigarette butts, one freshly smoked, in the vehicle's ashtray.

Miss Vannest was held in lieu of $625 bail and was to appear in Marin Municipal Court today.

Suspect Booked On Marijuana

Arthur Burton Ring, 53, of Pier Three, Sausalito, was booked at Marin County Jail yesterday on suspicion of possessing marijuana after he was arrested on a San Francisco traffic warrant, Sausalito police said.

Police said Burton was arrested in downtown Sausalito at 5:45 p.m. on the warrant, and a marijuana cigarette was found when he was searched at headquarters.

Ring was jailed in lieu of $625 bail and was to appear today in Marin Municipal Court. He was also under a hold order from San Francisco for the $50 traffic warrant.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Treatment Of Elderly Persons Much Changed In Two Decades

VAN DELLEN

During the last 20 years tremendous changes have come about in the treatment of elderly persons with degenerative diseases. No longer is the outlook hopeless as they respond to the same remedies as do younger individuals.

Advances in medicine generally are advances in geriatrics and vice versa.

For example, when a 75-year-old man develops a respiratory infection, appendicitis, heart failure, or prostrate trouble, we no longer throw in the sponge because of his age. We treat him the same way as we do a man of 40.

In contrast, his medical problems may be more difficult to diagnose because oldsters seldom have the same degree of pain or distress as do younger individuals.

Geriatric problems become more complicated when gramps also suffers from degenerative mental changes or has no interest in life because he has outlived his spouse, friends, or the children have moved. Such individuals may have memory lapses, eat poorly, and can't think clearly. These infirmities must be considered if the total man is being treated.

Medicines improve the circulation and the sense of well-being.

CONFINEMENT TO BED has always been hazardous. The senior citizen is more susceptible to chest infections, urinary disorders, and constipation. Falls are common because he gets dizzy on changing posture.

Confusion also plays a role, especially when he gets out of bed at night and gropes about in unfamiliar surroundings.

Bedrest also leads to pressure sores and stiffening of the joints within a short period of time. All of these complications are easily eliminated by encouraging the oldster to spend a great part of the day in a chair. Being upright is also good for the morale and keeps the mind alert.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

DIET AND DERMATITIS

F. R. writes: Does diet have anything to do with dermatitis?

REPLY

Yes, if you refer to allergic skin disorders, psoriasis, acne, or pellagra. The term dermatitis covers a multitude of sins and is synonymous with a variety of eruptions and rashes. Acne, for example, may be aggravated by highly seasoned and rich foods. On the other hand, pellagra is caused by a deficiency of foods containing niacin (part of the vitamin B complex).

LIVER FOR ANEMIA

Mrs. E. L. writes: Will eating liver help a person who suffers from anemia?

REPLY

Yes, because the meat contains blood-forming elements. But best results are obtained when the cause of anemia is found and eliminated. Those who lack iron will improve within a week or 10 days after taking the element but victims of pernicious anemia need vitamin B12.

LARGE TEMPLE VEINS

A reader writes: What causes the veins over the temples to enlarge? Mine are quite prominent.

REPLY

The skin is responsible for this phenomenon. These veins appear more prominent because the overlying epidermis is thinner and there is less fat in the surrounding tissues. I assume these vessels are not pulsating or tender to the touch.

SUSCEPTIBILITY TO FLU

N. N. writes: Is a person more susceptible to flu if he has a cold?

REPLY

Not necessarily, although he could be more susceptible if his resistance is lowered.

Today's Health Hint — Dizzy spells that continue should be investigated.

Priority On Tax Reduction Ruled Out By Weinberger

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—State Finance Director Caspar W. Weinberger said today that tax reduction should have the same priority as many spending programs in the state budget.

Weinberger called it a "new but. . .unassailable premise that tax reduction has as urgent a priority as many of the spending programs of the state, and a higher priority than many of the spending requests that were made."

His remarks were prepared for a Commonwealth Club luncheon.

He also said that every state budget to come will be a record one, "until elected representatives have the authority to allocate 100 per cent of the state's revenues for the highst priorities as determined by your elected officials each year. Many of those critics of the total amount of this budget really want to spend more — they just do not dare to say so publicly."

Weinberger said too much money is tied up in special fund spending, such as education, and not subject to control by the governor or legislators.

Deadline Is Monday For Tam Opening

The deadline is Monday for applications to fill the seat of William B. Lewis on the Tamalpais High School District board, district officials said today.

Lewis, whose term expires June 30, resigned last Monday. His replacement will be selected in a special open session of the Tam board at 8 p.m. Thursday at the district offices in Larkspur.

Three Burglaries In San Rafael

Radios and stereos were the object of three burglaries reported Wednesday to San Rafael police.

Dorothy Downs King of 124 Elena Circle, San Rafael, reported her stereo and two speakers, valued at a total of $200, were taken from her home between Monday and Wednesday, police said.

The theft of $80 auto stereo from his vehicle Tuesday night was reported by Marion Miller Rundell. The theft occurred while his car was parked outside his home, 42 Forest Lane, San Rafael, police said.

Ron Ray Kafton, 17, reported his radio, valued at $70, was taken from his locker at San Rafael High School Wednesday while he dressed for gym class.

BEST SHOWS FOR TONIGHT

Best bets on television tonight:

KGO (7), KNTV (11), 7:30 p.m.—"This It Tom Jones" is a musical variety series, starring Welsh singer Tom Jones host with guests Joey Heatherton, Mary Hopkin, the Moody Blues, Peter Sellers and Richard Pryor. The programs originate in London.

KQED (9), 8:30 p.m.—"NET Playhouse" presents "The Boss's Son," a dramatized documentary by French journalist Danielle Hunebelle. Produced for French television, the film has an American sound track superimposed to allow the French dialogue and sound effect to run under the English translation.

KPIX (5), 9 p.m.—"The CBS Friday Night Movies" offers a comedy, "Penelope," starring Natalie Wood with Ian Bannen, Dick Shawn, Peter Falk and Jonathan Winters.

Look Out For Lombardi; Beban A New Hornung?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vince Lombardi, chosen to lead Washington out of the Dark Ages in Football, is looking at Heisman Trophy bust Gary Beban as the new Golden Boy for the Redskins' revival.

Lombardi marched into the nation's capital yesterday to take command of the Redskins after a decade of unprecedented greatness at Green Bay and made Beban the focus of his very first move.

Calling for complete movies of Beban's play as a rollout quarterback for UCLA, Lombardi promised a long off-season study to decide where to use Beban—with the strong possibility of turning him into a runner.

The move involked immediate memories of 10 years ago when Lombardi arrived in Green Bay and took another Heisman Trophy quarterback off the bench to make him one of football's most celebrated ball carriers the Golden Boy—Paul Hornung.

Beban, unimpressive in his brief trial as a rookie pro quarterback last year, scored more touchdowns as a runner at UCLA than he did by passing.

Lombardi stressed the need for a strong running attack and said, "The running game is what football is all about. The more you run, the more hardnosed you are."

Lombardi, who has never coached a loser in his lifetime, is taking over a team that hasn't had a winning season since 1955.

He will be executive vice president, coach and part-owner of the Redskins under a contract that may embrace as much as a million dollars in stock and long-term salary.

"Washington is the world's capital," Lombardi said. "And we have plans to make it the football capital."

But at one point he laughed and said, "Despite what you may think, I can't walk across the Potomac—even when it's frozen."

Perhaps no coach in football history has been watched as closely as Lombardi will be next season to see if the man can match the myth.

Unknown and unsung, Lombardi came to Green Bay almost exactly a decade ago to coach a team that had won only one game the previous season.

Within two years he had his first conference title. In the next seven, he won five NFL championships and capped his triumphs with the first two Super Bowl victories.

He was smiling as much as he did when he won that first Super Bowl. He was happy to be back.

I'll Root For Little Tina Noyes To Win

SPUNKY BUNKIE — I don't know about you guys, but I'm rooting for pixieish, 20-year-old redhead from Colorado Springs, Colo. to win all the marbles tonight in the North American Figure Skating Championships at the Oakland Coliseum Arena.

Being an also-ran for much of my life in anything ranging from hop scotch to patty cake to liar's dice to column writing, I am forever pulling for the underdogs. My heart bleeds for sportsdom's perennial bridesmaids (the 49ers, to name one), which is why my cheers will be directed at Tina Noyes when the girls do their twists and twirls on the ice in tonight's decisive free skating episode.

Standing in third place after yesterday's ladies' compulsory-figures competition, pretty Tina will have to go some to bypass Canada's Karen Magnussen and Janet Lynn, the new U.S. champion, who are 1-2.

Destined For The Shadows

But Tina seems destined to stand in the shadows. You see, she had the misfortune of growing up at the same time as a lass named Peggy Fleming who, you must remember, went on to conquer all worlds in figure skating.

For 12 years she and Peggy had gone through the same competition and only once, when she was 14, did Miss Noyes beat Miss Fleming.

Now, with Peggy turned pro, this was to the Tina's year to emerge from the shadows into the spotlight, but lo and behold the heartbreak girl has hit more cracks in the ice—similar to the 1968 Olympics when she missed a bronze medal by one-tenth of a point.

Last week in Seattle, for example, she was the favorite in the nationals and . . . well, let her tell it as she did in Oakland the other day:

"I was excited getting ready for the nationals," she started off. "I felt, at last, that maybe I would win the title I had worked so long for. But, you know, everything seemed to go wrong.

It All Started With Dress

"It started when my dressmaker in Colorado made my dress wrong, and we had to send to California for more material. Then someone put an iron on my free-skating dress and ruined it.

"Then we had a terrible air trip from Colorado to the west coast. We roared down the runway at Denver, and then the plane slowed down. A few feet farther down the runway and, I'm told, we would have crashed. We finally had to go to Portland, then by plane to Seattle. We arrived in Seattle six hours late, losing valuable practice time and had to look for other rinks when we got there. Everything seemed miserable, but I was skating well and had high hopes.

"After the compulsory school figures, I was almost in a first place tie. Then I drew the last position in the draw for free skating, which is generally considered the worst. I waited around about 25 minutes, and I guess I didn't skate as well as I could have."

No World Championship Trip

The rest is history. Miss Noyes finished third in a close finish that had the judges going down to the fractions of a point. But, for Tina, it meant no national title and no berth on the U.S. team for the world championship. Janet Lynn and runner-up Julie Lynn Homes made the team.

"As hard as I've worked in my skating career," said Miss Noyes, who at 20 is considered middle-aged in her sport, "it seems destined for disappointment. It's several days now since the nationals, and I can't seem to overcome the disappointment. I don't know if I can get up again for this North American championships. Yet, if I am the first American girl in the competition, I still stand an outside chance of making the world championship team."

Nearby, as photographers and reporters swarmed about new U.S. queen Janet Lynn, Miss Noyes smiled, looking cute in her mint green dress and pink ribbon in her red hair: "It's all right," she said, thinking back over 12 years of frustration, "I'm used to it!"

Which is why I'll be rooting for Tina Noyes tonight to write a heart-warming sports story on the cold ice.

To Tina goes my "Is That What's Troubling You, Bunkie" award.

Michigan Speedway Buys Into Riverside Track

DETROIT (AP) — The newly established Michigan International Speedway has agreed to buy 47 per cent of California's Riverside International Raceway with an option to acquire up to 65.5 per cent of the facility.

Lawrence Lopatin, president of the Michigan track, located in the Irish Hills west of Detroit, said today his group had agreed to buy 600,000 shares of the California track at $2 per share.

In addition, Lopatin said, Michigan International Speedway would lend the Riverside track $1.2 million in 7½ per cent subordinated notes, convertible at $2 per share.

With the Riverside transaction, Michigan International Speedway has interests in tracks already operating or under construction in the far West, the Southeast, the Southwest and the Midwest.

OTTO'S PROBLEMS MULTIPLY

As if losing his job as coach of Washington Redskins of the National Football League wasn't enough, Otto Graham found more trouble yesterday when his ball came to rest against a palm tree during the second round of the Bop Hope Desert Golf Classic at Palm Springs. Graham, who refused comment about being replaced this week by Vince Lombardi in Washington, is competing in the Hope tournament as an eight handicap amateur.

Canadian Girl Takes Lead In Figure Skating Meet

OAKLAND (AP) — "The only place for me to go is down, but I hope I don't," declared pert Karen Magnussen as she prepared to try and wrap up the ladies' title tonight in the North American Figure Skating Championships.

Canada and the United States each have 18 athletes competing.

Miss Magnussen, a 16-year-old blonde from Vancouver, B.C., gained a narrow lead over favored Janet Lynn, 15, Rockford, Ill., yesterday in the compulsory figures—half of the ladies' program.

The second half—free skating—will help determine who might succeed Peggy Fleming as the world's best female skater.

Miss Magnussen had 1,029.1 points to 1,015.5 for Miss Lynn, the tiny U.S. champion. The Canadian champion, Linda Carbonetto, 19, was a disappointing fifth at 977.3.

Tim Wood of Detroit was favored over Canada's Jay Humphry as the men's competition opened today with compulsory figures. Men's free skating is scheduled tomorrow night.

Also shooting for a title tonight are the four-time U.S. pairs champions, Ronald and Cindy Kauffman of Seattle.

Their precision timing and smooth form brought the biggest ovation from a sparse crowd of 3,000 at the Oakland Arena and gave them 79 points for the compulsory pairs.

Going into tonight's final free skating in pairs, the U.S. teams of Kenneth Shelley and JoJo Starbuck of Los Angeles and Mark and Melissa Militano of Long Island, N.Y., rank second and third, respectively, with 74.1 and 70.7 points.

Dancing, with U.S. champions James Sladky of Rochester, N.Y. and Judy Schwomeyer of Indianapolis leading with 111.6 points after compulsory dances, continues tonight. The Canadian champions, Bruce Lennie of Weston, Ont., and Donna Taylor of Mississauga, Ont., were second with 108.5 points.

How competitors finish in these championships has no bearing on the world finals Feb. 25-March 1 in Colorado Springs, Colo., since entries from each country already have been selected.

No team scores are kept. Seven judges score a maximum of six points after each performance. But after all six entries have run through their routines, the judges award places, which counts more in the over-all standings.

Prep Wrestlers Vie In Marin Loop Meet

Novato High School shoots for a fifth straight team championship when the Marin County Athletic League Wrestling Tournament gets underway with preliminary matches tomorrow 10 a.m. at San Rafael High School.

Novato again will be heavily favored to take the title, although Tamalpais is expected to put up a strong fight.

Finals are slated for 3:30 p.m.

The top three finishers in each weight division will qualify for the North Coast Section meet at Hayward High School in Pacifica Feb. 15.

Oaks To Open Road Trip Vs. Kentucky

LOUISVILLE (AP) — The Oakland Oaks, still smarting from their worst loss of the season, open a two-game road trip tonight against the Kentucky Colonels.

Upended 119 - 105 by Denver last Sunday in Oakland, The Oaks saw their season record dip to 38-6, a mark that still leaves them 12½ games ahead of Denver in the American Basketball Association's Western Division.

Hecker Expected To Assist Vince

ATLANTA (AP) — Norb Hecker, former Atlanta Falcon coach, is expected to become an assistant under Vince Lombardi, new coach of the Washington Redskins.

Hecker, contacted at his home here yesterday, declined to comment on the Washington report.

Bills, O.J. Simpson Are 'Miles Apart'

Salary Wrangle Begins

BUFFALO (UPI)—Ralph Wilson Jr. seems to be having as much trouble trying to tackle O. J. Simpson as most of the Southern California opponents did this season.

Wilson said yesterday that he was "miles apart" with Simpson after having a six-hour salary negotiation with the all-America's representatives.

"We concluded the first round amiably but not in accord," Wilson said. "In fact, we were miles apart."

He added facetiously, "it is hoped by the Buffalo Bills' management that at our next meeting we will narrow the gap. I am hoping we can because I would like to stay on as Buffalo owner."

Wilson met in Detroit with Chuck Barnes of Sports Headliners, Inc. and attorney David Lockton, who are representing Simpson. They are expected to be demanding a contract ranging from $600,000 to $750,000.

In the days before the common draft, Donny Anderson of Texas Tech received a five-year contract between the Packers that was announced at $600,000 but was actually supposed to be worth $711,000 when the fringe benefits were included.

Lew Alcindor is supposed to bargain for a million-dollar contract when he leaves UCLA but he has the advantage of being able to dicker with two leagues.

Wilson said he and the negotiators had agreed to meet again soon but no date has been set for the meetings.

Light Heavy Foster Voted Boxer Of Year

He outpolled Joe Frazier, recognized as heavyweight champion in five states, 20 votes to 17, after leading Frazier in the first balloting of the New York Boxing Writers Association, 16-15.

The 30-year-old Foster won the light heavyweight title last year by knocking out Dick Tiger and also scored three non-title KO victories in 1968. He defended his title this year by stopping Frank DePaula in one round. Of his 34 victories in 38 bouts, 28 were knockouts.

Nino Benvenuti of Italy and Middleweight champion bantamweight titleholder Lionel Rose of Australia collected three votes each on the first ballot, necessitating the runoff.

Sports

WET, MISERABLE

Funseth Leads Bob Hope Golf

PALM SPRINGS (AP) — Scrawled in chalk on a big board in the press tent was the message:

Weather perfect. Temperature 80.

Both board and message were gone today as the 90-hole Bob Hope Desert Golf Classic ventured — pherhaps perilously—into the third round.

Leading the way was Rod Funseth, with a 36-hole score of 69-66—135, nine shots under par for the distance.

One stroke back was National Open champion Lee Trevino, 67-69—136. Billy Casper was down with 71-68—139. That round yesterday included a hole-in-one on the 207-yard 11th hole at Tamarisk Country Club.

And further back were such esteemed golfers as Jack Nicklaus, 72-71—143, and the three-time defending champion, Arnold Palmer, 72-73—145.

The marathon tournament ends Sunday. To some, it would be a blessing if the end came sooner.

What happened to the missing sign?

It disappeared sometime yesterday from the press tent at Indian Wells Country Club, host club for the 1969 Hope.

It was probably when cold winds were almost whipping the flaps off the tent, the lights were rocking above and there was the suspicion the whole structure might take off.

No one really wanted to step outside, however, because it was raining up a storm. This condition began early in the morning, stopped, bowed out momentarily for a bright rainbow and the sun.

Neither the sun or the rainbow could stand it long, and back came the gloomy skies and rain.

It was, old time observers agreed, the most miserable day in the 10-year-old history of the tournament.

Perhaps the finest shooting was turned in by Trevino and Casper, who got their sub par scores during the worst stages of the day.

Temperature 80, the sign said? Maybe so, because electric heaters were working overtime in the press tent.

Redwood Vs. San Rafael In Key Game

Second half of the Marin County Athletic League basketball schedule gets under way tonight and there could be some changes made in the first division.

The front-running Redwood High School Giants put their 6-1 won-lost record on the line against dangerous San Rafael Bulldogs (5-2) in the evening's feature attraction at Redwood's Larkspur gymnasium.

Elsewhere, Novato (5-2) plays at Drake (3-4) in San Anselmo, Tamalpais (4-3) hosts Marin Catholic (1-6) in Mill Valley, and San Marin (0-7) of Novato plays at Terra Linda (4-3).

All action will start with junior varsity preliminary games at 7 o'clock followed immediately by the varsity games.

All eyes will be on Larkspur where San Rafael will be gunning for its second upset over Coach Dick Hart's Giants. In their first round meeting the Bulldogs eked out a 56-55 victory, but since then Redwood has stormed back to win six straight.

Vince To Find Things Difficult

By MIKE RATHET

NEW YORK (AP) — It is more than likely that in moving from Green Bay to Washington Vince Lombardi will be the instrument that will destroy his own standing as a legend.

For it will be difficult, if not impossible, for Lombardi to duplicate the success he achieved with the Packers—simply because 1969 is not 1959.

To understand that is to understand how Lombardi built the Packers by judicious trades, brilliant drafting and perfect knowledge, understanding and manipulation of the resources available when he first arrived for the 1959 season.

Some of the resouces, however, no longer exist.

First, to disspell a portion of the legend, Lombardi did not take over a Green Bay team without any talent and make it a winner. What he did was take a team with potential, strengthen it, mold it and maintain it.

To look at the roster in 1958 is to find such names as Bart Starr, Paul Hornung, Jim Taylor, Forrest Gregg, Jim Ringo, Jerry Kramer, Max McGee, Ray Nitschke—the names that made the Packers what they were during the Lombardi era.

That club posted a 1-10-1 record. Two years later, Lombardi had the Packers in the championship game, and when his nine-year reign ended he had won six Western titles, five league championships, including the last three in a row, and the first two Super Bowls.

He did it, however, in different circumstances than exist now.

That is not to say that the Redskins don't have the same potential—for there is legitimate talent on a team with such names as Sonny Jurgensen and Charlie Taylor.

The means to build as quickly, and maintain once built, however, are not the same.

When Lombardi conducted his first draft and tapped a guy named Boyd Dowler there were only 12 teams vying for talent among the colleges. Now there are 26.

Where Lombardi was able to get every 12th best player in the country—in his first three drafts he selected such people as Dowler, Bob Jeter, Herb Adderley, Ron Kostelnik, Elijah Pitts—he now must settle for every 26th.

In addition, the recent expansion drafts stocking the new Atlanta and New Orleans club have further thinned talent.

And when Lombardi finally had built, and wanted to maintain, he was able to play the future market, selecting a player such as Donny Anderson who still had a year of college eligibility left and wait for him to finish.

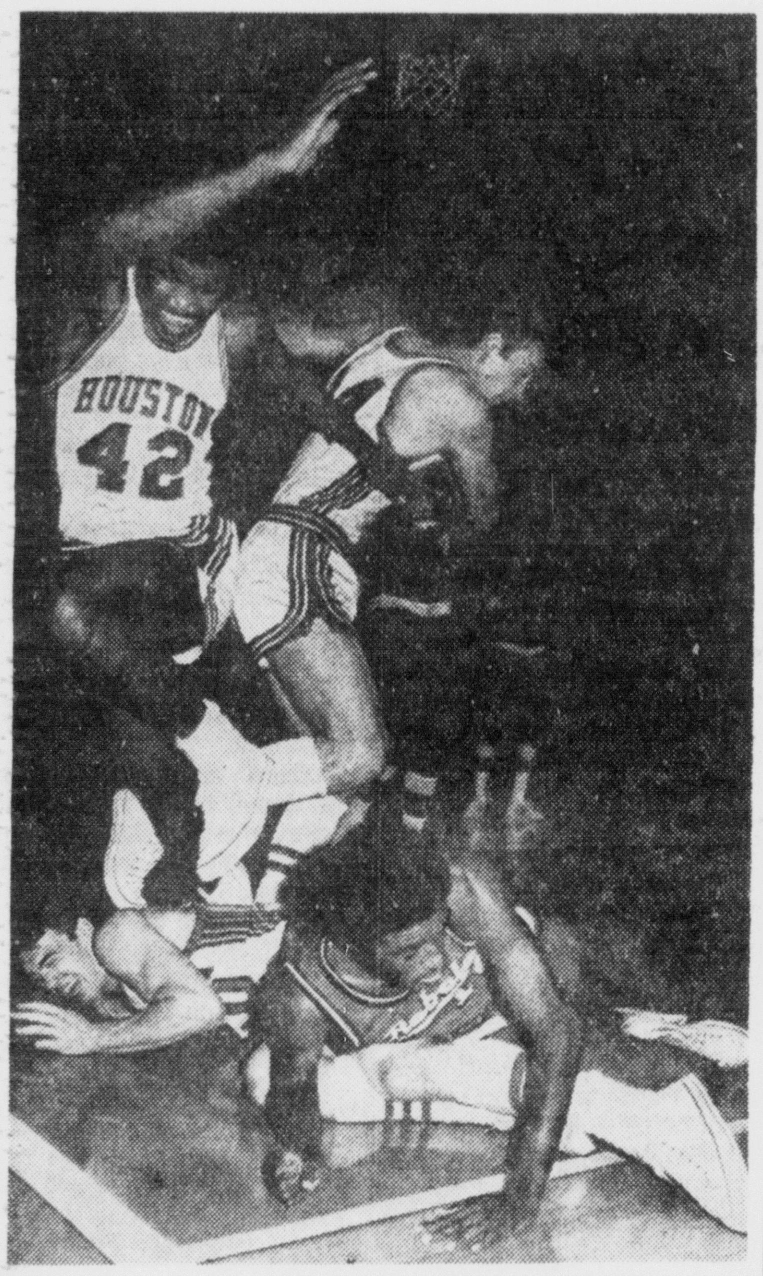
Now futures cannot be drafted, leaving Lombardi less room to operate within the rules of the sport.

As for trades, Lombardi still can maneuver in that area, and possibly find a Willie Davis as he did at Cleveland and acquire him for an A.D. Williams or find a Henry Jordan as he did at Baltimore and acquire him for a fourth draft choice.

But now that has to be more difficult too, for the Lombardi his colleagues were not overly concerned with in 1959 is a colleague whom they have learned to be wary of in the decade that has passed.

It also must be remembered that the Potomac River around Washington is considerably more formidable than the Fox River around Green Bay.

And that will make it just a bit more difficult to walk on water.



IT'S A 'NON-CONTACT' SPORT

Bodies were flying all over the court in Houston last night during the University of Houston - U. of Nevada basketball game. Nevada's Vurtis Watson (12) lies on the floor following collision with Houston's Tom Gribben (20) while George Reynolds attempts to clear the pileup. Ken Spain (14) finally came up with the ball. Houston won, 118-97. (UPI Telephoto)

Campbell Driver To Try Indy 500

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — George Benson of Campbell was nominated yesterday for his first attempt to drive in the Indianapolis 500 mile race.

Benson, the first rookie entry of the year, will drive the new Maxson Special entered by Darwin Maxson of Downey. He has been driving in the U.S. Auto Club's midget division for eight years.

Seven entries have now been received for the Memorial Day race and officials expect about 70 before the April 15 deadline.

ROD'S RETURN—Top money winner Rod Laver readied a vigorous backhanded return of the ball rifled across the net by Butch Buchholtz during their match in the Philadelphia International Indoor Open Tennis Championships last night. Laver won, 6-1, 7-5. (UPI Telephoto)

Laver Vs. Pasarell In Net Quarterfinals

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Top-seeded Rod Laver of Australia meets Charles Pasarell of Puerto Rico, one of two surviving amateurs, tonight in the quarterfinals of the Philadelphia International Indoor Open tennis championships.

Jan Kodes, amateur champ from Czechoslovakia, will meet Tom Okker of the Netherlands; newest recruit to the pro ranks; Spanish pro Andrs Gimeno will play fourth-seeded Ken Rosewall of Australia; and third-ranked Tony Roche of Australia will face the veteran Pancho Gonzales of Los Angeles in the other matches.

Laver overpowered Butch Buchholz of St. Louis, 6-1, 7-5, last night in a tight match decided after Buchholz fought off two match points in the 12th game. Buchholz then double faulted and lost the match by backhanding a volley over the base line.

Pasarell, winner of the All-Amateur Philadelphia tournaments in 1966 and 1967, eliminated Nikki Pilic, the 6-foot-3, lefthanded pro from Yugoslavia, 6-2, 6-3.

The 31-year-old Gimeno upset fifth-ranked John Newcombe, Australian pro, 9-7, 6-3, running the last three games with the loss of only five points. Rosewell was in top form as he eliminated Ray Moore, a new pro from South Africa, 6-4, 6-1, taking the first three games in each set.

Kodes defeated Stan Smith, U.S. inter-collegiate champ and Davis Cup player, 6-2, 2-6, 6-2, by winning the first four games in the third set. Okker weathered a marathon ordeal to defeat Roger Taylor, English pro, 4-6, 6-3, 13-11.

Roche, second only to Laver in money winnings, put out Marty Riessen, an American who turned pro last summer, 10-8, 6-2, running out the second set from 2-2. The 45-year-old Gonzales, his drives as powerful as ever, defeated Thomas Koch, the big and husky Brazilian amateur, 6-3, 7-5.

UCLA, Santa Clara Cagers Resume Play On Weekend

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Unbeaten UCLA and Santa Clara don't figure to change their status this weekend as they each host a couple of conference foes in cage action.

The nationally top-ranked Bruins are at home to Washington and Washington State, who are tied for second in the Pacific Eight behind the Bruins with 4-1 marks. A Husky or Cougar win would cause turmoil to the national collegiate cage scene, but the Bruins have yet to lose on their home floor in two seasons.

Third-ranked Santa Clara faces Loyola and Pepperdine,

The Broncs got a good boost toward their expected West Coast Athletic Conference title last night when Santa Barbara defeated University of Pacific 84-69 to leave both teams at 4-2 in the conference race. Bill Sticker had 32 for the Tigers while Steve Rippe's 19 points led five Gauchos who were in double figures.

But San Jose State gamely stayed in range of the Broncs by taking St. Mary's 89-74 to move the Spartans to 5-1 in conference play. Coby Dietrick hit 20 while Chris Dayak paced the losers with 14.

USC also hosts the two Washington clubs this weekend while Cal meets Oregon State tonight and Oregon tomorrow. and Stanford reverses the procedure.

Grid Coach To Help Coach Baseballers

SAN JOSE (UPI) — Gene Menges has been appointed co-coach of the San Jose State College baseball team.

Menges, a San Jose State graduate and assistant football coach, joins Ed Sobzcak, who has guided the Spartans since 1956.

Staubach Is Still In There Pitching

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Roger Staubach, who won the 1963 Heisman trophy as Navy's quarterback, is still in there pitching. Roger threw four touchdown passes as the Pensacola Navy team beat Youngstown State University 58-38.

Reports are that Staubach will join the Dallas Cowboys for the 1969 football season.

MARIN BOWLING HIGHLIGHTS

San Rafael's High Rollers

By RALPH CHATOIAN

The guys in the 670 Scratch League at Country Club Bowl had reason to be proud over their pin-busting scores at the San Rafael lanes.

Six of the bowlers had scores of 600 or better, and there were 25 games over the 200 mark. High on the list was Al Hoffmann with a 280 game and 689 series, Sandy Slack, 268-674, and Rich Curry, 250-629.

THIS AND THAT — Terry De Young of Novato came close to making the nationals in the Bay Area Bowling Proprietors all-star tourney in San Francisco, but finished sixth. Top three qualified for the nationals, and Terry fell 337 pins short after bowling 32 games. Dick Treadway of Corte Madera, the other Marin Countian in the finals, finished last in the 16-man final roll-offs. . . . Treadway had high score in Marin this week, 723 series in the 910 Travel. . . . Mike Tauscher came close to that elusive 700 mark with his 696 series (topped by a 267 game) in the Nite Owls at Country Club. . . . Elmer Tynes was star bowler of the Lutheran Late League at Country Club Bowl, 668 series.

STRIKES TO SPARE —Linda Swann has hiked her average from 110 to 140 already this season and last time out in the Magic Fours League rolled her first 500 series, a 534. . . . Lou Ahrens of the Ladies 622 Classic rolled an all-spare game, 183, Greenbrae Lanes . . . Marlene Soldavini of the Triple Threat League had her first. 500 series, a 512. . . . If that 690 (211-225-254) series by Chuck Luby in the TGIF League at Country Club wasn't eough, he also tossed a 233-644 in the Weekenders. . . . Penny Conti led all Marin County women bowlers this past week with a 652 series in the 615 Classic at Country Club, the exact series score she had last week in that league. Then in the Hi-Lo's, she rolled eight strikes in a row on her way to a 266 game and wound up with a 591 series.

DOWN THE LANES — Lyn Tippens has a 149 average in the Striking Trios, but rolled 230—564 to crack the honor roll at Country Club. . . . Chuck Akins, 156 average, overdid his norm by exactly 100 pins, 256 in the Twilite Twirlers League. . . . Larry King (152 avg.) almost ent 100 over in the Mixed Mates, 243, leading to a 638 series. . . . Paul Chaffee, that former southpaw baseball hurler, likes to improve on his score slowly: just look at that 172-173-174 score in the Friday Nite Leftovers at Nave Lanes. . . . In the Lutheran Early, Robert Schoen led the way with 232-652 and Sherry Tauscher rolled her first 200 and 500, like 219—506. . . . George Buston was the kingpin of the Novato Unified Bowlers at Nave Lanes, 226—628.

DOWN THE LANES — Delores Ray rolled a 235 in the Gutter Belles League at Greenbrae Lanes, and Joan Porter came an eyelash away from a triplicate, 147-146-146. . . . Hagel Supply team had a total of 1,018 pins, highlight of the Northern California Merchants League at Greenbrae. . . . Ken Moran (160 avg.) of the Hi-Lo's rolled a 607 series. . . . Maureen Moresco went over the 200 plateau for the initial time in the St. Isabella's Women's League at Nave Lanes, 210. . . . Split time in the Marin County Mixed Travel League at Nave Lanes, Larry Asay converting the 6-7-10 . . . Bea Hoffmann cashed the 6-7-10 split in the Week-Enders League at Country Club. . . . In the San Quentin Mixed Fours, Joe Stocker led the way with a 255 and Steve Evans rolled his first 200, a 205. . . . In junior action, Rich McPherson led the way at Country Club Bowl, 214-621, and tops at Greenbrae Lanes were Wayne Ziegler, 244, and Ron Gottheiner, 591.

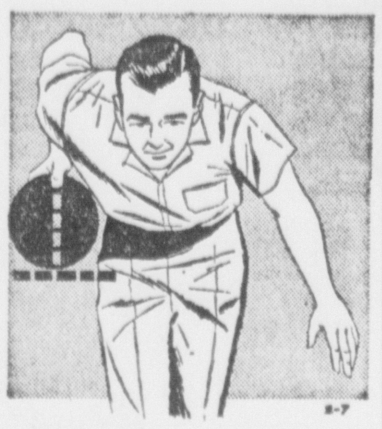
Bowling Tips

By DON CARTER



The wrist must remain firm throughout the delivery. Try to imagine your thumb is perpendicular to a line running parallel to the floor. This position may vary a little bit if you have set the thumb slightly to the left with the intention of throwing a hook, but basically this "perpendicular" idea should be kept in mind.

Van Alen Raps Tennis Scoring

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The master of the famed Casino Club, home of the National Tennis Museum, said today what the game needs is not a new attitude on amateurs but a different slant on scoring.

"We haven't changed scoring since the game was born in 1877," James Van Alen, Newport socialite and tennis patrol added. "Ten per cent of the people in the world don't understand it. It's awkward, out of date and not in tune with the times."

Van Alen, originator of the Van Alen Simplified Scoring System in tennis (1-2-3, etc., instead of 15s and 30s), said he was flying to Clearwater, Fla., to present his case to the meeting of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association.

Van Alen said there were three main flaws with the current scoring system in tennis, which was borrowed from royal tennis of the Middle Ages.

"It is ambiguous and no one understands it," he said. "Since games must be won by a two-point margin and sets by two-game margins—the deuce principle—there is no way of figuring when a match might end.

"Scheduling is impossible. This affects television sponsors. They won't touch it. For the average club player, there is no way to handicap it.

"Tennis must get abreast of the times."

Arthur Ashe: Tennis Players Prima Donnas

NEW YORK (AP) — Some of us may have suspected it, but it took Arthur Ashe Jr. to admit it —tennis players are a bunch of prima donnas.

"We're all egotists, we're all prima donnas," the young Army lieutenant, America's No. 1 court ace, told a luncheon group honoring the successful U.S. Davis Cup team yesterday.

He glanced at former Davis Cup captain Bill Talbert, one of the hosts sitting on the dais, and, apparently half in jest and half seriously, added:

"Everybody knows we just think of ourselves."

Then the articulate Ashe proceeded to give a thumb-nail sketch of his teammates, who helped him wrest the international tennis trophy from Australia in December.

"Stan Smith is the exception," he said, referring to the six-foot-four slugger from the University of Southern California who teams with Bob Lutz in doubles. "He is a thinker. He is quiet and modest. He thinks of other people."

Smith defeated Ashe in the final of the Victorian Open at Melbourne after the Davis Cup matches.

"Charlie Pasarell is the clothes horse. He's always reading Vogue Magazine. Clark Graebner, he's the stubborn type—but that's the kind to have on your side. He says he is going to play only on weekends. I hope I don't have to play him on a weekend.

"Jimmy Osborne, the sixth man on our team, came a long way this year. He will go farther."

Ashe and most of his teammates were in New York to receive the city's Certificate of Appreciation at City Hall. It was designated "U.S. Davis Cup Victory Day."

Tountas Leads Bowl Tourney

DENVER (AP) — Pete Tountas of Tucson, Ariz., remained on top by 11 pins after four rounds yesterday in the Professional Bowlers Association's $45,000 Denver Open.

The 6-foot-3, 170-pound, Greek-born star rolled 1183 in last night's play to total 5143 for 24 games. Billy Hardwick of Louisville, Ky., was in the second spot with 5132.

Dick Ritger of Hartford, Wis., made the big move of the day when he shot 1346 in yesterday's six-game session to go from 10th into the third slot.

The field of 128 was cut to the top 16 who battle 16 games today for a shot at the five spots in the nationally televised finals tomorrow. Top prize is $6,000.

Charlie Sifford's Due For Bid To Masters

This was not the first police escort Charlie has gotten in Los Angeles. Only, the last time was late at night, and the red lights were flashing, and they broke off the parade to put Charlie on the side of the car with his hands on the roof while they frisked his jacket and threw open the trunk and said "Aha!" when they found it full of several sets of golf sticks.

Had Charlie knocked over a few sporting goods stores? No, Charlie told them: All he had done was knock in a few putts. These clubs were the gifts of sporting goods manufacturers who hoped he would use them eventually to win the Masters, or the National Open, or some such elite event.

CHARLIE SIFFORD is one of the recognizable athletic silhouettes of our day, now, unlike that time many years ago when he had to offer to take the police to a driving range to demonstrate that he was, too, a championship golfer. Chances are today a policeman who stopped him would want his autograph, not his hands in the air.

The proposition before he house now, is how does Charlie go about crashing the last barricade to membership in golf's front-of-the-bus — play in the Masters.

MUCH HAS been made of the fact there are 14 ways you can get in the Masters. Let us match up Charlie's qualifications against those requirements. On the left are the eligibility requirements, on the right Charlie's fitness or lack of same:

1 — Former Masters champions — lifetime exempt. (Well, obviously, Charlie cannot be a former champion in a tournament he has never got in.)

2 — U.S. Open champions — five years. (Charlie has never won a U.S. Open. Neither has Sam Snead. Neither have 90% of the players in the Masters field.)

3— U.S. Amateur champions. (An amateur is a guy who doesn't have to play golf for money. Charlie lost his eligibility at about the age of 10.)

4 — British Open champions. (The only way Charlie could afford to get to the British Open till the past couple of years was to swim.)

6 — PGA champions — five years. (The PGA had a "Caucasians only" clause the first 14 years of Charlie's career. This tournament has been won by one older man, Julius Boros, but Julie had almost 20 years of practice in it by then.)

7— 1968 Ryder Cup team. (You get Ryder Cup points from your play in the Masters, for instance. And over a two-year period. A guy who piles up 100 or more Ryder points in a tournament Charlie can't even play in, is like a guy who gets the first look at the dice in a dark room. Johnny Pott nailed down the last spot on the last Ryder Cup team in the Masters, for example.)

8 — World Amateur team. (There's that word again.)

9 — First 24 players including ties from last year's Masters. (Well, there goes 24 more places, Charlie!)

10 — First 16 players including ties from last year's National Open. (Well, at least, there's a crack in the door here, but it's not very wide. A lot of Hall of Fame players didn't make the cut in last year's Open. Sifford did and beat a lot of them, including the Masters winner, but fell well short of 16th.)

11 — First eight players of PGA. (Pass.)

12— First eight players U.S. Amateur. ("Daddy, what's an amateur?")

13 — One player not on invitational list selected by ballot of former champions. (Now, we're getting someplace! These guys in the past have invited in cronies on sentiment alone, some of them having as much right in that field as a burro in the Kentucky Derby.)

14 — Six professionals on PGA circuit who establish best full-year showing. (This is the regulation the Masters use as their "out." Charlie can shoot his way in, can't he?)

Charlie could also get in if he were the Chinese or Turko-Roman champion, or runner-up in the Formosa Open, or the All-Madrid City Championship.

THE BARRIERS thrown up remind me of the guy who shoots a kid's parents and then the kid is deprived of his inheritance on the grounds he's an orphan. The 21 former Masters champions can right an historic wrong this April (up until 100 years after the Emancipation Proclamation, their organization was annually voting 60-to-17 against permitting Negroes — until federal officials began rattling briefs at them in the clubhouse). Now that Charlie's won a tournament, inviting him in would be no more than a "gimmie." Charlie's inside the leather. He could probably make the putt by himself, but for the 14 years they kept him out of the "Contestants Only" room, they should invite him in.

Finley Tells Unsigned A's Pack Lunch, Go To Work

OAKLAND (AP) — Charles O. Finley, owner of the Oakland Athletics, has told his players they won't be able to work out during spring training unless they have signed contracts.

The Oakland Tribune quoted Finley yesterday as saying, "In the past, players have come to camp unsigned and worked out by themselves after the team left the field. Not this spring."

Finley told the Tribune from his Chicago office that he would use players from Triple-A teams if major league players carried out a strike threat and added:

"The players can strike if they want. We are going to play ball and, if they don't want to play ball, they can wrap up some sandwiches, pack a lunch bucket and go to work."

EX-CHAMPS HELP NOVATO BOXING SHOW

THE FINANCIAL REPORT

Good, Bad News For Giants

By JACK HANLEY

Horace Stoneman has just finished preparation of his annual report to stockholders of National Exhibition Company which owns the San Francisco Giants. The report by the president contains good and bad news.

"The company experienced a loss from operations of $179,000 for the year ended Oct. 31, 1968," is the bad news.

"But the company had net income of $2,250,000," is the good news. "Net income of this magnitude is the result of extraordinary income derived from the award for condemnation of the Polo Grounds and the company's share of proceeds from the two new expansion teams of the National League."

Those are the highlights of Stoneham's report which he will make to stockholders at their annual meeting Feb. 17 at legal headquarters of the company in Jersey City, N.J.

SHARP DROPOFF

Stoneham has no trouble whatsoever in pinpointing the reason for the $179,000 deficit. It was a sharp droopoff in Candlestick Park attendance during 1968.

"Although finishing second for the fourth consecutive year, the San Francisco Giants' home attendance for 1968 was 837,220, a decrease of 405,260 from 1967," he reported.

"This was mainly attributable to the move of the Kansas City American League franchise to Oakland, thus diluting the baseball market in the San Francisco Bay Area.

"The Giants led the National League in attendance on the road in 1968 with a total of 1,585,762. This marked the seventh time in the past eight years that the Giants have been the leaders in National League road attendance."

Net receipts from baseball games in 1968 was $2,935,806, down more than $1 million from $3,984,262 in 1967. Revenue from radio, television and concession privileges was $1,929,944 in 1968, up more than $150,000 from $1,754,398 in 1967. Operation of the company's hotel and related facilities at Casa Grande returned $758,531, up almost $200,000 from $566,400 in 1967.

Total income, excluding the extraordinary items of $1,028,924 from the Polo Grounds condemnation award and $1.4 million from the expansion clubs, amounted to $5,624,281. Operating expenses totaled $6,033,380, leaving a $409,099 deficit. An estimated income tax expense credit of $230,000 chopped the operating loss to $179,099.

The loss is equivalent to $17.24 a share but stockholders needn't be concerned by that paper loss. The extraordinary income from the Polo Grounds and the Montreal and San Diego expansion clubs was equal to $206.70 a share. That, too, is on paper. But common stock is listed for cash dividends of $18 per share in 1968.

'Citizens For Quality Education' Organize

A group of Petaluma parents calling themselves "Citizens for Quality Education" have met at the home of Kenneth H. Styles to discuss the lack of communication between school boards and parents.

Mrs. Styles said the group was of the opinion Wednesday that the great faith placed in schools has been shaken considerably. "It's time to stop all these experimental classes and get back to teacher the three Rs," Mrs. Styles said.

The group plans to serve as a lobby before the Petaluma Board of Education, but does not plan to take a hostile attitude. "We'll go before the school board as a group when necessary, but we hope it won't be," she said. "We want to maintain a good relationship with both the board and administration."

The group is presently concerned with opposing KQED's "Time of Your Life" film series being considered by the Petaluma board for use in the family program. Superintendent Lesly H. Meyer has recommended the controversial series be used on a voluntary basis.

Noting that three of the five board seats are up for election June 10, Mrs. Styles said her group will be seeking candidates that will carry out their goals.

The group will meet again soon, according to Mrs. Styles, but no date has been set.

Law Enforcement Task Force Studies Priorities

Tentative priorities for consideration by the Law Enforcement Task Force of the Association of Bay Area Governments have been announced by the task force chairman, Edward S. Kreins.

Kreins, former Sausalito police chief who is now police administrator at Pleasant Hill, has asked Marin and other Bay Area police chiefs to evaluate the list and offer suggestions in time for inclusion in the group's first report, due March 1.

Priorities listed by Kreins include determiniation of deficiencies in departmental operation; improvement of community relations programs; expansion of community involvement in law enforcement; improvement of the functions of local government in the prevention and control of crime.

Review of manpower needs and assurance of proper utilization of personnel; improvement of the quality of police personnel; coordination and pooling of selected police services; development of guidelines on police policy and strengthening central staff functions which provide research and crime analysis.

The initial report will establish definite priorities to be worked on over a period of five years with federal money allocated in the Omnibus Crime and Safe Streets Act.

Homeowners Eye Civic Problems

Loch Lomond Home Owners Assn. directors have set a general meeting to discuss the two proposed San Rafael city charter amendments and to elect three board members.

The meeting will be at 8 p.m., March 12, at San Pedro Elementary School.

Support of the amendments, one to extend the term of the mayor from two to four years and the other to expand membership on two commissions and one city board, were discussed Wednesday but no action taken. The board, reported president Andrew J. Ring, was divided in its feelings and decided to call a general meeting.

Directors agreed to support the San Rafael Elementary School District's $2.1 million bond measure on the Feb. 18 ballot for construction of Glenwood Middle School.

The election is to fill positions of three directors, Mrs. Janet Froman, Paul Winton and Joseph Garbarino, whose terms expire March 12.

Demos To Hear Sen. Beilenson

State Sen. Anthony C. Beilenson of Los Angeles will be the featured speaker at a Marin Democratic Assembly meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Bob's of Marin, Corte Madera.

Beilenson, the author of the state's Therapeutic Abortion Act in 1967 and unsuccessful candidate last year for the Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate, is to speak on "Sacramento in 1969."

Program chairman Franzblau siad the meeting will be open to the public.

Marinite's Machine Gun Case Moved

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — Further proceedings in the case of a 20-year-old Sausalito musician and two companions, charged with illegal possession of machine guns, will be held in Los Angeles, U. S. Commissioner Richard S. Goldsmith of Mill Valley said yesterday.

The transfer has been agreed on between U.S. attorney's offices in San Francisco and Los Angeles, since two of the men are from the Los Angeles area.

Michael Maloney of Gate 1, Sausalito, was arrested Jan. 17 by federal alcohol, tobacco and firearms agents and San Francisco and Oakland police.

Arrested with him were Albert C. Holbett, 31, of Newport Beach, and James Winterbourne, 29, of Capistrano Beach. The three were arrested after unloading a trailer of weapons and ammunition at a San Francisco warehouse, federal agents said.

Indictment in the case will be returned in Los Angeles and the men are, in effect, relinquishing their right to a preliminary hearing, Goldsmith said. He has continued the matter until Feb. 17 at which time the men are to appear in U. S. District Court in Los Angeles.

Flood Advisers To Talk Budget

The Novato Flood Control Advisory Board will meet at 8 p.m. Monday at the Novato Community House to discuss a preliminary budget for 1969-70 year.

The board, headed by William K. Mayo, will ultimately make fiscal recommendations to the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

Charles Murphy, flood control officer for the county, said yesterday he was still compiling preliminary budget figures for presentatpon to the advisory board Monday.

The 1968-69 budget is $269,700, supported by a 11.5 cent tax rate.
